Mayor Turns First Sod For New Centre

by June Overton
An enthusiastic group of well wishers gathered beside the old Bay Road school on Liverpool Road on Tues. May 25 to watch Mayor George Ashe turn the first sod for the new East Shore Community Centre and a new Bay Ridges library. Besides large new library facilities, sorely needed for the more than 5,000 patrons of overcrowded Bay Ridges, the building addition will house a new gymnasium, as well as the facilities of the original building for use as an East Shore Community Centre.

Mayor Ashe expressed great satisfaction that the building had finally begun. He spoke of long delays waiting for Ontario Municipal Board approval to finance the project by debentures.

He said that Council, recognizing the urgent need, approved payment by cash in order that work could be started without further delay. Mr. Ashe commented that there would be no financial worries as the cost of the project will be well under budget.

He also expressed the regrets of Councillors Jack Anderson and Alex Robertson, who were unable to attend.

Councillor Don Kitchen turned the next sod. Mr. Kitchen, as a library board member, had long pushed for new library facilities for busy Bay Ridges. He expressed his joy that at last there would be room for the library to offer a wider spectrum to the community.

Mrs. M. G. Mowbray, Chairman of the Library Board, spoke of the happiness of the Board and library staff that work had begun.

Spokesman for the East Shore Ratepayers Association, Ralph Bradley, turned the next sod. He expressed the satisfaction of his Association that their long planned project was underway.

Architect William Beddall, designer of Dunbarton Indoor Pool and the Don Beer Arnea, said that the building should be completed within five months.

PICKERING post

Pickering Library News

The Bahai's of Pickering will celebrate Race Unity Day at their meeting on Fri. June 11 at 8 p.m. in the Audio-Visual Centre of the Rouge Hill Library. Mrs. Pearl Hannah, long time resident of Pickering now living on Balliol Street in Toronto, will be the guest speaker. The well travelled Mrs. Hannah has for 25 years collected dolls of many nations, as well as play dolls and advertising dolls. She is also president of the Trillium Doll Club. Mrs. Hannah will use some of her dolls to illustrate a plea for racial unity. Some of her huge doll collection will be on display in the Rouge Hill library the afternoon of June 11.

Mrs. T. Driesschen, Chief Librarian, wants library patrons to understand that due to a great increase in memberships and inter-library privileges, patrons at Rouge Hill and Bay Ridges libraries must show their library card when signing out books.

All five branches receive a weekly list of jobs available through Canada Manpower. If you don't see the list posted please ask the librarian.

Pickering libraries received a $3,000 grant from Wintario. The money will be used to purchase more large print books and new books by Canadian authors.

Construction started on the new Bay Ridges branch library on Tues. May 25. Mayor Ashe turned the first sod. Mr. W. Beddall, the architect, expects the building to be completed in the late fall.

The staff of the Pickering libraries would like to remind the public that in these days of ever increasing prices, library membership is still free of charge.

Opinion

Please Withdraw

The "small business man" is beginning to talk about his problems with our stagnant economy. Perhaps it won't be long before these men and women will speak out more forcefully about their needs and problems.

As one independent business man said last week "how can you make ends meet when everything is out of control". While local government grants its employees another 12 per cent (plus dental care) increase in pay, business people are paying 13 per cent at the bank for loans and government is passing more and more regulations to frustrate the free enterprise system.

Civil servants in Scarborough run around with the building standards bylaw in their hands demanding thousands of dollars of expenditure from the one section of the working economy which is losing the battle.

It is our opinion that all three levels of government should begin immediately a planned withdrawal from the pockets of private enterprise starting with the smallest business first.

The most stable part of Canada's economy is the small enterprises who pour 60 or more hours a week into making a salary which is far below the lowest paid civic worker. But we need more encouragement for the person who will try and develop a better operation with his or her brains and work. You never hear those words uttered in a trade union hall. There it is the constant theme of 'I want more for less work'.

In 1976 there should have been no increases in pay or fringe benefits for any government worker. In fact, the process which metro's John Kruger is using to eliminate unfilled civic jobs would be valuable at all levels.

Government is not a producer of goods and services - it is only a user. To get our economy back into an upward trend, government should withdraw gradually and let long-hours and poorly paid enterprisers have a realistic crack at making things work.

Wants New Study

(Excerpts from a speech by Marion Bryden (NDP Beaches-Woodbine) in the Legislature on a motion jointly sponsored by herself and (doardo DiSanto calls for a new study of the Ontario tax system by a Select Committee of the Legislature)

It is now nearly nine years since the last comprehensive review of the tax system was done in Ontario. The Smith Committee was appointed in 1963 and reported in 1967.

While some changes were made in the tax system following the Smith Committee report, it is still a fact that Ontario has a very unprogressive tax system. Too great a burden is carried by homeowners and low income groups. Too much wealth is escaping tax. That is why we are calling for a new study of the tax system today.

A new study is of extreme urgency at this time because the recent tax changes in the Ontario Budget have added to the regressivity of the tax system.

In particular the 45% increase in OHIP premiums and the failure of the province to prevent increases in local property taxes ranging from 10% to 20% have increased the burden on low and middle income groups.

The analysis published in the Globe and Mail showed that the taxpayer in an Ontario family of four with income just above the cut-off point of $8225 for premium assistance under OHIP will pay the highest income, property and health taxes in Canada. On his last $1000 of taxable income, he will pay $661 in taxes - more than a millionaire pays on his last $1000.

Using the Provincial Treasurer's own table in Budget Paper B.1 was able to work out the burden of OHIP premiums on various taxpayers, accepting the Treasurer's assumption that employers will continue to pay 88% of employees' premiums and recognizing that such payments become a taxable benefit to employees. The resulting burden works out to 1.53% of gross income for a family with $9000 income, 1.05% for a family making $15,000 and only .67% for a family making $30,000. That's a truly regressive tax!

A new study of the tax system is needed now because the average family cannot take on any greater burden of taxation today. Their standard of living is already being threatened by huge increases in energy prices, mortgage interest, rents, insurance, service fees, food and just about everything they buy. In many cases wages are not keeping up with these increases. On the other hand there is much evidence that those who are benefitting from inflation are not paying their fair share of taxes if one looks around at the high living of the jet set.

A new study is also needed at this time because the small degree of tax reform which came after the Carter Commission is being eroded year by year as the federal and provincial governments both continue to grant new tax concessions and establish new havens for tax dollars. The RRSP's and RHOSP and inter-spousal transfers of benefits from these are being used by the well-to-do as prime devices for dodging taxes. Too generous capital cost write-offs have also opened loopholes for people who can afford to buy airplanes and lease them back to Air Canada. Many companies are still able to defer taxes indefinitely by fast write-off concessions.

The Ontario government goes along with these loopholes in the income tax even in the corporate field where it has its own collection machinery and could vary the rules more easily. When it does vary the rules it more often lightens the burden on the corporations instead of increasing it.

In fact, Ontario's take from corporations as a percentage of total provincial revenue has gone down in the past 11 years from 17.5% to 10.4%.

And our take from the Land Speculation Tax is laughable -

Citizen Of The Month

Allen Meyer, a school principal in Scarborough for 33 years, was named "Citizen of the Month" at a recent meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Scarborough. Mr. Meyer served in World War I and has done many voluntary jobs in the community. He is still active with St. Paul's United Church and is a past master and life member of the Birch Cliff Masonic Lodge. As a member of the Scarborough Lions for 25 years, he chaired the clubs' annual secondary School oratorical contest. He was presented with a recognition of his community service by George Woods, Kiwanis Club president. At right is Ken Summerville, incoming Kiwanis president. (Photo - Bob Watson) a mere $4 million expected this year. No wonder it doesn't bring in any money when exemptions are granted so widely. For example, foreign-controlled Shell Canada got a total exemption on the $525,000 it spent on the purchase of property for a new plant near Sarnia this year. We need a new tax study just to see what is happening with regard to exemptions under the Land Speculation Tax and the foreign Land Transfer Tax. The latter yielded about $1 million in 1975.

