Historical Notes

There's going to be a History of Pickering. If you have even a single fact worth including will you send it at once to Rev. W. R. Wood, Clarendon. Family Records and tradition often contain the most interesting material. Send it all in.

The Rev. John Baird, M. A. was born at Mainsay, Scotland, in the year 1809. He was ordained and inducted into the charge of Castle Street (Anti-Burgher), Congregation, Jedburgh, on the 18th of January, 1843. In 1847 the Secession and Relief Churches were united under the name of the United Presbyterian Church, and the improbity of maintaining a feeble cause in a town where there were now two strong congregations of the same denomination became increasingly evident and Mr. Baird resigned his charge on April 12th, 1858. The congregation was then formally dissolved the members uniting with Blackfriars U. P. Church. Mr. Baird was for three years on the Probationer's list and then emigrated to Canada where he became the minister of the U. P. charge in the township of Pickering being inducted on April 14th, 1857. The two congregations to which he ministered were situated on the second and ninth concessions. He was succeeded in 1869 by the Rev. William Peattie and removed to Port Stanley where he continued to labor till death in 1874.

THE MYSTERY CLEARED UP;

OR, THE HERITAGE OF MADAME YALTA.

CHAPTER VIII.—(Cont'd)

"He asserts that he has proofs."
"What proofs?"
"Last night, events took place which I have been impatient to relate to you. I was witness to strange scenes which took place in this very Rue Jouffroy, and M. de Carnoel played the principal part."
"You were present, you say?"
"By a concurrence of strange circumstances I saw all, and am certain that M. de Carnoel is the lover and accomplice of a worthless creature."
"And you told Villagos what you saw?" asked the countess, in a husky voice.
"No. But whether he saw it himself, whether his friend informed him of it, or whether he divined what I wished to hide—I believe he knows all."
"And I—I know what awaits me," murmured the countess. She had spoken low, nevertheless, Maxime caught the words which revealed that a danger menaced her.
"What do you mean?" he cried.
"Nothing. Go on, I beg. You have just asserted that M. de Carnoel is a wretch. The doctor is of your opinion, I suppose."
"Yes, or rather I am of his. After having seen this Carnoel rescued by a knife I doubted still. It pained me to recognize the fact that you were interested in an unworthy man. The doctor removed my last doubts. He informed me of what this Carnoel did after quitting Rue Jouffroy. I should have begun by telling you why he was in the house and by whom he was brought there, but—"
"It is useless, tell me the rest."
"Well, madame, since you wish first to know the end of this sad story, know that Carnoel followed his mistress and she has taken him to a house where he still remains with her."
"And Villagos knows the house?"
"Perfectly."
"You believe it?"
"Why should I not believe it? The doctor has offered to take me there. We are to go with his friend this evening—or rather to-night. I am to meet them in the Champs Elysees."
"You shall not go. I forbid it."
"May I ask why?" said Maxime, surprised and at the same time charmed at the countess' tone. She would not have spoken in the imperative had she been indifferent to him.
"Because you would be rushing to your death," she replied quickly.
"To my death!"
"Villagos wishes to draw you into a trap. You will not return alive if you follow him this night."
"What interest has the doctor in making away with me?" he asked, smiling.
"The same which he had in preventing you from seeing me. He went to your house expressly to persuade you that I would be absent till to-morrow. This falsehood had an object. If I had not met you by a miracle, I should not have seen you to-day, and Villagos calculated that to-morrow you would no longer belong to this world."
"What! Villagos who boasts of his devotion to you; Villagos conspires against you! I dare not say against you, though you do me the honor of including me in the prescription you accuse him of meditating."
"Do not jest. Nothing is more serious; I will prove it to you presently. In the meanwhile let us talk of something else. Have you seen your cousin since the events of last night?"
"I have just seen her."
"Alone?"
"No; her father was present. The scene was a very painful one. I did not conceal from her what I thought of M. de Carnoel. Alice did not contradict me, but she declared positively that she would never marry."
"That signifies that she does not believe a word of your allegations, and that she intends to be constant to the absent one until his innocence shall appear. She is a woman, she has faith."

"You approve, then, of her persevering in her allusions?"
"Assuredly."
"And I have been counting on you to make her listen to reason?"
"Not a word more. We will resume our conversation in a few moments, for here we are."
"The Russian trotter had vanquished the distance, and though Madame Yalta had taken the longest route, they were entering the Avenue de Friedland by the Place de l'Etoile."
She stopped Nedji before the little gate by which Maxime had first entered with Dr. Villagos. This private entrance opened at a stroke of the bell by the valet de pied, who took the reins and received from his mistress an order in a foreign tongue.
The countess passed in first and took a side walk which wound through a lawn and ended in an immense conservatory.
"Here," said Madame Yalta, "we may speak freely; no one will interrupt us."
"Not even the doctor?" asked Maxime, laughing.
"No; if he comes he will be told I have not returned."
"Do you intend never to receive him again?"
"I shall see him once more for the last time."
"He has, then, decided to pass over to the enemy?"
The question to which Maxime attached no importance made the countess start.
"No," she replied, slowly; "it is I who wish to separate from him."
And as Maxime seemed astonished, she added:
"Come, you shall know all."
At one of the extremities of the conservatory, was a rendezvous furnished in a manner appropriate to a sylvan boudoir; divans covered with Japanese stuff, rocking chairs and a bamboo table.
"So," said Madame Yalta when they were seated; "You saw M. de Carnoel last night?"
"I had a glimpse of him, for he simply appeared and disappeared. Borisoff brought him in a close carriage, which he drove himself under a good escort, to the house where his accomplice awaited him. He left it almost immediately by scaling the garden wall. What means the woman took to draw him from the clutches of this Russian, I cannot tell, but I am anxious that you should know that her associate and auxiliary in this enterprise was your fencing-master."
"To Maxime's great amazement, this revelation was received with perfect indifference.
"Ah!" she said tranquilly, "you recognized Kardiki?"
"Yes, though he was dressed as a gentleman. He dined at Bigon's with M. Borisoff who treated him like a comrade, and never suspected, certainly, the trick that was about to be played on him."
"Kardiki is very adroit."
"But do you not think he is betraying you?"
"Why? He is a Polish refugee and has a right to counteract the designs of a Russian spy."
"Then you do not take in bad part that he should have aided a pair of rogues, for this creature and this Carnoel have been associated with the people who opened my uncle's safe with a false key."
"You are mistaken. M. de Carnoel does not know them, and he saw last night, for the first time the woman who rescued him."
"But she at least is, beyond doubt, a thief."
"No more than he is."
"You are not aware that they found on this wretch the fifty thousand francs taken from the safe?"
"It was M. Borisoff who found them, was it not?"
"He has just placed them in my uncle's hands together with a letter written by Carnoel to account for being in possession of this sum. It was sent to him, he claims, by a friend of his father, an anonymous friend."
"Or by an enemy who invented this ruse to ruin him. One of the two explanations is true, I grant."
At this moment a sound attracted Maxime's attention, and turning he saw a gardener approaching, a rake on his shoulder and watering-pot in his hand.

