Poland provoked, says jury

Father guilty of manslaughter in bludgeoning death of wife

BY STEPHEN SHAW
Staff Writer

DURHAM — James Poland was provoked into bludgeoning his wife with an axe, a jury has decided in finding the Ajax father guilty of manslaughter.

Mr. Poland, 38, stood with his hands clasped as eight men and four women on the jury returned the verdict at 7:20 p.m. Wednesday, after deliberating for five hours.

As he was told by the foreman he was found not guilty of second-degree murder as charged, but guilty of the lesser crime of manslaughter, an emotional Mr. Poland lowered his head into his hands.

The verdict spared the father of three an automatic life sentence.

Court heard Mr. Poland struck his common-law wife Andrea Schneider, 38, in the head with an axe twice inside the garage of their Perfitt Crescent home during a heated confrontation the morning of June 7, 2001.

Mr. Poland hid his wife's bloody body, the weapon and other evidence in the trunk of the family Oldsmobile, which he parked a block away at the Durham Centre shopping plaza at Harwood Avenue and Hwy. 2.

He later enlisted friend Carlos Almeida to dispose of the body and car. Instead, his pal phoned police, court heard.

Mr. Poland, 38, admitted killing Ms. Schneider but claimed the defence of provocation.

He testified he "snapped, lost it" after his wife hit him with a plastic hockey stick, kicked him in the groin, hurled insults and revealed she was having an affair with a New York businessman and planned to leave him.

She would take their sons, John-Michael, 12, and Thomas, six, and Mr. Poland could keep their severely disabled daughter, Stephanie, who suffers

GM has Grand plans for Oshawa

Starting this fall, No. 2 car plant adds Pontiac model to its lineup

BY MARTIN DERBYSHIRE
Staff Writer

DURHAM — GM has added some excitement to Oshawa.

General Motors of Canada confirmed Wednesday the new 2004 Pontiac Grand Prix will be assembled at its No. 2 car plant in Oshawa. Production begins this fall.

"In June 2000, we announced that the next generation Pontiac mid-size car would be built in Oshawa," said GM of Canada president Michael Grimaldi. "Since that time, the Oshawa car assembly plants have set the standard for vehicle quality and productivity in this industry."

"Oshawa Number 2 won the Gold Plant Award in the 2002 J.D. Power Initial Quality Study and Oshawa Number 1 placed first in the 2002 Harbour Report as the most productive plant in North America. With achievements like this and Pontiac's performance heritage, the new Pontiac Grand Prix is destined for success."

GM Canada spokesman Richard James said the Grand Prix would be the first Pontiac product built in Oshawa since the 1960s. He also said it would allow the No. 2 car plant to maintain its current level of employment, but could mean more jobs in the future. "We're optimistic the vehicle will be successful," he said. "If things go very well and the demand for the vehicle is there, we do have the flexibility at that plant to increase capacity."

The No. 2 plant will continue to assemble the Buick Century and Buick Regal. In June 2000, GM of Canada announced it would invest almost $300 million to bring a new Pontiac passenger car to Oshawa.

CAW Local 222 car plant chairman Jim Hoy said the move "will secure that much more work for us," he said.

New Durham university a go and 'all grown up now'

BY MIKE RUTA
Staff Writer

DURHAM — The University of Ontario Institute of Technology (UOIT) really exists.

Married to the provincial budget act, which passed late Thursday, the act formally establishing Durham's first university as a legal entity cleared the legislature — on the last day of the spring session.

An "ecstatic" Gary Polonsky, UOIT and Durham College president, said it was "a beautiful, important day" for Durham and Northumberland residents.

"In Ontario and Canada, every university has an act pertaining to it that is passed in the legislature and contains language about its mission and governance, all kinds of stuff," he explained in an interview. "Until that happens, one is really not a grown-up university, one is kind of like an embryo. And if we put ourselves in the shoes of top students graduating a year from now, and they had to choose between established, top-notch universities, why would they take a chance on one that doesn't even have its fundamentals yet?"

Mr. Polonsky said the same applies to professors, university donors and research opportunities: without the act, the UOIT would have a credibility problem. But with its passing, he said the university is immediately on par with the University of Toronto and other respected institutions across Canada.

He gave credit to Finance Minister Janet Ecker for incorporating the UOIT act into the budget act.

"This is a brilliant strategy for which I credit Janet Ecker; it was her idea," said Mr. Polonsky.

The UOIT act could have passed in December, but did not receive all-party assent to skip ahead to third reading. Even its passing in the shortened spring session seemed in question.

Mr. Polonsky at the time was "cautiously confident" it would pass this time around, but said if it didn't, UOIT would not be ready to play its part in easing student congestion as a result of the 'double cohort' in 2003. That's when Ontario's OAC and Grade 12 students graduate at the same time, creating an expected glut of students seeking entrance to colleges and universities.

"Now the whole world knows we will be up and running in a year's time, as we said we would be," he said Thursday.

Report cards reveal steady leadership, direction

But still time for all elected officials to step up their performance as term winds down in coming year

How well are you being served by your local government representatives?

Are municipal councillors responsive to your needs? Does your local school trustee return calls and discuss your concerns knowledgeably? Have you been adequately informed about development in your neighbourhood, or changes at your son or daughter's school?

Your vote is the only one that counts on election day, but the News Advertiser shares its views in today's edition with our annual report card on municipal politicians and public and Catholic school board trustees.

These men and women put their names forward as candidates in 2000 to solicit your support. In the intervening 19 months, much has happened on their watch and much can be determined about their approach, their successes and their effectiveness.

That scrutiny, by the voters and a free press, is an important element of a democratic society.

Once again, our elected representatives are being asked the question on behalf of voters: Are city residents being served?

The answer, in most cases, is a clear affirmative.

At Pickering council, Mayor Wayne Arthurs continues to provide quiet and effective leadership. He is articulate, knowledgeable and brings dignity to the chair, while continuing to exert influence locally and regionally through his experience and keen awareness of important issues that affect Pickering and Durham.

