Raedisch On Airport Land

Pickering Mayorality candidate, Heinz Raedisch, says that an important issue in the upcoming municipal election is shaping up.

He adds that almost all candidates want to attract industry and business to our town, but nobody seems to have a sensible approach to this problem.

"The elected mayor will have to approach the federal government and ask to free up Pickering airport land, situated in the area of Seaton. This will have to be done now and not some time in the distant future. Said land will have to be zoned industrial and offered at attractive purchase price to potential business and industry," declared Heinz Raedisch.

He adds: "This will create healthy competition with the developers, who own almost 100% of all industrial land in Pickering."

At reasonable land prices, industry will be delighted to settle in Pickering and hence jobs and lower property tax will follow, the candidate said.

Kevin Ashe Candidate For Separate School Trustee

Kevin Ashe has announced that he will be a candidate for one of the four Pickering Uxbridge trustee positions on the Durham Region Roman Catholic Separate School Board in the upcoming municipal election.

The nineteen year resident of Pickering is a graduate of the Durham Separate School System, having attended Holy Redeemer Separate School at the elementary level and Denis O'Connor Catholic High School at the secondary level.

In announcing his candidacy Kevin Ashe said "I want to help improve and expand the educational experience of young people today. I believe in the traditions of family values and service to our neighbours and ask for the support of those residents who share these ideas."

The 23 year old is currently employed by a large jewellery manufacturing company in the Customer Service Department. Kevin previously worked as an aide to Deputy Premier and Attorney General Robert Welch for three and a half years.

Kevin and his family are members of the Holy Redeemer Parish.

Simonsen Seeks Ward 1 Local Councillor Position

Shore Association Executive Boards. John Simonsen has learned about municipal government by watching it, by studying it, and has built a solid reputation as an honest concerned citizen.

Simonsen says there are a couple of issues that are important to the residents of Pickering. The garbage pickup that was recently contracted out is inadequate and should be rescinded.

He would like to see more commercial and industrial development come into the Town of Pickering. This would help to offset residential taxes, and create jobs for local residents.

Volunteers for his campaign would be gratefully appreciated. John can be reached at 839-3883.

An Exhibition Of Sculpture

In 1982 a number of artists who met while studying sculpture with Elizabeth Fraser Williamson decided to form a group for the purpose of mutual support, criticism and exhibition. They called themselves "The Third Dimension".

The artists all reside in Scarborough and come from a variety of backgrounds including a business executive, social worker and teachers.

An exhibition of their work is presently being held at The Magic Image, 72 Kingston Rd. W. in the Village of Pickering, and will continue until Nov. 2.

The gallery is open from 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Tuesday to Saturday.

Sculpture by Walter Grace, Nina Jansen, Ruth Kirke, Paul McAuliffe.

Jacqueline Ohora, Yvonne Richardson, Jane Smith and Lin Whitman will be on view.

Sharing With A Senior

Tenants who are spending so much of their income on rent that they have little left for other necessities or comforts are being urged by a community agency to consider the option of sharing accommodation with a senior.

Many older people living alone would like to enjoy the benefits of companionship, reduced expenses and mutual support. Older homeowners or apartment dwellers who are willing to share their homes are assisted to find compatible partners by SHARING, Metro's non-profit shared accommodation service for older people.

Although one partner to each match must be an unattached person over the age of 60, the other partner or partners may be of any age. SHARING staff carry out in-depth interviews to match for compatibility, negotiate agreements and provide counseling through the matching process.

The agency is not a room registry or rental agent for those having apartments or flats to rent. Matches are made only between those who are willing to share kitchens and other common space. SHARING has recently been awarded a second grant from the New Horizons Program, Health and Welfare Canada, in order to expand its service. Those interested in meeting others with a view toward shared living may call 591-1657 to arrange for an interview.

Setting Record Straight

Dear Sir:

I'd like to set Gay Abbate straight about my relationship with Aldermanic Candidates in this fall's election.

Because of my work over the past 5 years, I've met and become friends with many people who are running against incumbent aldermen. But neither I nor anyone on my staff have "pushed" them to run, and we certainly aren't co-ordinating their campaigns. Tell me: how are you explaining visible minority conservative candidates?

There's a new Scarborough out there today. The newer communities have played a supporting role in Scarborough politics for a long time, but now they want to run for office themselves. And what's wrong with that? They have time, talent and energy to offer, and I'm pleased to see them making this commitment to city life.

I assure you, though, that they have made up their own minds about why they are running, where they're running and what they want to do once they hold office. To think or write otherwise is to do them and their communities an unwarranted injustice.

Yours truly,

Patricia Holloway

Recipients of Federal Old Age Security Pensions, Guaranteed Income Supplements and Spouse's Allowance benefits will find a few more dollars in their envelopes.

