306 Beds For Durham Region

Dr. Richard Swain, Vice-Chairman of the District Health Council and Chairman of the Hospital Advisory Committee, announced last week that the Ministry of Health has allocated 201 chronic and 105 acute care beds to the Durham Region, as part of the $232 million Province-wide funding program.

Mick Peters, Executive Director of the District Health Council, stated that the council's recent recommendation to the Ministry had reported the shortage of hospital beds and that "with our current rapid growth in population, our shortage of acute and chronic care beds is fast becoming a serious problem."

The allocation announced is the minimum amount that had been requested from the Ministry to alleviate a bed shortage.

The 30% increase in hospital beds will be used as a basis for guidelines in planning for health care over the next five years. Meetings of the Council's advisory committees will be held over the next few months to discuss the allocation of beds, with the emphasis on the more pressing needs identified at Ajax/Pickering, Dr. J. O. Ruddy and Oshawa General Hospitals.

The approximate cost of 306 beds is difficult to determine but at least $20 million is anticipated from the Province for capital costs, with the local community raising about one-third of the costs in order to qualify for government assistance.

Fall Home Show Sold Out Reflects Home Market

The second annual Metro East (Fall) Home Show, Sept. 24 through 27 in Pickering is already sold out to exhibitors, at the new 185,000 square-foot Trade Centre, say the show's Co-producers Stephen Nichols and Allen Smoskowitz.

Mr. Nichols cites two reasons for the appeal to exhibitors of what will be the centre's third Home Show in the first year after the exhibition facility opened.

"The booming real estate market in Metro East no doubt has been a factor," said Nichols, "but the primary reason is that exhibitors know each previous Home Show here attracted more than 50,000 visitors. And we anticipate an even greater audience for the next Home Show.

"The Region of Durham, from which most of our show visitors will come, is experiencing the same hot real estate market as neighbouring Toronto where, according to the Canadian Real Estate Association's monthly survey for June, one in four of all Canadian home sales occurred," Mr. Nichols said.

"Region of Durham building permits issued for new residential units, to May of 1986, numbered 2,500 compared to Durham permits issued in all of 1985, totalling 4,300 which was a record.

Answers From The Library

Q. What does the expression "mare's nest" mean? Where did it originate? Is it a British expression?

J.P.

A. The expression apparently did originate in England. One of the first recorded usages was by English playwright John Fletcher (1579-1625) who, in 1619, wrote "Why dost thou laugh? What mare's nest hast thou found?"

It refers to what initially appears to be a wonderful discovery but is later to be nonexistent or illusory, and therefore the object of great ridicule.

Q. How does the wind get knocked out of a person?

M.A.

A. When a person receives a blow to his nerves in the upper abdomen (solar plexus) it causes the large breathing muscle (diaphragm) to spasm. The result is difficulty in breathing. The condition usually lasts for only a few minutes. Sometimes, however, a person does not recover normally and may require mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Q. What is the best way to store apples? Our tree had a bumper crop this year.

"Supervisor picker"

A. Apples should be stored in a cool, preferably moist place. This allows them to stay fresh longer. Small quantities do better when stored in the refrigerator, perhaps in a perforated plastic bag. The holes permit air to circulate in the bag and allow the apples to "breathe".

Best quality retention is achieved when the apples are kept cold. However, care should be taken to prevent freezing. It is also important to separate bruised apples and those with broken skins. Use such apples first and store only those in good condition.

About Quebec

When was the last time you heard a Prime Minister of Canada tell Metro Toronto and area residents that his government has failed to communicate with them but it is doing all kinds of things to help the community? But in Quebec our PM is busy giving $100 million worth of aid for the north shore of the St. Lawrence River right up to Sept Iles and naturally his own home riding. One gets the impression that Brian Mulroney is obsessed with Quebec, which reminds some of us of his predecessor, Pierre Trudeau.

We think that the federal government is doing a great job in some areas, such as selling off expensive crown corporations. But this obsession with catering to Quebec should be put into the context of this whole country which includes 10 provinces - not just one. There are a whole lot of nasty things which this government must do in order to correct the long Trudeau years of amassing debt as we Canadians have never seen. So far the Mulroney cabinet hasn't been tough enough to contain the yearly debt, which is still about $30 billion.

The Trudeau government spent nearly a billion building the Mirabel airport in Quebec just to satisfy Quebecers and as we all know now, that was a great waste of money because no one - not even Quebec people - want that airport. In the meantime Metro Toronto needs another terminal or the Pickering Airport and everyone knows how long that will take.

Quebec wants a veto on the constitution and every other concession in order to preserve its special status, which makes all of the rest of us "ordinary" Canadians feel just a mite testy. We believe that it is time our federal government decides that a Canadian is a Canadian is a Canadian. Can't we all be equal? And we mean native peoples too!

Need Airport

Congestion at Malton's Terminal 1 is becoming critical to many passengers and the parking deck becomes full more frequently now than before.

So we suggest that it is time to carry out the only positive move made by former premier Bill Davis and build the Pickering Airport. Of course, that will mean that the Ontario government will have to fund a few more eastbound highways which the previous PC government decided not to complete for the last 10 years.

A second airport makes sense, would balance Metro Toronto's "heavy to the west" development and spread the economic development of the area more equally. Safety-wise a second airport would also be a big advantage. The empty Hamilton airport is not viable because of the lengthy drive by the majority of passengers who reside in the Toronto area.

So let's build the Pickering Airport - now, not in the year 2000.

Use Better Sense

Dear Sir:

I could not believe my eyes when I read in Bill Watt's column in the August 13th issue "and we now confess to a lust we have felt for her for some time now", referring to an actress on "The Young and the Restless". It's a shame that Mr. Watt does not have better sense than to include such a comment in a family newspaper. It's also a shame that we live in a society where such feelings are considered acceptable - and they must be acceptable, or the comment would not have been included, right?

Sincerely,

Claudine Goller

Won't Allow Law Office

by Gay Abbate

Scarborough Council has refused to allow a house, which no one wants to buy because it is next door to a strip joint, to be used for law offices.