You can't have a just society without a just tax system. And you can't have a tax policy without a tax philosophy. That is why we are calling for a Select Committee of the Legislature to do the study instead of a Royal Commission. We think that members of the Legislature should have the opportunity to debate tax policy and arrive at a consensus before we can recommend reform.

On Education

"Today's school system is driving a larger wedge between the quality of education given to children of the rich and the quality of education given to the children of the poor," Liberal Leader Stuart Smith said last week. He was guest speaker at the Kingston and Frontenac-Addington Liberal Associations' Dinner in Joyceville.

"More and more parents who have higher educations themselves, and the money, are giving their children extra coaching at home, sending them to private schools or hiring tutors. People without the same means, can not afford to compensate for the inequities and the pitfalls of our schools. Some people boast that today's structureless, teacherless classroom is egalitarian. I say it's elitist," he declared.

Smith also attacked the school system for robbing the children of the disadvantaged and immigrant families of their traditional route to success and assimilation.

"When we ignore excellence and eliminate competition, these children can not prove themselves. They become the victims of all the prejudices flourishing in society," he suggested.

The Liberal leader said: "Our educational system does a great disservice if it shields our children from competition in their formative years. In a free enterprise economy, you have to compete to win. Our schools must not be allowed to insulate our children from this reality."

"In our schools today, a child can write an exam four or five times until he passes. There's no such thing as failure. Standards have gone out the window. Children aren't forced to learn anything unpleasant such as multiplication tables or proper grammar," declared Smith.

"The teachers and the children are not to blame for this decline in the quality of education. They are the victims of it. To excel, they need an atmosphere that fosters accomplishment," he added.

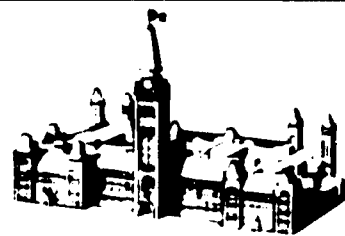

Mr. Smith continued, "Children need a system that rewards excellence so they can judge their progress. Teachers need standards to assess their teaching ability. Parents and taxpayers need standards to see if they are getting value for their dollar."

Property tax was attacked by Smith as an unfair and unresponsive way to finance education. "Education by the acre. It's idiocy. The financing of education should be gradually transferred from property tax to general revenues. The Tory election platform of 1943 promised to remove education costs from property tax. It's long overdue," he said.

Smith pointed out that industry is built on crown land and recreation land merely to generate enough property tax to pay for schooling. "Factories are built where they should not be so the kids can be sent to school."

"Not only does property-tax supported education distort Ontario's development decisions, it also means areas with an industrial base can more easily afford better schools with better facilities than areas lacking a strong industrial tax base," the Liberal leader concluded.

OTTAWA and Small Business

Labour lacks responsibility

By KENNETH McDONALD

Despite an outward show of solidarity, the Canadian Labour Congress is badly divided. While the leadership demands "an equal share with business and Government in economic and social decision-making", militant members are trying to tear society apart.

The CLC represents only one-fifth of the Canadian work force and one-quarter of its members are civil servants whose jobs are threatened by cutbacks on government spending because of inflation. The militancy of civil service unions was illustrated at the recent CLC conference. A spokesman for the Canadian Union of Public Employees said it "would take all its members out on strike and keep them out to change the law and society".

Regarding its claim that the AIB can more easily control wages than prices, the CLC has a legitimate point. The AIB can monitor costs and prices of domestic companies. But multi-national corporations can beat the system by assigning arbitrarily higher costs to items sold to Canadian subsidiaries. These higher costs can then be used to justify higher prices.

But when the CLC speaks of labour's "losses incurred in the control period" it sets up a straw man. In February, March and April this year, union wage increases on new contracts averaged 14 per cent higher in annual base pay. But the Consumer Price Index for the same three months was only 9 per cent above last year. If anyone's falling behind it isn't the unions. It's not the workers who are threatened, but the leaders in their struggle with union militants.

When the CLC calls for a general strike, for political action and for more union power, it threatens the majority: 55 to 60 per cent of Canadian workers neither belong to unions, nor work for big companies or for the government.

...

If the public and the government allow themselves to be blackmailed by political strikes, the democratic process will be destroyed. This could lead to similar action by others, for example a tax strike by the small business community, as in Belgium and France. Many members of the Canadian Federation of Independent Business have pointed to successful militant action by small business in other countries as means to relieve their harassment by unions and governments.

Organized labour has too much power already. What it lacks is responsibility.

RMC Graduate

The Royal Military College of Canada held its Centennial Convocation and Graduation ceremonies in Kingston, Ontario on May 31st and June 1st. The College opened on June 1st, 1876 with the arrival of the "Old Eighteen" and has graduated thousands of officers and gentlemen into the Canadian Armed Forces since that historic day.

The Hon. James A. Richardson, Minister of National Defence and Chancellor and President of the Royal Military College, granted commissions and undergraduate degrees to 212 Officer Cadets. This represents the largest graduating class in the history of the College.

This year Lieutenant Roger Haag, 22, graduated with Bachelor of Engineering degree specializing in electrical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Haag, 13 Atkinson Avenue, West Hill. Lt. Haag was a member of the RMC basketball team in '73, '74, '75 and '76. He begins his service in the Canadian Forces as an aerospace engineer.

Frustrated By Numbers

Employees at Scarborough Civic Centre should be given a course on how to use the telephone, the borough's board of health decided at a meeting last week.

The suggestion followed complaints by board member Lynn MacKenzie that telephoning the health department can be "a frustrating experience."

"There are 27 numbers in the book and you have to try five numbers to get who you want," Mrs. MacKenzie said. "And each time you have to replace the receiver and dial again."

Alderman Carol Ruddell agreed.

"It's a horrible system," she said. "I don't think I've ever encountered a worse telephone system than we have in this building."

But Mrs. Ruddell said it's possible to transfer calls to the main switchboard "if the person taking the call wants to go through that exercise."

"It can be done on all telephones in the building," she said.

"Well, it's not being done," Mrs. MacKenzie stated.

She said phoning the borough is not only personally frustrating, but bad for public relations as well.

It was Alderman Frank Faubert who zeroed in on why the situation was happening and how it could be solved.

The public does not have the special blue directory listing the locals of all borough employees, he said. And not all employees are at their desks when phone calls are placed.

Faubert said Bell Telephone offers to send a representative to explain how the Centrex telephone system works.

The board voted unanimously to invite the Bell to make a presentation.

Board of health chairman Mary Leonard said her pet peeve was that some secretaries answer the phone without identifying themselves.

Ambulance Award Winners

"St. John Ambulance is providing more service to communities throughout Ontario than ever before," W.E. Austin, President, told delegates to the annual meeting of St. John Ambulance, Ontario Council, in Toronto June 5 at the Sutton Place Hotel.

"Almost 68,000 people were trained in St. John courses during 1975", he reported. "The uniformed volunteers in the St. John Ambulance Brigade gave 460,000 hours of their time to providing a free First Aid service at community events and treated 68,000 people. There are some 7,000 St. John volunteers in Ontario."

The 150 delegates attending the meeting represented 62 branches of St. John operating in towns and cities throughout the province.

The annual meeting was followed by an Investiture at St. Paul's Anglican Church when Her Honour Lieutenant-Governor Pauline McGibbon conferred awards on 142 Ontario residents for their outstanding contribution to the work of St. John Ambulance.

