McHOSPITAL McHAPPY:
 The Ajax and Pickering General Hospital has been given much needed help by Ronald McDonald Children's Charities of Canada. Doug McKay, owner of the Ajax McDonald's Restaurant, recently gave the hospital $15,000 to be used in the development of the paediatric playroom in the expansion of the local sick bay. The management and crew of the Ajax McDonald's have been raising funds for several years for the playroom which is scheduled to be complete by year's end.

Desperate need for food

AJAX-PICKERING - Food supplies are running short at the Salvation Army's Family Services Centre in Ajax.

The centre, which hands out free groceries to families in need, is hoping the community can donate items to make up the shortfall.

"We're running kind of low," says family services coordinator Joan Harry. "We'll probably have to go out and buy some (food) if the numbers (of recipients) keep up."

In February, 150 local families turned to the Salvation Army for help in putting food on the table. That breaks down to 149 children, 121 adults and 71 single people. The numbers might be even higher but for the Salvation Army's rule that the same family can only collect food once every three weeks. In a month, the centre hands out groceries worth approximately $7,200.

"It's not just people on welfare now, it's people who've lost their homes," says Ms. Harry. "The cost of living is going up. A lot of people have said, 'I used to give, but I can't give anymore'."

Between 150 and 154 families per month have been turning to the Family Services Centre at 43 Station St. since October, she adds. Every month, about 40 new people are forced to apply for help.

Items needed include peanut butter, rice, sugar, juices, cookies, baked beans, pasta, soups, spaghetti sauce, stews, tinned tomatoes, fruit, vegetables, jams, cereals, dried milk, tuna, salmon and tinned meats.

For more information, call the Family Services Centre at 686-1264.

Two arrested in abduction

By DONNA DONALDSON
 Durham Staff

DURHAM - Metro and Durham police arrested a pair at gunpoint on Hwy. 401 in Pickering Monday morning after a man was abducted and brutally beaten days earlier.

Metro Police Sgt. Pat Tallon says the arrest stemmed from the abduction of a 30-year-old Durham Region man from a bar in Scarborough March 18. Cops won't identify the Durham municipality in which the man lives.

"He was abducted and assaulted by five males" from a bar called Zack's Emporium & Eatery, says Sgt. Tallon. "He was abducted and beaten up and after four hours he made an escape and went to Durham Regional Police where he reported it."

Metro police were contacted about the incident.

As a result of their investigation, cops from both forces pulled over a vehicle on Hwy. 401 at Liverpool Rd. in Pickering around 9:30 a.m. Monday and arrested two occupants at gunpoint — the male driver and a female passenger.

Police suspected a third passenger in the car was abducted however he would not co-operate with their investigation, says Sgt. Tallon.

The driver of the car Michael McDougall, 31, of Port Perry was charged with aggravated assault and forcible confinement in connection with the March 18 abduction.

Michelle Hutchinson, 25, of Whitby was charged with possession of a stun gun.

Metro police are still investigating.

Stay away from waterways

AJAX-PICKERING - Area residents, especially youngsters, are advised to stay away from creeks and rivers.

Because of the upcoming warming trend and the large amount of snow, the potential for flooding is high, says Don Haley from the Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority.

The Brock Rd.-Finch Ave. area and the Church St.-Hwy. 401 district have been especially dangerous in the past.

The MTRCA advises that people stay away from rivers and creeks. And, pets should be kept away from waterways because children will try to save an animal that has fallen in.

The rivers are "especially hazardous" this time of year, Mr. Haley says. "Simply avoid them."

Budget cuts hurt learning disabled: mom

AJAX-PICKERING - Children with learning disabilities will be at a "further disadvantage" when the public school board imposes recent budget cuts, parents worry.

"We're aware of the economic times. But our children already have several strikes against them. Why do they have to be further disadvantaged?" asks Joice McKay, president of the Learning Disabilities Association of Durham West and mother of a learning-disabled son.

She's referring to the Durham Board of Education's decision to chop 52 teachers from its classrooms beginning in September, including some learning strategy teachers, academic resource instructors, and special education resource teachers.

Mrs. McKay is worried that will mean fewer teachers to assist learning-disabled students in integrated classrooms.

"A lot (of students with learning disabilities) have attention deficit problems and comprehension problems," she explains. "Many find it hard to concentrate in a large group and aren't always able to follow a teacher's speed."