The height and broad shoulders of this man attracted his attention and on looking at his face, he recognized him immediately as the person who had been successively porter in the house in Rue Jouffroy and protector of the false Madame Sergeant.
This singular apparition drew from Maxime a cry of surprise, which made the suspicious gardener raise his head.
"What is the matter?" asked the countess, quietly.
"That man!"
"He has the charge of my flowers. He came to make the round of the conservatory, and is going off for fear of disturbing us."
In fact, the man with the rake, after respectfully taking off his straw hat, was retracing his steps.
"But he—he too knows the thief. It was he who formerly kept the house in Rue Jouffroy, and afterward played the role of foreign lord, protector of this jade. I quarrelled with him, and we were to fight next day."
"You see it is well you did not do so. You would have crossed swords with a domestic."
"A d you are not astonished to learn that your gardener is also the accomplice of this worthy friend of M. de Carnoel?"
"I am astonished at nothing; but I understand that everything will be a surprise to you, and the time has come to make known what I should have preferred to keep from you. Learn, then, that I know by whom and why this theft was committed."
"You knew it, and you did not tell!"
"Listen before you judge. And first remember that they took from your uncle's safe only a casket belonging to a Russian spy. You will object that they took also a sum of money. I will come to that presently, and will prove to you that things were not as has been supposed."
"Then the thieves were Nihilists?"
"The government which employs Col. Borisoff has other enemies than Nihilists. All the proscribed, all who defended the independence of Poland, and who live in exile far from their conquered country. This Borisoff's mission was to watch and denounce the Nihilists, whose aim is to destroy everything and the oppressed who still struggle against their oppressors. The casket deposited with your uncle contained written proofs of a vast conspiracy against Russian tyranny. The papers had been given up by a traitor, who has met with his deserts, and the patriots whom

UNNATURAL THINNESS EASILY CORRECTED.

By Clever Prescription Which Can Be Filled at Any Drug Store.

No Need to Be Thin Now as Reports Show This Method Effective.

People who are very thin and scrawny ought not to be so. Undoubtedly they are more subject to disease and contagions than the normally fleshy. Thinness is usually accompanied by weakness, and weakness subjects any one to colds, coughs, consumption, pneumonia, etc. It has been discovered, almost by accident, that tincture cadomene, when combined in a prescription with proper accelerative medicines, becomes one of the most valuable, effective and reliable nutritive or flesh making medicines known to science. It is especially beneficial to men and women between the ages of sixteen and fifty-five, who from lack of proper nerve force and digestion, remain undeveloped in body, limbs, arms and bust. A well rounded symmetrical figure in man or woman indicate health, magnetism, stamina and happiness.
The reader who wishes to add from ten to forty pounds should not fail to begin with this valuable prescription:
First, obtain of any well stocked druggist, three ounces of essence of pepsin and three ounces of syrup of rhubarb in an 8 oz. bottle. Then add one ounce compound essence cardiol. Shake and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom). Shake well and take one teaspoonful before each meal, one after each meal. Drink plenty of water between meals and when retiring. Keep up this treatment regularly and of a certainty from one to three pounds will be added to the weight each week, and the general health will also improve.

they compromised wished to regain them at any cost."
"And they could do no better than steal them."
"In their eyes the end justified the means. Two of them resolved to make the attempt."
"And one of them was a woman."
"Yes; a woman devoted to the cause she served—devoted even so far as to sacrifice her life, and more than her life—her honor. The other was a Polish refugee, who had passed ten years in the mines of Siberia, to which Russian despotism had condemned him, and was prepared to do anything for the sake of vengeance."
"Prepared to do anything; that is just the word," said Maxime, between his teeth.

The misfortunes of the Polish insurgents affected him very moderately, whilst he had true tradesman-like ideas of the sacredness of a banker's safe.
"They went together one evening," resumed the countess, "and reached your uncle's offices without difficulty. Some one awaited them there who had procured a key, and indicated the word to open it. The woman wanted to operate herself, and you know what it cost her. He who gave her the information was ignorant of the terrible mechanism, whose claws seized her hand as she introduced the key into the lock."

McKenzie Mine at Elk Lake Has Started Bagging Ore

Successful Operations at the Mine Which Make the Property a Coming Shipper.

ELK CITY, May 4.—With the opening of navigation, which is now in full swing, the greatest activity prevails at the various mines and prospects in this vicinity and the city is rapidly recovering from the recent depression.
The district is likely to become another Cobalt and the veins run to depth with values. Among the shippers and properties bagging ore are the Lucky Godfrey, the Borland-Thompson, the Devlin and the Moose Horn mines.
The Moose Horn mine put in a new plant this spring and are now sinking a shaft to the 150-foot level on a vein which has shown values from the surface.
In the midst of the mines is the McKenzie. A group of five properties on which work was begun last January. They have been fortunate from the start and soon hope to rank with the shippers.
The engineer in charge, Mr. Harry McMaster, reports that the vein on location 646 of the company's group at a depth of 50 feet continued steadily the whole distance and showed free silver all the way with the exception of four feet. Several hundred feet of stripping has already been done, resulting in the discovery of two additional veins, one of which is 7 inches wide, cutting at an angle of six degrees. It is the intention to continue this shaft to the 75 or 100-foot level, then drift to the McKenzie vein.
where the new 7 inch vein crosses Mr. McMaster states that in his opinion this week will result in the placing of the veins of the mine beyond question. The necessary buildings have now all been erected, including bunk house, cooking camp, manager's dwelling, blacksmith shop, powder house, and the necessary machinery is being installed. A good wagon road has been built from the main road which parallels the road from Elk Lake and the McKenzie company are in a very fortunate position, owning a group of five properties which have been thoroughly tested. Six assays made from the veins on which the company are now working have shown results of from 400 ounces of silver up as high as 15,000 ounces to the ton.
This company is under good management, and it is the opinion of the engineer in charge and those who have seen the property that it should be brought to the shipping stage in a very short time. 500 pounds of good ore having been bagged by May 1 and the work in this regard being pushed rapidly from day to day.
Application is being made to list this stock on the New York Curb.
The Transfer Agents are The Trusts and Guaranty Company of Toronto and the Guaranty Security and Transfer Company of New York.
I am offering 50,000 Shares of this stock at 25c. per share, subject to prior sale. Write or wire me your subscription at once.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said: 'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.
Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a New Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

The Process of Digestion is Controlled by the Blood and Nerves

If you have indigestion and you begin a course of treatment to make your stomach stronger, you are on the right track for a real cure. You can never cure yourself by eating predigested foods, or by taking purgative medicines. The stomach is not doing its own work under these treatments, and there can be no real cure until the stomach is strong enough to digest all the food necessary to maintain the body in normal health. The great aim of the tonic treatment for indigestion in all forms, is to strengthen the stomach to a point where all foods eaten will digest easily and nourish the body. A tonic that will strengthen the stomach is what is needed, as the process of digestion is controlled by the blood and nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. They actually make new, rich blood, and thus bring strength and tone to the stomach. This has been proved over and over again, and thousands of grateful people have not hesitated to say so. Here is an instance:—Miss Eva Tocher, Balmora, Man., says:—"I am writing this letter on behalf of my mother who wishes you to know how much Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for her. For several years she had been greatly troubled with indigestion and notwithstanding the medicine she was taking the trouble was growing worse. Every meal was dreaded, and left behind it a feeling of nausea and severe pains. As this continued she began to lose strength and energy, and was hardly able to do any housework. Acting on the advice of a friend she began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon began to feel better. She continued taking the Pills until she had used ten boxes, when her health was fully restored and she could take any kind of food without the least discomfort. Since that time she has not had the slightest return of the trouble." Thousands of cured men and women speak from experience of the benefits derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism, general weakness, pains in the back and side, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, and the troubles that afflict women and growing girls. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GAMBLER'S RUSE.