Pickering's regional representatives remain at or near the top of their games.

Councillor Maurice Brenner is an effective, active and outspoken representative who led the initiative for a successful waste roll-cart pilot project in the Amberlea community.

Councillor Mark Holland continues to be effective in representing local interests at City Hall and regional interests at Durham council. He is informed, connected and vocal and doesn't back down. He should continue to ably serve residents.

Councillor Rick Johnson, who represents rural constituents in north Pickering, is still the single-minded and active representative he's always been. He's big on waste management and a proponent of the benefits of Hwy. 407, but raised eyebrows last year with a personal road development project on his Pickering property. He clearly miscalculated the reaction the project would stir in the community and subsequently had to divert attention from local issues when he and the City were sued by the Township of Uxbridge over the work. Coun. Johnson counter-sued and the controversy currently sits before the courts. We encourage Coun. Johnson to get past this episode and turn his full concentration and energy to important issues facing his community.

Ward 1 City Councillor Dave

Ryan still brings a quiet and effective presence to council. He remains informed and decisive while giving constituents good value for their money. He stood up on behalf of all charities during his support of an ill-advised decision to ban poppy sales at Pickering Library branches last year.

Ward 2 City Councillor Bill McLean has maintained good grades and provided decent representation in the second year of his first term. His professional background helps him bring a unique perspective to the table. We look forward to a more effective third year.

Ward 3's David Pickles continues to be on guard for environmental issues in his rural area and beyond and has been an important voice regarding the airport lands and development in the area. He's knowledgeable and accessible and serves his constituents well.

At the regional helm, Durham chairman Roger Anderson continues to be the area's top salesman at provincial, federal and international levels. He helped marshal support for the experimental ITER project in Bowmanville and went abroad earlier this year to sell Canada's bid in Moscow. He was also a strong advocate for getting the new university in Durham. Mr. Anderson's steady leadership and familiar face are exactly what the Region needs right now.

Pickering residents continue to be well served at the Durham Catholic District School Board.

Trustee Jim McCafferty's practical and no-nonsense approach is always rooted in his belief in representing students and parents and he isn't afraid to take an opposing view, even if it's unpopular.

Trustee Fran Pereira remains engaged and committed to Catholic principles at the board level and in the community. She's an excellent representative with an excellent record. Voters are fortunate to have her working on their behalf.

At the Durham District School Board, too many important issues are not being given the attention they deserve as trustees argue constantly over issues not related to educating our children.

Pickering Trustee Paul Crawford is still wasting energy and time on procedural rules at the board table while the Durham board continues to struggle, for example, with a substantial shortfall in special-education funding. Mr. Crawford rarely contributes meaningful ideas at the table, or shares his knowledge with a view to improving the system.

Jennifer Bridge arrived at the board table as a bit of a novelty in 2000. Elected while still a high school student, she showed some promise in her first year by becoming engaged in the process and trying to learn the issues. However, she appears disinterested at board meetings and seems to have lost the energy she brought to the table last year. Though she continues to vote sensibly, it's unfortunate she hasn't lived up to that earlier promise.

Taken as a whole, Pickering has been well represented in the last half of 2001 and first half of 2002. The few who have disappointed still have time to educate themselves, take leadership roles and adequately represent their constituents and communities. Everyone, though, must continue to provide dedicated and innovative leadership as this term of government winds down in the next year.

Voters, you'll remember, have the final say in November 2003.

Heartless thieves steal flower memorial to murdered little girl

To the editor:

The weekend of March 9 and 10 my husband and I celebrated our 40th wedding anniversary. That same weekend a terrible tragedy occurred three kilometres from our Claremont home. Two-year-old Alexis Currie was murdered and left in a bushy area on Westney Road.

This hit many people hard and although we do not know the Currie family, we have grandchildren close to the same age as Alexis and her sister Robin. Several times we drove with heavy hearts to the area where Alexis was found. After the danger of frost was over, I went and placed a large beautiful plant with pink blooms and ribbons well off to the side of the road. About 10 days later, I went to water the plant and it was gone.

I hope whoever stole it realizes it was placed there in memory of Alexis.

Poland guilty of lesser crime of manslaughter

from a rare terminal disease, Mr. Poland quoted Ms. Schneider as saying.

"I think you've arrived at the proper verdict in this case, thank you," Mr. Justice Robert Scott told the jury before discharging them.

Three hours into their deliberations, the jury asked for clarification on the legal definition of provocation.

Judge Scott instructed them to return a manslaughter verdict if they found Mr. Poland was provoked into a blind rage by a series of "wrongful acts or insults," and that he swung the axe without any time for his "passion to cool."

"Where there is a number of insults or wrongful acts, it may be the straw that broke the camel's back," the judge said.

Defence lawyer Lorne Sabsay said the verdict was "just."

Mr. Poland had offered to plead guilty to manslaughter prior to the trial.

"Mr. Poland has always been willing to take responsibility for the death of his wife. It's something that he regrets to this day and probably will forever," he said.

The lawyer said Mr. Poland deeply loves Ms. Schneider and wishes he could turn back time and change what happened June 7.

"He has a picture of her in his cell that he looks at every day," he said.

Renate Schneider-Sandford, Ms. Schneider's mother, was too distraught to comment on the verdict.

The Burlington woman and her husband are now raising the couple's two sons, who were inside the home when their mother was killed, court heard.

Eight-year-old Stephanie, who has Batten Disease, lives at a Pickering group home.

Whitby Jail officials have allowed the child, who is blind and can't walk or talk, to have occasional visits with Mr. Poland, Mr. Sabsay said.

Mr. Poland worked as a butcher and a window washer before becoming a stay-at-home father five years ago, after his daughter's illness struck.

Ms. Schneider worked as secretary to the Royal Ontario Museum board of trustees.

The jury was not told Mr. Poland has a prior criminal record, which included a conviction for assaulting a previous girlfriend in 1992 as well as drug and property offences that go back 20 years.

Judge Scott also ruled statements Mr. Poland made to detectives after his arrest inadmissible, saying the accused's right to remain silent was violated.