That problem may be compounded further when learning-disabled children attend a special class each school day. Mrs. McKay wonders if students of all ages will be lumped together "which is not good emotionally or socially."

Further, she wonders if that class will include children with "other needs," such as behavioral problems.

Mrs. McKay has "deep concerns" despite being told principals will "find ways of coping. If they're not supportive of the learning disabled, will they go out of their way to help them?" she asks.

"Learning disabilities affect every year of your life," Mrs. McKay adds. "People with learning disabilities often have problems with self-esteem and many have problems making friends. That results in depression and high suicide rates."

According to the Learning Disabilities Association of Ontario, one in 10 Canadians has a learning disability. Half of all adolescent suicides and suicide attempts involve children with learning disabilities.

The learning disabled make up about 30 per cent of the country's illiterate and almost 80 per cent of its criminal offenders. Many are unemployed or underemployed, even in good economic times.

"We have every reason to help (the learning disabled) as much as we can," says Mrs. McKay.

Budget cuts will be discussed at the association's next meeting, Thursday, March 25 at 8 p.m. at Pickering High School, 180 Church St. N. All are welcome to attend.

The group meets there the fourth Thursday of every month and offers support and information to Ajax, Pickering and Uxbridge parents whose children are learning disabled, adults with learning disabilities, and teachers.

For more information, call Mrs. McKay at 683-8432.

IWA boss here for April Fool's anti-dump rally

PICKERING - Provincial Interim Waste Authority chairman Walter Pitman will be in Pickering April 1 for an anti-dump rally.

He will discuss the IWA's search for a Durham-only landfill and will hear residents' views, according to Dave Ryan, chairman of a Pickering mayor's-citizens' task force against dumps.

Pickering has been targeted with four of five Durham candidate dump sites; the IWA is also searching for a site in each of the regions of York and Peel. A preferred site in each region is expected to be announced this summer.

The rally is planned at the Metro East Trade Centre at Brock Rd. and Hwy. 401 at 7:30 p.m. Durham West New Democratic Party MPP Jim Wiseman has invited provincial Progressive Conservative leader Mike Harris and Liberal leader Lyn McLeod to talk trash with him during the event.

Mr. Ryan, who spoke to Pickering council Monday about the upcoming rally, urged all town residents to attend. Organizers will be telephoning Pickering households March 30 to invite people.

Pickering election audit request revived

PICKERING - For the second time, a Pickering man will ask Town council to scrutinize the campaign paperwork of certain candidates who ran in the 1991 municipal election.

Alex Robertson says he believes former politician Doug Dickerson and current councillor Maurice Brenner have "contravened" the Municipal Elections

Act and is requesting a compliance audit.

Council turned down an audit request from Mr. Robertson last September, and the provincial government also refused an audit earlier this year.

In making his latest request, Mr. Robertson says he's reviewing the election papers of four candidates in total, two of whom are unnamed to date.

While his previous application for an audit dealt with expenses declared for parties, brochures and telephones, he's now questioning the way receipts were filled out and the dollar value declared for signs.

Town clerk Bruce Taylor says Mr. Robertson is complaining about "minor technical errors" made by the two candidates; the audit request will likely come before council April 5, he adds.

"It's a waste of time and a waste of energy," comments Mr. Brenner. "I'm not denying there's technical errors (on receipts). I bet there are politicians all over Ontario who did the same. There are no errors on the accounting side."

Spring brings water danger

Spring always means wonderful excitement. For children especially, spring brings with it many pleasures: splashing in muddy puddles, watching the mountains of snow turn into rivers running down the street or in the park, or floating tiny boats in the miniature lakes that result.

But parents should remember, and children should be reminded, there are some dangers hidden in the joy of spring.

As the huge snow banks, built up this prolific winter, finally dissolve, they will run into the creek areas around Ajax and Pickering. And there are real risks in those rushing waters.

Don Haley of the Metro Toronto and Region Conservation Authority says the potential for flooding is high this year, so children should be warned to keep a healthy distance from creek areas.

Mr. Haley adds that pets should be kept away from waterways too, because children will try to save an animal that's fallen in.

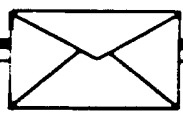

Wet and icy conditions can make stream banks extremely slippery and hazardous.