How the Paris Police Were Outwitted for a Time.

In spite of the continual war which the French authorities are waging against illegal gambling houses, clever brains continue to invent ruses to avoid detection. Usually the establishments are concealed under the guise of stamp-collecting societies, pigeon clubs, or charitable institutions, but even more ingenuity and cunning have been exercised in a case that has just come to light.

At a little Montmartre theatre, recently closed, it was announced that a play called "Banco" was in rehearsal. In one act the characters are shown playing "banker." With some astonishment the Police Commissary of the district observed that this was the only act in rehearsal. He asked for an explanation; he was informed that the rest of the play could not be rehearsed, because the parts were not entirely committed to memory, the scenery was lacking, and there were other difficulties.

The Commissary, however, was suspicious. Investigation revealed the fact that the play was a myth; the theatre was being used as a gambling house, where not only "banker" but roulette and baccarat were played by gamblers masquerading as actors. The usual raid was made, the cards and money seized, and the gamblers taken to the Police Court.

COMPRESSED FLOUR.

A new method of preserving flour has recently been adopted with success in England. It is done by means of compression. With hydraulic apparatus the flour is squeezed into the forms of larval life, thus preserving the flour from the ravages of insects, while it is equally secure from mould. Three hundred pounds of compressed flour occupy the same space as 100 pounds in the ordinary state.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, JUNE 26.

Lesson XIII. Lesson of the Tares, Matt. 13. 24-30, 36-43. Golden Text, Matt. 13. 43.

Verse 24. A man that sowed—The outstanding feature of the parable throughout is the personality of this sower. He is the antagonist of Satan, the householder, the master of the reapers, the Son of man, the Lord of the world, the absolute arbiter of the destiny of all men.

Good seed in his field—The quality of the sower's seed is the same as in the former parable, but here the soil is presumably all good.

25. While men slept—Not all the details of a parable yield to interpretation. Only a discriminating judgment is able to decide which are significant and which are not, and it is easy for the imagination to create supposed references which do not actually exist. In the sower, Jesus explains about everything; but in the tares, several things, such as the enemy's going away, the servants of the householder, the binding of the bundles, are left uninterpreted. So, this sleeping of the men is not said to have a special meaning. Certainly it is not condemned; sleep is natural after hard toil (compare the slumbering of the ten virgins). It suggests, at any rate the subtle and unseen ways in which Satan makes the most of every opportunity presented by human nature.

His enemy came—This is the consistent New Testament teaching, from the fourth chapter of Matthew to the twentieth of Revelation. Never is there any tendency to minimize the force of evil, as directed by a cunning personal power. The scattering of the tares is not the work of an unfavorable wind but is the carefully executed act of a malicious agent.

Tares—More accurately—the bearded darnel, a weed which in its early stages so closely resembles wheat, in the midst of which it commonly grows, that it is well-nigh impossible to distinguish them. Often it breeds a poisonous fungus which produces dizziness, convulsions, and sometimes death.

Went away—After the seeds of poison have been sown in the heart they will develop with little encouragement.

26. When the blade sprang up—Referring to the entire grassy crop of the field, including tares and wheat.

Brought forth fruit—Referring to the period of the heading of the kernel. It was then, and not till then, on account of the resemblance to the wheat, that the tares appeared in their true character.

28. An enemy hath done this—This kind of revenge, so far as can be learned, has never been known in Palestine. It stands as an unexampled outrage.

Will thou . . . that we . . . gather them up—Jesus offers no interpretation of this zeal of the servants. But there are always those who are ready like the apostles who would call down fire from heaven; to bring forth drastic measures to suppress real or imagined wrongs.

29. Nay—Weeding out wheat must take place either before the period of the formation of the kernel or after the kernel has fully matured.

It is not a question here of pulling up wheat by mistake, because the growth of the field has reached that stage in which the tares can be distinguished. The danger is that the wheat, whose roots are intertwined with those of the tares, should be disturbed while it is in the formative state. From the point of view of the practical farmer, therefore, the question of the servants was one of folly. The lives of good and bad are so often closely bound up together that the violent removal of one is sure to cause harm to the other.

30. Let both grow together—The hastiness of human judgments is condemned by the patience of the divine. Whether the bad may become good is not hinted at. But, that the rooting up of any is prohibited, is a merciful provision indicating that God is willing to wait till every man's chance is exhausted.

I will say to the reapers—In the explanation (verse 39) we discover for the first time that these are different from the servants.

The tares would be separated from the wheat either by weeding, or by "carefully picking out the stalks of darnel one by one from the cut grain."

38. The field—There has been continued controversy here over the question of church discipline. But it is ruled out entirely by the fact that the field cannot be interpreted narrowly as the church, but is the world.

The sons of the kingdom—Those who treasure up in their hearts manifest in their life the word of truth. Of course, these are a part of the world of men, which Jesus claims rightfully his kingdom (41). In the parable the word "kingdom" is used somewhat loosely, and must not be too narrowly interpreted. In verse 24 it is that sum of divine truth embodied in life which Jesus endeavors by the parables to define. In verse 43, it is the perfected and finally established kingdom of glory.

40. Burned with fire—A figurative description of the awful doom of the wicked.

41. All things that cause stumbling—This is to be understood in a personal sense.

A NEW DREADNOUGHT.

Battleship Hercules Will Shortly be Launched at Jarrow.

The launch of the battleship Hercules will take place very quietly at Jarrow-on-Tyne, England, in a day or two. The Hercules is one of the three battleships provided for in the "regular" programme of 1909-10. Of these the Colossus was launched at Greenock on April 9, while the Orion is expected to be launched at Portsmouth in August. The armored cruiser Lion, completing the original programme, will be set afloat at Devenport in September. The Hercules was laid down on July 30, 1909, and has thus been on the stocks a little over nine months. A total sum of £1,294,708 is to be spent on the ship by the end of the present financial year, and as she is to be completed four months after that, it is probable that her total cost will not exceed £1,650,000.

A detailed description of the Colossus was given in these columns when the ship was launched. The Hercules will be similar in all respects—that is to say, she will displace 22,500 tons, and will carry ten 19-inch guns, all mounted on the centre line, allowing a full broadside, after the American model.

MAPLEINE

THE KAISER'S DAY. As Early Riser He Devotes the Morning Hours to Business.

A Berlin paper in connection with the announcement that the Kaiser is prevented from writing by a boil on the wrist describes his usual method of work.

Like all Hohenzollerns, he is an early riser and is usually out of bed at 6. At his first breakfast, an hour after, he looks over some of the morning papers and the despatches of the official German news agency. Then he sits down at his writing table and goes through reports from the various Ministers and the press cuttings specially put together for him in the Foreign Office.