Old age pensioners will receive $2.80 more. The universal Old Age Pension paid to persons 65 years and older will rise from $280.14 to $282.94 for the months of October, November and December.

Single pensioners in need who receive the maximum supplement will take home an extra $3.33. The maximum supplement (G.I.S.) will go up to $336.26 from $332.93.

Each spouse of a married couple will receive a maximum increase of $2.17. Their pension will rise from $216.83 each to $219.00 each.

The maximum spouses allowance paid to needy people between 60 and 64 who are married to G.I.S. recipients will be increased by $4.97. Their allowance will increase from $496.97 to $501.94. The maximum extended Spouse's Allowance will increase by $5.49 to $554.16 from $548.67.

An amendment to the Old Age Security Act now allows payment of the Spouse's Allowances to all 60-64 year old low income widows and widowers who reside in Canada and who meet the residence requirements regardless of when their spouse dies.

This amendment which became effective this September fulfills a promise made by the government to improve federal assistance to near elderly widowed persons.

Persons who feel that they may be eligible or know someone who could be eligible for the new Spouse's Allowance Program are encouraged to contact my riding office (261-8613) for further information on how to apply for these benefits.

All four benefits are adjusted every three months based on changes in the Consumer Price Index which is used by Statistics Canada to measure inflation.

Canada World Youth Exchange Program

Canada World Youth is launching its 1986 recruitment campaign with the news that 800 young people will be participating in this year's youth exchange program. CWY, funded in part by the Canadian International Development Agency, and now in its 14th consecutive year, is looking for workers and students between the ages of 17 and 20 who are interested in learning about development and cross-cultural communication in both Canada and a developing country.

Application forms and more information are available from Canada World Youth, Ontario Regional Office, 627 Davenport Rd., Toronto, Ont. M5R 1L2, or phone 922-0776.

New Fibre/Plastics Program

A new high-tech program in fibre plastics technology is being offered by Centennial College in January. Fibre plastics is the technology of manufacturing parts that are ultralight but stronger than steel. The one-year advanced diploma program -- the only one in Ontario -- is open to mechanical and chemical engineering technicians and technologists, as well as those with equivalent experience in the field. For information call 752-4444, ext. 246.

Ahead Of Last Year

"With 3 months still remaining in 1985, sales of MLS residential properties by Members of the Toronto Real Estate Board have already surpassed last year's 12-month total," Board president Joe Castaldi said recently.

"We are already 8% ahead of the 1984 total, and I would not be surprised to see that figure top 30% by the year end. Unlike some years in the past, sales this September declined marginally from August. As well, new listings were down. However, I believe that the slight rise in the mortgage rates in mid-September was a factor in these declines," noted Mr. Castaldi.

A Chorus of 1,986 Voices

A chorus of 1,986 voices will join together in song on opening day of EXPO 86, May 2, 1986. The British Columbia Choral Federation has agreed to recruit and rehearse both the adult and young singers to take part in what will be a spectacular celebration.

The BCCF will seek participation from community, church and school groups as well as individual choral singers. Groups will be provided in advance with the score of a special work being commissioned by EXPO 86 for the event. Full rehearsals will take place in Vancouver's B.C. Place Stadium in the two days preceding the opening.

Hydro Rates Up 4%

Ontario Hydro will increase electricity rates an average 4 percent, effective Jan. 1st, the utility's Board of Directors has decided.

Rate increases to municipal utilities will be the lowest in 20 years, while increases to direct industrial customers will be at the lowest level in 14 years. The new rate increase is lower than the 4.9 percent recently recommended by the Ontario Energy Board but higher than Hydro's original 3.6 percent proposal announced in March of this year.

Questionnaire On Consumer Issues by the Consumers' Association Of Canada

1. What can you do to prevent T.T.C. fares rising above a cashfare of $1.00 (or a ticket token fare of 75¢) for the next three years?
2. If the Dome Stadium loses money once it goes into regular operation, who will cover the costs?
3. Will increased traffic congestion across Metro eventually lead to limited vehicle access to parts of the city at certain times? If not, what is the solution to traffic and parking congestion?
4. Are property tax increases inevitable over the next decade? Will market value assessment be the solution?
5. For the last two summers some, or all of, Toronto's beaches have been closed because of water pollution. Will they be open next summer?
6. What specific solutions would you offer to increase the stock of affordable housing in Metro?
7. Should retailers be allowed to make their own decisions on whether their stores should be open on Sundays?

Poetry Corner

Encounter At Port-Au-Prince

There is just one couple in "La Cafe Anglaise" somehow making me feel out of place.
A breathtakingly beautiful pair - she's wearing pinsettas in her hair.

Living ebony,
I can't quite make out his broad patois - his lips hold what seems like a french Gauloise.
Oh, what a picture is she!
But he whispers like deep in despair:
Nous sommes, mon amour - nous sommes compagnons de misere.
The brilliantly muraled "tap-taps" pass by, while rainclouds begin to darken the sky - and the lovers look suddenly sad.
Mon amour - he says - mon amour he says,
mon amour, - la soleil est malade.
Discreetly I leave and I close the door.
-La soleil est malade?
Never heard that before.