During interrogation, Mr. Poland initially blamed his wife's death on a man, who he couldn't identify by name, who showed up at their home June 7.

He eventually confessed during the six-hour police interview.

"I was having a really bad day," Mr. Poland testified during a pretrial motion, while describing his state of mind on June 7.

While in custody at police headquarters after his arrest, Mr. Poland three times asked officers the score of a hockey playoff game.

Court heard Ms. Schneider suffered two blows of tremendous force to the head, which crushed her face and skull, and split open her forehead.

Prosecutors Michael Hill and Tom Hewitt portrayed Mr. Poland as a cold, calculating killer who intended to murder his wife then "methodically" tried to cover up the crime.

However, Mr. Sabsay said his client simply panicked when he realized Ms. Schneider was dead and spent the day "flying by the seat of his pants."

A date for Mr. Poland's sentencing hearing will be set Thursday.

- Pickering expenses cover the period from January 2001 to December 2001 and include items such as mileage, supplies, and communications.
- Attendance is from June 1, 2001 to June 1, 2002.
- Summaries of the 'most important issues facing the city' were based on submissions from the mayor, councillors and regional chairman.

Mayor
Wayne Arthurs
This year: A
Last year: A

Serving his fifth term as mayor after two terms as a local representative from Ward 3.
Attendance: In Pickering, attended 25/25 special council, 19/19 council, 12/12 committee of the whole, 8/8 planning, 2/3 finance, 4/4 operations, and 5/5 finance and operations committee meetings; regionally, attended 14/14 council, and 12/12 planning committee.

Expenses: Pickering — $20,028; Region — $5,191.13

Committees: Chairman regional planning committee, development charges complaint committee, regional transit task force, Ajax/Pickering Transit Authority, Durham Non-Profit Housing Corporation, Canadian Association of Nuclear Host Communities, and Veridian Corporation.

Most important issues facing the city: I will be providing leadership in three key areas during the coming year. The first being to ensure our financial house remains in good order. Slowed growth has created new challenges in managing our revenue and expenditure streams to provide quality services and protect municipal assets. Secondly, future growth management is a big part of our go-forward agenda. Thirdly, our recently completed 'recreation, parks and cultural services master plan' requires careful review, public consultation and planning for effective implementation in the years ahead.

News Advertiser's comments: Pickering council works and Mayor Arthurs is a big part of the reason why. He has continued to be an effective leader because of his good rapport with City staff and councillors and does not get mired in personal battles at the table. He has become an important voice at the municipal, regional, provincial and federal levels on nuclear issues and the plans for an airport and provincial land holdings in north Pickering.

Ward 1
City Councillor
Dave Ryan
This year: B
Last year: B

Serving his third term.
Attendance: Attended 24/25 special council, 18/19 council, 11/12 committee of the whole, 7/8 planning, 4/4 operations, and 5/5 finance and operations.

Expenses: $5,917

Committees: Chairman of Advisory Committee on Race Relations and Equity, Pickering Ajax Citizens Together (PACT) liaison, audit committee, public library board member, Toronto Region Conservation Authority (TRCA) representative, Rouge Park Alliance representative, Durham police services liaison committee, site plan committee member, budget committee member.

Most important issues facing the city: The most important issues facing council in the balance of this term are growth and financial management. We need to develop and execute an overall growth management strategy that protects environmentally sensitive lands and optimizes the use of devel-

Municipal Report Card June 2002

PICKERING

Grades	Achievement of Expectations
A- to A+	Excellent, best among peers
B- to B+	Solid performance, moves fair share of motions
C- to C+	Fair, only average in most categories
D- to D+	Weak, not up to the task, not effective, not accessible
F	Awful, shouldn't be there.

In what has become a yearly tradition, the News Advertiser offers its opinion on the performance of our municipally-elected officials and of the Durham Regional chairman. Our assessment is based not only on their performance at public meetings and functions, but on the feedback we receive from the public during the course of reporting on local issues.

opable lands, including a defined industrial corridor along Hwy. 407. There is a pent up demand for recreational and cultural facilities that cannot be accomplished on the current tax structure. In addition, we have an urgent requirement for new infrastructure. These objectives can only be accomplished with an expanded tax base with a much larger industrial and commercial component.

News Advertiser's comments: Coun. Ryan gives his constituents the most bang for their buck. His expenses are low and his involvement and understanding of important issues facing the City are high. Despite becoming the lightning rod for the Pickering library board poppy issue late last year, Coun. Ryan stood his ground and fought for equal treatment of all charities and fundraising groups. He doesn't vote unless he understands an issue and trusts his colleagues for input on their wards.

Ward 2
City Councillor
Bill McLean
This year: B
Last year: B

Serving his first term.
Attendance: Attended 23/25 special council, 18/19 council, 12/12 committee of the whole, 8/8 planning, 4/4 operations, and 5/5 finance and operations.

Expenses: $11,273

Committees: Pickering-Ajax-Whitby Joint Animal Control, civic awards selection committee, site plan committee, Liverpool West Community Association.

Most important issues facing the city: Finding places for appropriate residential and industrial growth in the city. Ensuring environmentally sensitive areas in the growth management study will be protected and land that is developable, developed. While Pickering residents have enjoyed a decade of zero-per cent tax increases, that has also resulted in road and infrastructure disrepair, which must be addressed immediately. We must find money for these projects. I believe there is room for future commercial growth in the Hwy. 407 corridor. I will continue to support appropriate and compatible uses for our waterfront.

News Advertiser's comments: Coun. McLean has gotten to know his way around council this year, as evidenced by his work on the animal shelter issue that culminated in council approving a move away from the current system to a joint two-municipality operation with Ajax, pending its interest. He is not as talkative at the table as some of his colleagues, but his background as a former police officer and current vocation as a real estate agent helps him continue to bring a unique and informed perspective to many issues. The News Advertiser looks forward to watching Coun. McLean grab the reins and run with them a bit more now that his comfort level is higher.

Ward 3
City Councillor
David Pickles
This year: B+
Last year: B+

Serving second term.