In turning down the rezoning application for 18 Bimbok Rd. in the Eglinton Ave. and Brimley Rd. area, council members argued concern about setting a precedent and allowing a further extension of commercial uses into this residential street.

The house is next door to the Bordeaux Restaurant which residents have been trying to get closed down for years because of its noisy and drunken patrons.

The rezoning to allow law offices is supported by the area residents who said it would act as a buffer between the Bordeaux and the next homeowner.

However, the area alderman Florence Cruickshank said this very point of the law office being a buffer would be used by the Bordeaux owners to try and get back the liquor licence they recently lost thus compounding the problem for the residents.

"They'll argue that no one lives immediately next to them and that therefore the impact of a liquor licence on area residents will not be as great as it was in the past," said Cruickshank who voted against the rezoning.

"Members of the City Motion dance and fitness team who will perform the variety show weekends at Ontario Place during the 1986 CNE."

Two lawyers, Barry and Irwin Seltzer, recently purchased the house when the owner was unable to sell it because of its proximity to the Bordeaux.

The brothers argued that council would not be setting a precedent because there is no other residential street in Scarborough that has a strip joint on it.

After touring the local businesses and non-profit organizations that received funding the MP said: "It is clear that both students and employers greatly benefitted from the Challenge '86 Program. If there was one common theme that I heard it was that there is an increased need for skilled labour. And that bodes well for the economic health of Scarborough Centre."

No Smoking Bylaw For Scarborough Finally Passed

by Gay Abbate

Scarborough finally has a no smoking by-law.

Council last week, after more than two years of debate, passed a no smoking by-law which will go into effect as soon as it passes the necessary bill.

The by-law prohibits smoking, except in specially designated areas, in restaurants, hospitals, school buses, bus shelters, theatres, retail stores, service lines and reception areas.

The by-law carries a maximum $2,000 fine.

The most controversial part of the by-law and the one most responsible for holding it up in its passage for so long is the section referring to restaurants.

Under the new by-law restaurants must provide a minimum of 20 percent of their seating for non smokers. They must also ask patrons their seating preference. Only restaurants with less than 40 seats are exempt from the by-law.

East York, Etobicoke, North York and Toronto all require a minimum of 30 percent non smoking seating in their by-laws.

Bars, taverns, banquet halls and roadhouse restaurants are exempt because their patrons mingle making it difficult to provide non smoking areas.

Opposition to the by-law came from restaurant owners who argued that their business would suffer and some restaurants might even have to close down. But supporters of the by-law on council told the restaurateurs that their business would improve because now they would get customers who previously stayed away because of the smoke.

Good News For RT Commuters

by Gay Abbate

The TTC has some good news for commuters who use the McCowan RT station. It has decided to spend $290,000 to install an automatic turnstile entrance on the mezzanine level.

This turnstile will allow passengers entering from the mezzanine level, where the passageway connecting to the Consilium project to the north is located, to access the RT much easier.

Presently, these riders enter from the mezzanine level, walk down one flight of stairs to pay and then take the escalator two flights up to the RT trains.

Once the turnstile entrance is installed, they can go directly up to the trains thus saving a walk of some additional 20 metres less.

Presently, some 3,417 passengers use the McCowan station daily with 758 of these getting on and off from the mezzanine level.

The TTC has already installed a turnstile exit on the mezzanine but it was only at the instigation of Scarborough Council in May that the TTC agreed to provide an entrance turnstile as well.

The TTC feels that the planned future development to the north of the station will increase the use of the automatic entrance thus justifying its cost.

OMB To Hear Case Of Knob Hill Farms Oct. 14

by Gay Abbate

The Ontario Municipal Board has finally set a date to hear an application by Knob Hill Farms to locate the world's largest supermarket in Scarborough.

The hearing will begin on Oct. 14 and is expected to last about four weeks.

The hearing is to decide whether the former General Electric plant on Eglinton Ave. at Pharmacy should be rezoned to allow retail uses.

Scarborough Council last year rejected the application by Knob Hill Farms for a number of reasons including fear of setting a precedent for other industrial land in the area, the potential loss of jobs in the area resulting from a drain by the supercentre and the desire to preserve industrial land for industrial jobs.

The Knob Hill application was also opposed by adjacent industries, local merchants in the area as well as a number of unions and labour groups who were concerned about loss of jobs. Knob Hill Farms employees are not unionized.

Knob Hill argued that the supermarket would create some 600 full and part-time jobs.

Birds Invade Agincourt

by Gay Abbate

The annual invasion of Agincourt is well under way.

As many as 35,000 starlings descend upon Donalda Park in the Midland Ave. and Sheppard Ave. E. area each night to roost. They start arriving around 6 p.m. and do not leave until early the next morning.

In between, "they party" and keep many residents awake says Ward Alderman Doug Mahood.

The birds, which roost in this particular park between June and September, are a real nuisance for nearby residents. In addition to their noise, their feathers cover lawns and clog pool filters.

Their excrement covers cars and according to Carol Ruddell-Foster, a former Scarborough controller who lives across the street from the park, the smell is terrible following a rainstorm.

In response to residents' complaints, Scarborough's recreation and parks department installed a flashing light and a noise machine which only served to drive the birds higher up on the trees.

It also succeeded in driving some birds out of the park and into the residents' trees thus compounding the problem. While the problem on the Donalda side of the park improved, the situation only got worse for those living on Agincourt Dr.

The city is now looking into the feasibility of using an ultra sound device to scare the birds away.

Mahood said that the starlings have hit on this area because of the tall trees. He said that Scarborough's neighbours, Markham and Pickering, have cut down their woodlots to make way for housing and have driven the starlings away.

Centennial Rouge United Church

by Millie Hull

This week's sermon continued from last week with more miracles done by Jesus.

It was pointed out that many of the healing miracles were done by touch - a finger, a hand. Does not this apply today? We greet each other by a handshake, a hug, an encircling arm.

And are there not times, especially if we are feeling down, when that touch of a friend does much to cheer us, to make us feel there is someone who cares. Did you hug someone today?

Next week we will have to say goodbye once again to the Butlers. It has been great having them with us for the past couple of months and we will miss their warm smiles and friendly ways. We wish them well in the future, but first of all we must meet them again next week. Won't you join us?