Among those receiving awards were: Police Chief Harold Adamson, Scarborough; Major Wesley Phillip Newton, Don Mills; Mrs. Mary Buttress, Scarborough; Mrs. Lydia Soper, Willowdale; Dr. Markian G. Tershakowec, Downsview; Gian Chand Kohli, Agincourt; Swadesh K. Channan, Don Mills.

Highway Interchange Urged At Neilson

If Scarborough wants an interchange at Highway 401 and Neilson Rd., it will have to ask for it, a provincial aide from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications told Council Monday.

Mike Ernesaks said the province won't consider building the $5-million interchange until the borough submits "a direct request backed with technical reports."

Having the interchange marked on the borough's official plan is not sufficient, Ernesaks said.

"The need for an interchange would have to be quite compelling and then slotted in with provincial priorities," he said.

"We are aware of the problems but there are many other places in Metro, other urban centres where the level of service is much lower than here. We've been forced in these times of restraint to accept a lower level of services."

Neilson now ends north of the highway and picks up again just south of it.

The health and safety of residents in the fast-growing Malvern community are in danger because there is no exit from Neilson Rd. onto Highway 401, said Brian Kerman, president of the Malvern Community Association.

It takes an emergency vehicle 20 minutes to reach Centenary Hospital, Kerman said. With an access to the highway, it would take only five minutes.

An interchange at Neilson would lead to better shopping facilities and improved bus service, he added.

Not to mention the soothing effect it would have on motorists' nerves. Each rush hour, the motorist gets tied up at the Markham Rd./Sheppard Ave. intersection en route to the 401, Kerman said.

If he wants to avoid this morning headache, the driver must go miles out of his way to the Morningside exit.

The much-needed interchange would "alleviate a potential traffic mess," Kerman said.

Malvern's projected population is 60,000.

Alderman Frank Faubert verified what Kerman said. He described the traffic snarls at Markham Rd. and Ellesmere as a regular occurrence.

"I'm convinced most of the traffic is Malvern-bound", he said.

Though Kerman's association is clearly in favour of the interchange, there are other factions of the community who don't want to live near a noisy ramp.

Strong opponents of the plan since 1970, live in the Seven Oaks Community, south of the 401. Seven Oaks was not informed of the meeting.

Despite urgings from Ward 12 Alderman Joe DeKort, that the borough immediately request the interchange, Council voted to send the matter to the Works and Transportation committee, so both sides of the story can be heard.

A Road Is Not A Road

It wasn't exactly a middle-of-the-road proposal, but a collector road that Scarborough's planning staff proposed for the new Milliken community was definitely middle-of-the-orchard.

Audrey D'Amato, owner of the orchard behind her home at Passmore Ave., east of Brimley Rd., came to Planning Board last week to fight the relocation of the road.

"It was going to cut right through our orchard," Mrs. D'Amato said.

Mrs. D'Amato said she didn't even realize that Wimpey Developments Ltd., one of the key builders in Milliken, intended to include the street in its subdivision plan.

The board voted to strike the road from the official drawings.

"Why is it needed?" planning board member R. Miller mused.

Three homes would have been affected by the road. David Mesbur, planning consultant for Wimpey, said the road would channel cars onto Brimley Rd.

He said the proposed collector road would help connect the established homes with ones in the planned subdivision.

"Our studies have indicated the collector road crossing their properties would assist them," Mesbur told the board. "They are going to need a street pattern."

But he added he had no objections if the road was deleted.

Murray Weir, director of development applications, said "both schemes are viable."

The Milliken community now is being opposed in the courts by Toronto Alderman John Sewell. It is expected to take three years for actual construction of the project to begin.

Garbage Gamble On Again

by Sheila White
Remember the Garbage Gamble?

It was the recycling game that Scarborough Council two weeks ago decided not to play.

Well, the tables have turned. And Alderman John Wimbs, who denounced the scheme as "childish" when it was first suggested by the University Women's Club, Monday convinced Council to support the idea.

Scarborough will issue a challenge to North York to see which borough is the most environment conscious.

The rules have changed slightly.

Wimbs said he modified the original proposal to "cut the nonsense out."

"We won't have women knocking on our doors first thing in the morning or inspecting our garbage cans," he told Council.

The Garbage Gamble will be run on an honour system.

The Women's Club will interview each politician, then give marks according to how well the rules were followed. The winning municipality will be announced on September 27.

"It makes good sense to me now," Wimbs said. "It didn't before."

The rules are simple, ones that most Scarborough householders already follow.

No one can buy non-returnable bottles or cans or milk in cartons.

All should bundle newspaper separately and recycle their glass bottles and tin cans.

Controller Brian Harrison opposed the plan.

"You walk into our cafeteria and almost everything is completely disposable," he said. "The amount of paper that gets generated around here makes this borough the biggest offender."

Besides, Harrison said Scarborough hasn't much of a chance against North York.

North York throws out better things than Paul (Cosgrove) uses," he said. Joining Harrison in voting against the Garbage Gamble, were Aldermen Carol Ruddell and controller Joyce Trimmer.

BUDDING ROMANCE:

All men fall in love with their nurses and, I suspect, most male reviewers start to fall in love with talented young ladies who revive their flagging spirits. That's the way it is with Julie Budd and I (Julie and me?)

When I caught her second show the other night at the Imperial Room I was coming in off a long, long day and have to admit I was feeling tired and low. The ministrations of Nick, my favourite lieutenant were appreciated as always but helped only somewhat. Even seeing Brian Linehan dancing an energetic Hustle couldn't brighten me up. (To be fair to Brian, it has to be said that I was paying more attention to the attractive blonde with him.)

And then suddenly, there was Julie Budd in a simple white pant suit. This is a lady who sings with the vitality of youth and the poise of experience, a songstress equally at home with torch, ballad, raunch, jump or happy. I pass over references to her physical and vocal similarities to Barbra Streisand. They've been made too often. Julie Budd is her own woman and each song she sings becomes distinctively her own even when she borrows (consciously or otherwise) bits and pieces from other artists...Fanny Brice, Teresa Brewer, Julie Wilson, Ethel Merman, among others.

Her selection of songs allows her to implement variables of style and interpretation but I'm convinced she could simply draw songs out of a hat and add her own distinctive style to each one in its turn.

Well then, what is this style of hers? Surely there is a contradiction when I say she can sing anything in any manner and yet still be distinctive.

In fact there isn't. Her style can be summed up in one word - enthusiasm. Whether it's simulated or genuine is not for me to say but every number she performs is done with a joyous and, for me, contagious enthusiasm... an enthusiasm that does not compromise the discipline of her art. She comes close to it sometimes when she belts a torchy ballad and fails to come to terms with the electronic pickup of her microphone but that represents excess rather than the ennui that club singers can sometimes evidence.

The rapport that she has with her arranger, conductor Herb Bernstein is good to see. There is no doubt that each could be a success without the other but it's equally clear that together they become a unique pair of artists who draw artistic strength from each other whether performing the heart music of Jimmy Webb or the musical intricacies of Neil Sedaka.

I mentioned earlier that Julie Budd has elements of Ethel Merman in her singing. I don't know if Miss Budd has ever appeared on stage or not but I'm suggesting that she could be a sensation in that medium. What follows is strong praise but I believe she is the new Merman and unlike Eadie she is class.

Bill Watt's World

with a capital C. Julie Budd is at the Imperial Room until the end of the week.

THE ROMANCE FOOD

Reviewing a new restaurant is not always feasible because it usually takes several weeks to iron out the problems of opening in order for the restaurant to be presented in its best light. So it was with some misgivings that I attended a pre-opening party at Toronto's newest arrival on the good food scene - YELLOWFINGERS OF YORKVILLE. I need not have had any. The food was just great. Yellowfingers is a gourmet delicatessen that is open Monday to Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 3 a.m. for both restaurant and take out service. Sundays and holidays it's open from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. When I say Gourmet I mean exactly that. All foods including their fabulous pastries are made on the premises under the direction of the head chef who has previously spent 5 years at The Csardas. I won't attempt to list all the foods that were available at the champagne reception. I couldn't, but I must mention the Baked Porkloin, Russian Eggs, Caviar and Eggs, Bismarck Herring, Casino Eggs, Kuglof, Strudels and the scrumptious Hawaiian Salad Bowl - half pineapple filled with cottage cheese and an assortment of fresh fruits. The prices are not astronomical either. In fact, I'm tempted to say that Yellowfingers offers one of the best food values in town.