This winter's large amount of snow will mean a large amount of water runoff, and the Brock Rd.-Finch Ave. area in Pickering and the Church St.-Hwy. 401 district in Ajax have been especially dangerous in the past.

The most dangerous period could be starting soon. With a chance of rain this week, and milder temperatures forecast for a number of days in a row, the spring runoff could be starting with a vengeance by this weekend. Rivers are especially hazardous at this time of year. "Simply avoid them," advises Mr. Haley.

Because of the volume of snow that still remains, the runoff danger will probably last longer this year — perhaps two to three weeks.

Let's use common sense to avoid needless tragedy, and keep spring the happy, exciting season it's meant to be.

John Howard Society helps reader

To the editor,

The following is copy of a letter sent to MPP Jim Wiseman.

Dear Mr. Wiseman,

During the course of the last year I have been involved in a counselling program offered through the John Howard Society. This program has been a great benefit to me, as I'm sure it has been for many others, and I have made excellent progress.

It has recently come to my attention that this program is about to be phased out due to lack of funding.

We have, in our Region, assistance available to deal with a range of problems, but none that fulfil the requirements of people like myself.

I am a single parent, presently in school, with a young son. I am struggling to finish my education, provide a good home and also deal with issues that I know require counselling.

Prior to finding help through the John Howard Society, I felt defeated. I knew I had a multitude of disorders and needed professional help. My major obstacle was financial, but as my search for help continued, I found additional problems.

Through my inquiries I learned that different organizations deal only with specific issues. I was directed to: Al-Anon, which dealt with adult children of alcoholics; The Rape Crisis Centre, which dealt with victims of sexual abuse; the Freedom of Fear Foundation, which offers help to those suffering from anxiety and panic disorders; and Crossroads (in Toronto) which deals with co-dependency.

I made an honest effort to attend some of these support groups, but eventually I discovered that while they appeared to work for others, they simply were not working for me. Exhausted and confused, I gave them up.

After a period of rest, I knew I needed one-on-one counselling. I contacted social services for help, but their waiting list was extremely long and they could not offer any interim assistance. After a frustrating search, I finally received some help from the John Howard Society. I feel strongly that this is a very worthwhile program and should be continued at all costs. If we, as a socially conscious community, want to encourage people to improve and understand their psychological barriers and move beyond them in order to become productive members of our society and our work force, then programs like this one are an absolute necessity and should be kept operating and even expanded.

I appeal to the Minister of Health to review any areas that may affect this program and assist the John Howard Society in obtaining funding to continue in this most successful endeavor. In conclusion, I want to thank the John Howard Society for recognizing the needs of people like myself. I would also like to send my personal appreciation to April Saar, my counsellor.

Annette George,

Cutting students' bus passes has one mom 'stinking mad'

DURHAM - Forcing high school students to dig into their own pockets or their parents' if they want to take the bus to school next year has a mother "stinking mad."

"Parents are losing jobs left, right and centre," says Annie Sadler of Oshawa. "How can they afford bus passes, especially if they have more than one child who needs them?"

Though her son attends a Catholic high school, Mrs. Sadler says the Durham Board of Education's plan to eliminate free bus service in municipalities where public transit exists — Ajax, Oshawa and Whitby — hurts everyone.

"It's going to hurt the kids, it doesn't matter whose kids," she says. "If kids can't get to school, what are they going to do? Hang around shopping malls and get into trouble?"

Plans to revise a transportation policy in order to delete free bus passes were cancelled when trustees learned the policy said the board "may provide" bus transportation rather than "must provide," finance committee chair Ruth Ann Schedlich explained Monday.

Ruth Ann Schedlich

(Transportation will still be provided to students in Pickering because that town doesn't have a full transit system going to all schools). Earlier, trustees struggling to curb a tax increase for board supporters agreed to cut bus passes from a draft budget, effective in September. That would trim about $170,000 from 1993 expenses and would see an annual savings of more than $425,000.

Trustees have asked staff to make further reductions from a draft budget of $384.4 million, which would have passed on a tax increase of almost six per cent — or $74 — to each board supporter.

To reduce the mill rate by one per cent, $2.1 million must be cut from the budget. Doing so would save each taxpayer $12.