It was good to have Maryann Verner back at the organ after her vacation. Now we will have to get the choir active again.

The Craft Group will commence again in September so get out your ideas and be ready for lots of activity.

Sunday School will open Sept. 7th and we hope to see all our students on hand. The United Church Women will meet on Sept. 8th and the fall season will be in full swing.

We expect the Dempsey's back this weekend and the presence of our chairman should set things humming. We've been asked about Baptisms and Sunday School from new and interested folk - let's be ready.

West Hill Musician Competes In B.C.

Laura Nashman of West Hill was one of Canada's 63 most promising young musicians selected to represent their provinces at the 15th National Competitive Festival of Music held Aug. 23 to 27 in Vancouver.

Performers competed in six classes: vocal, piano, strings, woodwind, brass and instrumental ensembles. Laura's instrument was the flute.

The festival is a showcase for highly talented young Canadians, many of whom are on the threshold of professional careers in classical music.

This is the first time that the festival has been held in British Columbia, and the principal sponsor for the past 13 years has been Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

The bank contributes $20,000 annually in awards, as well as funding the travel and accommodation costs of all the competitors and adjudicators.

Heat Loss In The Home

Can Be A Hidden Cost

New home buyers, and those who are thinking of building their own houses, can test the energy-efficiency of their house designs when the Kortright Centre for Conservation presents "R-2000, The Right Home For You", every Saturday and Sunday during Sept. at 3 p.m.

New homes are expensive, but excessive heat loss can result in additional, unexpected costs. An energy-efficient home will ensure your personal comfort and keep your heating bills low.

This Kortright program gives you advice on what to look for when buying a new home and an explanation of R-2000 building techniques.

Models of wall sections illustrate how a wall should be properly constructed and insulated. A Kortright staff member can give advice and answer questions on typical home insulation problems that can be avoided.

New home designs can be tested for their energy-efficiency on the Hotcan computer program, courtesy of the Ontario Ministry of Energy. The computer provides an instant analysis of each design, determining areas of potential heat loss.

Detailed information about the design must be provided, such as the amount of fuel used, net ceiling and wall areas on all floors, including the basement, and net areas of the windows on each side of the house. Each analysis costs $5.

In addition, the latest advancement in energy-efficient homes, R-2000, is explained. The R-2000 standard encompasses both the house design and the special construction techniques required to build these homes.

This program is free with admission to Kortright Centre which is located three km west of Hwy. 400, south of Major Mackenzie Dr., on Pine Valley Dr.

Play Safe Don't Drink and Drive

Perhaps the most tasteless episode concerns the death of one of the class. Vic Holyfield has had the school auditorium turned into a planetarium. The dead man's closed coffin is put on a revolving centre stage and bathed in celestial light. As it turns, his classmates hold hands to a recording of Elvis Presley singing "that Old Rugged Cross... the dead singing for the dead, the living only overhearing." Pretty sophomoric, right?

Mr. Heyen is working on a sequel and we confess our anticipation of it as we wonder if he can surpass himself in ego.

The helluvital is that he is - are you ready for this? - a professor of English at the State University of New York College at Brockport. One hopes he teaches better than he writes but we somehow rather doubt it.

FAST EXIT:

We can't really vouch for the veracity of the following but we pass it on for your consideration.

A farmer within transmitting distance of CJCL's Music of Your Life has stopped listening to it.

It seems that his ram committed suicide when he heard Eddie Fisher singing There Will Never Be Another Ewe.

Bill Watt's Worlds

SUMMER LEAVES: and autumn leaves arrive all too soon it seems.

Among the first signs of summer's imminent demise are the announcements of the Jerry Lewis Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy and the headliners for the Imperial Room's Fall Season.

Once again Global Television will air the telethon in Canada but this year the local activities will take place right in the Global studios. It seems that Toronto has become such a popular tourist and convention attraction that the telethon's usual venue is unavailable.

The Global studios are at 81 Barber Greene Road in Don Mills and the public is more than welcome to attend.

The show airs from this Sunday at 9 p.m. until the following Monday at 6:30 p.m. Call Global at 446-5320 for information.

Oh yes, once more we must report that we haven't been asked to tap dance. Well, maybe John Dawe will dance with Sherry Miller, the spumante bambino girl. Well, heck! if he won't we'll certainly volunteer.

The Imperial Room opens its Fall Season on Mon. Sept. 8th with three of Motown's biggest names on the one bill. They are Junior Walker and the Allstars with Martha Reeves and Mary Wells.

Following them on Sept. 15th it's the fine dancer Gregory Hines. Anyone and everyone enjoys Mr. Hines but he is a particular favourite of abem-people like your correspondent who love tapdancing.

From Tues. Sept. 23rd until Sat. Sept. 27th, the Imperial Room is presenting The Fabulous Fours. This is a reunion of the Four Lads, the Four Freshmen and the Four Aces. Now, no one has said anything to us but we shouldn't be at all surprised if the Crew Cuts show up as well. Why not? They were just as big in their time. Sh boom... ah memories.

The next week features the Mamas and the Papas. The new lineup includes the original Papas, John Phillips and Denny Doherty with Mackenzie Phillips (John's daughter) and Spanky McFarlane of Spanky and Our Gang Fame.

Frankly friends we're not well versed on this particular music scene so we don't know if the Our Gang referred to is a musical aggregation or the heroes of innumerable shorts. Anyway, Spanky McFarlane - whoever he might be - is going to appear at the Imperial Room

Taking the room through till November will be Brenda Lee, Molly Johnson, Pearl Bailey and Lola Falana. Spanky

McFarlane? MARK BRESLIN LEAVES:

By now you'll have read or heard that Mark Breslin, the founder of Yuk Yuk's has left for Los Angeles where he will book and select all comedy acts for the new Joan Rivers late night show. He will still operate all the Yuk Yuk's activities and will return to Toronto from time to time.

Well done Mark and best wishes.

Not incidentally, The Late Show starring Joan Rivers will be seen in the Toronto area on CFMT-TV, Channel 47, Cable 4 Mondays through Fridays at 11 p.m. starting Mon. Oct. 6th.