His remarks and decisions are written with a thick blue pencil on the margin of the different documents. At 9.30 o'clock the Ministers and other heads of departments are introduced by the adjutant in attendance to make verbal reports, particular days in the week being set apart for each official. These verbal statements are delivered in a style something like that of a cablegram, with all unnecessary words left out. At this stage the Kaiser has to sign his name many times, a proceeding he heartily dislikes.

After lunch, at which there are usually a number of guests and which rarely lasts more than half an hour, the Kaiser sometimes takes a ride in the Tiergarten. When he announces that he is going to spend an hour alone in his workroom with a book every one understands that he is about to take a nap.

At any hour of the day he is likely to be called on to form some more or less urgent decision or to write a telegram of condolence, sympathy or the like. Save on the occasion of the operation on his throat some years ago the Kaiser has never been disabled from work by serious illness. On the present occasion he has not handed over the reins of government to the Crown Prince, but only the commission to sign certain state documents.

The season for heated arguments is now open.

There is a tradition to the effect that once upon a time a woman in a crowded car got up and offered her seat to a man with a baby in his arms.

NO TRADE FOR HIM.

"When you are grown up," queried the visitor, "will you be a doctor, like your father?"

"Oh, dear me no! Why, I couldn't even kill a rabbit," replied the boy with great frankness.

The key to success doesn't look anything like a night key.

There's a satisfaction in a perfectly painted house similar to when your body is protected by good stout clothing, rain-coat, top-coat and sturdy boots.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

W. D. Scott, of Ottawa, the Superintendent of Immigration has issued a circular in regard to the practice of farmers engaging laborers for the busy season of the year only, which lasts from four to six months. He points out that this practice makes it difficult for farmers to secure the necessary help. He urges the immigration agents to use their utmost endeavors to secure yearly positions for the experienced men at least. He thinks that it would be to the interests of both the immigrant and the farmer to enter into yearly agreements. Farmers, however, will be reluctant to engage a man for a whole year when he can provide work for only six months. There was a time when a farmer could send his men into the woods and cut stove-wood or cut logs for the saw-mill, and in one way or another keep them busy the whole year round, but now the conditions have greatly changed, for the farming community have been unavoidably compelled to lay idle for half the winter season because they can find nothing to do. Whenever it is possible the farmer would no doubt find it to his advantage to engage his help by the year. It would be a great advantage to the laborer, and the practice, we believe, would provide a better class of men.

With the coming of warm weather there comes the usual increase of drowning accidents. The papers contain the usual warning, but these warnings all go unheeded, and each year the number of drowning accidents appear to be greater than during the preceding year. One thing that is noticed frequently is the fact that the victim is one who can swim but his knowledge of that art is not a sure preventative of drowning. Cramps may seize him, the distance from land may be too great, or he may be overcome by exhaustion in his efforts to save another. While knowing how to swim may not always save a person from drowning, there is no doubt that the number of drowning accidents would be much less if everybody had a knowledge of this useful art. But the most effectual preventive of drowning is the exercise of caution, and the avoiding of all fool-hardy feats. If a person knows how to swim he should not be prepared to risk his life at any time to the treacherous waters. Canoeing is the cause of numerous drownings, but many of these would never have occurred had the occupants known how to swim. No person should trust himself in a canoe in water beyond his depth unless he can swim, and even then he should exercise caution as to where he goes.

WHITBY

Returning home, driving from Whitby, on Saturday night, John Bailey, 70 years of age, of the 8rd concession, Whitby, met an auto. His horse took fright and Mr. Bailey was thrown out of the buggy. He was picked up unconscious, and when examined by Dr. E. Warren, of Whitby, it was found that his neck was broken. He is still living, but unconscious. There is no hope for his recovery.

Joseph and Mrs. Cooper and Fred and Mrs. Reynolds, of Goodwood, spent Sunday, the guest of R. and Mrs. Bryan.

This (Friday) evening Rev. W. R. Wood will give an address in the church on his trip to Halifax and the proceedings of the General Assembly. Everybody is welcome. No charge.

The football boys went to Brooklin on Saturday evening last to play their final league game with the boys of that place. Owing to several of the Brooklin boys being unable to play the team defaulted to Claremont. The Brooklin team, however, secured the services of several players from the Ashburn team who were present, and an exhibition game was played which resulted in a tie, neither side scoring. As a result of the default the Claremont Thistles are again the champions of the South Ontario League. We extend to them our hearty congratulations on their victory.

Owing to the success of their drama "The Private Secretary" at its first presentation, the Dramatic Club have acceded to the wishes of a great many by deciding to repeat this popular farcical comedy in the Masonic hall, Claremont, next Monday evening, June 27th. A large number who were unable to be present at the initial performance will now be able to gratify their desire to see the play. A great many also would like to see it for the second time. The receipts from this performance will be devoted to improving the stage and other improvements of the hall. Appropriate music will be rendered during the evening. Doors open at 7.30, entertainment to begin at 8. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

We had the pleasure of reading a letter from James McFarlane, of Beaver Lodge P. O., Peace River District, Alberta. The letter was written on May 6th and did not reach Claremont until June 20th, thus being between six and seven weeks on its journey which is an evidence that Canada is no small country. At the time of writing he had not received any mail for about four weeks. The experience of Mr. McFarlane in that far-off land is much similar to that experienced by our great grandparents when they came out to Ontario to hew out a home for themselves and their children. Game is plentiful, moose, bear, wild geese, fish, etc. He reports a black fox being shot in that locality last winter for the skin of which the large sum of $1075 was paid. He also reports a beautiful climate and rich soil and settlers are coming fast. The hardships, however, are greater than many would like to pass through.

The Women's Institute held a most successful meeting in the Masonic Hall on Monday afternoon with the district president, Mrs. S. Brown, of Whitby, in the chair. Miss Campbell of Brampton, was the chief speaker, her subject being "The Influence of Woman." She showed that the maker of the home was the woman and showed the great influence she exerted in forming the character of the young. Mrs. Morgan Pugh also gave a most interesting paper on "Friendship." Excellent music was given during the program by G. M. and Mrs. Forsyth's three little girls and by Miss Middleton who rendered a solo. At the conclusion of the program tea was served on the lawn of the Presbyterian church. There were about fifty persons present, those who were not members about ten in number joined before leaving. The interest in the work of the Women's Institute is gradually increasing as they are doing a noble work in improving the character of our homes.

The District and Entrance Examinations have been in progress here this week, with A. G. Green, Pickering, presiding.

W. McKay so far has the honor of being the champion fisherman in this locality having caught thirty fine specimens of the speckled beauties on Monday.

Owing to Dominion Day coming on Friday next the market will be held here on Tuesday instead of Wednesday so that the hucksters may dispose of their stock before the holiday.

Ross Soden, who accompanied the 34th regimental band to the Niagara camp, has returned home looking hale and hearty and expressing himself as being well pleased with his outing.

The social given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church on Friday evening last was, considering the wet night exceedingly well attended. Everything was of a high order and the receipts amounted to $77.