The next budget meeting will be held Wednesday, April 14 at 7 p.m. at board headquarters, 555 Rossland Rd. W. If necessary, another meeting will be held Friday, April 16. The public is welcome to attend.

Teens charged after attack at group home

PICKERING - Five teens have been charged after a fellow group home resident was attacked.

Durham Regional Police say an 18-year-old was lying in his bed at Durhamdale Group Home, a home for young offenders on Montgomery Park Rd. around 1:30 a.m. Monday when five boys entered his room.

One pulled a blanket over his head, which the victim managed to pull off. Another punched him and another struck his leg with a metal bar. When he tried to get out of the room, another suspect closed the door on him.

The victim managed to escape and reported the incident to the office.

The suspects, two aged 17 and the others aged 16, 18 and 19, have been charged with forcible confinement and assault.

The victim suffered minor bruises.

School day cares get needed funds

AJAX-PICKERING - Day care centres in elementary and secondary schools across Durham have received $69,101 from the Province to stay alive.

The Schoolhouse Playcare Centre of Durham received the grant to pay off last year's debts that threatened the survival of the non-profit organization based in Durham public schools, including three in Ajax and three in Pickering.

The day care facilities "felt the crunch" because of decreased enrolment caused by the recession, says Denise Gilbert, child care administrator of Schoolhouse Playcare.

The money was used to "stabilize" the facilities' programs and ensure their survival, Mrs. Gilbert adds.

Gilbert feels positive about the day care facilities' recovery because enrolment has increased substantially this year and there's still space available.

Parents with children enrolled in the schools that house the day cares are given priority to use the service.

Cost for children two to five years old is $27.93 a day. The cost is less for children over five.

The Schoolhouse Playcare Centre will distribute funds from the grant to the following licensed child care centres: Lincoln

Alexander Public School, Roland Michener Public School and Cadarackque Public School in Ajax; and Highbush Public School, Valley Farm Public School and Pine Ridge Secondary School in Pickering.

For information on enrolment in a Schoolhouse Playcare, phone 723-1501.

COPS HUNT SUSPECT

Dog scares off woman's attacker

AJAX - A dog is also a woman's best friend.

An Ajax woman is giving thanks to her six-month old German Shepherd which frightened off a thug who attacked her Monday night.

A 25-year-old Lawrie Rd. woman was walking her dog in Rotary Park along the Ajax waterfront around 11 p.m. when she was approached by a man jogging in the park.

Durham Regional Police say the man struck up a conversation with the woman about her dog.

The man then attacked her and pushed her to the ground.

The dog lunged at the man and bit him, frightening him away.

The woman suffered bruises and minor cuts to her forehead and a sprained ankle.

Police later searched the area, but the suspect was gone.

The man is described as very tall. He was wearing a jogging suit and a dark wind-breaker.

Hundreds flee trash bin blaze

AJAX - About 300 people were evacuated from their apartments early Saturday morning when a fire broke out in a garbage bin.

Smoke and heat from the fire travelled through garbage chutes and triggered fire alarms and water sprinklers located above the chutes at 33 Falby Crt. around 4:20 a.m.

The "rubbish-type fire" sent "very light smoke" throughout the building, according to deputy fire chief Mal Wadsworth.

No one was injured.

Post Manor endures years

The following is one in a series of articles by the Pickering Local Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee.

By HENRY M. GAWMAN

PICKERING - Post Manor stands at the northwest corner of Brock Rd. and Kingston Rd. in the Town of Pickering.

The dignified home was built in 1841 by Jordan Post and his wife Matilda. Such is the enduring nature of fieldstone that the passage of 152 years has left the building virtually unchanged.

Jordan was the youngest son of George Washington Post, who held important positions in the Township of Pickering from its very earliest days. George was the brother of an earlier Jordan Post, a clockmaker from Connecticut, who settled in what is now the City of Toronto in 1786. He married Melinda Woodruff of Pickering. Jordan and Melinda Streets in Toronto are named after them.

Young Jordan Post of Pickering married a woman named Matilda in 1841, when he was 27 and she 21. The newlyweds perhaps dreamed the manor into existence. Jordan was wealthy enough to fulfill that dream. He owned a sawmill where Brock Rd. crosses Duffins Creek just north of Finch Ave. and a thriving export business to the U.S. Being prosperous, he ordered the construction of Post Manor.