Can we talk? Does Miss Rivers ever stop talking?

BILL WATT HEAVES

his chest in mighty sighs over the thought of Kathryn Kates. We first met Miss Kates about three years ago and we were instantly taken by her eyes. They are quite beautiful and are at once seductive and innocent. They are such that they give her the air of a woman you'd like to take home to meet mother... if you could trust father!

Anyway, we lost track of Kathryn for a while and wondered muchly about her. Well, it seems she has been in England studying with Ann Gallant one of the world's leading estheticians. As well, she has studied at the Edith Serei Beauty Institute and been certified by the Rene Guinot and Mary Cohn Institutes of Paris.

Now she is starting her own establishment, the Kathryn Kates Beauty Experience for Men and Women. Why not? Some men are beautiful said he faintly blushing in modesty.

It will be an all around grooming and beauty centre open to all but with the emphasis on the particular needs and services of those in the corporate and show business worlds.

It'll be located at 608 Church St. in Ricardo's Coiffure Ltd. and the grand opening is scheduled for Sept. 4th. We've been invited for some opening champers and good cheer and will report back on the physical surround... that is if we can keep from surrounding guest hostess Lyn Gordon, our former and still much beloved dancing partner from the National Ballet. Okay, so we carried a stretcher in The Nutcracker last yuletide.

BERTHOLD BRECHT CLEAVES

to the memory of those who regard him as a playwright of significance. Frankly we regard his works along with those of Pirandello as much over rated but it remains that in his brief life span he left some sort of impression on the world of arts and letters.

This year marks the 30th anniversary of his passing and Toronto is to hold in October a major International Conference and Theatre - Brecht: Thirty Years After.

A whole host of activities have been planned and there is to be a media conference in September to announce and discuss details of them. As this is being written however we are planning a vacation in September and might not be able to attend.

So for those who are interested we suggest a 'phone call to Pia Kleber at 978-4418.

THE FOREIGNER WEAVES

a comic spell; or it will when it opens at the Royal Alex on Sept. 8th. It's a presentation of Edwin & David Mirvish and Marlene Smith & Company and is the first production in the Alex's '86-'87 subscription series.

We'll be reviewing it but thought you might be interested in the premise. A shy Englishman pretends he cannot speak English in order to preserve his privacy. In short order he becomes privy to the private intrigues of all those around him with predictably hilarious results.

It sounds like the sort of play the late Thorne Smith might have written and we look forward to a good laugh to start the new season.

BOOK LEAVES:

My, but aren't we being clever with all these rhyming cut lines! We can't decide whether Vic Holyfield and the Class of 1967 (Available Press) is stupid or merely self indulgent.

1987 is the tenth anniversary of the death of Elvis Presley. New York High School in Smithtown, Long Island is to be razed. Vic Holyfield, multi millionaire graduate of the class of 1967 purchases it and with a world of wealth at hand restores it not only to what it was but to what it has become in the memory of the class of '57.

He then invites the entire graduating class to live there for a year with the guarantee of a stated amount of money and a wealth of good times.

The idea is an interesting one and another author might have made much of it but William Heyen has obviously written about only those aspects of high school life that were important to him including the banal songs and singing groups of the time.

Granted they were considerably better and certainly more innocent than the screaming junk of today but they shoorasell weren't art. And, Elvis Presley, while perhaps a seminal force was not and is not a god-figure.

The family of Hedley and Viola Wood invite friends to the celebration of their parents

Who Needs Vitamin Supplements?

In some special situations, it may be advisable for people to take a supplement: pregnant women may be advised by their physician to take a supplement which contains folic acid. (This is usually in combination with the mineral iron and other vitamins); breastfed infants should be given Vitamin D; strict vegetarians who do not include any meat, eggs or milk and milk products in their diet will not be getting any vitamin B12; people who cannot tolerate or are allergic to milk and milk products may need to add vitamin D (and calcium) to their diet; people who take certain medications may

A Labour Saving Menu for Labour Day

For many of us, Labour Day means the last, long summer weekend and then it's back-to-school or back-to-work. Enjoy the day with an easy, make-ahead menu that's meant to be labour-saving, not labour-intensive. These recipes make use of many inexpensive, late-summer vegetables that are readily available.

need a supplement (on the other hand, some vitamins can interfere with the action of a medication). If you are in one of these categories, consult your physician or a dietitian/nutritionist.

What Are Vitamins?

Vitamins are chemical compounds required by the body. They themselves are not a source of energy, but they do influence the chemical reactions in the body. They cooperate in a variety of functions: in the metabolism of nutrients, such as carbohydrates, fats and proteins; and in the formation of blood cells, hormones, genetic material and nervous system chemicals.

Only very tiny amounts of vitamins are required daily. This is because: vitamins, even water-soluble ones, are stored in the body in varying amounts; vitamins are reusable in the chemical processes in the body.

Vitamins, therefore, are measured in very small units, that is, in terms of milligrams or micrograms. Altogether, the vitamins we need add up to about one eighth of a teaspoon a day.

— steaks, chops or kabobs — to tenderize and add flavor, earlier in the day or overnight. Refrigerate until ready to prepare the coals, drain from marinade and barbeque. Serve with delicious and colorful Three Pepper Pasta Salad. Make the salad the day before to allow time for the flavors to blend. For dessert, try Lime Mint Sorbet, a refreshing cooler that's made with tea as its base. It should also be made the day before. The perfect beverage to accompany this late-summer menu is Iced Tea — always welcome as a low-calorie, thirst-quenching drink.

Three Pepper Pasta Salad

Use yellow peppers, if available, as well as green and red peppers to give this salad lots of color and crunch. If you like a bit of heat, use 1 hot pepper in place of sweet peppers. Use penne or rotini pasta for an interesting shape, rather than the more traditional elbow or shell macaroni.