The restaurant is visually attractive, bright but not harshly so, busy in decor but not cluttered, comfortable but not sumptuous. Yellowfingers is for the enjoyment of good food well prepared.

Space won't permit a listing of all who were enjoying the goodies but I must mention Wally Crouter resplendent in a grey bib suit and Brett Halliday equally so with his moustache, Johnny Lombardi looking as dapper as ever and Peter Schopfer of the Big Brothers.

Yellowfingers of Yorkville is at the corner of Bay and Yorkville just below Stan Simon's Yorkville Art Gallery. Ample municipal parking nearby. I wish it luck but it really doesn't need it. I predict that line ups will soon be necessary.

Remember you read that here first... Keep looking for my name in lights.

Centennial College 10 Years

Centennial College of Applied Arts and Technology will be ten years old on Oct. 17th, 1976, and plans to celebrate the event are already underway.

Centennial College was the first of the Ontario Community Colleges to be incorporated under the then Provincial Minister of Education, the Hon. William Davis, now Premier of Ontario. It opened on Oct. 17, 1966 with 514 full-time students enrolled in over 20 programs.

The two week period starting on Oct. 15, 1976 has been set aside for the ten year anniversary celebrations.

On an extremely limited budget an enthusiastic ten-year anniversary planning committee is organizing events to run Oct. 15 - 30, 1976, hoping that some imagination and pre-planning will make up for the monetary lack.

Events planned so far include: a grand scale Alumni Homecoming with a welcoming rally, sports events and dinner dance and a formal founders' ceremony to lay the cornerstone and dedicate the Ashtonbee building to the late Jack Dennett, outstanding C.F.R.B. personality and a charter member of the College's first Board of Governors.

Official Olympics Posters On Display

There are ten designs in the set of official Olympic Posters. They were chosen from a competition involving more than 300 Canadian artists.

The posters are on display at the Bridlewood Public Library, Bridlewood Mall, Warden Avenue at Finch Avenue until June 30.

The poster project grew out of efforts by the Artists-Athletes Coalition for the Cultural Celebration of the 1976 Olympics to publicize the idea of a cultural Olympics, in the hopes of bridging the traditional gulf between sports and the arts.

Among the artists chosen for their Olympic poster designs is Robin Mackenzie, who was born in Pickering in 1938. Toronto born, Michael Snow is another. One of the best known Cape Dorset artists, "Lucy", is represented by a colourful and lively drawing. Five of the others are Montreal born, of which the best known are Claude Tousignant and Jean McEwen.

Miss Canada At Fiesta

On Thurs. June 10th, at 6 p.m., Sylvia McGuire, Miss Canada 1976, will be the special guest at the official opening of the Fiesta Filipina '76, at Fairview Mall atop the escalator.

Wexford Art At Centre

The Art course at Wexford Collegiate will be mounting a major show of secondary school Artwork for exhibition at the Civic Centre from June 7th to July 5th. This show promises to be large and interesting and well worth a special trip to see it.

The show will include Paintings, Drawings, Sculpture, Ceramics, Graphics and much of the Commercial Artwork taught in special courses at the school. Wexford's Art Centre is fast becoming a well known place for Art studies.

This recognition results not only from the excellent facilities planned and built

Another item on exhibit at the Bridlewood Library, bound to attract a lot of attention, is the 7-foot high, 5-foot wide papier mache statue of Canadian Indian Tom Longboat, a marathon runner of championship calibre, whose 1912 fifteen-mile record on Toronto Island still stands unchallenged. The statue was created by several students from Bridlewood Jr. Public School, Grades 4, 5 and 6, over a two month period in order to highlight the Olympic Games.

The new Rotary Club of Scarborough Bluffs held its charter night May 28 to celebrate its admission in Rotary International.

Geoffrey King, Rotary district governor from Scarborough, and delegations of Rotarians from the surrounding areas, attended the charter presentation ceremonies at the Prince Hotel.

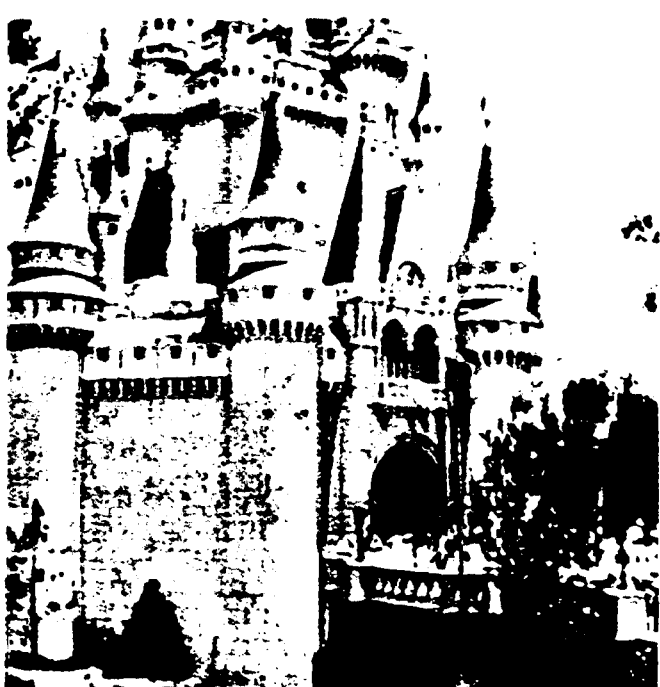

Mr. King presented the charter to Allan Gardiner, president of the Rotary Club. King welcomed 29 Rotarians into Rotary's global fellowship of more than 750,000 business and professional men who belong to some 16,000 Rotary clubs in 151 countries and geographical regions.

Officers of the new Rotary Club are: Allan Gardiner, president; Herbert Stevenson, vice-president; Gary Campbell, secretary; and Don Davidson, treasurer.

by the Scarborough Board for the Boroughs aspiring artists, but also from the excellent courses that are taught there. These courses emphasize throughout, the teaching of Art fundamentals, but Senior grades in the Vocational courses do attempt some very advanced projects in Colour and Design, and Lettering and Layout.

The work is complemented by Life Drawing studies and Three Dimensional work and is rounded off by a study of reproduction processes in the Graphics courses.

The show should attract any number of interested viewers.

NOTICE OF MEETING

The Commission to Review Proposals for Property Tax Reform in Ontario

A public meeting for residents of Durham Region will be held on June 29 and 30, 1976 at 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., at Eastdale Collegiate Cafeteria, Harmony Road, Oshawa, to receive submissions, both oral and written, from local government representatives, property taxpayers and all other interested parties, concerning the proposals that have been put forward by the Government of Ontario as a means of establishing a new system of property taxation based on market value assessment.

This meeting is one of a series which the Commission is conducting throughout Ontario this summer and fall, before submitting its recommendations to the government.