The materials for its construction came from the land. Stone was drawn from the earth, wood from the forest. Carpenters came in winter from the sailing ships frozen in Frenchman's Bay, to trim the interior with walnut and pine growing nearby. The fine marble of the fireplaces was installed. And one happy day, Jordan and Matilda saw the last of the builders, and turned to each other in a house that we today would call "environmentally-friendly."

Jordan and Matilda did not build for themselves alone. They made the house a lively place with a family of five sons and three daughters. As much as the father may have loved his Pickering home, his sons, as history records, all headed for the United States, where Jordan Post the clockmaker had come from so many years before.

Opposite the manor, on the south side of Kingston Rd., is Post cemetery. There, on March 1, 1860 Jordan Post was interred within sight of his home. Matilda may have spent long hours at an upper window, watching with sad eyes, as the white light of day or the pale light of the moon illuminated her husband's grave.

She was destined to live many more years in the manor. We know not how she spent her days, whether in solitude, or with friends and grandchildren. We know that she died on April 9, 1886. She rests in the same grave with her husband, under a red stone obelisk that points from a changing world to the changeless heavens.

Royal LePage Real Estate Services Ltd. now occupies Post Manor. That a real estate firm should be on the premises does not seem out of place, considering that raw real estate drew the first settlers to Pickering.

Whether Jordan and Matilda rest in peace is another question. The manor and the small cemetery in which they lie are surrounded by commercial and residential development. The rushing sound of traffic is endless. The forest is gone; the farms are gone; the quiet is gone. And yet there is a feeling of serenity beside the grave. And in the manor, if one stands at the foot of the 17 steps of the curving stair, one could imagine the children scampering up to bed after Jordan and Matilda kissed them one by one good-night.

Camera-shy bandits chicken out of heist

AJAX - Would-be robbers fled a convenience store here after learning the crime was being videotaped.

Durham Regional Police say a man carrying a handgun entered Mac's Milk on Westney Rd. N. around 2 a.m. Sunday. He ordered a clerk outdoors, where another three men were waiting.

When the clerk told the men, two of whom were dressed in black and wearing balaclavas, the incident was being videotaped, the suspects fled on foot.

Police set sights on new firing range

By DONNA DONALDSON
Durham Staff
DURHAM - Durham Regional Police will finally be back on the range — the firing range that is. "We've been successful in locating three firing ranges," said Chief Trevor McCagherty at a recent Durham Police Services board meeting.

Cops closed down the old firing range at police headquarters in Oshawa due to high levels of lead in the air.

"Two years ago we did routine tests and it was discovered as having unsatisfactory high levels of lead in the air," said the chief.

The police force updated the ventilation system and continued to use the range, however a short while later it was found to be unsafe again.

"We used an outdoor range in Uxbridge — weather allowing," said Chief McCagherty. "We were using a private range in Ajax (Indoors), but the lead levels in the air became a concern late last year. We've had a hiatus on firearms training since then."

About 570 police officers in Durham practise on the firing ranges.

"All our police personnel will be requalified annually in use of firearms," the chief said.

The new locations are expected to be open in about two weeks. The force has three locations picked out in east Durham, west Durham and the centre of the region. However, Chief McCagherty hasn't made those locations public.

He said lead in the air has always been a problem on firing ranges because of the number of officers practising.

"If you have 100 officers firing once a month it's no big deal," he said, but when you get about 400 to 500 cops shooting bullets it poses a problem with high levels of lead in the air. "We're also buying a different bullet where the lead is completely encased in steel. It's more expensive, but it's safer" for the practising officers.

The old firing range at police headquarters will be used as a locker room and restroom for female personnel.

Durham Regional Police are also waiting to hear if they'll be the recipients of a Firearms Training Simulator from the Province.

The simulator is an interactive computer used in police firearms training.

Girls' hockey iced here in fall

DWGHA set to run pre-season registrations, clinics

By AL RIVETT
Sports Reporter

AJAX-PICKERING - All indications point to a successful launch of girls' hockey in Ajax and Pickering this fall, says an organizer of a new league serving the two towns.

The Durham West Girls' Hockey Association is shooting to begin play in the 1993-94 season for females four and over.

It's about time girls' hockey was started here, says DWGHA president and publicity director Art Carefoote.