- 8 oz (250 g) dried penne or rotini pasta
- 1 each sweet green, red and yellow pepper, cored and cut into julienne strips
- 2 tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped

Dressing:

- 1 tbsp (15 mL) Dijon Mustard
- 2 tsp (25 mL) lemon juice
- 2 tsp (25 mL) red wine vinegar
- 1 tbsp (5 mL) sugar
- ½ tsp (2 mL) salt
- ½ tsp (2 mL) freshly ground black pepper
- ½ cup (125 mL) olive oil
- 1 tbsp (15 mL) finely chopped fresh basil OR
- 1 tsp (5 mL) dried
- 2 shallots, finely minced
- 1 clove garlic, finely minced

Cook pasta in boiling, salted water until tender but not mushy. Drain well, but do not rinse. (Warm pasta absorbs the flavor of the dressing better than cold pasta.)

While pasta is cooking, prepare vegetables and place in a large bowl. Make dressing by whisking together mustard, lemon juice, vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper. Slowly whisk in oil until evenly blended. Add basil, shallots and garlic. Set aside.

Add drained, warm pasta to vegetables. Pour dressing over all and toss well. Cool to room temperature, then cover and chill. About ½ hour before serving, remove from refrigerator. Serves 6 to 8.

Lime Mint Sorbet

Tangy lime and cool mint

Sweet green, red and yellow peppers give this delicious Three Pepper Pasta Salad lots of crunch and color.

make a light refreshing sorbet — just right for a hot summer day.

- ½ cup (125 mL) fresh mint leaves
- 2 tea bags
- 2 cups (500 mL) boiling water
- Juice and rind of 2 limes
- 1½ cups (300 mL) sugar
- Lime slices and mint sprigs for garnish

Place mint leaves in a large liquid measuring cup. Crush leaves slightly by pressing with a wooden spoon against the side of the cup. Add teabags and boiling water. Let stand 5 minutes, then strain into a shallow 8" x 8" (20 cm) metal pan.

Place juice and rind of limes in measuring cup and add enough water to make ½ cup (125 mL). Pour into a small saucepan and add sugar. Bring to a boil, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Reduce heat and simmer gently for one minute. (Or microwave in the measuring cup on HIGH (100% power) until mixture boils and sugar dissolves).

Strain into the metal pan. Freeze until almost firm. Transfer to a bowl and break up any large chunks. Beat with an electric mixer at high speed until it's opaque. Return to pan and freeze until almost solid. Transfer to bowl and beat again until smooth. Pack into container, cover and freeze until firm. To serve, scoop into glasses and garnish with a slice of lime and a mint sprig. Makes 3 cups (750 mL), about 6 servings.

Classic Iced Tea

The traditional method of making iced tea begins with double-strength hot tea. Use twice the amount of tea (either loose or in bags) you would for hot tea. Be sure to use fresh cold water brought to a full boil. Cover and brew for five minutes. Strain tea leaves or remove tea bags and pour over ice in tall glasses. Garnish and sweeten to individual taste.

The Overnight Method

An easy way to make iced tea — no need to boil water. Fill a pitcher with 4 cups (1 L) cold water and add 8 to 10 teabags. Cover and chill at least 6 hours or overnight. Remove teabags, squeezing against the side of container, then pour into ice-filled glasses. Garnish and sweeten to individual taste. Cover and chill remaining tea.

One Of A Kind Education Directory Now Available

One in five Metro Toronto adults will upgrade their education in the next year, and many of them will let their fingers do the walking through the Continuing Education Directory for help in choosing a part-time course.

The fall edition of the directory, a massive index for one-stop night school shopping in Metro, is now available for consultation in all public libraries in Metro.

Published by the Metropolitan Toronto Library Board, the directory lists the subjects, locations, dates and costs of over 8,000 courses offered by 70 Metro institutions at over 900 locations.

The subject range in the directory includes courses in arts, business, technology, science, social science, sports and recreation — to name just a few.

As well, the different types of courses offered since the directory was first out in 1969 have often reflected the varied trends in society. From an emphasis on spiritual, social and physical awareness in the seventies, the courses of the eighties reflect a more career-oriented populace, with two popular choices being microcomputers and real estate.

About 200 Metro companies buy the directory each year and put it on display to encourage their employees to take upgrading courses.

It is on display at the Metro reference library in the General Reference and Social Sciences departments, or can be purchased at the main reception desk. School calendars and flyers are also available in Social Sciences.

At Mosport

by Jerry Hudson

The Budweiser 24, the first 24-hour race ever held in Canada, was run at Mosport Park recently.

Corvettes proved their winning ability by taking 5 of the first 6 places, with only a Porsche 944 Turbo coming in 2nd to mar the Corvette sweep.

The No.70 Powell Motorsport Corvette co-driven by Willowdale's Robin Buck and Peter Lockhart along with Scott Goodyear and R. K. Smith took 5th spot. The local-driver's team completed 745 laps of the 2.459 mile Mosport circuit behind the winning Bakeracing Corvette's 766 laps.

The Powell Motorsports team also had two other Corvettes which finished in 3rd and 46th positions.

In another and much smaller-engined car, the team of "We Won't Wreck Garth's Car", comprised of local drivers Garth Wallace, John Sherk, Brian Jeffrey, Philip Dehne and Roger Lindalla managed a 7th-in-class finish in their Honda Civic.

In the Honda/Michelin Challenge 15-lap sprint, Terry De Francesco held on to take 4th place. Following Terry were Unionville's John Sherk and Geoff Chandler in 7th and 8th spot respectively.

Willowdale's Philip Dehne had crashed his car in the previous day's qualifying and could not participate in the Hon-

Other local drivers in the top 20 finishers in the Player's Challenge were Ian Phillips of Markham, and Michael Rivet, Rolf Von Engelbrechten and Horst Kroll, all from Scarborough.

The Rothmans/Porsche Challenge race had Agincourt's Scott Maxwell in the No. 23 Capricorn Racing Porsche 944 in a strong 3rd-place finish. Willowdale's Ray Coffey came in 7th, while Ludwig Heimrath of Scarborough finished 13th.

The Canadian Tire 15-lap event for Formula 2000 cars saw 17 year old Paul Tracy of West Hill leading until the 7th lap when his tires started to lose traction and he had to settle for a 2nd place finish behind Richard Spendard's Pulsar Quartz No.4 Reynard.

