Fairport Plan Meeting For January 13

After a short debate on the influence Christmas may have on Pickering residents, Council decided to move the next public meeting on the Fairport Community Secondary Plan to Jan. 13.

The original plan was to hold the meeting on Dec. 15

but Councillor Don Kitchen questioned whether or not that date was "too near Christmas."

He said he thought there may not be enough public participation as people may have too many other things on their minds at that time.

Councillor Jack Anderson who chaired the last meeting held Oct. 7, interjected with the statement, "Maybe they'll be in better spirits than they were last time." It is reported that the last public meeting was "uproarious" as about 30 residents showed up to voice their criticism of the report. The report outlines the proposed re-development of the Bay Ridges, West Shore and Rosebank areas -- all to be called the Fairport Community.

At first, Jan. 12 was to be the alternative date but Mayor Ashe was told that was the first meeting of Regional Council.

Councillor Alex Robertson said he thought this date would be too far into the new year, "since the Fairport Community Plan is an on-going thing."

Councillor Anderson pointed out that since there will be other meetings well into the new year, that any date in January would be a good time for the public meeting.

Mayor Ashe said: "There's no point of finalizing the study this year and this meeting is just for public input only."

Council then decided on Jan. 13 for the next public meeting.

Commencement

Graduation is a special event and parents and friends of this year's Dunlop graduates are invited to share this special event with them.

The Fourteenth Annual Commencement Exercises will be held in the school auditorium on Sat. Oct. 23 at 8 p.m.

A social hour will follow in the cafeteria.

from parts of his canvass. This already about 88 per cent of the total reached last year, with results from doctors, lawyers and other professionals expected to come in within the next few days.

There are a number of special events which will make this campaign more colourful than the one in 1975. First, Coun. Alex Robertson is going to do his United Way Marathon Swim this coming Sat., Oct. 23, at 9 p.m., at the in-door pool in the Ajax Community Centre. He will certainly not refuse any more sponsors for this event.

Ajax and Pickering Councillors will also take an apartment block and canvass for United Way as their share of the Residential Division.

Hallowe'en On Sat. Oct. 30

Pickering council Monday agreed to make Oct. 30 Hallowe'en instead of Oct. 31.

Since Hallowe'en falls on a Sunday this year many parents were confused as to when their children should "Shell-Out!"

Council wanted to clear up any confusion by establishing an official date for the festivities and now urges Pickering residents to do so on Sat. Oct. 30.

Mayor George Ashe said the Pickering police force seems to be "gearing up to service Oct. 30", so he thought it would be to Pickering's advantage to make it official.

Large Crowd At Oktoberfest Celebration

German "Gemutlichkeit" ("good cheer") is the English term that probably comes the closest in meaning prevailed in the Sheridan Mall Banquet Hall on Saturday night, Oct. 16 during the Oktoberfest celebration organized by the Mardi Gras Society "Old Severin".

A crowd of about 700 people from Pickering and surrounding areas enjoyed themselves dancing, singing and listening to special presentations.

Many of the men were wearing green hats, white shirts with rolled up sleeves and lederhosen. A great number of ladies showed up in "dirndl" dresses in a variety of colour.

A special attraction was the presence of Master of Ceremonies Herbert Hisel, a well known comedian from

... was joined by... Helen Novak... Sylvia Geist and Marion Schwill... photo by A.C. Verbeij

Germany, who now lives in Toronto.

Later in the evening Pickering Mayor George Ashe arrived and was immediately given the job of judge in the Miss Oktoberfest pageant. Together with four other judges he selected four finalists. The final decision was up to all the men present, who were asked to line up in front of their favourite candidate. The longest line was formed for Angela Bertelan of Pickering who was then proclaimed Miss Oktoberfest 1976.

The outgoing Miss Oktoberfest 1975 was Helen Novak. The festivities had been organized by Helen's father, George Novak, president of the Mardi Gras Society "Old Severin".

Sponsors Needed For United Way Marathon Swim

With the United Way Campaign in the Ajax-Pickering area now entering its third week, incoming results seem to justify a cautious optimism.

By mid-October, a total of $20,544.25 had been collected or pledged by companies and individuals. This is still a long way to go to the target of $95,000, but the above amount includes only confirmed figures in partial canvasses. More important, there seems to be a wider response from companies and the population at large.

Noel Marshall, Municipal Division chairman of United Way Ajax-Pickering, said he was "thrilled" by the response from Town of Pickering employees. His canvass, while only partially completed, has already reached $12,554 which is almost a thousand dollars higher than his total achieved in last year's canvass.

In second place so far, is the Industrial Division headed by Richard Black. His returns, excluding Chrysler and Armor Elevator, total $5,575, but here too, the response is better than in 1975. One Company, Sure Fit Home Furnishings of Ajax, tripled its 1975 donation and contributed $2,500. Some other companies carry out an in-plant canvass among employees for the first time.

Henry Polak who heads the Professional & Special Names Division reports returns of a little over $2,000

There's Hope

The CLC Day of Protest on Oct. 14th has done very little for the status of men like Joe Morris, but it has told all Canadians that most members of the organized unions are sensible and obey the laws.

This could have much more beneficial effect on the federal government than all the rabble-rousing in the world. A government hardly can be antagonistic to 3 million workers, most of whom resisted their leaders' call to arms on a wasted work stoppage.

This country has enough splits - French vs English, West vs East; Oil sheiks vs consumers - to encourage a labour unions vs everybody else type of block voting.

Labour's message was clearly laid at Prime Minister Trudeau's door months ago and it didn't require a Day of Protest to emphasize that fact.

In our opinion Joe Morris and Co. are wallowing in a sea of egotism and have lost the true spirit of Canadian unionism. Unions exert their power at the bargaining table and they do it very well judging by the settlements of the last few years.

But Labour has no place in a political power block and the workers have constantly shown their independence in this matter at the polls. If Labour decides to vote as a block then the result will be a business block, a consumers' block, a farmers' block and so on.

Every union member is also a Canadian citizen and should vote and act like any other citizen. The more independent the voters are, the harder political parties will have to work to get their support. Independence of a voter is the very essence of Canadian democracy. Joe Morris please note!

Connie Van Boxtel, 24, of Pickering and Dave Escoffery, 22, of Scarborough (above left) won the 42 hour gruelling marathon at Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge last weekend. The couple plans to use their prize trip to Nassau - as a honeymoon when they get married next Aug. 6th. The only other couple out of the original 12 to finish was Julie Mudd and Robert Hopkins, both of Scarborough. They won a weekend for two in Montreal plus $100. Above right, "New Direction" leader, Martin Damsell helps Miss Howard Johnson's Charlotte Byrne, turn the hour board. The marathon is expected to net the Muscular Dystrophy Assoc. of Canada between $85,000 and $10,000. The winners raised about $1200 themselves. (Photos - Bob Watson)

Annuities A Rip Off

When you are 71, as the law now stands, all funds you have accumulated in registered retirement savings plans are automatically de-registered. This means you must either pay income tax on the full amount at once - or you must go to an insurance company and buy a lifetime annuity.

This law, according to a brief being submitted to the Minister of Finance by the Consumers' Association of Canada is unfair on several counts.

The most serious unfairness, according to CAC Barrie Chapter President, Tom Delaney, author of the brief, is that insurance company annuities are of dubious value.

"When you buy an annuity contract," says Delaney, "You completely surrender your capital." To illustrate how bad a deal this can be Delaney points out that the actuarial life expectancy of a 71 year old is 11.3 years. Using as an example a 71-year old who has $20,000, he shows that over the life of the contract an annuity (using annuity rates recently published in the Financial Post) would return total monthly payments on the average of just over $29,000.

When the annuitant dies neither his widow nor his beneficiaries have any claim on his original $20,000. Under the terms of the annuity contract the sum is simply absorbed or taken over by the insurance company.

On the other hand, had he been allowed to invest his $20,000 at a conservative 10% over the same period he would have received in monthly payments a total of $22,600 and he would still have his capital. In other words, by buying an annuity he would receive a total of just over $29,000. Had he been allowed to invest his own money he would receive $22,600 and still have his $20,000, a total of $42,600.

"Looking at life expectancy tables," says Delaney, "You quickly realize that insurance companies are doing very well for themselves. And the consumer is losing out."

The CAC's recommendation is that the term "Maturity at Age 71" be deleted from the act. They propose that when you are 71 you should no longer be able to defer taxes by putting income into RRSPs but that you should not be forced into deregistering the full amount and putting the funds into a lifetime annuity.

The brief further proposes that taxpayers should be allowed to transfer RRSP funds "already accumulated", into a Spousal Plan, that the limits on "earned income" be increased from the present 20% to 25%, that the deadline for registering RRSPs be lengthened to 120 days (April 30). Also that a uniform official receipt from be issued on the date the investment is made.

It Pays To Listen

If Prime Minister Trudeau had listened to this newspaper's opinions over the last six months, he might have saved himself from the anguish of his 57th birthday.

Two by-elections, one in Newfoundland and one on his doorstep in Ottawa, on Mon. Oct. 18th have told the P.M. rather decisively that his government's policies and lack of policies are not acceptable by Canadians.

Of course, Conservative leader Joe Clark, may try to convert the election results into a personal commendation. In our opinion that is not the case. The voters are saying "We don't want Trudeau anymore." It's as simple as that!

Canada is desperately short of leadership for these critical days. We need strong, positive leadership at Ottawa, not a deteriorating, philosophical regime. Unfortunately, no leader appears to be housed in the illustrious Parliament - at least if there is one, he or she is unwilling to step out and be counted.

In our opinion Joe Clark hasn't got the personal political maturity (yet) and he doesn't seem to be surrounded by unusually qualified potential cabinet ministers either.

The New Democrats are really not in the deal at all. Their leadership seems almost silent as the Canadian Labour

Dance 42 Hours

Congress flexes its own muscles independent of the NDP.

So for the immediate future - the next two years - this country needs a reformed Liberal Party, one that can see the issues clearly. This is not a time for language discussion - it is a time for economic measures to stimulate a stagnant economy.

We suggest that if Prime Minister Trudeau cannot pull his head from the language issue, that he resign and let someone deal with the real issues.

In the next two years it won't matter whether French and English Canadians agree or not on legislative language. But it is critical that the government create an atmosphere of confidence so the consumers will release their hundreds of millions of dollars of savings to buy goods and services already in existence.

The interest rate for small business should be nationally lowered to 10 per cent immediately and an annual commitment for one per cent less each year made by Ottawa.

A clear cut deal for foreign investors should be made. Let them make a profit - just don't let them control our economy.

Let's get the government out of the books of companies about their profits and prices - the marketplace controls almost all prices. Most of the escalating costs are ones controlled by government - fuel oil, electricity, gasoline, taxes. These are the complaints of labour unions. Let labour costs rise in relation to government-controlled costs - we will all know then the real culprit in inflation.

Where is the leadership we need?

Sex & Love Discussion At Seneca

The authors of a book on marriage which sold more than three million copies are going to be the key speakers in a special presentation on Thurs. Oct. 21st, looking at the topics of sex, love, marriage and divorce.

George and Nena O'Neill became known world wide for their book "Open Marriage" and were invited to take part in "The Human Kaleidoscope", a unique series of six presentations sponsored by the North York Board of Education, York University and Seneca College.

They will be joined on the program by Merle Shain, a Toronto writer and broadcaster who has achieved a wide following for her views on the topics to be discussed.

Scheduled for 8 p.m. in Seneca's 1,200 seat Minkler Auditorium at 1750 Finch Ave. E., the presentation will be set up to allow give-and-take from the audience. Information on the series and where to buy tickets are available at 491-8877.

Other topics to be looked at in the series include UFO's, morality in business and extrasensory perception.

Since 1967 the O'Neills have been primarily concerned with urban anthropology and social problems. The results of their research were two books - "Open Marriage" and "Shifting Gears."

The latter book indicated the O'Neills' belief that with the fluctuating economic and social conditions of the world today, one must be able to shift gears: to meet crises, to be flexible, to change direction, to know one's inner self.

In 1973, Merle Shain wrote the bestseller, "Some Mean Are More Perfect Than Others". A well known critic, she has appeared on such television programs as This Hour Has Seven Days, Hostess W5, and Sweet City Woman. As well, she can be heard nightly, as Critic at large on CFTO.

OTTAWA and Small Business

More power for the people

By KENNETH McDONALD

Canada is in political turmoil. There's a lack of public confidence in political institutions and political leaders. Citizens feel isolated from the political process as governments implement legislation which is often contrary to public opinion.

Both here and in the U.S., there is profound distrust of central governments. Too much power has passed from elected representatives to non-elected officials. Too often local Members of Parliament are nothing more than ombudsmen!

How are we going to strengthen the role of MPs and increase public confidence in the political system? The Canadian Federation of Independent Business sees the following two measures as being potentially influential.

The first, already passed into law, will take election financing out of the hands of central party organizations and their sources in big business and big unions.

By permitting 75 per cent of the first $100 contributed to a federal political party to be deducted from income tax, and reducing the relief on larger contributions up to a maximum deduction of $500, the new rules put the money power into the hands of the individual riding associations. Democracy gains by a shift of power from big centralized institutions to individuals and local communities.

If an MP ignores the wishes of his or her constituents, it could be relatively easy for a group of angry citizens to take over a riding association and finance its own candidate.

The second measure, awaiting formal legislation, deals with freedom of public access to information on which the federal government bases its decisions. Withholding that information is the chief source of bureaucratic power. How can the Official Opposition, or members of parliamentary committees, offer constructive criticism when deprived of the relevant facts?

For example, Mirabel, the $1.5 billion airport which airlines and passengers are trying to avoid, probably would never have been built if the fanciful traffic projections used to justify it had been made public.

Changing election financing was a commendable step toward electoral reform. Freedom of information is essential to reforming Parliament itself. Both represent a potential shift of power from Big Government, Big Business, Big Labour and Big Cities to individuals, small business and local communities.

Scarborough School Board Happenings

by Rella Braithwaite
THE STRAP IN SCARBOROUGH SCHOOLS

Trustee David Owen has urged that a moratorium be placed on the use of the strap in Scarborough schools, but the board approved continuing to use the strap as a last resort after all other methods have failed.

The board recommended a special education committee, formed in 1975, study alternative means of discipline.

The Report on Discipline in Scarborough Schools, recently prepared by the Student Services Department, urges schools to continue to communicate with parents, making them aware when their child has a pattern of chronic disruptive behaviour.

It also recommends that parents be encouraged to assume the prime responsibility for behaviour.

After investigating in her area of Ward 7, Shirley Tomlinson, said she thought the strap should be retained since the schools don't have the time nor staff for other alternatives. Owen said he found that excuse appalling.

The committee that studied the use of the strap in borough schools found in a survey that the majority of parents were in favour of retaining corporal punishment.

Trustee James French questioned if school principals are still instructed to have specific training and guidance as a prerequisite for their positions and the committee was asked to look into this aspect and report back to the board.

CENTENNIAL ROAD PUBLIC SCHOOL

Richard Bennett, Centennial Road Home & School Association chairman, spoke to the board on behalf of the parents on the atrocious conditions of Centennial School.

Work at Centennial was halted after one end of the school was ripped out when the board was informed by Metro that the renovations were out of order, despite the project being in Category A. Construction of a library addition and demolition of an existing building were started in Sept. 1975.

Bennett said the parents were fed up with getting the "run around" and would like an answer on when this project would be completed. Director Anson Taylor said the report was before the Building and Sites committee but will not come before Administration for another two weeks.

Trustee Eva Nichols of Ward 9 urged, "There must be a way we can go ahead", and said she had already spoken to Margaret Birch, M.P.P. and Tom Wells M.P. and had been told the holdup was at Metro. She said because of the dismantling the school does not have proper library or staff room.

A motion was made to call a meeting at Centennial Road School for all interested parties as soon as possible.

Council Recommends Pay Increase For '77 Council

Tuesday's bi-weekly Council meeting has yielded the possibility of yet another salary increase for council members.

An enthusiastic discussion followed the presentation of Sir Oliver Mowat Secondary School, from 1969-1975 is also Hon. Pauline McGibbon's Aid-de-camp.

In Horwood's honour Mowat School recently held a Tree Planting ceremony where the students and staff welcomed him and the Lieutenant Governor and her entourage.

Mr. Horwood was presented to the student body by Mrs. McGibbon who later officiated at the tree planting outside the school. A 15 foot maple tree, which was donated by the staff, was planted on the school's front lawn on Charlottetown Blvd. Several students took part in the reception after the planting.

ensued in the midnight hours when Alderman Jack Goodlad gave notice of a recommendation received from the Salary Review Committee. The Committee, chaired by Sheldon H. Lush, has recommended "that the salaries for elected members of council be increased in the overall amount of 4.8%.

The increase is recommended for the council of 1977. This would mean that an alderman would receive a 6% salary increase, and the controllers and mayor a 3% increase.

Controller Brian Harrison was adamantly opposed to approving the increases before more research was done. He suggested going back to 1963, the year he appeared on Council, and collecting information as to the remuneration and benefits received, by council members, over the years till the present.

However, Mayor Cosgrove repeatedly reminded Mr. Harrison that the Salary Review Committee had been in existence for five months which represented plenty of time for Mr. Harrison to carry out any investigation that he might have wished.

THIRD INCREASE
The task which confronted council was whether or not they should approve of the increases and pass them on for consideration by the 1977 Council.

This is a possible dilemma, as the suggested increase for Scarborough Council members follows on the heels of two previous hikes in pay.

In July of last summer, Scarborough voted itself a flat $1500 increase across the board, retroactive to January of 1976. And only a couple of weeks ago, Metro voted itself an increase of 18%. Six members of Scarborough Council sit on Metro Council.

Alderman John Wimbs stated that they couldn't possibly recommend to the new council that they receive a raise when the present council just received one in January. He suggested that they simply pass on the report to the next Council, and leave it to them to decide.

Alderman Norm Kelly countered, claiming that Scarborough Council was treating this delicate issue with honesty and openness and that "we should be proud of it."

He alluded to the fact that Scarborough was a front-runner in community participation in governmental affairs, always keeping things in the open, and that it did not become council now to "practice false modesty."

MODEST INCREASE
According to the Salary Review Committee it is

"hopeful that these recommended modest salary increases will be the beginning of a trend to bring under control the excessive and runaway costs of government at all levels."

Mayor Cosgrove said that council should commend Mr. Lush on his efforts and added that it was the place of the present council to recommend the salary increase to the next council.

If no action were to be taken on the recommendation, Cosgrove maintained, it would put next year's Council in the unenviable position of having to vote on a salary increase for itself. In a recorded vote, council decided to approve of the Committee Report as it applied to aldermen and the mayor, but a salary increase for controllers failed to carry.

The recommendation will now be forwarded to the 1977 council for consideration.

THE BOOK BEAT:

One of the most notable books of this year and, I rather suspect, for many years to come, is ROOTS by ALEX HALEY.

For as long as he could remember, Alex Haley had heard the story of his lineage and how the American part of it began with the enslavement in 1767 of a man known as The African.

Although he never doubted the truth of the seven generation lineage, he resolved nevertheless to trace back his family history as far as he could. ROOTS is the result.

Through a combination of masterful research and powerful, if somewhat undisciplined writing style, we are able to follow and be witness to an almost incredible saga of a family which, for purposes of this book, began in slavery.

Towering above all the characters in the story is Kunte Kinte, a Mandinka born in 1750 of noble tribesmen who traced their ancestry back to the ancient kingdom of Mali with its storied capital city of Timbuktu.

Brought to America in the hold of a ship that took close to three months to make the voyage, suffering unbelievable cruelties and hardships, he nevertheless remained a proud man.

This pride and his ancient Muslim customs he caused to be passed on through the generations.

Another compelling character is his unseen and unknown grandson, Chicken George who became such an expert gamecock handler that he was taken to England for several years after which he was given his freedom. His son, in turn, unknowingly drew upon the ancient heritage of the Mandinkas as expert blacksmiths and became one of the South's leading ornamental blacksmiths. Throughout the seven generations the message of man's intrinsic right to be free remained, along with their African heritage, the constant that allowed survival.

Running close to 600 pages, this is a book that should be read by everyone. It is informative, inspiring and (I dislike having to use the word again)...compelling. Once you start it you really won't want to put it down. And you shouldn't.

There are a few criticisms that I might make. Haley is a self taught writer and it frequently shows but that's alright because Roots is a book that profits from the rawness of his style.

It does seem to me though, that the Doubleday editors should have caught some of the more obvious errors in English usage. They should know, for example, the difference between exercise and exorcise, uninterest and disinterest. It seems to me also that, considering the price of the book, the reader should not be subjected to typographical errors.

However, these are admittedly minor criticisms and do not stand in the way of one's overall enjoyment.

Alex Haley has brought to the printed page a story that proves again the indomitability of man's spirit.

FROM BILLY D. KIDD'S NOTEBOOK:

The Upstairs Side Door (on Wilton Street, one block south of Gerrard, east of Yonge) has got something new for Saturday shoppers.

Every Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. entertainment is being provided by Jimmy Galloway and the Metro Stompers featuring Paul Rimstead, playing drums with all the wild abandon of Curly Posen.

This week the Prince Hotel is featuring another Chef of the Month. This time it's chef Louis Evans of the renowned Ponchartrain Hotel in New Orleans. Not surprisingly the menu highlights lean toward seafood and here are some of the special treats in store...

Oyster and Artichoke Soup, Creole Seafood Gumbo (featuring hard shell blue claw crabs), Pompano en Papillote and Sauteed Tenderloin of Trout Eugene.

The Chef of the Month feature is proving so popular that I suggest you call ahead for reservations. Many people are going back several times to sample all the artistry of these internationally known chefs.

Television theme songs are pretty well a part of our every day existence and I though you might be interested in knowing the names of some of them.

Baretta's theme is called "Keep Your Eye on the Sparrow."

"Love is all Around" is the theme of the Mary Tyler Moore Show.

"Making Our Dreams Come True" is heard on the Laverne and Shirley Show and the theme for M.A.S.H. is "Suicide Is Painless".

You can hear all these and more on a new Columbia album by Ray Coniff called Theme From S.W.A.T. and Other T.V. Themes.

At one time or another all of us have heard the expression "eat humble pie", meaning to admit one's error. The expression has its origin in medieval social stratification. A humble pie was one made of the inferior parts of deer and given to servants at hunting parties while the gentry ate choice venison.

It was Napoleon who stated that an army marches on its stomach. It was after his battle at Marengo that his chef whipped up the first dish to be called Marengo... Meat (usually chicken or veal) sauteed in oil and cooked in white wine with vegetables and ample seasoning. Historians assure one and all that it is only coincidence Napoleon was thereafter always portrayed holding his stomach.

Parents Invited To Take Active Part On P.A. Days

More than 500 friends and associates attended the wine and cheese reception for Jeanne Frolick to celebrate her recent election as President of Federation of Women Teachers' Associations of Ontario.

Mr. Frolick was honoured Oct. 11 at the Heydenshore Pavilion in Whitby.

Among the issues discussed at the press reception was the Oct. 14 Day of Protest. Ross Andrew, President

O.T.F. stated "Federations do not like the way in which the guidelines have been applied, but the students are not involved in this matter, therefore, shouldn't be deprived a day of school".

On pupil-teacher ration Mrs. Frolick had this to say, "FWTAO adopted a policy in 1975 that the P.T.R. should be no more than 20-1 in primary grades and 25-1 in junior and elementary grades. It is up to the local groups to negotiate the P.T.R. Durham has just ratified an agreement which calls for a P.T.R. of 25-1 throughout the elementary schools. This number includes support personnel and principals and is, therefore, not a true picture of the number of students in a class".

Sexism was not left out of the topics discussed. Ken Munroe, Director of The Durham Board of Education, said "There is a committee in Durham studying sex-stereotyping in the curriculum. Men must be sold on the advantages of working in the lower grades." Frolick added

"Women should be encouraged to enter administration".

P.A. Days were also discussed. The newly elected President of the F.W.T.A.O. said parents should be invited to take a more active part on P.A. days. Ross Andrew added "What teachers do on P.A. Days should show up in the classrooms with improved performance and better methods of dealing with students' problems. Teachers might make information available to parents about out-of-school educational activities which their children might participate in on P.A. Days."

Douglas Park

by Valerie Roddsmith
The Douglas Park and Douglas Ravine will not be developed in any way under the Fairport Community Plan, confirmed Mayor

George Ashe at Monday's council meeting.

He said there has been a rumour circulated around town that a high-rise apartment will be built in Douglas Park.

"This couldn't happen at all," the mayor said. "How this rumour got started, God only knows."

The discussion came up when Councillor Alex Robertson told council that residents around the Douglas Park area were concerned about possible development in the park.

The mayor proceeded to quash the rumour.

Councillor Don Kitchen said he thought the wording in the Fairport Community Secondary Plan report could have been misinterpreted. Mayor Ashe said this was possible as the report mentions "development" of Douglas Park and Ravine. "This means the development of the park and ravine with open space purposes", the mayor said. "The development would be the enhancement of the park and ravine."

The Fairport Community Secondary Plan report outlines a few proposals for the re-development of the three areas of Bay Ridges, West Shore and Rosebank. This re-development may include a Bay Ridges Shopping Centre, medium to high density residential accommodation, a high school and parkland.

Apple Days

An apple a day keeps the doctors away. At least remember that at the end of the month.

Pickering council Monday gave the Boy Scouts the go-ahead to hold their annual apple days in Pickering on Oct. 29 and 30.

Mrs. June Bilow, district secretary of the Owasco District Council, asked council in a letter to give the Boy Scouts permission to hold the Fall Cub and Scout Apple Days on those dates.

public sector groups, organized professional groups and the Ontario Federation of Labour.

The Ontario Teachers' Federation will be providing funds up to $50,000 for their program.

Teachers Protest A.I.M. Without Walkout

Last week's Day of Protest was not observed by the Ontario Teachers' Federation, although it has indicated its opposition to the way the present Anti Inflation Measures program has been applied by the government.

In a statement prior to the Oct. 14 Day of Protest Ron Stephen, Provincial President of the Ontario Public School Men Teachers' Federation, instructed all its members to fulfill their legal obligations and be on the job on Oct. 14. However, using the Canadian Teachers' Federation and the public vehicles, they plan to make their protests known.

According to Mr. Stephen a brief will be prepared and presented to the Prime Minister and his cabinet using all possible legal counsel.

The Federation will communicate to its members regarding its position and actions. It will also communicate to them regarding wage and price controls and the erosion of their collective bargaining rights.

Letters and telegrams will be sent by teachers to M.P.'s and M.P.P.'s about the Anti Inflation Measures and their position regarding same.

The Federation will contact the Boards of Education and Trustee Associations regarding their responsibility in the collective negotiations procedure. They will also contact the

New Bookmobile Design Winner Announced

The design by Cedarbrae Collegiate Grade 11 student, Risto Turunen, just turned 16 years old, has been chosen by members of the Scarborough Public Library Board to give a new look to the Bookmobile vans that tour the Borough with library service.

The winning design was the final choice from ninety-nine submitted last Spring, when the library extended an open invitation to the schools for Bookmobile design ideas. No prize was offered at that time. The response by so many art students indicated an enthusiastic creative force, as well as good community spirit.

The Library Board has decided to award prizes of art materials or books to the winner and the three runners-up: Louise Lusted and Steve Wright of Cedarbrae Collegiate and Chuck Cameron of Wexford Collegiate.

Antiques And Fakes

William Howard, an authority on antiques, will give a free talk on "Antiques and Fakes" on Tues., Oct. 19, 8:30 p.m., at the Clifffest Public Library, Clifffest Plaza, Kingston Road at McCowan Road.

Mr. Howard claims the antique market has pitfalls only for the uninformed. His talk will be very helpful to those who invest in antiques. It will also be of interest to those who buy old things because they love them and wish to know more about them. He will discuss reproductions, as well as clever fakes - a profitable business in England and Europe. There will be a question and answer period.

William Howard's expertise comes from a lifetime of experience and study. He was a designer of interiors and furniture originally. For many years he was the designer for the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. in these fields. His work can be seen in places such as Massey College, University of Toronto, Winnipeg's Parliament Buildings, the panelled library of Clarence House, London, which was done for H.R.H. Prince Philip; and in many institutions in Canada.

He has given lectures for thirty years.

The library will have a special display of books on antiques and antique buying, including one of Mr. Howard's favorites - The Gentle Art of Facing Furniture, by Herbert Cescinski.

A Concert In Pictures And Lands Of The Bible:

Eleven songs have been selected, such as On a Clear Day, Ole Man River, Far Away Places and the Messiah's Every Valley Shall Be Exalted, and are matched with suitable pictures. With such a diversified collection to call on the Widdifieds' idea is wonderfully illustrated.

Lands of the Bible, which will be the second half of the program follows the story of the Bible through from the time of Abraham, to the Apostles, then the Crusades and on to contemporary times. This revised show covers Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey and Greece.

West Hill SHA Scortit

(All games at Mid Scarb. & Art Thompson Arenas)

Welcome back to another season of SHA hockey as the Scortit is entering its second year of operation. Welcome to the new clubs entering the SHA for the first year of operation. (Scarborough East, Agincourt Civitans and Scarborough Central Lions, Sabres). As most parents are aware, the SHA is entering its first year of operation as an independent organization with no affiliation with the MTHL, OHA or CAHA, which means to most parents no sanctioned tournaments. The SHA have written to organizations outside of the CAHA and we have some responses from as far away as Vancouver, Regina, Winnipeg, Calgary, Hamilton, Thunder Bay and Sudbury. So for any club wanting to travel, there are lots of opportunities. The SHA are working on the idea of running our own Tournament.

The West Hill Association would like to thank all coaches, managers, trainers and most important the sponsors of all clubs.

The main purpose of this column is to inform the West Hill area of their teams and sponsors and in particularly the boys who play the game but not necessarily the boys that score each week. The boys who play consistently, game in and game out, very seldom got mentioned in past years.

Any coach, sponsor, parent or spectator who feels a write-up would be in order, please forward information and pictures (which are most appreciated) in black and white if possible along to Jim Carleton, 90 Greyabbey Trail, West Hill or 284-6809 by Sunday noon, for the coming week. Good luck to all SHA teams for the 1976-77 season and also good luck to Don Montgomery and the SHA for a very successful season.

DIRECTORS OF WEST HILL MINOR HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

President Gord Grant 284-0411, Past President Murray Rankin 839-3438, Vice President Graham Vallance 282-3480, Chairman Higher Series Doug Barr 439-5499, Chairman House League Bob Townsend 282-8519, Chairwoman Ladies Auxiliary Bonnie Saunders 439-7226, Director of Finance Jack Rae 284-5709, Director of Registration George Crump 282-7361, Director of Purchasing Bob Mattingly 839-7476.

MAJOR SERIES COMMITTEE

The Permanent Canadians

The Canada Permanent Trust sponsored Agincourt Canadians SHA "A" Minor Bantam Hockey Club won both its games last week blanking Wexford 8-0 in the final exhibition game and opened the new SHA season with 6-2 win over previously undefeated Cedar Hill.

The Permanent 8 - Wexford 0
The Canadians started right from the opening whistle and only the excellent work of the Wexford goalie kept the score from reaching double figures. Mark Porter led the goal scorers with 3 goals while Neil Williams added two goals with singles going to Bruce MacNabb, Peter Lowden and David Lewis. Goalie Doug Wylie registered his first shutout of the season and Steve Mort and Chris Baker turned in solid efforts on the blue line. The Canadians played without David Dunwoodie (hernia operation) and Paul Lowden out with a lung infection.

The Permanent 6 - Cedar Hill 2

The Permanent boys broke a 2-2 tie in the second period, scoring four unanswered goals. David Lewis opened the scoring for Canadians, finishing off a neat three way play with Paul Lowden and Craig Baxter drawing assists. Cedar Hill came back with two quick goals to take the lead, but Neil Williams knotted the count, while Cedar Hill was 2 men short. As the period ended Bruce MacNabb tipped in a goal mouth pass from Peter Lowden to give the Permanent a 3-2 lead. Mark Porter scored the fourth goal slapping in a drop pass from Peter Lowden. Steve Pidgeon notched the fifth (Canadian goal, banging home a Mike Langley pass from the point. David Lewis capped off the scoring, blasting an unassisted goal past the Cedar Hill goalie. Mike Lingley and John Belue turned in a great effort on defence while Dave Gillingham and Doug Wylie shared the goaltenders chores. David Dunwoodie is still missing from the Canadians line up.

Coaches Clinic

West Hill Minor Hockey Association Coaches' Development Committee, headed by John Clark along with Greg Simmerson and Roy Bowers, held their first of many coaches instructional clinics at Heron Park Oct. 13.

The first clinic was on goaltending, with the emphasis on conditioning, positional and practising the goaltender through shooting and proper use of the nets and angles.

There is so much information available to the hockey coach of today, with the National Hockey Coaches Certificate Program and the many books out on the market, that West Hill M.H.A. want to have this information available to their coaches so they can relay this information to their hockey players.

On Oct. 20, the C.D.C. will put on their second clinic which will cover skating and the basics that apply to hockey. On Oct. 27 the clinic will be on shooting and passing basics and their application. The month will be completed with their Level 2 National Certified Coaching Program held on Oct. 21. This session will take 8 hours of classroom and include 2 hours on ice session.

The Clinic for Oct. 31 is fully paid up and they are looking

Scarborough Swim Club "Pennant Meets"

Once more the "Pennant Meets" are under way as Scarborough Swim Club, along with nine other clubs, participated in the first "sprint meet" of the season, Sun Oct. 17 in Richmond Hill.

Many Scarborough Swim Club swimmers are veterans of such meets, but to others, this was initiation day.

Pennant Meets are rather unique in their format of operation. Unlike most swim meets, Pennant Meets have as sole criterion of segregation, ability, based on speed alone, as opposed to the usual division by sex, age, and ability within the age grouping.

Moreover, any club member can participate. Children are grouped together in categories ranging from "B" down to "E" according to their speed in each respective stroke. A child can, upon achieving a certain time, easily move up from one grade to the other.

These meets provide every child with the opportunity to compete on a regular basis. Through exposure to competition the child gains valuable experience and confidence as he or she progresses from one level to the next. This new challenge acts as a form of motivation which in turn becomes an incentive to hard work as the child recognizes the value of dedication to the task.

Ribbons are awarded to the sixth placing in each event.

Pennant Meets are of two types, "The Sprint Meets" and the "Long Distance Meets" and operate bimonthly.

YOUNGSTER AWAY - PLEASE REPORT

Last Friday was a red letter day at Sir John A. Macdonald Public School. A Block Parent representative did not have to make a single phone call re the whereabouts of a pupil.

Thanks to the fine cooperation of Mr. Cornwall, the principal, every morning and afternoon a different block parent is at the school making sure all children have arrived safely.

The policy at Sir John A. is to send a note in advance to the school with a brother, sister, neighbour child, or friend if a child is going to be absent because of illness, dentist appointments etc. If this is absolutely impossible parents are to call the school at 839-1159 before 9:30 a.m. or 2 p.m.

Sir John A. Macdonald Block Parents wish to thank all parents for their great cooperation. Keep up the good work!

ALADDIN AND KENSINGTON MARKET

On Fri. Oct. 15 the Junior students for Sir John A. Macdonald School went on a trip which I'm sure they'll remember fondly for a long time.

Their first stop was Kensington Market. The children were surprised to find it was an outdoor market and there was quite a distance between all the exhibits. They were impressed by the many different kinds of cheeses, live chickens, crabs, clams, fruit, fish and baked goods offered for sale by many different ethnic groups. This truly was a multi-cultural experience.

After having lunch at Queen's Park they proceeded by bus to the Royal Alexandra Theatre to watch a Broadway production of Aladdin. The actors in this play were over a hundred life-sized marionette puppets. The children thoroughly enjoyed the play and were also very impressed by the grandeur of the Royal Alex.

The students helped raise money for this exciting, memorable day by having bake sales at the school.

THE KINETTE CLUB OF BAY RIDGES

The Kinetite Club of Bay Ridges held their October meeting last week at the Caballera Restaurant. After a delicious spare-rib dinner the Kinetites listened with interest to Mr. George Clark, our guest speaker. Mr. Clark, who has been invited to go to Ottawa to receive the Royal Order of Canada, is a teacher-instructor for the Ajax-Pickering St. John's Ambulance Brigade. He told the girls how to treat burns, how to detect poisonous house and garden plants, how to recognize signs of a heart attack, and how to give mouth to mouth resuscitation to infants and adults. A question and answer period was held.

The Kinetite Club is busy preparing for the Sheridan Mall Tables, Nov. 6. Be sure to look for their table which will be situated in front of the Grenada Steak House. The Kinetites are also making plans for the Bay Ridges Santa Claus Parade and are busy helping the Kinsmen organize and make plans for the Senior Citizens Christmas Dinner. You will hear more about these last two items in the near future.

Report from the Legislature

BILL NEWMAN
M.P.P., Durham North

No one was hurt in a three-alarm fire that swept the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food Offices at 1200 Bay St. early last Saturday morning.

I am sorry to report that the fire which broke out on the 12th floor of my building will bring temporary disruption to many constituency matters.

Many files, especially recent correspondence, have been damaged by flames, smoke and water. I would therefore strongly urge anyone who has been dealing with my office to re-write any letters which may have been destroyed in the blaze.

I must also ask for the patience and cooperation of my constituents as there may be some delays in dealing with matters that have been brought to my attention recently.

All staff members who worked on the 12th floor are currently busy re-locating as emergency crews attempt to assess and repair the damaged areas.

Although telephone service was disrupted last week, service is restored and you can once again reach my office at 965-1041 or 965-4843. Unfortunately, the direct Zenith line may not be back in service for some time.

Whitby Warriors Win Again

Whitby Warriors, of the OHA Senior A League, continued their undefeated streak this season by defeating the Lindsay Lakers by a score of 6 to 1

Pickering Swim Team In Top

The Pickering Blue Dolphins Swim Club finished in top spot at the swim meet at Iroquois Park Pool in Whitby on Oct. 17.

Final team totals (for all four strokes) are: Pickering 286, Ajax 261, Scarborough 174, Port Hope 110 and Whitby 69.

Special mention goes to Sandra Fujino in the 8 years and under category; Tim Pinkerton and Thomas Buchmann, 10 and under; Corinne Lueg, Ursula Wolfel, Murray Legge and Mark Thomas, 11 and 12 years; Joan Thomas and Eddie Tremblay, 13 and 14 years and Paul Ellis in the Open, for their outstanding performances.

last Sunday evening. This followed a victory in Barrie on Fri. Oct. 22, of 6 to 4 over the Barrie Flyers.

One of the bright lights for the Warriors in their victory over Lindsay on Sunday night was the play of their 39 year old rookie, Eddie Shack. Eddie, who is noted for his antics on the ice during his long career in the NHL, was his old self again on Sunday night, scoring one goal and getting two assists. He took a regular shift on right wing, played the point on the power plays, killed penalties and took an odd shift on defense after Wayne Stokes was injured during the second period. "THE ENTERTAINER" kept the crowd happy with his mad rink-long rushes yelling at the top of his voice and with his little dances and funny antics throughout the game.

Whitby led 4-0 at the end of the first period on goals by playing coach Gary Milroy at 7:20 and 12 minutes of the first period. Peter Vipond at 12:12 and Shack's goal coming at the 18 minute mark. There was no scoring at all in the second period and in the third, Whitby's fifth goal was scored by Mike Noonan on a power play effort and with one second remaining in the game Charlie Convery scored Whitby's sixth goal. Lindsay's goal came at the 7:14 mark of the third period and was scored by Len Powers.

It was a relatively clean game with only five minor penalties being called, three of them to Lindsay. Whitby out-shot Lindsay 44 to 25. Whitby's next game is Fri. Oct. 22 in Orillia and their next home game is Sun. Oct. 24 when they host the Barrie Flyers at 7:30 p.m. at Iroquois Park Arena.