"It's long overdue. There have been some (local) girls playing in Scarborough for five years, travelling to McGregor Park and Lawrence Avenue every Tuesday. I think it's great that Ajax and Pickering will support a new league."

And, so far, there's been a lot of interest in the DWGHA, says Carefoote. In the month since the seven-member steering committee for girls' hockey was formed, more than 240 females have signed up to play this fall.

Carefoote, publicity director for the Scarborough Girls' Hockey League this past season, points out that many area girls are currently playing out of town. An estimated 47 area females competed in Scarborough, with that number or more travelling as far as North York, Toronto, Leaside and Mississauga. There's also an estimated 19 local women playing in a ladies' league in Scarborough.

With a large core of support for girls' hockey in place, Carefoote met a week ago with Town of Pickering director of community services and facilities Tom Quinn who has been supportive of the new league and has pledged ice time for the 1993-94 season.

"Pickering is behind us 100 per cent. They're willing to help us," says Carefoote. He'll meet with Ajax recreation director Tom Flood soon about securing ice time for the new league in that Town.

The DWGHA hopes to attract about 400 girls and women for the '93-94 season with seven age divisions of four teams each. The DWGHA also expects to run both a house league and a rep program in its inaugural year.

The league has also moved ahead with plans for pre-season registration and a series of pre-season clinics in Ajax and Pickering, featuring members of Canada's world champion national women's hockey team.

The first pre-season registration is set for this Saturday, March 27 at the Pickering Town Centre (near Peoples Jewellers) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Other dates are Tuesday, March 30 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Ajax Community Centre foyer and Thursday, April 1 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Pickering Recreation Complex foyer.

The pre-season clinics are slated for the Ajax Community Centre Arena on Saturday, April 24 and Sunday, April 25 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The third and final clinic is on Monday, April 26 at Pickering's Don Beer Arena from 6 to 9 p.m.

Area wrestlers against nation's best grapplers

AJAX-PICKERING - Two area wrestlers held their own with the best grapplers in Canada on the weekend.

Peter Thompson of Ajax and Chad Pearson of Pickering travelled to Canadian Espoir Age Group Championships in Kamloops, British Columbia.

Thompson, wrestling in the 100-kilogram class, finished fourth out of a group of 19 in his weight class.

Chad Pearson

A total of 28 wrestlers competed in this division.

Thompson and Pearson were members of a trio which represented the Oshawa Olympic Wrestling Club at the Canadian championships. The Oshawa trio finished a respectable fifth in the team competition.

Oshawa Olympic Wrestling Club coach Stan Tzogas says the fifth-place finish at the nationals was nothing short of remarkable.

"It was excellent that as a club we only sent three wrestlers down, but we were still able to finish fifth in the country," says Tzogas.

The club's sending two area wrestlers to the Canadian Junior Wrestling Championships in Saskatoon starting on April 1. Kerry Ashley and Sean Pierson, both of Pickering, will compete at the national meet.

Meanwhile, Pearson, who recently captured the provincial high school title, finished sixth in the 62-kilo weight class.

Final curling playdowns at Annandale

By JIM EASSON

Special to the News Advertiser
AJAX - The advent of spring means the end of the curling season at the Annandale Curling Club is fast approaching.

All regular leagues at the club are finished, and final playdowns are in progress. The double-knockout playdown for the men's club champion has been under way since the week of March 15.

Gord Norton and his rink are in strong contention to win the men's title they captured last year.

The Mixed Challenge was also won by Norton last year. The current version is slated for the week of April 5. All teams from the Thursday and Friday night leagues are eligible to participate.

The annual Last Chance Men's Bonspiel at Annandale is a popular one with many outside rinks participating. This year it takes place on the weekend of April 3 and 4. The Saturday draw determines which teams get invited back on Sunday. All teams still playing on Sunday receive prizes.

The Men's and Ladies' World Curling Championships are to take place this year in Geneva, Switzerland March 28 to April 4. A delegation of four people from Hamilton will travel there to make a bid to bring the world championships to Hamilton in 1997.

Copps Coliseum can handle six sheets of ice and can run the draws with three men's and three ladies' games going at the same time.

The six sheets of ice were popular when Hamilton hosted the Labatt Brier in 1991.

The world championships are confirmed for Germany in 1994 and Brandon, Manitoba in 1995.