Attendance: Attended 23/25 special council, 18/19 council, 9/12 committee of the whole, 5/8 planning, 3/4 operations, and 3/5 finance and operations.

Expenses: $9,899

Committees: Budget committee, Pickering Public Library Board, advance funding allocations committee, personnel committee, site plan committee, Glen Major management plan advisory committee, Rouge Park Neighbourhood Advisory Committee, Ajax-Pickering Interim Amalgamated Transit Board, Ajax-Pickering Police Liaison Committee, and City of Pickering Museum advisory committee.

Most important issues facing the city: Moving ahead with improvements such as family change rooms at the recreation complex; continuing to enhance our waterfront; the new ice pad at Don Beer Area; and parks and playground upgrades. More recreational opportunities for families, youths and seniors. Addressing public safety for residents through a new fire station on Brock Road, road improvements, new sidewalks, and pedestrian and park safety measures. Ensuring growth, particularly to the north, is guided by the City and residents' desire for vibrant and safe neighbourhoods in which to live, work, and play and our desire to preserve green spaces.

News Advertiser's comments: Coun. Pickles is committed to representing the interests of his Ward 3 constituents, which include protecting the environment and the rural way of life. His continued battle for a say in the development of an airport in north Pickering should prove important for residents who want a voice on the future of the skies above the municipality.

Ward 1
Regional Councillor
Maurice Brenner
This year: A-
Last year: B+

Fourth term as a regional councillor after two terms as local representative for Ward 1.

Attendance: In Pickering, attended 25/25 special council, 18/19 council, 12/12 committee of the whole, 8/8 planning, 2/3 finance, and 5/5 finance and operations; regionally, attended 13/14 council and 11/14 health and social services committee meetings.

Expenses: Pickering — $11,858; Region — $5,714.59

Committees: Chairman audit committee, co-chairman Ajax Pickering Transit Authority, Ajax Pickering Partnership/Efficiencies Committee, Canadian Urban Transit Association, Region of Durham children's advocate, Durham Child Poverty Task Force, Durham health and social services committee, president Durham Region Municipal Non-Profit Housing Corporation, board of directors Durham Region Local Housing Corporation, Durham Region transit co-ordinating committee, Durham Regional transit task force, Durham Region Homelessness Committee, Regional chairman's committee on affordable/sustainable housing.

Most important issues facing the city: Creating less dependency on a residential tax base by promoting office and other commercial development by developing more employment uses and private and public partnerships on infrastructure projects such as building an enclosed walkway over Hwy. 401 linking downtown Pickering to the GO station. Dealing with the increased impact on property taxation by finding greater efficiencies and cost savings through shared services and joint ventures among Durham municipalities. Changing the mindset from waste management to resource management by building on the Amberlea pilot cart program to achieve a waste-diversion target in excess of 60 to 70 per cent.

News Advertiser's comments: Coun. Brenner likes to say he's on a roll and the News Advertiser agrees. He helped bring waste diversion to the residents of Amberlea, a growth management study to north Pickering, and aided residents in getting information about two pedophiles living in the city. He is clearly one of the most active and informed members of council, committed to his constituents and all of the City's residents.

Ward 2
Regional Councillor
Mark Holland
This year: A-
Last year: B+

Serving his first term as a regional councillor after one term as Ward 2 local councillor.

Attendance: In Pickering, attended 25/25 special council, 19/19 council, 12/12 committee of the whole, 8/8 planning, 3/3 finance, and 5/5 finance and operations; regionally, attended 13/14 council, and 15/15 finance and administration committee.

Expenses: Pickering — $11,813; Region — $4,526.17

Committees: Chairman Waterfront Coordinating Committee, chairman Pickering Winterfest, chairman Youth Partnership Initiative, Durham finance and administration committee, Canadian Association of Nuclear Host Communities, Business Advisory Centre of Durham personnel committee, Pickering Public Library Board, Rouge Park

Alliance audit committee, Durham ad-hoc committee on the selection of the regional chairman, Congress of New Urbanism, Pickering liaison Social Development Council of Ajax-Pickering.

Most important issues facing the city: Future development of Pickering — the actions we take today will determine if we sprawl into meandering and unconnected subdivisions or evolve into a self-sufficient, connected community with a clear sense of identity. We must focus upon urban renewal and employment opportunities and reject residential green space development that will compound servicing, traffic and environmental issues. Make our existing urban context work first, while focusing upon our niche strengths such as our waterfront, protection of our vast and naturally spectacular rural areas and utilization of the Hwy. 407 corridor for employment and industrial opportunities.

News Advertiser's comments: Coun. Holland is never short of opinions on important issues, but they usually have a factual base. Informed, active, a natural leader, Coun. Holland is up on all issues municipally, regionally, provincially, federally, and even globally. He plays a unique role in bringing Pickering to the world and the world to Pickering in both promoting the city and in bringing forward motions to show Pickering is a player on a larger stage. His refusal to back away from a battle with the Pickering Harbour Company over waterfront redevelopment shows his commitment to his constituents.

Ward 3 Regional Councillor Rick Johnson This year: B- Last year: B+

Serving his fourth term as a regional councillor after one term as a local representative.

Attendance: In Pickering, attended 22/25 special council, 17/19 council, 12/12 committee of the whole, 7/8 planning, 2/3 finance, and 3/5 finance and operations; regionally, attended 13/14 council, and 14/16 works.

Expenses: Pickering — $9,665; Region — $5,618.06

Committees: Chairman Ontario Traffic Conference, Pickering hydro commissioner, Veridian board of directors, chairman Pickering site plan committee, chairman of Central Lake Ontario Conservation Authority, Pickering committee of adjustment, chairman Pickering-Ajax-Whitby Animal Control, chairman of Durham Mobility Study, chairman of Durham public works, chairman of Durham waste management, Durham Non-Profit Housing, Ontario Conservation Foundation, development charges committee.