The proposals, originally published in the 1976 Ontario Budget, Budget Paper E, entitled Reform of Property Taxation in Ontario, are as follows:

1. Residences in Ontario, collectively, will bear a reduced share of property taxes.
2. Residential property will be redefined to include only residences and a reasonable amount of land.
3. The present practice of levying different mill rates on residential and commercial properties will be discontinued.
4. Farmland, farm buildings, managed forests and farm residences will be assessed at market value. Farmland, farm buildings and managed forests will be taxed at 100 percent of market value and the taxes will be paid by the Province. Farm residences will be taxed as all other residences at 50 percent of market value and the taxes will be paid by the owner. There will be provision to recover taxes paid by the Province if the property changes use.
5. All real property used for the purpose of a business including government administrative facilities will be subject to an additional assessment of 50 percent of market value for business taxes.
6. All public property except residences will be subject to payments in lieu of taxes equal to full taxes at 100 percent of market value. Public residences will be subject to payments in lieu of taxes equivalent to full taxes at 50 percent of market value. Public utilities will be subject to business assessment at 50 percent of market value.
7. As is the present case, churches, cemeteries and property held in trust for a band or body of Indians will be exempt. All other presently exempt property will be taxed at 100 percent of market value, except residences which will be taxed at 50 percent of market value.
8. A uniform method of phasing-in the new tax system over a period of up to five years will be available to prevent abrupt tax changes.
9. Assessment rolls will be returned and enumeration will be performed every two years to coincide with local government elections.
10. Assessment on provincial government property will be pooled and assigned between the public and separate elementary schools in the same proportion as the taxable assessment assigned by the owners and occupants of residences.
11. Costs shared among municipalities will be shared on the basis of the assessment on which taxes and payments in lieu of taxes are based.
12. Where assessment is to be used to determine the grant to be paid to a municipality, the assessment used will be the assessment on which taxes and payments in lieu of taxes are based.
13. The provisions of The Assessment Act will apply to the assessment of all real property in Ontario, including areas without municipal organizations.
14. Public bodies which receive provincial grants, such as school boards, will be allowed to include their property tax payments as allowable expenses for grant purposes.
15. Ontario's property tax credits which relate property taxes to the ability to pay will, if necessary, be strengthened upon implementation of the new system.

Copies of Budget Paper E containing background and explanatory information, in addition to the proposals themselves, may be obtained, free of charge, from regional assessment offices or from Mr. Lawrence Close, Executive Secretary, Commission on Property Tax Reform, Fifth Floor, Frost Building South, Queen's Park, Toronto M7A 1Y7, telephone (416) 965-1671. If you plan to appear and present a written or oral submission, please notify Mr. Close in advance, by letter or telephone. We would also appreciate receiving one copy of any written submission, prior to the meeting.

Since the purpose of these meetings is to help ensure that the new taxation system is implemented in an efficient and equitable manner, the Commission hopes that all Ontario residents with opinions and suggestions to offer will manage to make their representations to us.

Scholarship Winner

Fireworks Chairman Al Brennan (left) and co-Chairman Rick Johnson, both of the Ajax Lions, will be in charge of the largest annual fireworks display in Durham Region on Sun. June 20. The fireworks will again be let off at the base of Harwood Ave. Also in attendance at 8:45 p.m. to play for the crowds will be the Ajax Sea Cadets Band. The Lions will provide a refreshment booth set up at the lake for the usual throng of people expected.

Teachers Negotiate

On Thurs. May 27 negotiators for The Durham Board of Education and Secondary School Teachers completed the ninth negotiating session for a 1976-77 Collective Agreement.

Tentative agreement has been reached on several procedural and technical sections.

Issues outstanding include the major leave plans and the financial package. The teachers' initial request for improvements in salary, fringe benefits and manpower would increase the budget by an amount estimated by the Board to be in excess of $3,300,000.

The Board's initial offer would increase the operating budget by an estimated $1,000,000.

Even in a year of restraint and Federal wage guidelines, both L.J. Bateson, Chairman of the Board's negotiating team, and A. Dekker, Chairman of the Teachers' Committee, are optimistic that the gaps can be narrowed in future scheduled meetings.

Sweet Revenge

It was sweet revenge last weekend at the annual Ajax Industrial Bowling League banquet for the newly crowned champs, Dickson Printing.

The printers in winning the 75-76 championship erased the memories from last years 74-75 playoffs when they lost the championships round to Hickey's Jewellers by one pin.

That's exactly one pin! It was especially frustrating for the Dickson crew last year because they were forced to give up the title they possessed and first won in 73-74.

Members of the winning team included Doug Bryant, Peter Stirpe, Glenn McIvove, Bernice Schaefer, Al Trantau and Paul Jankowski.

Leading the Dickson squad to the title were Doug Bryant, who also won the leagues' high average with a 251 and Doug Stirpe who won the high triple award with 932 and also second best average with a 245.

Dickson Printing won the championship round defeating Hickey's Jewellers, Permaglass, Franks Barber Shop, Neils Esso, Plaza Bowl, Phil Walker Cartage and Ajax T.V.

West Shore News

by Ann Price

From first-hand experience, I can say, this year has to be the year of the mosquito. They were out in droves up at the cottage. Kevin decided to protect me from the little beasts, when we attempted to have a weenie roast down at the lake. He armed himself with a big stick and stood behind me, and let them (and me) have it when they landed. Luckily, he whacked them with his other hand, so after a few well-aimed kidney punches I decided, the best attack was retreat...which I did, into the cottage, before he forgot himself and let swing with the stick!

Now the news...

ANOTHER GRANT TO CONSERVATION AUTHORITY

Provincial aid to the South Lake Simcoe Conservation Authority reached $15,350.00 this week, when the Minister of Natural Resources advised me that approval had been given for a third Provincial grant in the area.

The Hon. Leo Bernier, said that $7,500.00 would be turned over to the Conservation Authority to carry out preliminary engineering studies on the reconstruction of the Sutton Mill Dam.

WE ALL WIN WITH WINTARIO

The Scugog Township Public Library has been awarded a grant of $2,000 from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation.

The Hon. Robert Welch, Minister, informed me last week that the library application for a Wintario grant had been approved, and Port Perry will receive the monies shortly.

The grant will increase the supply of Canadian books, periodicals and other material in the library.

GEORGINA TOURIST INFORMATION BOOTH ARRANGED

I arranged a meeting this week between Mr. Bob Garden, Chairman of the Georgina Chamber of Commerce, and the Honourable James Snow, Minister of Transportation and Communication to discuss the possibility of the Chamber using a strip of land, on Highway 48, just south of Sutton, on which they could locate their tourist information booth.

Mr. Snow agreed that the Chamber could use the property, with a lease arrangement of a nominal one dollar per year fee to the Ministry.

Mr. Garden was pleased with the arrangement and felt sure that, since the Ontario Government has agreed to the use of the land, the Township of Georgina would likely allow the Chamber to use the adjacent property which is a Township right-of-way.

Plans are now in progress to move the Chamber's booth from its present location to the new site and to construct an access road to the facility. It is hoped that the project will be advanced enough to benefit from it this tourist season.

PROVINCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR LOCAL TOURISM INDUSTRY

I was pleased to learn that a guaranteed loan, in the amount of $35,000.00 has been approved by the Province of Ontario, under the auspices of the Ontario Development Corporation (ODC).

Big Canoe Enterprises Ltd., of Jackson's Point, is the recipient of the loan announced this week by the Honourable Claude Bennett, Minister of Industry and Tourism.

The company is engaged in the manufacture of Indian crafts from silver, bone teeth, hides, precious and semi-precious stones.

This will allow for the expansion of the present operation on Georgina Island.

Big Brother Week Set

Pickering council Monday night declared the week of June 13-20 "Big Brother Week" upon the request of the Big Brother Association president Regan Devine.

The week which precedes "Fathers Day", and has been set aside on a national basis, will be highlighted by various activities and outings organized by the Association.

According to the executive director, William Magee, the Association will enter a float in the Ajax Home Week parade around June 20 which will probably attract the more creative Little and Big Brothers in the crowd.

For the more adventurous there is a sailing day set for June 13 through the Whitby Yacht Club. For more information on activity week call 683-3451.

Guest Speaker

Dr. Gordon Willey, Durham College President, welcomes convocation guest speaker Dennis McDermott, U.A.W. Vice-President and Director for Canada.