Quite a number from here attended the annual meeting camp meeting of the "Rolly Boasters" at Dixon's Hollow on Sunday. They report that much enthusiasm of a very demonstrative character exists among the members of the sect.

Clarence Stokes, who has been working in Toronto for the past two years, is home at present. He has not been in good health for some time and is now recruiting. We hope that his vacation may result in a complete restoration to health.

Frank Derusha has moved into D. Forsyth's residence recently vacated by Mr. Harris, who has moved into the city.

The residents of the Claremont school section will be pleased to learn that Miss Heaslip has finally decided to remain for at least another year as teacher of the junior department of the public school. Miss Heaslip is an excellent teacher whose work is much appreciated.

Frank Cooper left on Tuesday morning for the North-west. He has been as engaged manager of a 640-acre farm belonging to Mr. Bennett, of Barrie. The farm is located about forty miles from Regina. During his absence his farm here will be managed by his father, Geo. Cooper.

Mrs. Wm. Leaper had the misfortune to fall down stairs while visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. Todd, of Stouffville. She was carrying a lamp in her hand but luckily it did not explode as it was extinguished. She was badly shaken up and was bruised considerably but is gradually recovering.

The school board are advertising for another teacher for the continuation class. This will be much appreciated by those sending children to that class as they will have advantages nearly equal to that possessed by high schools. The increased cost will not fall heavily on the section as the salary will be nearly all paid by the increased grants.

SETTLERS LOST EVERYTHING

Disastrous Results of Forest Fires Near Fort William.

A despatch from Port Arthur says: Damage to standing timber that cannot be estimated with any degree of accuracy, but which will reach into the hundreds of thousands, dozens of settlers rendered homeless, with their personal effects destroyed and their fields scorched so that there is little likelihood of any crops being raised thereon this season, is in brief to date the result of the forest fires surrounding Port Arthur in every direction. Telephone messages received on Wednesday night from Hymers and Kakabeka Falls are that there is no sign of the fires abating. As the message was received in Port Arthur a light rain had commenced to fall, but there was no sign of any at Kakabeka, where the families of every settler for mile around have congregated for shelter and protection. Every family in the district has buried its valuables in the ground, and many have lost everything else, while others have so far saved their property only by ceaseless efforts. The principal sufferers are in Conmee, O'Connor and Papiconge townships.

Death has now been added to the destruction by forest fires which have been devastating this district for several days. Mrs. Christopher Evans of O'Connor township, was smothered in the burning of her home while her husband was away with other settlers fighting an advance of flames, believing his own place to be in no immediate danger. Fred, and M. Winslow, brothers, who lost heavily by the destruction of logs in the vicinity of Kakabeka, have not reported to any of the villages for a couple of days and while there is no certainty they have been lost it is feared to have been the case.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

Buggy Struck by Wabash Express at an Aylmer Crossing.

A despatch from St. Thomas says: A sad accident occurred on Sunday morning at the Wabash level crossing in Aylmer, resulting in the death of three people, Mr. Thomas F. Hare and his wife, Hannah M., and her sister, Miss Annie E. Scott of Ottawa. It transpired that all three had been to church and were driving home to Mr. Hare's farm, about a mile and a quarter north of the town, when No. 3 Wabash express dashed into them as they attempted to cross the track. Mr. and Mrs. Hare were killed instantly and Miss Scott died three hours later from injuries sustained. About two hundred yards east of the crossing is a curve and none of the occupants of the buggy could see the train. Several people nearby, however, shouted to them that the train was coming, but they tried to cross ahead of it, with the painful result that all three lost their lives. They were each about seventy years of age, and were well known and highly respected in the district.

SOLDIERS FOUGHT FIRE.

Bush Near the Camp at Petawawa Threatened Damage.

A despatch from Military Camp, Petawawa, Ont., says: About 9 o'clock on Thursday morning the bush near the camp of the Toronto company of Engineers caught fire, and as a high wind was blowing, the camp was in danger of being wiped out. The men were out of camp at work at the time. Capt. S. P. Biggs ordered the fire extinguished, and the men dropped their tools and came into camp at the double. Headed by Captain Biggs, they caught up axes, spades and blankets and speedily had the fire out.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS.

One Hundred and Thirty-three Persons Killed in May.

A despatch from Ottawa says: The death through accidents among employees in Canadian industries during May numbered 133. In addition, 243 individual work people suffered serious injuries. In the railway service 25 employees were killed during the month and 39 injured. The total number of trade disputes reported in existence during May was 21, an increase of five as compared with the preceding month. About 328 firms and 2,223 employees were affected by new disputes. The loss of time to employees through strikes was approximately 71,830 working days, as compared with 96,350 in May of last year.

FOURTEEN WERE KILLED.

Collision of Two Trains at Ville Preux, France.

A despatch from Ville Preux, France, says: The Granville express crashed into the rear of a local train standing at the station here on Saturday. Both trains were wrecked and the wreckage caught fire. Fourteen bodies have been taken from the wreckage.

BRITAIN'S INHERITANCE TAX

Will be $128,000,000 for Present Fiscal Year.

A despatch from London says: Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George estimates that the receipts from the inheritance tax for the financial year ending July 1 will amount to $128,000,000. The delayed income tax collected in April and May may amount to over $100,000,000.

PREACHERS FOUGHT DUEL.

Attacked One Another with Knives in Kentucky Church.

A despatch from Louisville, Ky., says: An indictment was returned on Thursday, but not made public until Sunday, charging Rev. Isaac Perry with the murder of Rev. Robert Vanover. The two ministers, both well-known mountain preachers, had been holding revival meetings in Whitley county, and quarreled over some charges which had been laid against Vanover. The trouble reached its height during a service in the Rock Creek Baptist Church a week ago, and Vanover and Perry, armed with knives, fought a duel in the building while the people, in a panic, fled. Vanover's throat was cut from ear to ear and he died in a short time. Perry and his brother Blaine are in jail at Williamsburg.

Terrible Havoc Wrought in Austria and the Balkans.

A despatch from Budapest says: Nearly 300 persons were killed, and several villages annihilated by a cloudburst Friday in Krasso-szoreny, County of Hungary, bordering on Transylvania, Rumania and Servia. The capital of the county, which is mainly peopled by Rumanians, is Lugos. It is expected that the death roll will be greatly increased when communication, which has been almost completely cut off, is restored. Bridges, telegraph and telephone wires in the district have been destroyed, and it is feared that many of the survivors of the flood will die of starvation or exposure before it is possible to send assistance.

DAMAGE IN SWITZERLAND.

A despatch from Berne, Switzerland, says: The floods in Switzerland, caused by continued rains, particularly in the eastern and central districts, have proved to be the most disastrous in the past sixty years. Twenty lives have been lost in the swollen waters. Many bridges, constructed at great expense, have been either carried away or seriously damaged. Property losses aggregating $2,500,000 have already been reported.

20,000 HOMELESS.