Most important issues facing the city: Safe and clean drinking water is the number-one priority. Planning and protecting our environment is number two. Keeping our roads safe, our hydro rates low, our taxes at a reasonable rate, our communities safe from domestic violence, and access to parks and facilities for all to enjoy. Waste management is on the verge of a new direction here in Durham. We all must be willing to accept a new collection system to attempt to divert as much waste from landfill as possible.

News Advertiser comments: Despite a legal dispute with both the City and Township of Uxbridge in regards to roadwork at his north Pickering property, Coun. Johnson remains mostly committed to his job. However, he would have been more active and effective if those problems hadn't distracted him from duties and demands regarding council business. Coun. Johnson represents his constituents well, but would serve them even more effectively without the spectre of this legal battle still in the spotlight.

Roger Anderson Regional Chairman This year: B Last year: B

Attendance: 14/14 regional council, 6/14 health and social services, 8/12 planning committee, 11/16 works committee, 13/15 finance and administration committee

Expenses: $36,919.42

Committees: GO Transit Board, Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO) vice-president, AMO ambulance implementation steering committee co-chairman, Iter Canada, Municipal Property Assessment Corporation, Durham Children's Aid Society, Junior Achievement of Durham Region, all regional standing committees.

Important issues: Several opportunities are within Durham's grasp - the ITER bid, the University and the Transit Task Force Report all offer great potential. Issues of concern include: rising costs of the 401 interchanges, funding for needed regional infrastructure and passage of the UOIT Act. Working actively as part of the Pickering Airport Committee, implementing a waste management solution by January 2003 and responding to the Walkerton Inquiry recommendations are also key challenges for the coming months.

News Advertiser's comments: Chairman Anderson has weathered a year during which his role on council has been under scrutiny and some members of his council have put his authority to the test. The chairman is a bit of a scrapper, unafraid to state his opinion regardless of whether it will be popular with those who appointed him. While it is good to have a strong voice at the helm, the chairman could sometimes benefit from a less confrontational, more co-operative approach with members of council. The chairman is a firm supporter of a borderless regional transit system and of the new University of Ontario Institute of Technology. He has lent his support to the bid to bring the ITER fusion research facility to Durham, creating a delegation that successfully represented the community in Moscow this spring. As well, he has worked to get himself plugged in at the provincial level and inter-municipally through participation on provincial boards and at the Association of Municipalities.

• Summaries of the 'most important issues facing the board' were based on submissions from trustees.

• Committee membership may include both school board and other education-related positions.

Paul Crawford This year: F Last year: F

Note: Trustee Crawford did not fully participate in the report cards.

Serving second term as a trustee.

Attendance: Attended 10/10 standing committee and 11/12 board meetings.

Expenses: $2,373.71

Committees: A member of the expulsion and expulsion appeal committees; and finance and transportation liaison to board staff.

Most important issues facing the board: "Trustee Paul Crawford, as have all the trustees, has more than fulfilled the obligations as outlined in the Education Act."

News Advertiser comments: At his imperious best at a recent board meeting, responding to an unsolicited comment from the gallery with, "I want that woman removed." Often the culprit when trustees go off course, as in a pointless debate about how meeting minutes should be recorded. Trustee Crawford proposed a committee to interpret what the Education Act means by full and complete recording. Continues to beat the student smoking horse, not to death, but to pulp. Defended and expected taxpayers to cover the $8,000-plus legal bill some trustees incurred for outside legal advice. Uses his knowledge of the rules of procedure not to help the board but as a stick in the wheel spokes, though he is often correct.

Jennifer Bridge This year: D Last year: C+

Note: Did not respond to numerous requests for report card information.

Serving first term as a trustee.

Attendance: Attended 10/10 standing committee and 9/12 board meetings.

Expenses: None.

Committees: Member of board bargaining team for high school teachers; and ethnocultural, growth and development and board expulsion committees.

Most important issues facing the board: None submitted.

News Advertiser comments: You can't blame Trustee Bridge for being bored at some of the tedious discussions that take place during public meetings, but nodding off, on more than one occasion, is unacceptable. During the accommodation plan process, supported the Valley View Public School community's campaign to avoid closure. Also during that process, said the board didn't have the money to sustain small schools, stating then-education minister Janet Ecker was the one closing schools, not the board. Rarely makes a comment during debates, but continues to vote sensibly.

Durham Catholic District School Board — Pickering Trustees

• Attendance is for 2001 when 21 board meetings were held.

• Trustee expenses are for 2001 and include mileage and conferences charged on both the individual trustee and 'board sent' account.

• Committee membership may include both school board and other education-related positions.

Jim McCafferty This year: B+ Last year: B+

Serving fourth term as a trustee.

Attendance: Attended 21/21 board meetings.

Expenses: $1,017.42

News Advertiser comments: Chairman of the special education advisory committee and the board's negotiating teams for the Association of Professional Student Services personnel; vice-chairman of the joint services committee and Ontario Catholic School Trustees' Association youth awards committee; a member of the board's elementary and secondary teachers' negotiating teams; and expulsion and suspension appeals committees.

Most important issues facing the board: Ministry funding issues include inadequacies in special-education classification, ongoing curriculum changes, textbooks for all students; student transportation — insufficient funding, rising costs and limited sharing of busing; and overcrowding in our schools. Preparing students for successful entrance into colleges and the workplace; and ensuring placements for our 2003 graduates. Accountability to the community and within the board.

News Advertiser's comments: He claimed parents have said the roughly

$2,500 spent on a plaque to commemorate a school opening would be better spent in the classroom. Boycotted the trustee seminar near Orillia, describing it as "a waste of money that could be used elsewhere." He had a point in that — all but one of the presenters were board staff and, in one case, a fellow trustee.

Fran Pereira
This year: A
Last year: A

Serving third term on the board.

Attendance: Attended 21/21 board meetings.

Expenses: $5,175.46

Committees: Vice-chairman of the board (December 2000 to Nov. 30, 2001); chairman of policy committee; member of the terms and conditions for employment for principals, vice-principals and other staff; expulsion, archdiocesan-board liaison and the Catholic School Council handbook development committees; mentor for student representatives on the board of trustees; trustee representative on the Regional Catholic School Council and the Student Council Presidents' committee; Ontario Catholic School Trustees' Association representative for Region 10; and member and representative on other OCSTA committees.