The Grants Grab Is On

by Sheila White

The sensitive subject of municipal grants landed in the laps of Scarborough Board of Control members last week.

June 2 was the scheduled date for community groups to appeal the final recommendations of the borough's Grants Committee. Only four spokesmen attended the meeting from a total of 31 groups who applied to Scarborough for money this year.

Controller Brian Harrison said many of the groups were not aware they'd not be receiving grants. He said they had not been notified of the meeting.

The grants committee approved 12 of the 31 applications for funding assistance.

For the other 19 organizations, June 2 was to be their day in court and their last chance to challenge the Committee's decision.

Board of control has the power to alter or overturn committee recommendations.

A clerk confirmed that groups are not told whether they will receive money from the public purse until after Council approves the grants committee report.

This would have happened Monday had Mr. Harrison not put a halt to the proceedings.

He requested a delay so all would have a fair hearing beforehand.

"Otherwise," he said, "we're kind of locking them out. I think they have the right to appear before we finalize it."

The committee authorized grants totalling $50,000.

though requests amounted to $134,736. All but one of the groups approved received a grant last year.

Due to budget restraints, the money allotted was greatly reduced from the original requests.

The largest amount, $17,500, was granted to the West Scarborough Boys and Girls Club. Warden Woods Church and Community Centre was recommended to receive $10,200.

East Scarborough Boys and Girls Club probably will receive $7,900. The next highest grant was to Cliffcrest Community Centre, at $4,500.

Representatives from two groups not recommended for any funding in the committee report, had their say at the meeting last week.

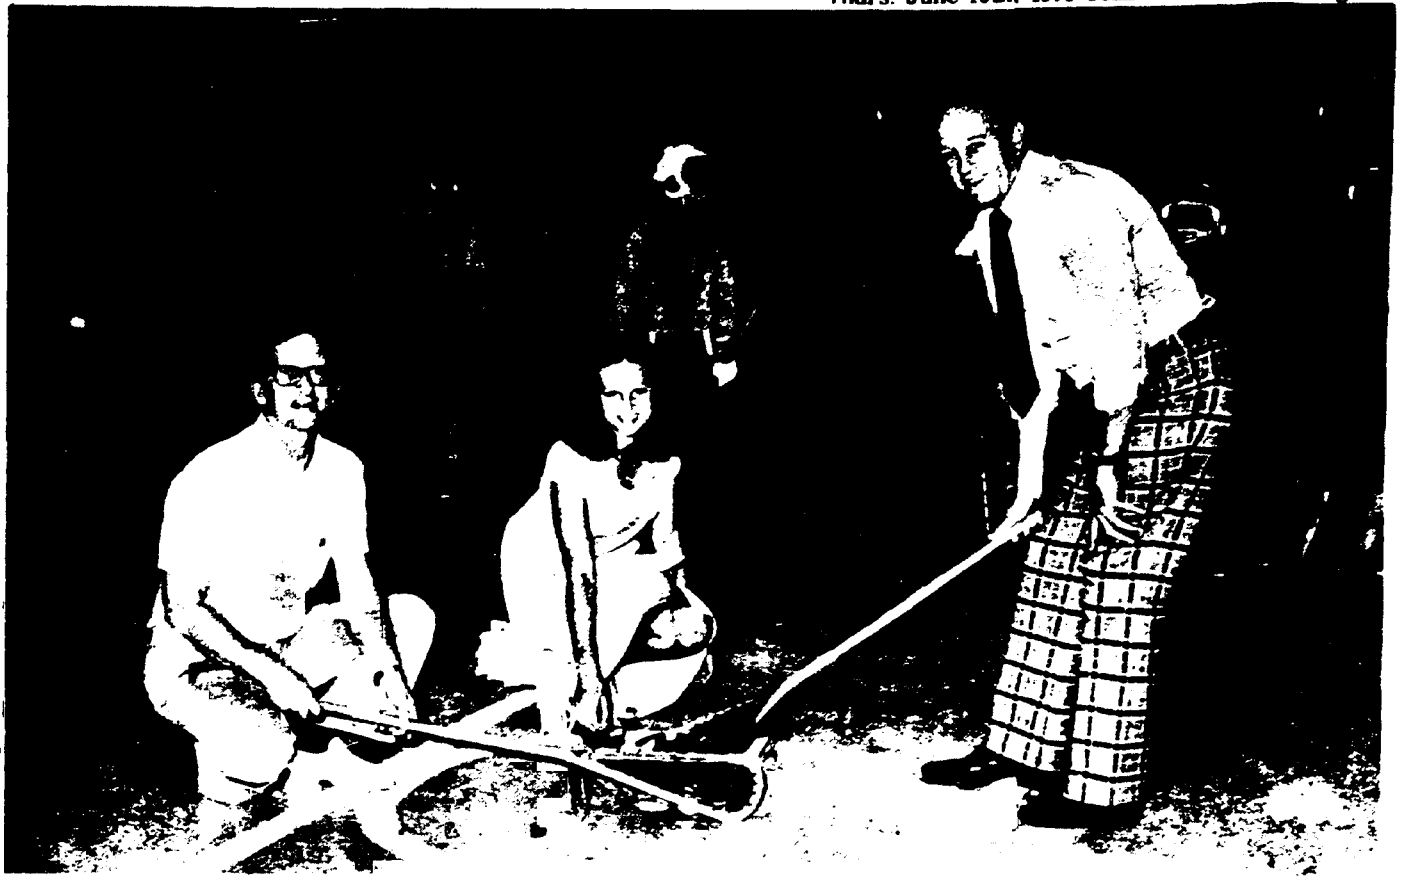

A spokesman from the Ontario Society of Autistic Children pleaded with the board to shell out some money to fund the Society's summer camps.

"Our grant has been turned down two years in a row and what we want to know is why," said the spokesman, Mrs. Lusty. "If we have any hope of keeping these children in the community as opposed to institutionalized care, we must provide structured care in the summer months."

A group never having received a grant from any level of government, the Society runs day and residential camps for children with "profound disabilities," Mrs. Lusty said.

Eight Scarborough children attend the camps which cost $80 per month per child, she said.

Les Brown, of the Mayor's

Fair Start

The Scarborough Lacrosse Association officially opened its season on Sat. June 5th. at the Mid-Scarborough Recreation Centre. On hand for the start of the game were John Kelly of the association, Ward 4 Alderman Jack Goodlad and Miss Scarborough, Rita Noetzel. (Photo-Bob Watson).

Committee for the Elderly and Disabled, said the organization will be forced to disband due to lack of funds.

The group, staffed by volunteers, did not apply for a grant because it missed the deadline, Brown said.

He asked that the borough pay the costs of mailing and phone, and that work space - "even a desk" - be provided free of charge.

"We need out of pocket expenses to make this thing work," Brown said. "My pocket, personally, does have a bottom."

A representative from

Sacred Heart Children's Village, which received $1,000 of the requested $5,000, said the group will have to cut the new programs it planned to introduce this year.

The Rev. John Hess, from Warden Woods Church, attended the meeting to answer any questions the board members asked. "We've tried to restrain our askings and not inflate them," Hess said. "We tried to keep to a bare minimum. We're not complaining."

Make A Gift For Dad

The first 25 children to arrive at Albert Campbell District Branch on Sat., June 12 at 11 a.m., will make Pencil People as Father's Day gifts.

They will adorn pencils with felt and other sturdy fabrics and then draw faces on the tip.

Helpful In Any Language

A few useful phrases in another language is a safeguard against travel mishaps and certainly adds to the pleasure of the visit.

But perhaps you feel it's too late to prepare for the language demands of this summer's holiday abroad. With the help of the Canon Repeat Corder, the free language lab at Cedarbrae District Library, there is still hope.