A despatch from Vienna says: Southeastern Europe is flood-swept, and reports received on Thursday indicate that the death list is between 800 and 1,000. Whole villages have been wiped out, and fertile valleys to-day are lakes. The property damage cannot be definitely estimated, but meagre advices already at hand show that it will surely be in excess of $2,500,000. The situation has not been equalled in many years. Austria, the Balkans and Armenia have suffered heavily. Relief work is being pushed as well as possible. With the roads wiped out, railroads tied up, and wire communication in many sections at a standstill, the difficulties of speedy relief appear insurmountable. Rains are reported generally, and the floods continue. With every despatch the horror of the situation increases. In the entire region affected it is believed that more than 20,000 people are homeless.

ANOTHER RECORD BROKEN.

Royal Edward Clips Two Hours Off Atlantic Record.

A despatch from Quebec says: Two hours have been clipped from the Canadian trans-Atlantic record. MINER CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Fatality in International Mine at Coleman.

EARL GREY BOOSTS CANADA

Tells People in Bristol to Go and See and They Will Stay.

A despatch from London says: At Bristol, on his arrival, on Thursday, Earl Grey was immediately surrounded by a band of eager pressmen, but held his own against the fire of questions with frank good humor and subtle avoidance of controversial topics. "We had a delightful voyage. The development of Canada is going as strong as it can go. The maritime provinces are as good for immigrations as the Northwest. Prospects were never brighter," he said. "Why don't you come and see the country? You cannot understand it till you see it and visit it. When you have visited it once you won't be happy until you have seen it a dozen times." Earl Grey added that Canadians were pleased with the present class of immigration.

Asked about the imperial spirit in Canada, he said: "Imperial spirit is all right in Canada," he answered. "Why they are more imperial than you are. I wish you would come to Toronto to see the Empire Day celebration as I saw it. Then you would know what I mean. The people of Canada believe in themselves and their future as a part of the empire."

CROPS IN THE FAR WEST

Has Been Plenty of Rain and Little Damage From Recent Frost.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: The Free Press monthly crop report, issued on Thursday, based on information from about 250 points, says the damp, cold weather which prevailed during the latter part of May and the early part of June, while checking the upward growth of the crop, caused the roots to develop and the plants to stool, the result being that with the arrival of warm weather rapid growth has taken place, and now the general outlook is regarded to be as good as last year. The common cry of "more rain," which was being heard, chiefly from Alberta, has been dispelled by heavy showers within the last few days, and now there seems to be no reason to fear that the crop will be less than last year. Heavy June frosts have done some damage in Arcola, Langford and Napinka districts. Damage from wind by drifting is also reported from Pierston and Halbrite. In Carrol River Valley the cut-worm has been doing some damage, but the prospects are still bright. Barley-seeding appears to be practically completed, and rapid growth is taking place. In some of the damaged wheat districts the fields have been ploughed up and sown to this crop.

The Thirty-First Annual Session of High Court

The Year 1909 Was the Most Prosperous in the History of the Order—A Large Delegation in Attendance.

The thirty-first annual session of the High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters opened in the City of Montreal, Tuesday afternoon, 14th inst., with a large number in attendance, including High Court Officers and delegates representing every Province of the Dominion.

After the usual opening ceremonies and the appointment of the several standing committees, the High Court Officers submitted their reports which showed the Order to be in a most flourishing condition.

The High Chief Ranger, J. A. Stewart, of Perth, Ont., after extending a hearty welcome to the representatives present, submitted his report, which was replete with facts and figures relative to the growth and extension of the Order during the past year.

On the 1st of January, 1909, the Order had a membership of 70,759, and there were initiated during the year 7,369 new members, being an increase of 772 over the previous year. During last year 3,659 members lapsed and 459 died, leaving the net membership at the close of the year 71,943.

The increase in the Insurance Reserve of the Order during the year amounted to $273,477.75. On January 1st, 1909, the amount on hand in this Branch was $2,723,945.54, and at the close of the year $3,022,383.23. The amount paid in death claims was $443,979.64.

The Report of Geo. Faulkner, High Secretary, covering the general work of the Society was next in order, and showed in detail the large volume of business transacted through the Head Office at Brantford.

The amount of Insurance premiums received during the year was $616,017.62, which with the large sum of $121,329.79, derived from interest on investments, made the total receipts in this Branch $737,347.41. There were 459 death claims paid, amounting to $443,979.64, leaving the sum of $293,367.75 to carry to the Reserve Fund, which at the close of the year was $3,022,383.23.

The Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch of the Order also showed a marked advance. The amount of fees received during the year was $165,592.50, and interest $6,695.22, making the total receipts in this Branch $172,287.72. There were 6,950 claims paid.

amounting to $144,321.23, leaving $25,967.12 to carry to the Reserve, which at the close of the year amounted to $179,773.22.

There were 73,585 members in good standing at the close of the year carrying $74,161,000.00 Insurance.

There were issued from the High Secretary's office 7,538 Insurance Certificates, and 7,354 Membership Certificates, a total of 14,892, and in addition there were endorsements made in 1,612 Insurance Certificates.

The total expenditure in these funds was $704,345.65. The surplus income over expenditure amounted to $298,002.09.

The Insurance Reserve Fund at the close of the year was invested as follows: Municipal and School Debentures... $2,745,814.47; Dominion of Canada Stock... 150,000.00; Deposits in Chartered Banks... 50,000.00; Current Accounts in Chartered Banks... 78,491.82; $3,022,383.29.

The total assets of the Order amounted to $3,136,037.57, and its liabilities $25,136.72. Assets over liabilities $3,110,900.85.

The report of Dr. U. M. Stanley, Chairman of the Medical Board, showed the average death rate since the commencement of the Order to be 5.17 per 1,000 of membership. There were submitted to the Medical Board during the year 8,216 applications, of which 4,230 were accepted, and the remaining 4,086 rejected. The number of applications was 900 more than for the previous year, and was the second largest in the history of the Order.

A SAFE MEDICINE FOR ALL CHILDREN.

The mothers whose little ones are ill not only wish for a medicine that will make their babies better but one that positively cannot do any harm. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are sold under the positive guarantee of a government analyst to contain no opiate, narcotic or other harmful drug. They always do good; they cannot possibly do harm—not even to the new born baby. Concerning them Mrs. J. E. Z. Marchand, Ste. Anne de la Perade, Que., writes:—"I find Baby's Own Tablets indispensable. As soon as I find one of my children not feeling well I administer the Tablets and I am never disappointed in the result. I would not be without them and am enclosing fifty cents for two more boxes." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A REAL HUSTLER.

Lady (to applicant)—"Yes, I advertised for a maid of all work. Are you an early riser?" Applicant—"Indade, an Oi am, mum. At me last place Oi was up an' had breakfast ready and the dishes washed an' put away an' all the beds made before anybody else in the house was up."

I WAS CURED OF BRONCHITIS AND ASTHMA BY MINARD'S LINIMENT.

MRS. A. LIVINGSTONE. Lot 5, P. E. I. I was cured of a severe attack of Rheumatism by MINARD'S LINIMENT Malone, Bay JOHN MADER. I was cured of a severely sprained leg by MINARD'S LINIMENT JOSEPH A. WYNACHT. Bridgewater.

A FEW EXCEPTIONS.

"The course of true love never runs smooth," remarked the maid with the quotation habit. "Oh, I don't know," rejoined the scruffy-haired bachelor. "It doesn't always end in marriage."