Most important issues facing the board: Adequate funding continues to challenge trustees, in particular for special education and increased transportation, heating and electricity costs. Also, although we have had many computer initiatives in recent years, many of our student computers now require upgrading. Continuing to work with our provincial association, OCSTA, during the Ministry of Education funding review to address these and other board funding requirements.

Pickering garden tour blooms Sunday

PICKERING — The Pickering Horticultural Society's annual garden tour blooms Sunday, June 30 between noon and 4 p.m.

The event features 11 local stops.

Tickets are $10 each

News Advertiser's comments: Probably Durham Region's most engaged trustee, Trustee Pereira's involvement in Catholic education at the local and provincial level is extensive. She was uncomfortable with a peer's suggestion the board take interest from a reserve fund, warning trustees would be entering "dangerous waters" if they started tinkering with the budget. She claims provincial test scores are "not valid" because the same students are not tested year after year. When Liberal leader Dalton McGuinty entered the Marc Hall fray, appealing to the board "as a Catholic" in support of the gay student, Trustee Pereira said he "did Catholics a disservice and he did politicians a disservice".

Eight years for 407?

Environmental assessment on highway extension to begin

BY JACQUIE McINNES
Staff Writer

DURHAM — Durham commuters could be sitting in traffic for another eight years awaiting Hwy. 407 east of Brock Road.

An environmental assessment is about to get under way but won't be complete until the end of 2004, the Durham Region works committee learned Wednesday.

With added time for ministry approval, any required land acquisition and construction, Regional Chairman Roger Anderson estimated it could be 2010 before anyone is driving on the new highway, an alternative to Hwy. 401.

That timeline is "completely unacceptable," said Chairman Anderson, especially since the Region participated in a contentious, costly and time-consuming environmental assessment process back in 1994 and already determined a technically preferred route, he added.

"This is a joke. It's absolutely 100-per cent unacceptable. I can't believe all the work we did in the early 1990s.

"It was a total waste of taxpayers' money," Mr. Anderson said.

Fred Leech, manager of provincial and environmental planning with the Ministry of Transportation, said the original EA was never filed with the Ministry of Environment (MOE). Also, given the timeframe since the study was conducted, priorities may have changed and the plan must be re-visited.

"We will use as much as possible from the previous study," Mr. Leech said.

However, the process can't be fast-tracked despite the information already available because there must be consultation with the public, affected municipalities and other stakeholders.

Scugog Mayor Doug Moffatt asked if, at the very least, the section between Brock Road and Hwy. 12 could be taken in isolation and constructed sooner.

"I don't know how these people who live there are going to survive another eight years," he said. "Hwy. 12 to Brock Road has to be looked at faster."

He said it was an internal mistake at the Ministry of Transportation that the 1994 environmental assessment was shelved. It is the ministry's responsibility to "go back and fix it," he said.

Mr. Leech said dividing the project into chunks is problematic because then further studies have to be conducted to determine how traffic coming on and off the highway at those junctures will be managed.

The EA study will look at route designation and property protection including through environmentally sensitive areas such as the Oak Ridges Moraine but will not be an implementation plan, Mr. Leech said.

The design for the highway will follow MOE approval of the EA after it is filed in December 2004. The provincial assessment will be done in tandem with a federal assessment, he said.

The public will have a chance to have its say at meetings to be held at four locations throughout the Region to be announced at a future date. The terms of reference for the study will be complete by winter, 2003 with the actual study expected to begin in that fall.

Farm aid creates 'air of optimism' for some in Durham

But others say framework offers little new resources for ailing industry

BY JEREMY LE PAGE
Staff Writer

DURHAM — Since the first seed was planted in the soil outside of Eden, farmers have looked up to the skies and prayed for good weather.

But today, it's not so simple. With the high-strung nature of global competition, crops can be hurt by much more than mere drought or hail. Agriculture is one of Canada's most valuable and fragile industries.

And with the new Farm Bill launched in the United States May 13 by American President George W. Bush, farmers south of the border will be able to offer their produce at cheaper prices than Canadian farmers, even in Canada. As a result, the federal government says it now has an answer to Canadian farmers' call for help. Its new agricultural policy framework (APF) intends to assist the industry with $5.2 billion over the next six years. And with provincial participation, the number could exceed $8 billion.

"It's a crucial time for Canadian farmers who are faced with unfair competition prompted by the recent passing of the U.S. Farm Bill. We want our farmers to be recognized as the most efficient in the world," Durham MP Alex Shepherd said, adding Canadian farmers are competing heavily against farmers in the U.S. and Europe.

And this includes farmers in Durham.

"It's a huge step in the right direction," said John Wagenaar, co-director of the Durham Region Federation of Agriculture. Although the manner in which the funds will be divided is yet to be determined, he said a large percentage will likely go to grain and oils, an area of farming jeopardized by low U.S. prices. Regardless of the outcome, Mr. Wagenaar said "there is more of an air of optimism in the farming community" after news of the APF was announced June 20.

Durham Region Federation of Agriculture president Dave Barry agreed.

"It's the best news we've had in a long time," he said, although he added the fine print will determine the success of the framework.

The APF's five goals, as outlined by the government, are food safety and quality, environment, skills and renewal, science and innovation, and management of business risks. But for many in the agricultural community, the new policy is considered weak. Dale Mountjoy, director of the Ontario Corn Producers Association for

Durham, said although names have changed under the new framework, very little "new money" is being introduced. Only about $1.2 billion, he said, will be added as transitional money for the entire country, resulting in a nation miles behind the U.S.

"Our federal government is turning a blind eye," Mr. Mountjoy said.

A Swimming Pool is a Long-term Investment in Fun

Looking for ways to bring your family closer together? Why not install a swimming pool in your backyard?

Over the last few years, there has been a noticeable trend of people returning to more traditional values. One of the most visible effects of this trend is strengthened family ties. Not only are families becoming much closer, but they are also spending a lot more time together.