Perhaps the most citing comeback of the weekend was the drive of West Hill's Paul Maskos in his No.79 EDL Rotax 250cc.

During Saturday's qualifying, Maskos had parked the Kart on the inside of Corner 1 with water coming out of the carburetor. When asked how he thought he would do on the following race-day, Paul replied, "I'm going to have to start from the back of the pack because I didn't have a good qualifying lap, but I'm going to win tomorrow."

And win he did, beating other drivers such as Toronto's Doug Beatty who finished 2nd, and Craig Priddle of Willowdale and Scarborough's Donald Bush who followed in 3rd and 4th positions.

The next action at Mosport will be on the weekend of Aug. 23-24 when the Deutscher Automobile Club hold its race-meeting.

Following that, the Budweiser Canam Transam Doubleheader will take place on the weekend of Sept. 13-14.

Baseball League playoff action. It was the second loss for the Majors in the double-knockout competition.

Two nights earlier, they had lost 8-3 to first place (19-7) East York. Scarborough was back to their home ground of McGregor Park on Monday but were shelled early as the Braves scored nine runs in the first inning off Jeff Eberle and John Douris.

Eberle started the game but only faced eight batters, allowing five hits, two walks, and seven runs and recording only one out.

Douris came in for relief and ended up staying until the fourth end of the fourth inning after facing 13 batters.

Douris, who pitched on Saturday as the starter against East York, is a member of the Canadian National Junior team. He showed some of his excellent skills by striking out five while allowing three runs, two walks and three hits.

Matthew Gammie came in for four innings as the final Scarborough pitcher and had one of his best outings of the season. He struck out nine of 23 batters while allowing only four hits and no runs.

REGIONAL TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

This is a reminder that Wed. & Thurs. Aug. 27 & 28 are the final two days of the four-day "Ontario Regional Team Tennis Championships," being hosted by the Ontario Tennis Association. All the matches are taking place at the York University Tennis Centre.

The tournament, in which Scarborough has finished among the top three in the past two years, attracts some of the best young tennis players from around the province in the age groups of under 14 and under 18, boys and girls.

Each consists of eight players and all nine Ontario tennis regions will be represented. In the event of rain, the indoor site will be the Mayfair West Racquet Club at 3855 Chesswood Dr. Downsview.

Calling All Britons

York University is participating in a research project related to adults who were born and lived in England for at least 18 to 20 years and immigrated to Canada.

Thirty people with such a history are needed to participate in this study.

If you can commit yourself to one three to four hour interview session either at your home or in any location convenient to you, mornings, afternoons or evenings, call the Volunteer Centre at 481-6194.

but the Dragons were not intimidated and did not allow the Rowdies a direct shot on goal during the first half.

Actually the Dragons came closest to scoring when full back Renate Lemm made a long run from her own half and saw her shot strike the post.

Play was once again evenly divided for the first 35 minutes of the second half, but the Rowdies broke the deadlock when Shelly McNicholl headed a corner past goalkeeper Heather McLeod.

Pushing players forward in attack the Dragons left a gap in defence and Sue Coppin added a second marker with three minutes remaining.

However, as a 'first year' team, the Dragons can feel very proud of their performance against a much more experienced squad. This writer and manager Tom Galley congratulated the girls following the game.

The Ontario Soccer Association will hold the provincial finals in Burlington on Sun. Sept. 7th.

Carla Chin (L) and Shelley McNicholl, of the Scarborough United 'Rowdies'. Both are on the Canadian National team which is bound for Japan next year to participate in the first-ever women's World Cup tournament.

Scarborough United In Cup Finals

by Ken Lehan-Port
Firmly established as Ontario's premiere girls' women's soccer club, Scarborough United re-emphasized the fact last weekend when three teams were victorious in semi-final play in the Ontario Soccer Association Cup competition.

The under 14 Peewee 'Buccaneers', sponsored by Bicks Pickles, beat Oakville 4-1; the Junior 'Dynamos' nipped Oakville 2-1, and the Senior 'Rowdies' were 2-0 winners over sister team, the 'Dragons'.

A fifth team from the club was also in action. The minor 'Mosquito' 'Scorpions', sponsored by Scarborough Toyota, were pitted against Burlington in their semi-final. The more experienced girls from down the QEW won 3-0, but the Scarborough team drew praise from coach Alex Rodrigues for their overall display and 'never-say-die' attitude.

The team is already being tipped to have an outstanding season in 1987.

For the 'Buccaneers' it will be their third Ontario Final appearance in five years ('82 was with the Agincourt Soccer Club).

Having won the championship on both previous occasions the team is looking to make it a 'hat-trick' of victories.

The 'Bucs' were on the offensive from the kick-off and were rewarded with a goal in the third minute when a corner kick by Tammy Ziskos was played on by Melissa Munro, and Lina Guglietti planted the ball into the Oakville net. Lina was on the spot again six minutes later collecting the ball outside the penalty area, beating two defenders and slotting the shot past the goalkeeper.

Debbie McConvey came on as a 'sub' at the 20th minute and immediately made her presence felt when she broke in from the right wing and blasted the ball home to give her team a 3-0 lead.

Five minutes before the half Melissa Hyman stroked a long pass over the Oakville defence for Lina Guglietti to latch on to and increase the 'Bucs' lead by another marker.

In the second half Oakville were a more aggressive team and Scarborough goalie Sue-Moy Chin was beaten following a corner kick. However, the 'Bucs' soon regained the upper hand and at the final whistle held their 4-1 advantage.

They will meet the West Rouge 'Thunderbirds', who defeated Welland 3-0, in the final.

Alan Southard is an 'old hand' when it comes to coaching a team to an Ontario final berth, but it is always a good feeling to do it again, and this was the case when his Junior 'Dynamos', sponsored by Today's Business, defeated the league rivals Oakville 2-1.

Vicki Sunohara scored a first half goal, but the opposition drew level before the break. Forward Karen Nystrom scored what was the winning goal midway through the second half.

In their final the Dynamos will meet Sarnia. St. Catharines was the site for the senior division semi-finals where the Dragons and Rowdies met to decide one of the berths in the final.