Around Scarborough

by Gay Abbate

Questionnaire

There's a group of residents who want to keep Scarborough green and they've prepared a questionnaire to identify the true environmental candidates in this election. All declared candidates for municipal office will be asked to fill out the form. The result of the survey will be made public early in November. We'll pass along the results of this questionnaire when available.

Apology To Norm

In last week's column, we drew a connection between some "ethnic" aldermanic candidates and workers in Norm Kelly's mayoralty campaign. Norm has taken strong exception to our statements. He says that neither he nor any of his workers are involved in anyone else's campaign: "I am proud of my connections in the cultural community and glad so many are running but I am not part of any organization to get them to run." We therefore extend an apology to Norm and his workers. In our own defence, we can only say that our comments were based on information provided by a number of sources we thought to be very reliable.

Save $1 Billion

The race for the mayor's chair has another candidate. He is 62 year old Abel Van Wyk, a stationary engineer with Metropolitan Toronto. Abel promises that his scheme to build an expressway across Lake Ontario connecting Pickering and Etobicoke and his plans to pipe in fresh water from the north could save Scarborough as much as $1 billion.

He Had Them First

Every election brings questions why Controller Frank Faubert, a well known Liberal, uses NDP colours on his election signs. The answer is simple - Frank has been using these colours long before the NDP selected them as their official party colours. Because the orange stands out so well, Frank decided to stick with it despite the inevitable questions.

Make Great Funnels

On the subject of signs, we've decided there are many uses for them besides putting them up on people's lawns. One use we personally discovered is that they make great funnels. That's right - funnels - as in a funnel to pour transmission fluid into your engine after a transmission fluid hose has come off dumping all your fluid on the road leaving you stranded. That's what happened on Thanksgiving Day as I was driving over to Alderman Edith Montgomery's house. Both Edie and my brother came to my rescue. My brother fixed the hose and Edie sacrificed one of her election signs so we could turn it into a funnel. From now on I'm not travelling anywhere without an election sign in my car for emergency purposes.

Watch Those Borders

It happens every election - either the candidate or his workers don't know where their ward ends or else they are so enthused that they end up dropping literature to houses in another ward. It came to our attention last week that some ward 5 residents have received literature of Nirmal Chodha who is running against Alderman Shirley Eidt in ward 8.

Down In Ward 2

Residents of the Oakridge community who fought for months to persuade politicians not to give them a large park they did not want must be having a bird over the literature of May McKenzie who would like to succeed Barry Christensen as ward 2 alderman. May was the only one in the Oakridge community to try and persuade the politicians to proceed with the park despite community opposition. Now May has put in her literature that if elected she "will oppose inappropriate land uses which conflict with neighbourhood priorities."

Watch The Name

The biggest faux-pas of the campaign to date award has to go to Ajit Kukade who is trying to unseat ward 14 Alderman Edith Montgomery. In his literature he spells Scarborough "Scarboro".

Ward 7 Trustee Race

The ward 7 trustee race is one to watch closely the next couple of weeks. Incumbent Aubrey Rhamey is facing strong competition from newcomer Eric Conroy who recently took on the Scarborough Board of Education and won. Eric led the parents who demanded a full-time teacher for their grade 4 class at Fairmount Jr. P.S. The establishment may view Eric as an upstart but a quick peak at his credentials and accomplishments show that this is one person who doesn't accept "no" for an answer.

Business Association Hosts Mayoralty Candidates

by Gay Abbate

Scarborough's mayoralty race promises to be a relatively tame affair if last week's all mayoralty candidates' meeting is an indicator. The meeting was sponsored by the Scarborough Business Association.

While Brian Harrison and Joe DeKort decided to stick to their own platforms, Norm Kelly took a couple of swipes at incumbent mayor Gus Harris who chose to pass up the meeting.

Kelly called Harris' industrial policy "a farce".

"North York Mel Lastman is hustling for it. Don't you think it's time Scarborough has someone hustling for it," Kelly asked his audience.

Kelly also took a parting shot at Harris and his reputation for ribbon cutting saying "I have no desire to be ceremonial head."

DeKort, who has spent 11 years on council, stressed the need to attract commercial, industrial and office assessment in order to keep property taxes down.

The main component of his economic strategy is the re-location of the CP marshalling yards and the conversion of the 290 acre site into a high-technology industrial park with 5800 jobs.

DeKort, however, could not say how much such a move would cost.

DeKort also vowed to improve library services by establishing a Scarborough Library Foundation to co-ordinate fund raising to improve existing library facilities.