Do you wish you could spend more quality time with your kids, siblings and parents? Why not install a swimming pool in your backyard? It's a great way to get everyone together in a fun, relaxing environment. While a pool may initially seem to be a huge investment, when you spread the cost out over a period of 10 years, you will be surprised at how inexpensive a new pool really is. And when you consider all the fun that it will add to your family's life, the decision becomes even easier to make. For example, a $3,000 pool will only cost you a little over $300 a year for 10 years. And its maintenance and electricity costs will only run $300 to $400 a year.

A pool is a great way to relax, improve your swimming skills and simply have fun. The best thing about a pool is that it can be used by family members of all ages. In fact, swimming is considered to be one of the best forms of exercise that you can do for your body. And there's nothing like getting lots of fresh air, especially after being cooped up indoors all winter. And late at night, you can relax in your warm pool and gaze at the stars. Now here's one investment you can enjoy now and for many years to come.

Can money buy happiness for Mr. Deeds?

The following movies are debuting in theatres this weekend.

MR. DEEDS

Starring Adam Sandler

Directed by Steven Brill

Longfellow Deeds (Adam Sandler) is a sweet, lovable guy leading a simple happy life in the tiny hamlet of Mandrake Falls, N.H. Deeds is admired by the locals who crowd into his pizzeria to hear him recite his offbeat (but hilarious) greeting card poetry. Life is good until two fancy corporate execs bring news that Deeds is about to be rolling in a different kind of dough. A long-lost relative has left him an inheritance of $40 billion along with the largest media company in the world, football and basketball teams, and a private helicopter ready to whisk him off to corporate America. Deeds ultimately discovers what life is really all about and has to prove money changes everything... but not everyone.

HEY ARNOLD! THE MOVIE

Animated

Life in the big city can be lonely. Luckily, Arnold and his pals live in a neighbourhood so close-knit it could pass for a small town plopped down in the middle of a major metropolis. But when a powerful developer wants to knock down all the stores and houses so he can build a mammoth 'mall-plex' it looks like Arnold's neighbourhood moves to save their beloved blocks before it's too late.

LOVELY AND AMAZING

Starring Catherine Keener

Directed by Nicole Holofcener

Academy Award-nominated actresses Catherine Keener ('Being John Malkovich') and Brenda Blethyn ('Secrets & Lies') star in Nicole Holofcener's followup feature to her critically acclaimed debut 'Walking and Talking'.

A finely observed comedy, 'Lovely and Amazing' is an intimate family portrait of four hapless but resilient women and the bittersweet lessons they learn in keeping up with the hectic demands of their individual neuroses.

PUMPKIN

Starring Christina Ricci, Hank Harris

ris

Directed by Adam Larson Broder, Tony Abrams

Carolyn McDuffy (Christina Ricci) is the model of Pasadena perfection as she trundles her way in her Cabrio convertible toward Southern California

State University for her senior year.

To her horror, she discovers her sorority has taken on the Challenged Games as its off-campus charity. The sisters have agreed to help train Riverside County's physically and mentally handicapped athletes for their annual match against Orange County. After resisting the task, Carolyn finds herself saddled with mentoring an earnest challenged athlete named Pumpkin (Hank Harris) who is immediately enamoured with her.

Making his point

AJAX — Mark Palys makes a forehand return during a match against a fellow club member at the Ajax Community Centre tennis courts Wednesday afternoon. Palys is a member of the Ajax Tennis Club.

Finally, Notre Dame Cougars capture high school ball crown

After weeks of delays, first-year school beats Bowmanville for title

AJAX — Although it was put on hold several times, the regional high school championship for boys' baseball was finally played Wednesday, with the Cinderella team of the league winning the Durham crown.

The Notre Dame Catholic Secondary School Cougars captured the Lake Ontario Secondary School Athletics (LOSSA) crown with a 4-2 victory over Bowmanville High School. The LOSSA title was all the more significant as the team was in its first year of competition after the school opened last September.

The title game, played at the Ajax Community Centre diamond Wednesday, was a long time coming. The contest had to be postponed through the Prentice Cup (provincial) regional playdowns (with both teams qualifying to represent Durham), two rainouts and exams.

Notre Dame sprinted out to a big lead in its first at-bats, putting three runs on the board in the bottom of the first inning.

The Cougars added another run in the bottom of the third before Bowmanville rallied in the top of the fifth inning, scoring its two runs.

Willie Neadles led the Cougars at the dish, going 2-for-3 with two runs batted in and two runs scored. Jon Rossi went 3-for-3 with a double and game-winning run.

Matt Firth earned the win, registering eight strikeouts.

For Notre Dame co-coach Chad McPherson, who coached the team along with Greg Kieszkowski, the season has gone beyond anyone's wildest expectations. The Cougars put together a solid regular season, qualified for the playoffs where they pulled off a big 4-1 upset over the perennially strong Pickering High School Trojans in the semifinal and eventually landed in the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association regionals in Ottawa. There, Notre Dame earned one win in four games.

"It's been a great year and we're looking forward to next year for sure," said McPherson.

Old collegiate try good enough for 13-0 win

Dolphins squad dumps North York, bantams drop 15-6 decision to Scarborough

DURHAM — Ajax-Pickering Dolphins football teams split contests in Central Ontario Minor Football League action last weekend.

The bantams tried hard to beat the scorching heat and the Scarborough Thunder, but were unsuccessful, losing 15-6.

The loss evens the bantam squad's league record at 2-2.

Ryan Bardgett scored the Dolphins only touchdown.

On a brighter note, the collegiate Dolphins picked up their second win of the season after defeating the North York Grizzlies 13-0 in North York.

Scoring were Yannic Carter with two touchdowns and Mike Amato with a convert.

The Ajax-Pickering collegiates play at Pine Ridge Secondary School in Pickering Monday, July 1, at 3 p.m.