The latter boast two players who are on the Canadian National team, Impressive in its grandeur is the 18 story, 750 room Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress at Orlando, centerpiece of the 920 acre Grand Cypress Resort. The $110 million hotel features four restaurants and six lounges, a spectacular 200 ft. high atrium lobby and a half-acre, free-form swimming pool.

Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress - A Fantastic Hotel

by Bob Watson

In a trip to Florida last year I was fortunate to stay one day and night at the Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress Hotel in Orlando.

The 750 room hotel is part of a 920 acre world class resort in Central Florida and opened in February 1984. It includes 57,000 sq. ft. of meeting and exhibit space and features a 25,000 sq. ft. ballroom which can be divided into nine separate rooms.

The Regency Exhibit Hall, adjacent to the ballroom, offers 20,000 sq.

ft. for 140 booths.

But the $110 million Hyatt Regency includes many other features such as an 18-hole Jack Nicklaus signature golf course and extensive recreation areas.

There is an half-acre, free form swimming pool, one of the largest in the world, with 12 waterfalls, three jacuzzis, a 45 foot water slide and a grotto bar; a 21 acre lake and more than 1000 feet of white sand beach; a marina with sailboats, canoes, wind-surfers and paddleboats; and a large tennis recreation complex, the Grand Cypress Racquet Club.

The tennis recreation complex houses 11 tennis courts, racquetball and shuffleboard courts and a mulch trail for walking or jogging. A complete health club is in the grotto area beneath the swimming pool.

According to Pat Foley, president of the Hyatt Hotels Corporation, "the only other Hyatt hotel resembling this in the United States is Hyatt Regency Maui, which has become famous as one of the world's most luxurious resorts."

Designed for business and pleasure travellers alike, the 18 storey T-shaped hotel, with three guest room wings off the atrium lobby, is surrounded by extensive water featuring landscaping, tropical plants and fresh flowers.

Guests arriving at the hotel enter through an elevated motor court shaded by 90 foot high covered trellises and surrounded by tropical greenery and cascading waterfalls.

The atrium lobby rises 200 feet with sliding glass walls that can be opened for an airy effect.

Decor reflects a Florida feeling with wicker furniture, a ceiling fan and shutters in each guest room. The hotel includes a Regency Club, located on the 11th floor, designed to offer business and leisure travellers the finest in VIP European concierge service as well as special amenities.

The hotel also offers 75 suites, with five of them multi-levelled with sleeping lofts, wet bar and a private spa with jacuzzi.

Three separate lounges are featured in the hotel with both indoor and outdoor seating.

There are four restaurants - the La Cucina, overlooking the lake, specializes in fine dining; Hemingway's, set on rocks overlooking the half acre swimming pool and offering Key West flavour with a winning sea food and steak menu; Cascade, the main dining room, featuring breakfast and lunch dining and ethnic northern Italian cuisine at dinner.

The adjacent Terrace Restaurant features informal menus for resort guests in a hurry.

The Grand Cypress Golf Club serves breakfast, lunch and dinner while guests enjoy the view of the 9th and 18th holes.

One of the extra features at this marvellous hotel is the $1 million of original art from around the world which is displayed throughout the hotel, both indoors and out.

The natural, tropical setting of Grand Cypress Resort is further enhanced by a large area of land left in its native state. Throughout the resort,

Leah Posluns 10th Season

The Leah Posluns Theatre will open its 1986-87 tenth anniversary season with the bawdy, cynical, sensual and thought-provoking musical "Cabaret" on Oct. 30.

In November the theatre welcomes back Nehemiah Persoff in his one-man show "Sholem Aleichem", in which he retells and recreates some of the wonderful stories of Russian Jewish small town life in the last century.

In the new year "Extremities", William Mastrosimone's intense psychological drama of power and revenge comes to the theatre.

Two more plays will compete the season: "Big Al" by Susan Nanus; the exciting new musical "First Step" starring Eddie Mekka or "Applause", a bright musical about the business of show business.

For ticket information and reservations and season subscriptions call the box office at 630-6752.

Visible Traces Of The Past

Reminders of the past can still be seen in rural areas - often in the form of ruined buildings, foundations and fences.

They have many interesting stories to tell, as you can find out during the Settlers' Walk, weekends in September, starting Sept. 6 at 1 p.m. at Kortright Centre for Conservation.

More than 600 years ago, an important Indian trail stretching from Lake Ontario to Lake Simcoe ran by what is now the Kortright Centre. Later, the land was settled by white settlers. Stump fences and the foundations of some of their buildings still remain.

This informative walk provides an insight into the way the pioneers lived. For example, Kortright visitors find out that the man who first settled the centre's property, in the late 1800s, was forced to give away a part of his land to pay off his meat bill at the butcher's.

At least he fared better than the man who was elected as the toll-keeper for the Vaughan Plank Road, which ran by the Kortright property.

The tolls were charged to pay for road maintenance. A heard of swine could pass grounds are designated as conservation and preservation areas with natural flora and fauna left untouched. The lake is stocked with native fish.

Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress at Orlando is adjacent to Walt Disney World Village and three miles from Walt Disney World's EPCOT Centre, to which transportation is provided.

The hotel was developed by a subsidiary of Dutch Institutional Holding Company of Atlanta, Georgia.

My stay at this hotel was arranged by Robert Overton of the Florida Dept. of Commerce and our hostess was Gail Sammet, who entertained our small group of Canadians for dinner in Hemingways and breakfast in Cascades.

Hemingway's was a culinary adventure as it is perched atop a huge rock precipice overlooking the palm fringed, lagoon-like pool at the hotel with an open-air design featuring whirling ceiling fans, wicker and tropical palms.

The menu featured such delicacies as "Floridita Seafood Salad", a heavenly marinade of shrimp, mussels, scallops, oysters and lobster blended with olive oil, wine vinegar and fresh herbs.

Breakfast at Cascades was unusual as it is served throughout the day - a feature for late risers. But Cascades elevates the coffee shop to a new art form with such exciting design elements as a brass spiral staircase with a 35 foot high bronze mermaid sculpture by Richard Ellis as the focal point of a fountain which occupies centre stage.