A simple method, which uses a double cassette tape machine, allows the trainee to hear the instructor, then repeat each phrase recording his own voice. By playing the tape back, the language learner hears his pronunciation compared to the teacher's.

The process can be repeated as often as desired.

There are complete courses available in French, German, Italian, Spanish and Japanese. In addition, there is the Around-The-World series, where you can learn helpful travel phrases in Portuguese, Russian, Arabic and in English for French people.

The Canon Repeat Corder can be reserved by calling the library at 431-2222.

5 Gold Medals

Betty Higgins, 33, was injured in an auto accident in 1963 and now must move around in a wheelchair. But that hasn't stopped her from winning five gold medals at a recent disabled athletic competition at London, Ontario. She won a gold medal in shotput, discus, javelin, position javelin and club - all from a wheelchair. Last Sunday, Mayor Paul Cosgrove introduced the handicapped woman to the concert audience at the Civic Centre. On stage as well were members of the East Scarborough Kinsmen led by president Paul Dempster. Alderman Fred Bland and Betty Higgins' son, Ernie. The Kinsmen have given Betty her new wheelchair, especially designed to allow her to do her athletic efforts. (Photo - Bob Watson)

Faulty Pool Built In A Hurry

The indoor swimming pool at R.H. King Collegiate was built with such haste that plans were altered at the last minute without Scarborough Council's approval, the borough's recreation and parks committee was told last week.

The committee was investigating why flaws in the pool design went undetected.

It's the first time in Scarborough's history that a swimming pool - a joint venture by the borough and the board of education - has not been completed successfully.

"The committee's not too happy about it," said chairman Ed Fulton.

After the concrete floor had been poured, the location of the diving board was changed. The water depth was no longer safe for diving, according to health standards.

The ceiling is too low, the water depth too shallow and the diving board too high, said letters from architects Allward and Gouinlock and from project co-ordinator J. Diamond, of Vanbols Construction Co.

Both reports confirmed the errors could be corrected. But the pool will need to be closed for twenty-eight days, and Jim Maxwell, director of recreation, said he anticipated "a little bit of flack" from the school because its fall term will be affected.

Adults Can Get Free Shots

Scarborough's health department will give adults a chance to have free immunization against poliomyelitis and tetanus at plazas and malls over the next two weeks.

Children receive their shots at school and adults often forget to get theirs.

The clinics are scheduled for June 10, from 5-9 p.m. at Scarborough Town Centre, Highway 401 and McCowan Rd., and at Eglinton Square Plaza, at Victoria Park and Eglinton Ave.

A week later, on June 17, from 5-9 p.m., clinics will be staged at Cedarbrae Plaza, Markham Rd. and Lawrence Rd.

A week later, on June 17, from 5 to 9 p.m., clinics will be staged at Cedarbrae Plaza, Markham Rd. and Lawrence Ave., and at Agincourt Mall, Sheppard Ave. and Kennedy Rd.

suggested as the closing date, but Maxwell said he'd be willing to compromise.

"If we lose that date, we lose our fall program. They don't lose as much as we do," Maxwell said.

Controller Brian Harrison said the mistakes occurred because modified plans didn't go back to borough staff for final approval.

He recommended ways to prevent similar incidents from happening in the future.

"Our staff should see the plans," Harrison said. "And any change to the plans should be agreed to by both parties."

Shot In Arm For Games

Indianapolis-Scarborough Peace Games chairman John Gordon, announced a major Fund Raising campaign to help finance this year's trek to Indianapolis. Negotiations have been completed with the McDonald Restaurant's chain in the Scarborough area.

Vouchers valued at $1.10 will be sold by Peace Games supporters and athletes for $1.00; the Peace Games will retain 60% of every voucher handed in; at a Scarborough McDonald's Restaurant between June 19th and July 4.

The Peace Games retains 100% of those vouchers paid for and not submitted for food.

"This has stimulated our enthusiasm and provided us with a new and exciting area for fund raising," exclaimed Gordon. "We hope that the athletes and supporters of the Games through the various sport areas will support this project."

Don DeNike, finance chairman, pointed out: "everyone has an opportunity to benefit from this endeavor; the people buying the vouchers can support the games and realize more in food than they paid for, the athletes and Peace Games will increase their 1976 bank balance which must swell to $40,000, voucher sellers will also benefit."

"There are a number of attractive incentives for everyone who wants to support us in selling vouchers," says Gordon. "The individual who sells the greatest number of food certificates will travel to Indianapolis for the Games and represent Scarborough by lighting the Peace Games torch."

Those selling 250 vouchers will receive Peace Games jackets while others selling 100 or more will receive official Peace Games T-shirts.

These people will be the first recipients of the '76 uniforms, "and rightly so," exclaimed Fred Gibson, Housing Chairman. "they have been the first to work and participate in the '76 Games."

Anyone not directly involved in the Games or their respective sport areas can obtain vouchers for purchase by contacting John Gordon, 439-2628, Shirley Eidt, 439-2528, Pierre Corbin, 267-6390. Local groups, businesses or individuals are urged to

$22 Million For Shoreline

The Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority approved a $22 million program for the Lake Ontario shoreline, from Etobicoke to Ajax, at the Authority's Meeting on Fri., April 9th.

The MTRCA Waterfront Project 1977-1981 now goes to the Authority's member municipalities -- York, Durham, Peel, Metro Toronto and also the Province of Ontario, for consideration and approval.

Briefly, the Project calls for: $2.5 million on protective measures for the shoreline; $50,000 to develop Duffin's Creek into a park and rehabilitate the Ajax

Trent University Holds Spring Convocation

Approximately 500 undergraduate degrees were presented at Trent University's spring convocation on Fri. June 4.

Receiving Bachelor of Arts degrees were Kerry Dale Banks and Hans Jurgen Herdes of Scarborough; Susan Margaret Graham of West Hill; Sherry Lee Henderson of Markham; Cathy Elizabeth McEvoy and Gregory Wilson Walker of Willowdale; Murray Harrison Miskin and Paul William White of Downsview.

Environment Ontario And Experience '76 Undertake Student Research Projects

Ontario's Ministry of the Environment, with the Ontario Youth Secretariat's Experience '76, will employ 330 students this summer in a variety of environmental research projects.

Sixty-nine projects selected from 117 submissions from community colleges, universities and recognized environmental agencies will provide valuable information relating to air, water and noise pollution and studies in methods of energy conservation and environmental health hazards at an estimated cost of $60,000.

Experience '76 is diversified and students involved in the program gain meaningful summer employment and experience in career-oriented research and field study.

Each project is supervised by a professor or active staff member of the host school or agency and an Environment Ontario liaison officer is appointed to co-ordinate funding and data collection. Research results are compiled and often published in pamphlets and reports available to the public and to environmental agencies for information and education.

The effect of this research are far reaching in the investigation of environmental contaminants and the recovery and harnessing of our diminishing environmental resources.

The Canadian Environmental Law Research Foundation is undertaking a study to summarize the scientific, medical, legal and political implications in data designed to control environmental health hazards. Our students will compile information on five contaminants: lead, mercury, pesticides, food additives (amaranth or Red Dye #2) and radiation. Political influence, decision-making, the victims and their compensation, safety, controls and environmental assessment are several facets of this project.

Crayfish can be harvested and cultivated for food consumption and a group of Brock University students will study all demographics, the environmental toxicants involved and the crayfish growth rates in F.Gibson Lake as part of a study into the business, popular in the southern United States.

The effects of municipal planning on the natural environment is the subject of a three-man York University study which will utilize official plans and case studies, will analyse and document the material and propose two sets of guidelines: one for the municipalities and another for the Ministry.