Meanwhile, the bantams are at Oshawa Civic Stadium July 1 at 4 p.m. The bantams also play a rescheduled game against the Markham Raiders July 7 at Denis O'Connor field in Ajax. Game time is 1 p.m.

Pickering martial artist off to worlds after grabbing Canadian karate championship

PICKERING — A Pickering man earned two medals at the recent National Karate Association Canadian Black Belt Championships in Toronto.

Takayoshi 'Rafael' Alvarez, who studies the karate discipline of Okinawa Goju Ryu, captured master national champion status after winning the gold medal in kumite (self-defence) and the silver in kata (patterns) at the Regal Constellation Hotel.

Alvarez was one of two black belts from Ontario to compete in the discipline.

As gold medallist, Alvarez advances to the WKF World Championships in Madrid, Spain Nov. 22 to 24. Alvarez, a seventh degree black belt in Okinawa Goju Ryu, came to Canada from the Dominican Republic in 1997 and has since gained a reputation as one of the best karateka in Ontario. He is planning to visit Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic in August for competition and to provide instruction. Last summer, Alvarez was part of a 12-member delegation to Japan where he served as a technical adviser.

Sharpe on the Mattes!

Local gymnasts combine for three national medals

DURHAM — Two local gymnasts earned solid results at the recent 2002 Canadian National Gymnastics Championships.

Colin Sharpe, 15, of Ajax, and Bernhardt Mattes, 15, a former Ajax resident who recently moved to Courtnice, earned a combined three individual medals while competing for Ontario at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg.

Sharpe, competing in the novice category, earned a silver medal on pommel horse with a score of 9.95. He also won the bronze medal on floor exercise with a score of 9.6. In addition, Sharpe placed fourth on high bar and was 12th overall with a score of 52.05.

Meanwhile, Mattes placed seventh overall in the open division, which featured 30 competitors. He earned a silver medal on floor with a mark of 9.6. He also placed fourth on rings, fifth on vault, seventh on high bar, 10th on parallel bars and 16th on pommel horse.

In the team standings, Sharpe and Mattes helped the Ontario team finish first.

Working more than 22 hours per week in the gym, Mattes and Sharpe have put together a solid season that led to the breakthroughs at provincials and nationals. At provincials in Woodstock in April, Sharpe was second overall and Mattes finished third.

Chris Hanley coaches Mattes and Sharpe at the Markham Gymnastics Club.

Colin Sharpe, coach Chris Hanley and Bernhardt Mattes represented Ontario at the recent Canadian Gymnastics Championships in Winnipeg recently.

Beware of Strange Noises Coming From Your Transmission

Transmissions are very costly to repair so if you hear strange noises coming from this important part of your vehicle you shouldn't ignore them.

According to the Car Care Council, at the first indication of any noise, the transmission fluid should be checked. If the level is low, adding fluid may correct the trouble.

If the noise persists, the culprit could be a clogged transmission filter which is preventing fluid from reaching the pump. The result, the transmission is starved of fluid, with eventual destruction of the pump and other components. This can add up to a very large repair bill.

The above mentioned horror story should never happen, says Car Care Council, if automatic transmission fluid is checked regularly (at least as often as the oil is changed) and if fluid and filter are replaced periodically.

The Council recommends checking fluid only when the vehicle has been run for a few miles after the engine has reached normal operating temperature.

Check to see if it is discolored, rather than pink or red, which is normal. When fluid has turned brown, this is an indication that it has been burned. Note also if it smells burned. Burned fluid should be drained and replaced, along with the filter.

The Council also notes that the tip of the dip stick should be cool enough to touch; an automatic transmission should operate at 66-94 deg.C. Severe service driving, which can overheat the transmission, may call for the addition of a transmission cooler. Fluid life is greatly extended when it is kept within normal operating temperature.

Most types of "severe" service driving require most frequent fluid and filter changes, as well as other periodic services.

This type of service is

Most types of "severe" service driving require most frequent fluid and filter changes, as well as other periodic services.

described as follows:

- Frequent idling for long periods of time, such as stop-and-go driving in heavy traffic.
- Sustained highway driving in hot weather.
- Towing a boat or trailer, or carrying heavy objects on a rooftop rack.
- Driving in dusty conditions.
- Prolonged operation

at sub-zero temperatures.

- Driving on steep hills or mountains on a regular basis.

Preventive maintenance is critical to long, efficient car life, summarized Car Care Council. When it is neglected one's senses of sight, sound and smell may signal trouble.

"I don't know a thing about diagnostics, but they do."

And that's fine with me. In fact, that's why I go to Precision Tune. I know their technicians are not only certified to be among the best, but they use some of the best diagnostic equipment in the field (I've done my research). So, I get the best service available every time. See, you learn something everyday.

Spartans put blemish on record

Ajax mosquitoes earn 10-10 tie with previously perfect Pickering club

AJAX — The Ajax Spartans mosquito rep baseball team engaged in an all-out battle with the rival Pickering Red Sox here Monday night.

Pickering entered the game in first place in the Eastern Ontario Baseball Association standings with an undefeated 9-0 league mark. Meanwhile, the Spartans have improved each game entering the tilt.

With the game tied 10-10, both teams and the umpire agreed to play an extra inning in an attempt to break the stalemate. In the end, however, the teams had to be content with the draw.

The lead changed hands several times and Ajax received hits from Andrew Ward, Todd Blair, Thomas Fearon, George Halim, Brennan Conquer and Colton Kennedy.

The Spartans' Kyle Lewis, Raihann Patel, Kristopher Barclay and Wayne Feltham supplied solid play in the field. Patel and Blair both stole several bases.

Fearon and Kennedy pitched well for Ajax.

The Spartans are preparing for an upcoming tournament in Cambridge.

Playing at 7019 yards from the Championship Tees, you will find Royal Ashburn one of the most interesting tests of golf in Ontario. Excellent conditions and respected layout are just a few of the reasons why Royal Ashburn has been home to the Canadian Tour Fall Qualifying School for the past 30 years. Our facility features a driving range, chipping and putting areas, lessons, fully stocked Pro Shop and a friendly experienced staff.