As you can see our small group found it difficult to tear ourselves away and go to visit other interesting aspects of Florida which you don't hear so much about. So if you want luxury in Florida, we recommend the Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress Hotel in Orlando.

CNE Bandshell Celebrates Its 50th Birthday Thursday

Birthdays are a special time, so come to the CNE on Aug. 28 at 7:30 p.m. to celebrate the bandshell's 50th Birthday.

Exactly 50 years ago on this date, the Canadian National Exhibition's bandshell was officially opened by Alderman Sir Percy Vincent, Lord Mayor of London, England and Samuel McBride, Mayor of Toronto.

At a cost of approximately $47,000 the bandshell was considered one of the best in the world in 1936 and still maintains a reputation for acoustic excellence.

In celebration of the 50th birthday of this marvelous structure, a special ceremony will be taking place the last week of the fair.

The majority of bandshell programming will be dedicated to reviving the entertainment of the great performers of the past, many of whom appeared at the bandshell such as Benny Goodman, Guy Lombardo, Louis Armstrong and Kenny Rogers.

Don't miss this golden opportunity to relive a half a century of music and shows at the CNE bandshell.

through for only one pence, but a man on a horse had to pay the exorbitant rate of two pence. There was no charge if the traveller was going to church or to a funeral.

However, the road was allowed to fall into disrepair and the tolls became unpopular. One night the local farmers banded together and burned the gate down.

The Kortright Centre, open daily, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., is located three km west of Hwy. 400, south of Major Mackenzie Dr. on Pine Valley Dr.

Barbecue with Spring Lamb

When the busy days of summer stretch into longer, mellow evenings, everyone heads for the backyard for another season of cooking over the coals. Barbecuing has become one of the season's favorite activities, and the latest food craze is to have all kinds of food cooked on the grill.

One food that's ideal for charcoaling is Spring Lamb. Not only is its good, distinctive flavor enhanced by the rich smokiness of grilling but because it is a tender meat, it cooks in a very short time.

Spring Lamb is a rich, succulent meat that needs little basting or marinating to be juicy and flavorful. You can merely brush with oil and season with garlic or herbs for delightful and easy summer dining.

Our menu offers extra barbecue enjoyment and is designed to get you out of the kitchen and into those soft summer evenings since the meal can be prepared ahead or cooked right on the grill.

BARBECUE MENU

Cooking dinner on a stick is a fun approach to summer suppers. A garlicky yogurt mixture coats pieces of a boneless leg of lamb that are grilled to a crusty brown on the outside and a juicy pink inside. Spring onions and cherry tomatoes complete the skewers, which can be slipped into the hollow opening of a warm pita loaf. Just pull off the lamb and vegetables by holding the bread around the skewer and make yourself a neat little package. You might even like some of the salad on top.

Heating pita bread right on the grill and serving supper in the loaves make dishes almost unnecessary. Everyone will be volunteering to clean up this night!

LAMB KABOBS

A simple yogurt marinade not only flavors and tenderizes the lamb, but coats each piece completely so that no basting is necessary as you grill.

Cut lamb into pieces 2" x 1" x 1/2" (5 cm x 2.5 cm x 1 cm) and place in a small bowl.

In a small container, stir together yogurt, olive oil, onion, garlic and black pepper. Pour over lamb and stir well to coat meat with marinade. Cover and marinate in refrigerator at least 2 hours or overnight stirring occasionally. Bring out to room temperature at least 30 minutes before grilling.

Cut onions into 1/2" (1 cm) diagonal lengths. Thread lamb pieces onto oiled skewers with 2 to 3 onion pieces on each skewer.

Place on greased grill 4" (10 cm) from hot coals or on medium-high to high for barbecue with control dials. Barbecue for about 8 to 10 minutes, depending on wind conditions, etc. Turn skewers over after 4 or 5 minutes and thread tomatoes on end of each for last few minutes of grilling. Cut into one cube of meat to see if it's done to your liking.

Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Report from Queen's Park

By George Ashe, MPP Durham West

PREMIER WELCOMES FONTAINE BACK

Rene Fontaine, former northern affairs and mines minister, won the recent bi-election and will return as MPP for Cochrane North. You the taxpayer's are out of pocket about $125,000. to pay for this unnecessary election.

The summer of 1986 has been one of political conflict for the Liberals, or rather conflict of interest, and the people of this province shouldn't forget it.

Fontaine resigned when it was found that he failed to disclose ownership of 17,000 shares in Golden Tiger Mining Company while serving as mines minister.

When the standing Committee of the Legislative Assembly first met at the end of July, Fontaine disclosed even more holdings that, he says, he forgot to include.

Fontaine also said he realized he caused Peterson problems with the controversial statements he has made since he resigned on June 26th.

But Peterson doesn't seem to mind controversy. He is quite anxious to see Fontaine back at Queen's Park where he can represent "all the people in Northern Ontario". In fact, Peterson has talked about once again giving Fontaine a position in his cabinet. Unbelievable, but possibly true!

The Premier thinks a minister who fails to disclose his interest in a mining company has only committed "a technical violation of guidelines". In Committee it is being suggested even these guidelines were tampered with.

Mary Eberts, a lawyer on Peterson's transition team, informed Fontaine that under the conflict of interest guidelines set up under the Bill Davis government, he would have to sell his shares. Shortly afterwards, the guidelines were weakened by the Liberals and Fontaine was permitted to keep them.

Just recently, Andre Gagne, Fontaine's accountant, admitted that he instructed Fontaine to resign rather than sell his shares in United Sawmill, another company he had shares in.

The whole slimy affair gets worse and yet Peterson welcomes Fontaine back to Queen's Park with open arms. Perhaps it's because Fontaine holds the only Liberal seat in the North.

Peterson's responsibilities, as the Premier, and as the Leader of his Party, lie with the people of this province and should not be based on sentimental loyalty to his colleagues.

Remember also, never before in the history of this Province have two Cabinet Ministers been forced to resign in the same session. This is one first that the Liberal Government should be ashamed of.