Harrison emphasized his past contributions to Scarborough - holding taxes down as the city's budget chief, coming up with the idea of a Scarborough flag and pushing for a new civic centre and the RT line.

department to deal with tenant problems and environmental impact studies on major developments.

Students Write & Sing About The Titanic

The mystique of the Titanic, recently revived with the discovery of the sunken ship, is the theme for a series of creative songwriting workshops in Scarborough schools.

Toronto songwriter Deborah Dunleavy is visiting several schools with a program of songs and songwriting throughout October, November and December. It's part of a classroom study of the poetic aspects of traditional, literary and modern ballads.

Grade 7 and 8 students will join her in singing about shipwrecks and life on the open seas.

During this project, students will take a critical look at the lyrics and melodies of several ballads, including Gordon Lightfoot's "The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald", comparing modern and traditional versions of this form of literary expression. Afterwards, they will write their own compositions about the sinking of the Titanic luxury liner in 1912.

Ms. Dunleavy's visits to grade 4, 5 and 6 classes will focus on "Jibbery Jive".

chants and songs based on nonsense.

Each visit includes an introductory session in which Ms. Dunleavy presents the theme and project and performs for the students, followed by a workshop in which students try their own hand at the craft. At some schools, a final session also has been arranged to allow students to share their work with Ms. Dunleavy.

These visits were organized by the English Division of the board's program department. "This classroom study of ballads is intended to assist students in developing creative writing skills," says Art Hughes, the coordinator of English. "At the same time they are learning about a particular form of poetry within a historical perspective."

Keep your kids in their place...

It's the law for everyone travelling in a car, but too many people don't secure their children properly.

- For example:
- Small children must have harness straps fastened.
 - Child safety seats must be attached to the car by the seat belt.
 - When required, tether straps must be fastened.
 - Shoulder belts or harnesses should not be under the arms.
 - Lap belts should be low on the hips.

Child safety seats are only effective in reducing injuries when they are used properly.

A Christmas Treat For Kids

Scarborough Music Theatre announces a special treat for children this Christmas.

The musical play "Pinocchio" will be presented at Scarborough Village Theatre on Dec. 26, 27, 28 and 29 with two performances on Sat. Dec. 28 and Sun. Dec. 29.

Thursday and Friday performances will start at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday performances at 1 and 3 p.m.

All the old favourites are in this version adapted by Rene Aloma but with a few new twists to delight young audiences.

Tickets are now on sale at $3.50 each. For reservations call the box office at 264-2839.

In addition to this special attraction Scarborough Music Theatre will also present three mainstage productions for its 1985-86 season: "Annie" in November, "The Matchmaker" in February and "Barnum" in April.

Scarborough Village Theatre is located at 3600 Kingston Rd. at Markham Rd. Parking is free.

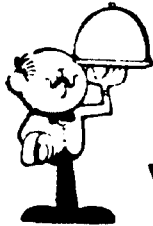

Who Killed Santa Claus?

The Victoria Players present their 1985 A.C.T. entry at the Fairview Library Theatre Oct. 23 to 26.

The play, directed by Joyce Howard, is set in a Christmas atmosphere and will be enjoyed by all who attend.

The performance starts at 8 p.m. and there will be one intermission with light refreshments.

For ticket information and reservations call 494-7304 or 493-4851.

Scarborough Philharmonic 85/86 Season

The Scarborough Philharmonic Orchestra kicks off its 1985-86 concert series with "A Bit Of Merrie Olde", a delightful evening of the music of Britain with special guests, the Scarborough Choral Society, on Sat. Oct. 26th at 8 p.m.

The Philharmonic is hoping this will be its most successful season ever, with a new conductor, Christopher Kitts, a brand new look and a new more professional sound.

This Saturday's concert features everything from the Overture from Pirates of Penzance to the Crown Imperial March and even Dances from Henry VIII. Featured composers include Sullivan, Vaughn-Williams, Elgar, Walton, Handel-Harty, German and Delius. It promises to be a lively, enjoyable evening with a few surprises.

The Scarborough Philharmonic has built its subscription series on themes. Future concerts include: Showstoppers: the Three B's - Bach, Beethoven and Brahms; Dance, Dance, Dance; and Romantics and Mysticism. Featured guests include jazz great Moe Koffman, international renowned violinist Stephen Stryk and Valerie Raeburn on flute. There's lots of variety and musical excitement.

Christophe Kitts, the Philharmonic's dynamic new conductor, brings more than 20 years of performing and conducting experience to the orchestra. His credits include successful performances on the CBC, West German radio network and NBC television. He has conducted orchestras in Paris' Notre Dame Cathedral; the United Nations in New York City and the New Orleans World Fair.

There are still a limited number of good subscription seats available. For more information, call the Scarborough Philharmonic Orchestra office at 439-9518. Tickets will also be available at the door.

A Hearth Warming Story

Wood heating is making a comeback. Efficient, safe and inexpensive, lots of people are discovering wood heating fits their needs.