Time Has Tested It.—Time tests all things, that which is worthy lives; that which is inimical to man's welfare perishes. Time has proved Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. From a few thousand bottles in the early days of its manufacture the demand has risen so that now the production is running into the hundreds of thousands of bottles. What is so eagerly sought for must be good.

THE SECRET.

"Miss Bright," whispered Miss Gausp, "can you keep a secret?" "Yes," replied Miss Bright, also whispering, "I can keep one as well as you can."

You cannot be happy while you have corns. Then do not delay in getting a bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure. It removes all kinds of corns without pain. Failure with it is unknown.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF FOLLY.

"The proper time to stop kissing little girls," says the philosopher of folly, "is when they get old enough so that you both enjoy it."

Did it ever occur to you to try your own advice before turning it over to others?

RICH AND POOR ALIKE use Painkiller. Taken internally for cramps, colics and diarrhoea. Applied externally cures sprains and swollen muscles, etc. Avoid substitutes, there is but one "Painkiller"—Perry Davis—25c and 50c.

WINGED REPARTEE.

"The people in here, I am told," hummed the mosquito, trying to find an opening, "put up this netting to filter the atmosphere and make it more wholesome." "O, come off!" exclaimed the other mosquito. "That's too gauzy!"

QUALITY AND COST.

There is this one striking difference between the products of the farm and those of the manufacturing establishments. The manufacturer governs the price of the goods he has to sell by the cost of production. A cloth manufacturer, for example, will turn out several classes of goods which he will sell at several different prices and will make the same profit from each of them. Why? Because there is a difference in the cost of production. For instance, he can afford to sell shoddy goods, for a great deal less than the genuine articles simply because the raw material in the one case costs a great deal less than it does in the other, and he makes as much money in producing the one as the other. It is quite different with the farmer. Go through the various products of the farm—live stock, grain crops, dairy or fruit products. They tell the same story. The cost of producing the inferior article will be as great as the cost of producing prime quality. But the one will sell for very much more than the other. It is quality and not cost of production that governs the price of farm products.

A Sure Corrective of Flatulency.—When the undigested food lies in the stomach it throws off gases, causing pains and oppression in the stomachic region. The belching or eructation of these gases is offensive and the only way to prevent them is to restore the stomach to proper action. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do this. Simple directions go with each packet and a course of them taken systematically is certain to effect a cure.

OLD STORY.

"O, what has become of the comet's tail?" And echo made answer: "The comet's stale!"

DEAF, LISTEN!

You have used Horns, Trumpets and other Mechanical Devices in the hope of being able to hear, but always found the expected satisfaction was spelled "Disappointment." If you write to Ernest Pratt, 468 Yonge Street, Toronto, you will learn some good news. Do it to-day—better still—do it now!

Persons who were startled at Mr. Roosevelt's thrilling advice to Great Britain about Egypt may never have heard this orator before or read his speeches.

Go to any old person for sympathy and you will learn that you don't know what real trouble is.

MAKE A NOTE when you are leaving home to buy "The D. & L." Menthol Plaster. Guaranteed to cure the worst case of backache, headache, stitches. Avoid the "just as good" goods. Get the genuine.

Usually the man who sits at the head of the table does all the work and takes what is left.

Help your children to grow strong and robust by counteracting anything that causes ill-health. One great cause of disease in children is worms. Remove them with Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It never fails.

ITS USE.

"What especial work do they do in the laundry prison?" "I suppose that is where they wash and iron the convicts."

Keep Minard's Liniment in the house.

NEEDLESS REFORMATION.

Dingus—I did a foolish thing the other day. Jigger—What was it? Dingus—I didn't know just what might happen when we went through the tail of a comet, and I—er—went around and squared up all my debts.

THE MISTAKES OF A NIGHT.

He saw her sitting in the dark corner and knew that his chance had come. Noiselessly he stole up behind her, and before she was aware of his presence, he had kissed her. "How dare you!" she shrieked. "Pardon me," he bluffed, readily—"I thought you were my sister." She stepped out into the light. "You silly fool!" she giggled, "I am!" He fainted.

MAKING HIM OVER.

"He is a self-made man, I am told." "Quite true. But his mother-in-law insists on making some alterations."

The Foe of Indigestion.—Indigestion is a common ailment and few are free from it. It is a most distressing complaint and often the suffering attending it is most severe. The very best remedy is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills taken according to directions. They rectify the irregular action of the stomach and restore healthy action. For many years they have been a standard remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion and are highly esteemed for their qualities.

EXPLAINED.

"What're ye comin' home with your milk pail empty for?" demanded the farmer. "Didn't th' old cow give anything?" "Yep," replied his choreboy; "nine quarts and one kick!"

PILES

You will find relief in Zam-Buk! It eases the burning, stings pain, stops bleeding and brings ease. Perseverance, with Zam-Buk, means cure. Why not prove this? All Druggists and Stores. No box. Zam-Buk FOR ALL SUMMER SORES.

MUSKOKA THE BEAUTIFUL.

Do you know the place? If not, your pleasure has suffered. Ask for that handsome Muskoka Folder issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System. It contains a large map, lots of views, and a fund of facts. Less than a day's journey from principal American cities. For all particulars apply to Mr. J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Union Station, Toronto, Ont.

"So you have been arrested again?" said the judge. "Well, your honor, it wasn't my fault," answered the prisoner. "Whose was it?" "The policeman's."

A PRIVATE PERFORMANCE.

"You are charged with stealing nine of Colonel Henry's hens last night. Have you any witnesses?" asked the Justice sternly. "Nussah!" said Brother Jones humbly, "I specks I see sawtuh perculia dat-uh-way, but it ain't never been mah custom to take witnesses along when I goes out chicken stealin', suh."

NO CRUDITIES FOR HER.

"Did Mrs. Comeup use that crude oil on her furniture as I advised?" "No, she didn't. She was shocked at the mere idea."

"Shocked at it? What for?" "She said she wouldn't use anything that wasn't refined."

When going away from home, or at any change of habitat, he is a wise man who numbers among his belongings a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. Change of food and water in some strange place where there are no doctors may bring on an attack of dysentery. He then has a standard remedy at hand with which to cope with the disorder, and reformed he can successfully fight the ailment and subdue it.

The average man can't understand why he has enemies.

COMPANY.

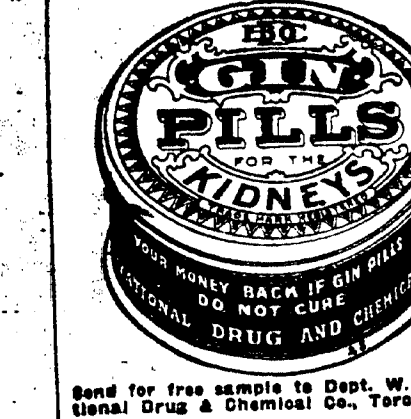

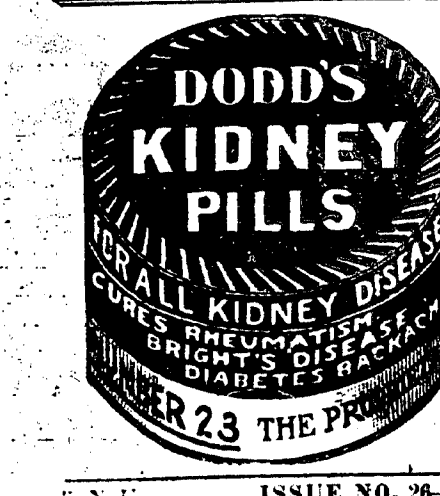

Doorbell started ringin'; Filled us with dismay. Father got his collar And put his pipe away.