Skating pair dances to gold at Ontario Winter Games

First-year twosome continues torrid pace, grabs top spot at big mee

By AL RIVETT
Sports Reporter

PICKERING - A local figure skating pair won gold at the Ontario Winter Games.

Rick Arruda, 18, of the Pickering Figure Skating Club, and partner Laura Lee Delchev, 14, of the Scarborough Figure Skating Club, claimed the gold medal at the winter games which ended in Cornwall March 14.

Arruda and Delchev finished first in the compulsory dances of the pre-novice division on the first day of competition. On the second day, the couple never stumbled, locking up the gold medal with another first-place performance in the bronze rhythm dance.

"It's probably our greatest achievement so far," says Arruda.

The key to winning the gold medal at the Ontario Winter Games was the support from Central Ontario teammates who cheered them from the stands during their routines, he says.

"To have someone there to root for you helps you perform better. We had the best team spirit and the best team leaders at the games."

Arruda and Delchev

have been on a roll since they were paired up a little over a year ago at summer skating school in Scarborough at the urging of their coaches, Jon and Carol Lane of Ajax. Immediately, it was a match made in heaven as the duo moved up a level into the novice division and posted good results at summer meets in Lake Placid, New York (seventh overall) and at the Thornhill Invitational (fourth).

The move up to the novice category during the summer had a profound effect on the duo when they began competing in the lower pre-novice division in the winter season.

"It really helped us to move up in the summer to see what was needed of us in order to be successful," says Arruda. "I'm glad our coaches did that to give us the extra edge."

The pair recorded first-place finishes at the Octoberfest competition in Richmond Hill in October and topped the Sun Life Sectional Championships in Mississauga in November. The top three pairs at the sectionals qualified for the Ontario Winter Games.

Arruda and Delchev will move up into the novice division category this summer and will train with an eye to qualify for the Canadian championships next year.

Ajax skater wins silver at COSIC competition

AJAX - An Ajax skater won a silver medal with a solid performance at a recent high-level competition.

Kevin Johnson, 14, a member of the Ajax Figure Skating Club, skated to a second-place finish at the recent Central Ontario Sectional Interclub Championships (COSIC) at Scarborough Ice Galaxy Club.

Johnson won his silver in the men's senior bronze solo dance category.

The skater earned a berth at COSIC by winning the gold medal in the men's senior bronze solo dance at the recent Eastern Blades competition in Unionville where he turned in an excellent performance.

Johnson is coached by Linda Donnelly of the Ajax Figure Skating Club.

Meanwhile, Ajax figure skater Caitlin Byard placed second in the preliminary ladies division at the recent Manvers Invitational competition.

At the Winter Blah-Buster meet at the East York Arena, a number of Ajax skaters participated in the special needs category. Those taking part were Jason Arnal, Fay Yaz Panju, Christine Delgarno and Nancy Lopez.

The 31-member adult precision team, ranging in age from 23 to 56 years, skated a clean program and proceeded to the finals. However, the Ajacians didn't place in the medals after their final routine.

The Ice Diamonds also competed at the recent Winterfest in Newmarket and at the Whitby Invitational competition where they brought home a silver medal.

Their final competition at the Eastern Section Invitational in Peterborough resulted in a first-place finish in their flight and third place in the final — the team's second medal of the year.

Warriors runners-up at Scarborough tourney

AJAX - The Ajax Warriors under-eight select indoor soccer team finished as runners-up for the second year in a row at the annual Scarborough Indoor Soccer Tournament March 6 and 7.

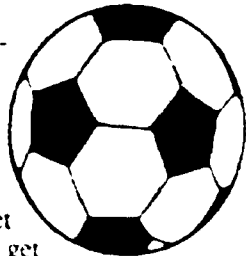

The Warriors squad, undefeated with a mark of three wins and a tie going into the final, squared off in the championship game with Wexford who were also undefeated.

In a game featuring solid play from two well-matched teams, Wexford held on for a 2-1 victory. All the scoring in the contest came in the first half, with Nathaniel Allard getting the lone Ajax goal.

The Warriors dominated the second half with excellent two-way play and passing wizardry to set up numerous scoring opportunities, but could not get it by the Wexford keeper.