But before installing a wood stove and fireplace insert in your home, find out how to make the most of it at the Kortright Centre Oct. 26 to 29.

Take a hike through the Humber Valley and learn which trees are best for home heating. See demonstrations on proper safety techniques for wood splitting and stove operations. Activities start at 3 p.m. each day.

Various types of woodstoves and inserts will be on display, films and slideshows on wood heating will be shown, and hot cider served.

Pandamania Sends Fans To Tokyo

Qing Qing and Quan Quan, giant pandas at the Metro Toronto Zoo, wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cook of Oshawa on being the one millionth visitor to view their happy home on Thanksgiving Day.

The lucky couple received a special tour of the zoo, two Dakin official stuffed pandas and will fly to Tokyo via CP Air Orient Express where they will visit pandas Huan-Huan and Fei-Fei.

In addition the couple will receive $500 in American Express Traveler's cheques to help with expenses.

Pandas Qing Qing and Quan Quan, began their historic 100 day visit in mid-July and will continue to greet their many fans until Nov. 3rd.

2 One Act Comedies At Scarborough College

The Scarborough College Drama Department will be presenting two one act comedies, John Mortimer's "Lunch Hour" and Harry Kondoleon's "Self Torture and Strenuous Exercise", at Scarborough College, T.V. Studio No. 1, 1265 Military Trail, south of Ellesmere.

John Mortimer is a well known English writer for both television and stage. His comedy Lunch Hour provides an entertaining look at relationships, affairs and lies.

Equally entertaining is Harry Kondoleon's Self Torture and Strenuous Exercise, which deals with the topic of affairs in a different manner - within the realm of marriage and friendship in the 80's.

The dates for the performances are Wed. Oct. 30, Thurs. Oct. 31, Fri. Nov. and Sat. Nov. 2 beginning at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

For further information and reservations call Scarborough College at 284-3204 or 284-3126.

Broadway Bound Musical

The world premiere of the big, new Broadway-bound musical play "Dori" is being presented by Leah Posluns Theatre until Nov. 9th.

This sumptuous production with a cast of 40, set in the splendour of Edwardian Vienna, is by noted writer, director and poet Eric Blau.

Dori is based on the life and times of Theodor Herzl, the man most responsible for the establishment of the State of Israel.

Starring David Brummel as Dori the play features Tom Kneebone.

Sports Report

By Glenn Sutherland

SPARTANS WIN E.S.F.L. TITLE

Ian Allison kicked a ten yard field goal with only 22 seconds left on the clock as he and the Scarborough Spartans U20 open-weight football team came from behind to claim the Empire State Football League Championship with a dramatic 14-12 win over the Wayland Redskins of New York on Saturday night.

The win gave the Spartans a final regular season record of 7-0-1 while Wayland finishes in second place at 6-2-0 with their only two losses coming at the hands of Scarborough.

There are no playoffs in this league but the Spartans may move on to play for an all-state championship. The league, although going by the name of Empire State, only consists of five teams in the Rochester area plus Scarborough.

Scarborough, playing on familiar home ground at the L'Amoreaux Sports Complex, was unable to get started as the Redskins led 6-0, 6-3, and finally 12-3 in the first half.

Ian Allison, with a field goal, was the only Spartan able to put points on the board before halftime. Luckily for Scarborough, Wayland missed both of their two-point kicking conversions (a league option as opposed to a one-point kicking convert).

Some chalk talk by Tedd Sommerville and his coaching crew seemed to do the trick as both the Spartans' offense and defense seemed to come alive in the second half.

Robbie Edwards got things going in the third quarter as he took a swing pass from quarterback Greg Iannarilli, on a faked field goal attempt, and proceeded to scamper 30 yards into the end zone.

Allison came on to kick the two-point convert to leave the Spartans one point from a tie, all they would need to claim the championship.

Nearing the end of the game, Scarborough started a drive from within their own territory and marched all the way down to the two yard line. However, when running back George Georgiopoulos was hit for a three yard loss to push the ball back to the five and Scarborough could not advance it any further. Sommerville decided that the best option would be to go to Allison for the field goal. It turned out to be a wise choice.

Allison's boot sent the whole team into a wild frenzy both on the field and on the sidelines as Redskin players watched in dismay and disbelief.

For Sommerville it is his fifth championship, having won five titles in Ontario while part of the Midget (Major) league. In Ontario, his players had to keep under a weight maximum but as mentioned before, the Empire State League does not have any weight restrictions, only age.

Although Scarborough was only able to put 14 points on the sheet, they had some excellent individual performances among the ranks.

Starting quarterback Greg Iannarilli (11 for 22-104 yards), running back Robbie Edwards (7 for 26 on the ground, 4 for 81 on the pass), offensive end Ian Allison (2 for 26 on the pass), and running back Georgiopoulos (22 carries for 117 yards on the ground) had excellent performances.