Lakehead University is undertaking research in Thunder Bay on the abundance of asbestos and ph alkalinity in local waters. The objective of this project is to aid Environment Ontario in its development of an interim standard method for measuring asbestos in water. The second phase concerns the implications of dredging on the chemical make-up of Thunder Bay and ultimately Lake Superior and will study the ph influence across the sediment of this water interface.

Mulch provides protection for new growth in barren or damaged areas and its uses in Sudbury is another Experience '76 project undertaken by four Laurentian University students. The liabilities and economics of using mulch, which can be newspaper, straw or organic garbage will be investigated and the potential increase of productive farming lands studied.

Agincourt Crosswalk A Hazard

A crosswalk on Midland Ave. directly across from Agincourt Collegiate causes more problems than it solves, Ward 11 Alderman John Wimbs said Monday.

Wimbs wants signals at the crossing, which serves the high school's 800 students.

There have been two accidents at the crosswalk at Lockie Ave., and numerous near-misses, Wimbs told Scarborough Council.

A school secretary at Agincourt suffered multiple broken bones when a car struck her at that location six months ago. She is still off work, and is presently back in hospital having bones reset, Wimbs said.

And just recently, a motorcycle struck a car that was stopped at the pedestrian crossing, sending a youth to hospital badly injured.

"It's a miracle no one's killed there every day," Wimbs said.

"I drop my daughter off there and I always warn her. A signalized intersection is desperately required."

A committee will follow up the alderman's request.

Wind Up Season At St. Josephs

St. Joseph's of Highland Creek wound up another very successful hockey season on Fri. April 30, with their annual trophy presentation night at St. Brendan's School on Centennial Road.

The night which started off with movies, ended two and a half hours later with 25 dozen hot dogs and 10 cases of soft drinks consumed by over 100 happy hockey players.

As is the custom, each and every boy playing for St. Joseph's was presented with his own individual trophy as a memento of his participation with us. The trophies were presented by Scarborough Mayor, Paul Cosgrove, who had an encouraging word for all the boys.

Association president, Bill Docherty, briefly outlined the accomplishments of the past season and thanked everyone for their participation and cooperation in the 1975-76 season.

Highlight of the evening was the annual presentation of the "Walter Hurash Memorial Award", an award named in memory of one of the founders of the St. Joseph's Athletic Association in Highland Creek and presented annually to the most improved player in the 10 year old Atom Division.

Mrs. Vivian Hurash was once again on hand to present the award to 10 year old Robert Chiarandini, one of the bright spots of the Canadian John's Manville sponsored Atom Team.

Robert, a grade 5 pupil at West Rouge Public School looks to Toronto Maple Leaf centre Darryl Sittler as his idol and, of course, the Toronto Maple Leafs as his favorite team.

One of Robert's ambitions is to attend a Toronto Maple Leaf game and meet the Leaf captain in person. St. Joseph's has high hopes for Robert over the next few years and wishes him every success.

Robert's name joins last year's winner, Kevin Docherty on the big plaque which is kept in St. Brendan's trophy case while a personal plaque is given to him.

The 1975-76 season had its surprises - the most pleasant being the strong finish of our 7-8 year old novice team. A team which held its own in third or fourth spot throughout the year came on flying at playoff time, finishing the round robin semi final series without a defeat and entered a two out of three final playoff against a classy St. Barnabas team from the Malvern community.

After winning the first game, our boys ran out of gas and dropped the final two. Congratulations go to coach Peter Bolton, manager Rick Hamilton and trainer Kris Rottgen. The most pleasant prospect for St. Joe's is, this team will almost to a man, be together again next year. The minor atom, minor peewee and bantam teams were eliminated in the semi finals, while the atom, peewee and minor bantams didn't qualify for any post season play.

The St. Joseph's Athletic Association adult contingent wound up the season on April 23rd with a skating party and dance at Art Thompson Arena in Pickering.

The evening which provided an hour's ice time for all those who wished to see if their old skating legs hadn't forsaken them. A ladies, a mens and a mixed race were also included with a first prize in each event coupled with a "Sur-Prize" which was awarded to the last place finisher. A disc jockey, complimentary bar and refreshments followed.

On May 12, the final St. Joseph annual meeting was held where the 1975-76 executive was disbanded and a new group were elected.

Bill Docherty, the organization president since its inception in 1973, resigned following three years of valuable leadership. Bill has agreed to stay on the executive as past president to lend a helping hand where needed.

St. Joseph's Athletic Association plans on fielding 8, and possibly 9 teams.

Any boy living in the community who would like to participate with a group whose emphasis is on "fun" and not "win" is most welcome to join us.

Further information can be received by calling Jack Morin: 284-9349 or Carl Bettin: 282-0230

Theatre

Cameo Theatre Productions of North York will present "Night Must Fall", the first continuous live production in the new fully-equipped Fairview library theatre. The 4-night show runs Wed. June 9 through Sat., June 12 at 8:30 p.m.

In this classic suspense thriller Welsh playwright Emyln Williams explores not only the psychology of a murderer, but also the odd psychology of his victims. It's not so much a who-dunnit as it is a who's-going-to-get-it. The three main characters are Dan, the ingenious villain; Mrs. Bramson, a wealthy, eccentric cripple; and Olivia, her young, beautiful, suspicious and liberated niece.

The Cameo production at Fairview library is directed by Geoff Spurr, a professional actor/director and head of the Drama Department at Seneca College.

Tickets are $2.50. Call 225-6945 for information.

APRIL 1975

Popular Mechanics

"The most important new import for 1975 is the VW Rabbit.

The 1800-pound Rabbit is a mechanical masterpiece. It gets up to 60 mph in about 12 seconds - giving it the edge on some V8 subcompacts. Its hatchback design provides 24.7 cubic feet of luggage capacity with the rear seat folded.

VW got the greatest possible amount of usable interior space into the smallest possible outer shell - and an exterior with some style."

Savings To Go To Rugger Field

The Pickering Recreation and Transportation department wants $6,000 to go to the re-development of the athletic field at Dunbarton High School instead of going to the maintenance of the grounds at Rosebank Public School.

That proposal was contained in a May 6 inter-departmental memo from the department director, David E. Bass to the Administrator/Clerk, Noel C. Marshall. It was endorsed by council Monday night.

Mr. Bass wrote that he had found the condition of the Rosebank school grounds "in much better condition than anticipated".

The town had apparently co-operated with the Durham Board of Education in the field's weed spraying, fertilizing, and grass seeding program over the past two years so that a savings of $6,000 had been incurred.

Mr. Bass recommended in his memo that the savings be used in the re-development of a small area at the high school for the Dunbarton Rugger Team. "as recommended" in the 1976 budget but which was eliminated "because of restraint".

The deterioration of the high school's field was apparently due to the stress placed on the field both by the team and the community groups using it, he wrote.

To relieve this problem, he wrote, an area south of the school's gymnasium could be developed for the use of the rugger team. He also asked that the town be responsible for the field's annual maintenance program.

"I trust that these two main points will enable community groups such as soccer and football, to continue to make use of the field in the future," he wrote.

Re-Name Rouge Hill Public School

The Elizabeth B. Phin Public School will be the new name of the Rouge Hill P.S., Altona Road, Pickering, following dedication ceremonies to be held on Mon. June 16th at the school, commencing at 8 p.m.

The Durham Board of Education decided to re-name the school in honour of Mrs. Phin, former teacher, principal and trustee, who has given 50 years of dedicated service to education in Ontario.

Many of her former students, some of them now in the teaching profession, are expected to attend, as well as other members of the public who knew Mrs. Phin personally or by reputation.

Among those participating in the dedication ceremonies will be the Chairman of the Board of Education; the Mayor of Pickering, and A.W. Tyas, representing the community.

K.D. Munroe, Director of Education, will pay tribute to Mrs. Phin, and Rev. Dr. W. McKay will re-dedicate the school. The school choir will provide a musical interlude and refreshments will be served.

The public is cordially invited to attend.