Mother in a hurry Straightened up the room. Aunt Jane looked it over, And swept it with the broom.

Sister got some powder, And put it on her nose. Told me she would cuff me Unless I brushed my clothes.

There we all sat smilin', Neat as we could be, Everything all ready To pour a cup of tea.

Then the door was opened—I am laughin' still! 'Twasn't anybody But a feller with a bill!

—A number of the Masonic brethren from Pickering attended the special services given under the auspices of the order at Markham on Sunday afternoon. Rev. F. C. Harper, of Hillsdale, formerly of Pickering, conducted the service and preached an appropriate sermon.

—The District Examinations are being conducted in the school here this week, with Mr. N. F. Tomlinson, of Claremont, presiding. We think an effort should be made to have those trying the Entrance Examinations also write in Pickering, as it could be done without any extra expense for the same examiner could conduct both Examinations, as is being done in Claremont.

—An interesting event took place at the manse on Saturday when Miss May Edith Munroe and Mr. John W. W. De Lain, both of Toronto, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Moore. The party including the bridesmaid and bridegroom came down in an auto and after the ceremony proceeded to Cobourg and other eastern points where they visited friends.

—On Friday evening during the severe thunder-storm which passed over this locality at that time, there was considerable excitement in the village caused by the evidences of a large fire to the south. There was a large cloud of smoke and a bright reflection from the flames. It was later ascertained that a large stack of hay owned by Thos. Nowlan had been struck by lightning and was soon consumed. The loss did not prove a heavy one.

The school board are now advertising for a successor. The section parts with Miss Campbell's services with regret as her work has been most satisfactory.

—We have been experiencing some weather during the past week of a decidedly summer variety. While we have been sweating in the heat we have been better off than they have been in other parts of Canada. At Winnipeg the thermometer registered 98 degrees on Monday, while in Toronto it was only 92.4. However if we want good ripe strawberries we must be prepared to suffer some inconvenience.

—The Pickering Tennis Club met on Tuesday evening at the residence of Dr. Howden and re-organized for the season. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. Howden; Vice-Pres., A. J. Howlett; Sec. Treas., Miss Kerr. Managing Committee, Miss Simpson, Mrs. Howden, J. A. McCamus, Jas. Richardson, Wm. Murkar. The membership fee was fixed at 50c. The court will be in shape for play immediately.

—The Women's Institute held a very successful meeting in the town hall on Wednesday afternoon. The day was exceedingly hot but notwithstanding this there was a large turnout of ladies. Miss Campbell, of Brampton, gave an interesting address on "Home and School", and Miss Van Duyn, of South Africa, delighted her audience with her talk on "The Value of Cereals, especially Corn in the Diet of a Family," and most interesting was her talk in relating the war experiences through which she and her people passed. Mrs. Sandford Brown, of Whitby, president of the South Ontario Women's Institute, presided.

—Jimmy Reynolds, the now famous Port Hope barber, started out on Monday morning to walk to Toronto and back in 38 hours, a remarkable performance if he had accomplished it. But he made a dismal failure of the attempt as he was compelled to give up when he reached Newcastle. Someone should undertake to break to Jimmy in the gentlest manner possible the awful news that he is not so young as he used to be. Each year for the past few years he has set out to smash past records in the walking business, but each succeeding attempt indicates failing powers, showing that Father Time is getting in his work unknown to Jimmy, but clearly evident to everybody else. Jimmy also makes a mistake in selecting the hottest days of the year for his foolhardy attempts.

—It is the custom in nearly all towns and villages in the country to take half a day off each week during the summer months. The plan is an excellent one and tends to make life much more pleasant and means no loss of business. The time usually taken is about the middle of the week when the merchants do very little business, and to close their shops for a few hours means no diminution in the amount of trade. For those who work in stores, especially, as they have to work in the evenings so frequently, is the half-holiday welcome. We think the merchants of Pickering might take the matter into their serious consideration. Before this half-holiday can be an accomplished fact the merchants should be unanimous in the matter. If one merchant should refuse, the others could not be expected to close.

—Over 140 autos passed through the village on Sunday.

—Allan Clark, of Toronto, spent Wednesday at his home here.

—Mrs. R. S. Dillingham and Mrs. A. J. Boyes, of Toronto, were in town on Thursday.

—Wm. J. and Mrs. Miller and children are at J. Scott's, Scarborough this week, owing to the serious illness of the former's father.

—The funeral of Miss Kate McCarthy, of Audley, which took place on Tuesday to the R. C. Cemetery was very largely attended.

—Rev. Father Gallagher, of Toronto, who assisted at the funeral of the late Miss McCarthy on Tuesday, gave THE NEWS a pleasant call.

—Philip Kehoe has finished the contract of building the cement abutments for the baseline bridge. Everything is now ready for the steel superstructure.

—Robt. Toms, of Liverpool, has leased his hotel to Joseph Peak, of Toronto, and will move on to his farm, the Reazin property, on the Kingston road east. The change will take place on July 1st.

—R. A. Bell's three-year-old colt had the misfortune to fall down an unused well near the Dunbarton station a few days ago. The animal fell to the bottom of the well, a distance of about 25 feet. It was rescued by means of ropes and pulleys and is now going around though somewhat badly cut.

—Those who endeavored to have a day of sport here on July 1st have failed to get a football team and the Oshawa baseball team wished to come in the forenoon which was not acceptable to the boys here. But we are looking forward to a match between the Pickering and Greenwood school teams on that day.

SCARBORO JUNCTION

George Ryan, son of Michael Ryan, is in a serious condition, the result of a bullet wound in the abdomen, from the accidental discharge of a revolver. The accident took place about 6 o'clock Monday morning, when the young man, who had been ordered by his father to desist from target shooting, failed to comply, and in an attempt by the father to take away the revolver was discharged. A doctor was called and the patient taken to St. Michael's Hospital, but though the bullet has not been located, his condition is much improved.

DUNBARTON

The Clerk of the weather contributed a very heavy thunder-storm to the bazaar and entertainment held by the Ladies' Aid of Dunbarton Church at Rosebank last Friday. Many were prevented from attending and much of the pleasure of the day at the lake-shore destroyed. The results achieved under such depressing circumstances are a credit to the industry and energy of the ladies. The program was carried through, a large amount of work, etc., disposed of and the receipts were very encouraging. The ladies deserve to tender their hearty thanks to the many Toronto, Brantford and Oshawa business firms who contributed of their manufactures to the success of the meeting. The gross receipts were about $140.

Dr. Jno. S. Booth, of Montreal, was fined $8 and costs for cuffing a man who wanted him to attend his sick father.