Congratulations again to head coach Tedd Sommerville plus the following assistant coaches for their fine effort: Ross Rennie (defensive co-ordinator), Ken Palardy (defensive line), Dave Bradley (defensive backfield), Bill Manley (offensive co-ordinator), and George Demelo (offensive line).

The team would also like to thank Sports Therapist Tom Rennie and Team Doctor John Beal for being there when needed.

WEXFORD TIES TWICE
The Wexford Raiders Junior B Hockey Club raised its record to 2-3-3 as they tied Henry Carr Crusaders 3-3 at St. Michael's Arena on Saturday night and the Trenton Bobcats 3-3 at Scarboro Arena on Sunday evening.

Wexford were victims of two Crusader third-period goals as they had a commanding 3-1 lead going into the final frame only to see it slip out of their hands.

Raider goals, two in the first and one in the second, came off the sticks of Chris Lovisek, Andy Rivers and Jim Yonge.

On Sunday, Wexford would again have trouble holding the lead as Chris Lovisek scored two goals within 19 seconds in the third period to give the Raiders a 3-2 lead only to see the Bobcats Marc Vachon score with 12 minutes left to tie it up.

That is the way the score remained as both goaltenders, Wexford's Tony Bianchi and Trenton's Dave Burnett, were able to hold each team's sharpshooters at bay.

Dino Paric had scored Wexford's first goal as he put in a power-play marker with less than six minutes left in the second period.

Wexford, now sitting tied for third place with Henry Carr, who are 3-1-1, will get three chances in the next three days to up their place in the standing.

On the 25th they visit the Bramalea Blues and on the 29th make a road trip to Peterborough for a match against the 1-5 Trentway Wagaw Roadrunners.

Sandwiched between those games is a home contest against the Kingston Voyageurs on the 27th. Game time is 7:15 at Scarboro Arena.

Leaders of the 5 Pin Bowling community from all across Ontario will convene in Toronto next month to salute three key contributors to growth, prosperity and popularity of their sport and industry.

The 13th annual awards dinner for the builders of the bowling industry is scheduled for 6 p.m. Sat. Nov. 9th at the Toronto Hilton Harbour Castle.

The tribute to Walter Valentan of Scarborough, the principal honoree, who is administrator of the bowling proprietors' association and of the Ontario division of the National Youth Bowling Council, will recognize a career spanning 30 years.

The Ontario 5 Pin Bowlers' Association, co-sponsor, will also pay tribute to Clive Minto of Toronto, president and chief executive officer of Pepsi-Cola Canada Ltd., in recognition of the company's sponsorship for more than 20 years of the annual "Pepsi Challenge".

The Bowling Proprietors' Association of Ontario, also a co-sponsor, will pay tribute to William Sutherland of Oakville, Regional Vice-President Brunswick International (Canada) Ltd., a 38 year employee and executive of the U.S. based Brunswick Corporation, who throughout his career has been a booster of the uni-

REQUEST FOR SUBMISSIONS

SECONDARY EDUCATION STUDY COMMITTEE

The Scarborough Board of Education is committed to long-term planning and regular reviews of all aspects of the school system to ensure the most effective program delivery for Scarborough students.

In accordance with the Planning Guide, 1985-1990, the Program Department, in co-operation with the Student and Community Services Department, is now planning to study the organization and future directions of post-elementary schools in Scarborough. A review is appropriate at this time because several forces have influenced the organization of secondary education during the past three years. These include Ontario Schools: Intermediate and Senior (the new high school curriculum), special education legislation, and changing enrolment patterns.

The administration of the Scarborough Board of Education has set up a Secondary Education Study Committee to conduct the review. The following types of questions will be addressed:

- What type of school organization will provide the opportunity to offer the best programs to serve the needs of our students?
- Basic, general, and advanced level courses should be offered in which types of schools?
- Should Scarborough continue three different types of schools — collegiate, occupational, and vocational — to best satisfy the needs of the greatest number of students?

All individuals or groups in Scarborough who have a specific interest in this area are invited to make submissions to the Secondary Education Study Committee. It is suggested that submissions be organized under the following headings:

1. Concerns (priority order)
2. Causes of the Concerns
3. Possible Realistic Solutions
4. Potential Pitfalls of Various Solutions
5. Recommended Realistic Solutions

Submissions should be typed (if possible), clearly labelled, and addressed as follows:

Secondary Education Study Committee
Mr. R. J. Goldring, Assistant Superintendent
Program Department, Level 2
Scarborough Board of Education
140 Borough Drive
Scarborough, Ontario M1P 4N6

Submissions must be received by November 15, 1985.

Groups or individuals who send in a submission may also wish to make an oral presentation to the committee on THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1985, in Committee Rooms 3 and 4 of the Education Centre. This should be clearly indicated on the submission.

Craig Riley is anticipating sales in excess of $3,000,000 in 1986 at Craig Motors, a business he began in Scarborough five years ago at the age of 24.

He opened his first used car dealership in 1980 on Old Kingston Rd. in West Hill with a staff of two.

In Feb. 1983 he purchased property on Lawrence Ave. at Kennedy Rd. and opened a second successful used car dealership. A third one opened in West Hill in 1984.

This September a Suzuki dealership was granted to him and he began his first new car dealership. He now has a staff of about 20.

The message this week came in music as we once again enjoyed the Methodist Chinese youth choir. These young people are here studying at high school and early college level, under the sponsorship of the Methodist Chinese Church. We recommend you make an effort to hear them should the occasion arise.

Following worship we retired to our hall for a friendly gathering over lunch. The young people mixed with our congregation as if they had known each other all their lives.

A special thanks to the United Church Women who sponsored the occasion in recognition of Year for Youth, and to those who assisted in preparation, serving and clearing up as well as in the contribution of food.

Our next celebration is the bazaar on Sat. Nov. 16th from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Everyone is working hard on Christmas items, hand-crafts, etc. and soon the ovens will be full of goodies. Luncheon and/or tea will be available so plan to stay awhile, visit and browse.

Come the end of November we must say farewell to Mr. & Mrs. Butler which is something we would rather not do. In the meantime the Board is trying to arrange for a suitable person to take over and we wish them well in this venture.

We are happy to report our congregation appears to be in good health at this time and may this continue.

Remember next Sunday our clocks go back to Standard Time and you can have an extra hour's sleep. See you at 11 a.m. E.S.T.

You Can Make The Difference

Are you a caring, sensitive and fun loving person who enjoys meeting new people and has three hours per week to share (day or evening)?

If you are the type of person who enjoys such activities as swimming, crafts, cards, music and visiting programs, can play a musical instrument, drive a van or possess other talents, you could contribute to the friendly laughter and enjoyable experiences for those adults and seniors who are socially isolated due to long term hospitalization.

HOME Improvement

Turn your basement into a place for the kids and reclaim the upstairs for yourself

As the family grows up, the house seems to get smaller. There are few rooms where you can get away from it all. You need more space. Why not turn your unfinished basement into a cozy, quiet rec room, a place the kids can call their own while you reclaim your upstairs peace and quiet.

Finishing a basement area to turn it into a comfortable new rec room isn't difficult. It's easy and it's fun. And it's a project in which the whole family can participate. There are three main areas to consider: the walls, the floor and the ceiling. The walls will probably need more insulation. In most homes the basement walls are not insulated adequately, and are a major source of heat loss. Insulation should go up to the ceiling joist and be covered with a polyethylene vapor retarder on the warm-in-winter side. Once the insulation is in place, cover with attractive wood panelling and your cozy new family room is one step closer

Ceiling easy to install

The last part of this do-it-yourself project is the ceiling. A modern, suspended ceiling is convenient, easy to install and adds a touch of elegance to any basement or family room. Ceiling boards such as Sonoflex, made by Fiberglas Canada, as well as being aesthetically pleasing, are made of dense, interwoven glass fibre which soaks up excessive noise. The ceiling boards are light weight, flexible and built to bend into place. They pop into squares in the suspended metal grid and flatten out leaving them beautifully intact. The boards require only two inches of clearance below the ceiling joists. They also carry a five-year guarantee against warping and buckling which makes them worry-free as well as attractive.

There, your new rec room is finished. A little time and effort, well invested, has given you and the whole family a comfortable new living space; a place where growing children can enjoy themselves while you relax in blissful silence upstairs.

STUDENTS GET A CHANCE TO EXPERIENCE IT FOR THEMSELVES

Pickering Museum Village offers a unique and "custom made" learning experience for students. With special emphasis on spontaneity and enjoyment, skilled guides will help to interpret the lifestyle of the Village. Through a hands-on approach the students will be encouraged to ask questions and to participate in discussion about the early settlers in this part of the Province.

Activities change with the elements and the season, but most importantly with the needs of each group. The trip can be geared to the students' heritage interests and curriculum, and the Village buildings may be visited with a special focus on a combination of the following themes: A child's life; Foods of yesterday; The Museum through art; Clothing and Shelter; Architecture; Archaeology; Crafts of the early settlers; Plants in pioneer life; Families and Neighbourhood; Communication and Transportation and Pleasures and Pastimes.

School Tours commence in May of each year and run during May, June, September and October, but bookings for 1986 can be made now by calling 683-2760 Ext. 277. The staff can also help with suggested pre-visit program ideas to ready students to take full advantage of the visit.

Visits are about two hours in length and begin at either 9:30 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. with cost per student $1. After the tour of the village is over, why not stay awhile and take advantage of the large picnic area beside the woods and stream, enjoy the recreation fields which can be used for sports and games, or take a quiet nature walk adjacent to the Museum grounds.