Preliminary play saw the Warriors defeat Woodstock 5-2, West Rouge 8-0, the Agincourt 2-2 and defeat Peterborough 5-1 in the semi-finals.

Philharmonic orchestra launched in Pickering

Inaugural concert set for Saturday night

PICKERING - Pickering now has its own Philharmonic Orchestra.

Its inaugural performance will be given Saturday, March 27 at 6 p.m. at Pine Ridge Secondary School, Liverpool Rd., which will be the orchestra's home base. The non-profit group, made up of approximately 70 musicians, plans to play at various community events.

Admission to Saturday's gala performance is free, by RSVP.

The Philharmonic Orchestra, started by local residents Steve McKean and John Kent, includes a core of professional musicians and is directed by Stephen Riches, with Lech Straczynski as general manager. Riches, a former Pickering resident, was winner of the 1977 Dr. Heinz Unger Conducting Competition. He has served as music director and conductor of the North York Concert Orchestra since 1989, and, this year, as interim director of the Brampton Symphony.

Straczynski, a professional bass player, has served as manager of the Toronto Sinfonietta and president of the Canadian Polish Music Society.

Details of the four-concert series will be announced during Saturday's performance, and a discount will be available to those who purchase subscriptions to the series. The subscriptions are being sold to cover the orchestra's operating costs.

Police hunt beer store gunman

By SGT. GRANT ARNOLD
Durham Regional Police
DURHAM - Crime Stoppers and the Durham Regional Police are asking for the public's help in solving an armed robbery which occurred in Oshawa on Monday, Feb. 8.

A lone male entered the Beer Store at 285 Taunton Rd. E. around 9:30 p.m. with a double-barrelled sawed-off shotgun. The bandit pointed the gun at the two store employees and then at the cash register and ordered them to "Take all the money out of the till and put it in a bag." The store worker followed the instructions and placed the money into a grey plastic hand out bag with orange printing on it. The employee was also forced to open the safe and turn over the bills but not the change. The thief then left the store walking backwards out the door keeping the shotgun aimed at the victims. The suspect was last seen walking south along the west side of the store.

The suspect is described as white, 35 to 40 years old, 6'1", 220 pounds, with stocky build and fair complexion. He was wearing a green khaki work coat, green sailor style toque, black scarf wrapped around his mouth and nose, dark pants, black leather gloves and silver-rimmed glasses.

A re-enactment of this crime will be shown on CITY TV, Channel 57, Cable 7, on Thursday, March 25 during the 6 and 10 p.m. news. It will also be shown on CHEX TV in Peterborough and CKVR TV in Barrie on Friday, March 26 again during the news.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1000 for information leading to the arrest of this suspect. Police need the public's help in solving this crime and are asking you to call. As a caller you will not be asked to identify yourself or have to go to Court.

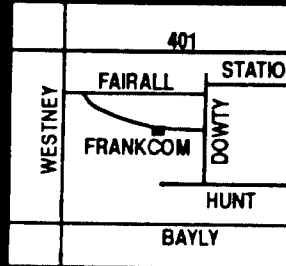

The Crime Stoppers phone number is 436-8477; that's 436-TIPS.

Sgt. Grant Arnold is coordinator of Durham Regional Crime Stoppers and writes this article to combat crime.

WILL THIS TAX CHANGE BENEFIT YOU?

A NEW TAX CREDIT PROGRAM WILL OFFSET THE PROPERTY AND SALES TAX YOU PAY.

The Ontario Tax Grants for Seniors program has been replaced by a new tax credit program. If you are a low income senior, the new Ontario Tax Credits for Seniors program will provide you with more property and sales tax support.

TAX CREDIT TIED TO INCOME LEVEL

For example, if you're a senior with less than $23,000 in annual income, you'll receive an average of $135 more, delivered through the personal income tax system.

NO MORE ONTARIO TAX GRANTS FOR SENIORS

The final Property Tax Grant was mailed in October 1992. The Property and Sales Tax Grant will not be paid to seniors in 1993.

YOU MUST FILE A RETURN TO RECEIVE THIS TAX CREDIT

Beginning with the 1992 tax return, you must file an income tax return to obtain the new property and sales tax credits. The credit will be based on your 1992 property tax or rent.

Your H&R Block Income Tax Specialist would be happy to help you find out what the new tax credit program means to you. Call the nearest H&R Block Office at:
