School peace a vote away

Elementary teachers, board strike tentative two-year deal

By Mike Ruta
Staff Writer

DURHAM — Six days and three deals later, labour peace is about to descend upon Durham's public schools.

The Durham District School Board and its largest employee group, the Durham unit of the Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario (ETFO), reached a tentative, two-year contract early Friday morning.

The interim deal wraps up a week of negotiations for the board. It also reached temporary deals with its high school teachers, custodial and maintenance workers, educational assistants and clerical and technical workers -- roughly 5,500 employees in all, including the 2,400 elementary educators.

Durham ETFO president Rachel Gencey was "very pleased" with the agreement.

"It's a very positive move forward for us and we're definitely going to recommend it to our membership," she said.

The union executive presents the deal to its members and holds a ratification vote Wednesday.

However, even if teachers ratify the agreement, Ms. Gencey said the work-to-rule labour action in Durham elementary schools, which began Jan. 22, would continue until board trustees approve the deal May 20.

"You never know," she said. "It just can't be a foregone conclusion that everyone's going to ratify it."

Ms. Gencey and Whitby Trustee Doug Ross, the board representative on the negotiating team, would not discuss details of the agreement.

"I think it's a fair deal," offered Trustee Ross. "I think it's where the rest of the Province has gone."

He said the onus was on the board during talks to demonstrate that it was fair to its teachers -- and that the agreement accomplishes that.

"When you see the numbers and you see what we did, you'll

Pickering ready to fight minister's zoning order

By Lesley Bowie
Staff Writer

PICKERING — The Duffin Heights Neighbourhood may be the key to overturning a minister's zoning order for north Pickering, says one local councillor.

Pickering council is considering appealing the zoning order to the Ontario Municipal Board (OMB) on the basis it also removes all local planning control over Duffin Heights, said Ward 1 Regional Councillor Maurice Brenner.

"They've put a freeze on Duffin Heights as well but it's outside of the growth management study area," he explained.

Last month, Municipal Affairs and Housing Minister David Young shocked the City by issuing a minister's zoning order, which protects the Duffin-Rouge Agricultural Preserve, while setting in motion a provincial development plan for north Pickering.

'Everything' on table at inquest

Coroner will examine details of man's death

By Keith Gilligan
Staff Writer

PICKERING — The inquest into the death of a murder suspect will try to determine if "everything was by the book".

Montgomery Harmon died March 28, 2001 at Rouge Valley Ajax and Pickering hospital, two days after the death of his wife and daughter at their Pickering home. He died just hours after being charged with two counts of murder by the Durham Regional Police.

Under the provincial Coroner's Act, an inquest has to be called when someone dies while in police custody.

"We want to assure they're treated well by the police who had them in custody," said Dr. William Lucas, the regional supervising coroner for central Ontario.

The inquiry will ensure "everything was by the book, he received the appropriate medical care he deserves as a citizen -- even those accused of crimes. If there are any lessons to be learned, the jury has the opportunity to do that."

A coroner's inquest jury cannot assign blame.

The hearing is in the council chambers of the Pickering Civic Complex Wednesday, May 14 at 9:30 a.m. Dr. Richard Swain presides over the hearing.

"We've set aside two to three days. It shouldn't be terribly long," Dr. Lucas said.

May 14 and 16, and possibly May 20 are the dates, he added.

One of the witnesses, the doctor responsible for Mr.

A coroner's inquest into the death of Montgomery Harmon begins Wednesday in Pickering council chambers. He died in hospital shortly after being charged with the murder of his six-year-old daughter Danielle and his wife, Marcia.

Harmon's care, won't be available for testimony until May 20. John Scott, the Crown attorney acting as counsel to the coroner, may introduce what's called a 'will say' statement, where the doctor will describe his actions while caring for Mr. Harmon, Dr.

Lucas said. If all parties agree with the introduction of the statement, then the inquest could finish May 16.

Marcia Harmon, 42, and six-year-old Danielle were murdered in their Lydia Crescent home March 26, 2001. Mr. Harmon, 52, was found in the house, unconscious from an apparent suicide attempt by drug overdose. He was taken to the Ajax hospital for treatment.

An autopsy found he died from a pulmonary embolism, or a massive blood clot in the lungs. Marcia and Danielle Harmon were bludgeoned to death.

As Mr. Harmon was in police custody at the time of his death, the provincial Special Investigations Unit was called in. Following a short investigation, the SIU cleared a Durham police officer of any wrongdoing.

Dr. Lucas announced the inquest last Friday. The delay in calling it had to do with the availability of the investigating police, he noted.

About one-third of all mandatory inquests called each year deal with deaths while in police custody.

"For objectivity, an independent police force investigates for the inquest. It has to be somebody other than the Durham police," Dr. Lucas stated.

The OPP conducted the inquiry, but because of the "number of inquests, we have to set priorities", he added. "It takes a period of time to move forward. It's a limitation of manpower."

Pickering also eyes ombudsman, other municipalities for help study, which includes Seaton, the Lamoureaux neighbourhood just east of Duffins Creek, and, much to the chagrin of the Province, the agricultural preserve.

Last week, Pickering council voted to appeal the order to the Ontario ombudsman, an independent officer of the provincial legislature charged with hearing complaints about provincial government services.

At the same time, local councillors decided to lobby the provincial legislature and other municipalities for support, while requesting the Province supply the City with all documents pertaining to provincial development interest within its boundaries.

But Pickering might have another opportunity to fight the order stemming from the fact it effectively removes everything north of Pickering's urban boundary from local planning control, including Duffin Heights, said Coun. Brenner.

Meant to act as a link between a future Seaton community and already established development in south Pickering, Duffin Heights is bordered by the St. Lawrence and Hudson Railway to the north and a hydro corridor to the south, Ganatsekiagon Creek to the west and the Ajax border to the east.

While minister zoning orders supersede all local planning decisions, Coun. Brenner argued Pickering should still be able to appeal to the OMB on a land-use planning matter like Duffin Heights. It might just be the start to "opening up" the order.

"Duffin Heights is already designated as an urban area under our Official Plan," he pointed out, adding the area is not provincially owned like Seaton, nor does it have agricultural easements like the preserve.

Pickering recently approved land-use modifications for Duffin Heights and was ready to move forward with the plan, Coun. Brenner said. It calls for a mixed-used corridor along Brock Road, and pockets of residential development linked with pedestrian trails.

"My concern is if we don't exercise our rights under the Planning Act, we could be slamming the door at an opportunity," Coun. Brenner added.

He plans to bring a motion forward May 20 asking for council's approval of the appeal. It's still unsure, however, how much time the City has to launch its case to the OMB because there are so little guidelines to a minister's zoning order, said Coun. Brenner.

"We're assuming it's the same as the Planning Act, which is 20 days after official notice is given," he said.

Notices publicly advertising the minister's zoning order appeared in national newspapers this week.

Even though the idea of launching an appeal is still being investigated, Mayor Wayne Arthurs said he felt Pickering is compelled to put a case forward regardless of the cost.

"We can't afford not to spend money on (defending) the rights of the municipality," he added.

SARS clinic winds down

Dropping volumes forcing permanent closure next week

DURHAM — Due to dropping volumes, the Scarborough severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) assessment clinic is permanently closing next week.

The clinic, which is located at Rouge Valley Centenary hospital, deals with its last patients Friday, May 16. It is also closed this weekend.

More than 350 people have been assessed for SARS at the clinic since it was opened April 15 at the request of the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care. Over the course of the last few weeks, the number of people coming to the clinic to be assessed has dropped from about 30 per day to about seven or eight, said Rouge Valley officials.

"With that kind of volume, we feel comfortable enough that people can visit their physician or the emergency department if they feel they have symptoms," said hospital spokesman Katie Cronin-Wood.

"It's not only us. Some of the other

HUME MARTIN
'Getting back to business.'

centres are starting to shut down too," she said, adding with the closure, staff at the clinic will return to their "home units."

"It's going to be a great relief to our home units. Many of them had to work short. It's been very challenging for staff."

Rouge Valley's sites in Ajax and Scarborough have cared for 33 probable and suspect cases of SARS since the outbreak began. The SARS isolation units -- one at each hospital -- are still fully equipped and staffed.

"This has been a very stressful time for health-care workers and our communities," said Hume Martin, Rouge Valley's president and chief executive officer. "And we're working hard to get back to business so we can provide safe, accessible care for our patients."

Like most hospitals in the GTA, Rouge Valley has started to reactivate many of its clinics and services, and is now allowing more visitors. Screening for SARS is still in place at designated entrances.

The Scarborough SARS assessment clinic is open May 12 to 16, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

City wants to put study facts in order

PICKERING — Learn more about the City's growth management study in the aftermath of a minister's zoning order imposed on north Pickering.

Pickering hosts a community presentation about the study and zoning order Wednesday, May 14 at 11 a.m. in the courtyard of the Civic Complex, 1 The Esplanade.

Members of council will be available for questions and several information displays about the study will be on display, said Tom Melymuk, division head of corporate projects and policy.

It's also an opportunity for the City to get the message out that the study is moving forward regardless, he added.

Municipal Affairs and Housing Minister David Young actually issued two zoning orders April 17, said Mr. Melymuk. One order put the Duffin-Rouge Agricultural Preserve off-limits to developers, while the other set in motion a development planning area covering the agricultural preserve, Seaton and the Duffin Heights Neighbourhood outside of the growth management study area.

The second order effectively removes all local planning authority north of the Pickering urban boundary, City officials charge.

Hospital offers Mother's Day gift

Ajax facility visitor guidelines relaxed for special occasion

DURHAM — The Rouge Valley Health System is loosening its restrictions on visitors for Mother's Day.

The hospital will allow two visitors to the majority of patients today, May 11 from 11:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Exceptions include emergency, and the intensive care and severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) isolation units.

Like most hospitals in the GTA, Rouge Valley began, early on, prohibiting visitors to help contain the spread of SARS. Only families of critically ill adult and pediatric patients, and one support person for labouring woman were allowed entry.

Last week, Rouge Valley relaxed those guidelines to allow one visitor a day to all patients, who had been hospitalized for more than 28 days. On May 7, the hospital began allowing one visitor a day to all patients regardless of their condition or length of stay.

Visiting hours are restricted to 5:30 to 9 p.m., Monday to Friday and 11:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Saturday and Sunday.

Mother's Day visitors may bring in flowers, but no flower deliveries are allowed. Food items are also prohibited, and children under the age of 12 are not allowed.

Families must contact the nursing unit prior to arriving to have their names included on an approved visitor list. In Ajax, visitors must use the west entrance and will be screened and masked upon entry.

Rouge Valley reverts back to the one-visitor-a-day policy tomorrow, with the exception of the Rouge Valley's Centenary site neonatal intensive care unit, where both parents are permitted to visit at the same time.

GM shows North America the way

Plants alternate spot at the very top of the scale

General Motors has always held pride of place among vehicle manufacturers around the world. Despite stiff challenges from other huge multinational automakers, GM has consistently maintained a leadership role in the highly-competitive auto industry.

That push for the pinnacle at GM has been clearly recognized by the esteemed J.D. Power and Associates industry research firm. For the second year in a row, an Oshawa GM plant has been rated No. 1 of 82 auto plants in North and South America for initial quality.

GM Canada's No. 1 car plant, which makes Chevrolet Impalas and Monte Carlos, came first this year. Guess which plant in the western hemisphere finished first in the survey for initial quality last year? That would be GM Canada's No. 2 car plant, which constructs the Pontiac Grand Prix and Buick Regal and Century.

That's quite a 1-2 punch and indicative of the terrific work being done at the massive complex in Oshawa.

The No. 2 car plant placed fourth in initial quality this year, still a superb placing.

Last year Oshawa No. 1 car plant was evaluated as the most productive assembly plant in North America in a study by Harbour Associates, a U.S.-based firm.

And GM's success wasn't limited to Oshawa. Six of the top 10 plants in North and South America were GM operations.

Clearly General Motors has taken a firm grip on quality production and is showing its rivals the way it should be done.

The thousands of employees from Durham and beyond who work hard every day to produce high-quality vehicles at General Motors should be extremely proud of their ratings. They also must understand how fierce the competition is to stay on top and need to keep working to reduce defects. The top plant, Oshawa No. 1, showed in its survey 87 problems or defects per 100 vehicles. The defects, which can be as minor as a loose screw or paint blemish, were determined in a J.D. Power survey of 52,000 new vehicle owners during the first 90 days they owned their cars.

Naturally, GM Canada president Michael Grimaldi was thrilled with the latest results. "We are very proud of our car plant employees and the work they do for us every day," he said.

The teamwork between workers and management at GM has been exemplary and Mr. Grimaldi's leadership is certainly part of the picture. The ratings also reflect well on the people of this region and the quality of work employees here produce. What's good for GM is truly good for Durham.

Letters to the Editor

Hit politicians where it hurts

To the editor:

Every time I pick up the newspaper lately I read about tax increases and public-sector strikes.

In addition, wages keep going up and up for public employees and politicians.

My wages keep going down, my taxes, heat and hydro keep soaring, and the $100,000 club gets bigger every year.

I never thought I had any recourse of action, but now I realize I do; there is not an incumbent in any form of government that I will ever vote for again.

Maybe all of us auto technicians should consider a union.

They all drive don't they?

Thomas Dalton,
Pickering

New generation should lead fight

To the editor:

More than a quarter of a century ago, a large group of area residents, led by noted humanitarian Dr. Charles Godfrey and his wife, fought and defeated a proposed Pickering airport.

We had hoped to preserve that precious greenspace and farmland for our children and grandchildren.

The veterans of People Or Planes are now mostly senior citizens. To our dismay, some politicians and developers are planning once again to pave over that heritage.

Let us hope a new generation takes up the torch from our failing hands.

It needs to be done.

Barry Conn Hughes,
Pickering

We're getting what we pay for in trustees

It's time to move salaries up

Mike
Ruta

staff writer

It's time for the Province to increase the salary of school board trustees. And with provincial and municipal elections looming, the timing is right.

As you may recall, the Progressive Conservatives six years ago capped a trustee's salary at a maximum of $5,000 per year. Board chairmen and vice-chairmen earn more, but for the majority of board members, $5,000 isn't much of a head-turner. It shows. There are currently no trustee candidates for the Durham public and Catholic school boards. Nineteen positions, but no takers.

Sure the election isn't until Nov.

10. But the last date to register has been moved up this year to Sept. 26. That's less than five months away. In the 2000 election, five of those positions were filled by acclamations.

The government reduced trustee salaries because some in Toronto were earning $40,000 or so per year and because it said too many education dollars were being spent outside the classroom. However instead of capping the amount at, say, $20,000, the government went too low. The result has been far less interest in the position and, in general, lower quality trustees.

It's not like paying trustees $20,000 would break the bank. The Durham District School Board's yearly budget is close to half-a-billion dollars, so in that context it's not a lot of cash. The benefits would be many.

For one thing, more people would be interested in the job. How many of you would consider a job that pays $5,000 per year? I believe there are a lot of qualified people who would sign up to run if the salary was respectable.

As well, the low salary prompts some, perhaps many trustees, to put less time into the job. They don't return calls from ratepayers. They don't attend school and board events. And they aren't visible in schools.

Unfortunately, I don't hear any of the provincial parties talking about paying trustees more money. While it shouldn't be, it's a controversial policy -- something to be avoided before an election.

There still are some able trustees out there, but it seems they're fewer and far between than in the past. Nancy Loraine, the Brock-Uxbridge public school board trustee, and a good one, has already said she's not running again. Another board veteran likely won't be in the race.

Who will take their place? It's a lot easier to be in it for the kids when there's something in it for you as well.

GM's first – again

Oshawa No. 1 plant rated best in Americas following J.D. Power study; No. 2 finishes fourth DURHAM — GM Canada's No. 1 car plant is truly No. 1.

Right here in Oshawa, the No. 1 plant, which manufactures the Chevrolet Impala and Monte Carlo, has been rated the best car assembly plant in North and South America by the J.D. Power and Associates Initial Quality Study.

The plant won this year's Gold award by having only 87 problems or defects per 100 vehicles.

Oshawa's No. 2 plant, which won the award last year, placed fourth with 101 defects.

"We are very proud of our car plant employees and the work they do for us every day," said Michael Grimaldi, GM Canada president. "To earn the Gold Plant Quality Award is a great accomplishment, and to earn it two years in a row is truly remarkable."

In addition to the plant quality award, the Chevrolet Impala earned second place in the premium mid-size segment and the Buick Regal, built in the Oshawa No. 2 plant, placed third.

"As a union we've often stated our members know the product and have great pride in the skilled work they do," said Canadian Auto Workers president Buzz Hargrove. "Oshawa workers should be especially proud."

There are 82 car assembly plants in North and South America that are rated for the award. No other Canadian plants made the top 10 this year.

Caribbean centre celebrates 10th anniversary

DURHAM -- Enjoy Caribbean food and fun at an upcoming anniversary celebration.

Club Carib of Oshawa Inc. celebrates the 10th anniversary of the Caribbean Culture Centre May 17. The event includes a nostalgic dance and the return of the 'Ramblers', a Toronto-based band that performed at many of the club's events during the 1970s and 1980s. The club also presents Miss Club Carib 2003, who serves as its representative at the Oshawa Folk Arts Council Queen's Court and during Fiesta Week.

All of the club's cultural activities are run out of the centre. The Hummingbird Dancers are taught Caribbean and African folk dancing by a professional choreographer at the centre, and the members of the Oshawa Sounds of Steel fine-tune their steel drumming skills.

The cultural centre is at 600 Wentworth St. E. in Oshawa. Attire for the evening is semi-formal. Tickets are $20 and available by calling 905-434-5629.

How a Mother's Gift Helped This Woman Shed 149 Lbs!

"When I see an overweight person on the street, my heart aches for them. I want to say, 'If only you could be where I am now.'" Ellen Bragg after shedding a staggering 149 Lbs.!

My name is Ellen Bragg. Thanks to a unique gift from my mother, I melted off a staggering 149 lbs. effortlessly! My dress size plunged from an obese 26 to a lean 10.

My eating was out of control. I never ate breakfast and rarely ate lunch. At night, the boredom set in. I'd eat non-stop. Chips... sweets... whatever I could get my hands on. I bless the day I started at Positive Changes Hypnosis. I opened my eyes after my first session and knew hypnosis was my answer.

If you want to take control of your weight problem, begin hypnosis with Positive Changes right away. If I can do it, so can you. I set a goal of shedding 140 lbs. I've exceeded that goal. Best of all, I know that I will keep my weight off forever.

"I was suffering with no end in sight!"
Ellen Bragg before 149 Lb. weight loss.

Students make case for space

AJAX — Pickering High School students and parents are keeping the pressure on the Durham District School Board.

Roughly 25 students and Margaret Church-Hawkins, the school community council chairman, attended Monday's board meeting. A parade of students told trustees of their involvement in school clubs, sports, cultural and other groups, highlighting the active and engaged student population at the Ajax school. The subtext was that PHS could produce even more impressive students if the board made needed physical improvements to the school.

"We are asking for physical plant upgrades to support these efforts," said Ms. Church-Hawkins. "Please consider Pickering High School as an important priority to receive plant upgrades."

Parents and students also made a presentation to the board two months ago. At the time, school council member Bruce Flattery outlined a long list of upgrades required, including a new heat and ventilation system, and more gym and cafeteria space.

Board chairman Elizabeth Roy two months ago told the PHS community the board has a list of well over $40 million worth of maintenance projects at schools and there is competition among schools for the dollars.

Durham says yes to university funds

Region commits $10 million to campaign

By Jacquie McInnes
Staff Writer

DURHAM — Unanimous but for a single vote, Durham council granted its new university $10 million this week and kicked off the campaign with a goal to raise 10 times that amount.

"We cannot raise $100 million within Durham Region, we simply can't," University of Ontario Institute of Technology (UOIT)

President Gary Polonsky told regional councillors Wednesday.

With the $10-million commitment from the Region, the university will be able to go forward inside, and outside, Durham to individuals, businesses and the non-profit sector and ask for further donations.

"We have to go outside the region, across the country and certainly across the province," he said. "They will want to hear how the community is committed."

The $10-million contribution from Durham will be paid through $2.13 million in in-kind services through roads, sewer and water infrastructure and the remainder in cash over an eight-year period. The cash financing will be drawn from .1 per cent of Durham's taxable growth starting in 2004 and an additional .1 per cent of that assessment growth beginning in 2005.

While many regional councillors stood to voice support for the contribution, noting the significant positive economic impact the university will have on the region both in the community and directly to regional taxpayers, Ajax Mayor Steve Parish stood in lone opposition to the request.

"This is another in a line that are specific one-time extraordinary endeavours," he said, adding between the university, the cancer centre and the Ajax hospital, the contributions from the Region over the next eight years total $21 million.

"I am very concerned that at a time when it appears the present and future core rate tax increase is going to be at least five per cent without these additional responsibilities, we are adding these significant amounts."

However, finance chairman Jim McMaster pointed out the $8 million will come from growth assessment that could probably be attributed directly to the university itself.

"We have to look at what's best for our citizens. This is an excellent investment in our future. Sometimes you have to spend money to make money," he said.

Among the expected economic benefits of the university are construction and capital expenditures expected to generate $706.3 million in income and 14,125 person years of employment, operating expenditures expected to generate $387.7 million in personal income and 7,754 person years of employment over the next eight years and by 2010, 1,434 new jobs are expected to be created as a result of university operations with annual personal income reaching $71.7 million.

Shriners love a parade and area residents can too

By Rob Tolson
Special to the News Advertiser

DURHAM — Come watch the parade as more than 5,000 Shriners and their families flock to Durham.

On June 7, the Shriners will be hosting a parade in Whitby, which will start at 1 p.m. at the intersection of Hwy. 2 and 12 (Brock and Dundas streets) and travel south to Burns Street, west to Henry Street and south to the Iroquois Park Sports Complex. The parade will feature live music, clowns, cars, mini-bikes and unusual floats and, like the treatment provided at the 22 Shriners' hospitals throughout North America, it is free.

The parade is part of an annual Shriners' event, the spring ceremonial. The Oshawa and District Shrine Club is hosting the mini-convention of the Toronto Rameses Shriners from June 5 to 8, with many of the activities held at the Iroquois Park Sports Centre in Whitby. Shriners from Ontario and the United States will be in Durham for the event.

Harold Keene, director of the Oshawa and District Shrine Club, which has members throughout Durham Region, believes the parade, expected to take two hours to pass any given point, will be great for the club as well as the community.

"We are putting on the parade to publicize the activities of the Shrine," he said. "We are known for our live music, clowns and hijinks that appeal to children of all ages. People will be well-entertained when watching the parade go by, especially the children."

"The unique floats and live music are quite clever, humorous and entertaining," he said. "A lot of effort goes into everything. There will even be a float brought in from Niagara Falls of a replica of the Maid of the Mist on wheels."

Shriners own and operate 19 orthopedic hospitals and three burns institutes throughout Canada, the United States and Mexico, where free medical treatment and care is given to children under 18. The Oshawa and District Clubhouse is at 1626 Simcoe St., N., Oshawa.

Staying Sharp All Summer

by R.N. Whitehead Ph.D. Oxford Learning Centres

Every year the cycle is repeated. After a summer spent chasing butterflies, swimming, working or just plain lazing about, Labour Day rolls around and hundreds of thousands of students file back into their schools - ready for a new year. Or are they?

A teacher friends of mine tells me that, "We have to allow at least a month for everyone to get settled and back in a learning mood." That puts us into October and according to other teachers, many students are still not refocused and ready to learn by then. However, according to the same source, "by mid October most kids are back to speed."

According to my calculations, this would mean that from July 1, through at least October 15, most kids are not focused or at their best. "For at least three and a half months, learning can be haphazard to say the least," says Robert Primrose a Grade 10 teacher.

In fact, it may even be worse than that. Think about your child's learning experience in June each year. Tests, exams, field trips and other events consume most of that month's schedule adding another month to the let down period.

Considering that the average school year includes only 200 days of instruction and many of those days are spent in less than ideal conditions, we soon see why many schools struggle to meet the educational needs of students and expectations of parents and society.

What can we do to help? Easy. Help your kids stay sharp over the summer holiday and there will be no let down - no big gap in the fall. Kids who are focused and ready in September, will learn, integrate and understand new material right away. This will allow them to make the most of each school day instead of only a fraction of them. There are many ways to help kids remain on top of their school skills. Make sure that your children read and write during the summer. Even if they have a busy social life and a part or full time job, make sure that they take time each day to read. Set up brief study periods at least every other day. Times when younger children can read to parents, talk about the ideas in the book they are reading, and write in their journal about something fun they did that week. Older children can review the worst or hardest subjects, read ahead into next year's material and organize for next year.

However, possibly the best way to help students stay sharp is through Supplemental Education programs. Good summer programs, such as those at the Oxford Learning Centres, keep those thinking, reading, writing, math and study skills sharp and ready for September.

"It's not so much the memorized material that students forget over the summer," says Dr. Pete Gamlin from the University of Toronto's Ontario Institute for Studies in Education. "It's learning how to learn that gets forgotten each summer. That's because it is seldom taught independently of school subjects. Students who develop good learning and thinking skills will be ready for success in September. Attending a study session over the summer at an Oxford Learning Centre is the best way I know of overcoming the summer let-down."

Oxford Learning Centres are Canada's leading providers of supplemental and enrichment education services. They will design an individualized learning program for each child to keep them sharp over the summer and get a head start on next year. Help your children enjoy learning this summer and return to school in September with improved skills and greater confidence. Call Oxford today at (905) 420-3141 to find out how they can help your child get caught up or reach ahead this summer.

Three arrested on gun charges following traffic stop

PICKERING — Three young men were arrested Wednesday night after police seized masks, a loaded sawed-off shotgun and a bulletproof vest during a traffic stop.

Officers noticed a small brown vehicle driving suspiciously just after midnight. It stopped in a residential driveway on Pine Grove Avenue and the driver got out to speak to officers, said Durham Regional Police spokesman Sergeant Paul Malik. Officers looked into the car at the two passengers and spotted a plastic bag on the floor.

"Police found the vest on one of the passengers," said Sgt. Malik. "The shotgun was in a bag in the back of the car on the floor. Masks and other things of that type were also found on the floor."

Police also recovered a bag of narcotics.

Lee George Forbes, 19, of Thicket Crescent in Pickering; Robert Alexander James Matheson, 21, of Concession 7 in Uxbridge; and Sina Radfar, 19, of Captain Ralph Boulevard in Markham face a total of 37 charges relating to having a loaded weapon in a motor vehicle.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Ajax Pickering Community Police Office criminal investigation branch at 905-683-9100, ext. 2524 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

Spain woos American support for ITER project

Clarington's competition makes pitch to key partner

By Jacquie McInnes
Staff Writer

DURHAM — While Canada is busy working out who will pay for what in the bid to host the international thermonuclear experimental reactor (ITER) energy research facility, the competition is on the make.

The Spanish government and European Commission welcomed United States Secretary of Energy Spencer Abraham to their country for a presentation on their site offering for the $12 billion (Canadian) international collaboration to find a future energy source for the planet.

The European Union, the U.S., China, Japan, the Russian Federation and Canada are partnering in the research project. Canada, Spain, France and Japan have all submitted offers to host the main facility. Canada's proposed site is in Clarington beside the Darlington Generating Station.

At a May 1 press conference, Rodrigo Rato, Spain's minister of economy, said his government would "provide the cost of the project in terms set out by the members, that is 10 per cent of the cost of construction."

Mr. Rato added, "This project is highly profitable from all points of view and Spain contributes to it with an important and long experience in the technology of fusion."

The benefits to the partners of locating the project in Spain include its proximity to the sea and infrastructure including road, train and air transportation. The Spanish site is considered most similar to Canada's, which is considered to be the superior technical choice.

Mr. Rato suggested the project would create 120-340,000 employees in terms of annual employment, a number much higher than a Canadian study suggesting it will bring 68,000 person years of employment. As well, he said, for every 1.8 euros invested, the host country could expect 4.8 euros in return in economic investment.

The European Union expects to invest about 45 per cent of the cost of the project, independent of the host country, Mr. Rato said.

"It would also have a clear positive effect in social terms such as employment, infrastructures and economic terms -- environment technology -- and strategic terms, since it would place us in the centre of international research on such an important issue as is the energy of the future," the minister said.

Loyola de Palacio, commissioner and vice president of the European Commission, said the European Union's wish is for the project to be located either at the proposed Spanish or French site.

Mr. Abraham said U.S. President George W. Bush instructed him to "give serious consideration" to the Spanish proposal as the U.S. goes forward in its evaluation of the sites.

Churches working to battle HIV infection

DURHAM — Local churches will do their part to help save lives in Africa on Mother's Day.

Several local churches are among 400 Canadian churches taking part in Women Alive, which is designed to raise awareness about the transmission of HIV from mother to child. The churches hope to raise $200,000 to fund a project aimed at reducing mother-to-child HIV, and to give new African mothers a chance at a healthy life for their children.

Among the local churches participating in the event are Christ Memorial Church in Oshawa, St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Southside Worship Centre, and Westney Heights Baptist Church in Ajax.

Notre Dame Cougars a hit early

Two more victories to start baseball season

AJAX -- The Notre Dame Catholic Secondary School Cougars extended their undefeated streak to three games after back-to-back victories in Durham high school baseball.

The Cougars (3-0), who sit atop the Lake Ontario Secondary School Athletics (LOSSA) West Division standings, downed neighbouring rivals, the J. Clarke Richardson Secondary School Storm 13-1 at Ajax's Sportsplex Fields Thursday afternoon. On Wednesday afternoon, Notre Dame won going away against Pickering's St. Mary Catholic Secondary School Monarchs, 6-1 in Pickering.

The upshot is the Cougars are one-half game ahead of the Ajax High School Rams who own a perfect 2-0 record. In three games, the Notre Dame have showed a strong all-round game, scoring 29 runs while allowing a stingy two.

In quieting the Storm, the Cougars received a solid pitching performance from starter Jonathan Rossi, who registered six strikeouts. Rossi also helped his cause offensively with a run and two RBIs. Jesse Adams took the loss on the mound.

Against St. Mary, the Cougars allowed the Monarchs to score the first run and then proceeded to score the next six. Notre Dame received a complete-game effort from pitcher Matt Firth, who recorded nine strikeouts along the way. Chris Papalia spanked a two-run home run to lead the way offensively.

Although the Cougars are pleased with their fast start, the players know it's a tougher road ahead with games against Pickering High, Denis O'Connor and Ajax looming on the horizon.

"We are extremely confident but we will not take these teams lightly," noted Cougars' co-coach Greg Kieszkowski.

Co-coach Chad McPherson adds the players are loose and having fun so far this season, and are looking forward to the challenge the next three games represent.

"The boys are excited. They can't wait to play these guys," says McPherson.

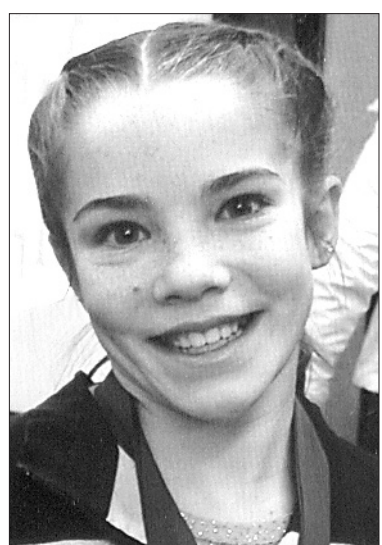

The Cougars take to the field Tuesday, May 13 against the Pickering High School Trojans at the Sportsplex at 3:30 p.m.

PICKERING — Robert Whorpole gets set to let one fly while under the watchful eye of coach Al Boyle during the Pickering Baseball Association's try evaluation session at Brock Ridge Park Tuesday. It was the first time on the field for the players, who'll start games later this month.

SARAH WILLIS
Silver and gold.

Pickering girl a double threat

Willis earns silver in gymnastics, gold in dance - all in the same day

PICKERING -- A Pickering athlete strutted her stuff both on the gymnastic apparatus and on the dance floor, with excellent results.

Sarah Willis, 11, finished second overall at the Ontario Provincial Gymnastics Championships in Brantford. Individually, she placed seventh on vault, third on uneven parallel bars, sixth on balance beam, and fourth on floor exercise. Competing for the Metro East team and representing her host club, Scarborough Gym Elites, Willis competed against 31 athletes from across the province who had earned the right to attend the championships through qualifying meets held over the winter months.

Her second-place finish was all the more significant as she missed 10 weeks of training this winter due to a broken bone in her foot. She earned a berth for the championships at the last qualifying meet, held in Oshawa in March.

Later the same day, Willis raced to the Vaughan Playhouse where she competed as an elite dancer for Jacqueline's School of Dance.

Shortly after her arrival, she competed in the acrobatic solo division and not only won a gold medal, but also attained the first-place overall award for under-12 soloists.

She had competed additional solo dances as well as being involved in numerous group dances.

Willis has danced since age two, and competed in gymnastics since she was six.

She attends St. Marguerite Bourgeoys Catholic School.

Trojans soar at OFSAA tuneup

4 Seasons Country Club is the Second Qualifying Site for the Fifth Annual Durham Region Hole in One Shootout.

Entering into its 19th season, golfers will find this a very challenging course that requires the utmost in accuracy to reach the green in regulation and to avoid the many hazards.

Playing at 5700 yards, this Par 69 (par 73 for ladies) has water coming into play on 15 holes and plenty of bunkers to make it an interesting round. But golfers all over Durham and beyond love this course with its mature trees enhancing the beautiful terrain.

The facility features an outdoor amphitheatre that seats 250 and is perfect for weddings and tournaments. There is also a 150-seat indoor banquet room, lounge, snack bar and fully stocked pro shop.

Golf Tip: The 11th hole features a green surrounded by water and bunkers so it won't be easy. It's also the championship hole on July 7th. Director of Golf Wayne Cameron says use from a 8 or 9 iron to a wedge and take it up high to drop it in for a hole in one. GOOD LUCK!

Durham Windows and Doors Brings Mobile Showroom To Your Door

Wayne Hutchison brings to the replacement window and door business a new and long overdue feature. It's a Mobile Showroom which just may be the only one in Canada.

"The day is gone when you carried some brochures and a sample window to a customer's home," explains Wayne. "So I obtained a retired North York Mobile Library truck and installed interior walls along with all of my window samples."

When you call Durham Windows and Doors for a free estimate, Wayne will show up at your door with his Mobile Showroom which you'll enter by way of a sliding patio door.

Inside, displayed on the walls, are the SecurPlus series of vinyl windows which you're free to operate and you'll discover the many special features including how they can be cleaned without going outside.

"After being in this business for 25 years, I can honestly say these are the finest windows on the market," says Wayne. "They're triple sealed to reduce air leakage and come with heavy duty hardware."

MOBILE SHOWROOM

All SecurPlus vinyl windows come with Low E Glass which filters out the ultraviolet rays keeping your home cooler in the summer and eliminate fading of your curtains, drapes and furniture.

All of the windows come with a lifetime warranty on the frame and hardware.

Wayne would also like his customers to know that he does all of the estimates personally, eliminating the cost of a salesperson.

Top, Wayne Hutchison will bring his Mobile Showroom to your home. Above, inside you'll find his display of Top Quality Vinyl Windows.

Durham Windows and Doors also does all of its own installations, which ensures that every customer gets a high quality job done at the best possible price.

Durham Windows and Doors is located at 696 King St. W. in Oshawa. For more information call (905) 579-2222 or 1-888-576-8575.