For teachers who like to carry out an inspection tour prior to committing themselves to a school booking, call the staff who will show you over the Village. The museum recreation fields are a great place to hold a school picnic day, the possibilities are endless and we guarantee you a warm welcome.

By George Ashe, MPP Durham West

This week, October 21-27, is Block Parent Week in Ontario.

Block Parents is a volunteer organization established to provide safe shelter for children who find themselves in a dangerous or frightening situation.

As most of you would be aware, members of the association have a red and white window sign depicting an adult holding the hand of a child. When the member is home, and available to a child in need, the sign is placed in the window. Every participant in the organization has been screened by the local police force to ensure that a 'safe house' for children really is safe.

Membership has been growing since the association first began but there are still a number of communities throughout the province which either do not have a Block Parents' program or only have it in some areas of the community.

As families move, gaps in the number of 'safe houses' occur. In some of our newer communities where the program has not yet been introduced, the need is particularly severe.

Block Parents is a worthwhile and much needed community effort. They can use your help.

If you would like to learn more about the Block Parent Association in your area, why not give them a call? In most cases, they can be found in the white pages of your telephone directory, or phone your local municipal office, or my constituency office.

While I am on the topic of safety I would like to spend a few moments on the matter of safety during this fall's hunting season.

I know you will find it interesting to learn that the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters is convinced that fewer hunting accidents will occur if hunters wear either a fluorescent orange jacket and hat, or fasten a large fluorescent orange patch on their back, chest and head. If all hunters were to follow this advice it is estimated that hunting accidents would be reduced by 75 percent.

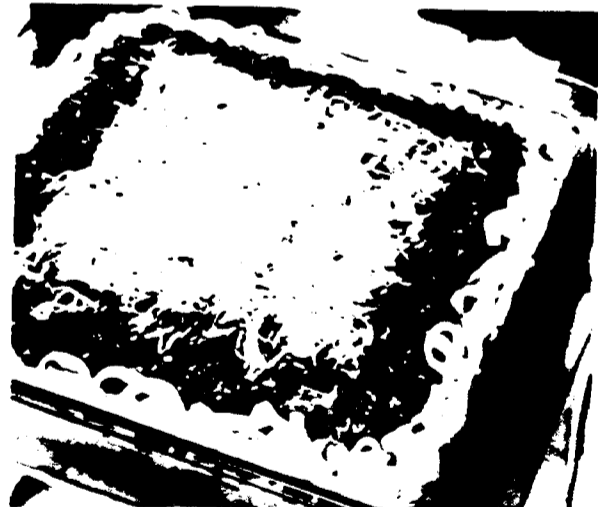

When carrying your rifle to and from the hunting site remember to ensure that it is not loaded. This not only makes sense from a safety perspective, it's the law.

Enjoy the hunting season; and do your part to help it be a safe one.

From 1 - 3 p.m. there will be public skating at the Pickering Recreation Complex at a cost of $1.25. From 1 - 5 p.m. there is also public swimming at the Pickering Recreation Complex - Cost - Youth $1; Adult $1; and family $2.

GALA ART AUCTION

The Durham Region Family YMCA will be holding its fifth annual Gala Art Auction on Fri. Nov. 1st at the Oshawa Holiday Inn. The preview will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the auction commencing at 8 p.m. Admission is $5. Wine & Cheese will be served and there will also be a door prize. Tickets are available at YMCA - Pickering Ajax, Suite 15A, 1400 Bayly St., Pickering, or call 686-1828, or 839-8011.

DAIRY DELICIOUS CASSEROLE
(Makes 4 or 5 servings)

- 3 cups (750mL) uncooked medium noodles
- 1 pound (500g) ground beef
- 1/2 cup (125mL) chopped green pepper
- 1 (14-ounce/398mL) can tomato sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon (2mL) dry oregano leaves
- 1 cup (250mL) cottage cheese
- 1 cup (250mL) shredded CANADIAN CHEDDAR CHEESE
- 1/4 cup (50 mL) dairy sour cream
- 2 tablespoons (30mL) finely-chopped green onions
- 1/2 teaspoon (2mL) salt

Cook noodles according to package directions; drain well. Cook beef and green pepper in frypan until meat is browned; drain off fat. Stir in tomato sauce and oregano. Heat until simmering. In a small bowl mix cottage cheese, 1/2 cup (125mL) of the Cheddar cheese, sour cream, green onions and salt. Layer half of the noodles in ungreased 8-inch (2L) square baking dish or casserole. Spread cheese mixture over all. Layer remaining noodles and top with meat mixture. Sprinkle remaining 1/2 cup (125mL) Cheddar cheese over meat. Bake in preheated 350°F. (180°C) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until hot and bubbling. Let stand a few minutes before serving.
