Pickering Township Ratepayers To Vote On Ward And Water Questions

"WARD AND WATER VOTE"

The Electorate of Pickering Township will vote on two questions at the municipal elections next month. Council, at their meeting on Monday, voted to place the two questions before the people —

(1) Whether the township is to be split up into wards and (2) whether a proposed $370,000 waterwork system is to be installed in the Bay and Liverpool Districts.

Council also gave a Third Reading to the Septic Tank Bylaw.

(Two of these "notices" are published elsewhere in this issue).

Dr. S. R. Laycock To Address The Canadian Club — November 19.

Dr. S. R. Laycock, well-known radio and TV lecturer, will address the next meeting of the Canadian Club in St. George's Parish Hall, Friday, November 19.

After he was graduated from the University of Alberta, Dr. Laycock studied at Columbia University and the University of London, where he took his Ph. D.

For twenty years he was on the staff of the College of Education of the University of Saskatchewan, becoming Dean of Education in 1947.

Dr. Laycock was a member of the Royal Commission on Mental Hygiene for Saskatchewan, a member of the Canadian Youth Commission, Chairman of the Royal Commission on Penal Reform in Saskatchewan, and from 1945 to 1947 was the National President of the Canadian Federation of Home and School.

Dr. Laycock has a happy flair for discussing psychological subjects in a light style with simple language and his topic "Education and Public Opinion" should prove very interesting.

Members are reminded that the dinner ticket sale closes on November 12th.

Board Reserves Judgment

The Ontario Municipal Board, at their hearing here on Monday morning re the Quietening Order to Establish the Proper Area and Boundaries of the Village of Pickering, reserved judgment.

There was no opposition to the application, but the board stated they would reserve judgment until the village solicitor, T. K. Creighton, changes the wording in one part of the description of the village boundary.

Township Assessor Resigns

Mr. Edward Jones, for the past few years assessor of Pickering Township has tendered his resignation.

Mr. Jones who has headed the three man assessment department has received the appointment as county assessor in North York and will take over his new duties there on December 1st.

Outboard Motors Recovered by Police

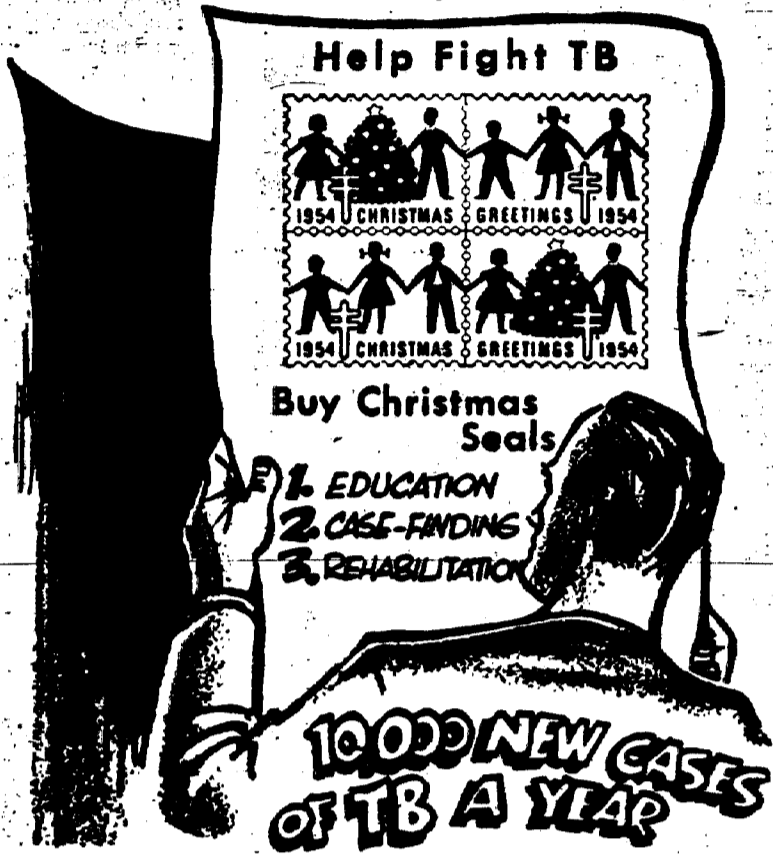

Walter Avis, Frenchman's Bay, is thanking the Pickering Police for assisting Toronto Police last week in the recovery by them of two outboard motors, stolen from the Avis Boat House this past summer. It has generally been thought that once a motor is stolen, one might as well say "goodbye" to it.

When Is He A Hen-pecked Husband?

The term "hen-pecked" is too often, we think applied by many other men to a husband who, recognizing his limitations, lets his wife take over the reins in that marital union. It is applied most of the time in a deriding manner, and so often—unfairly.

In our own plant, there have been, of late a number of incidents taking place, that gives one a different attitude toward the husband and wife who are "working together". We have in mind one incident in particular, when a young couple came in to talk about some advertising and printing—the young wife did most of the talking, and he, the listening, but she consulted her husband regularly. You know we were just quite encouraged and pleased with that scene—we could not possibly look upon this young husband as "hen-pecked" by any means. We pictured him to be a man who was going to work with his hands. They were a young couple just starting out—he was attempting to set up a business of his own. He was quite conscious of his inability to attend to some of the detail that was going to be required, but was also ready to

Contract Signed To Build Ajax School

The contract to build a sixteen-room High School at Ajax, similar to the one at Pickering, was signed at the Board Meeting at Pickering on Tuesday evening Mr. Bennett of the Bennett and Pratt Construction Co. who will build the school, told the Board they would commence work as soon as possible.

St. George's Ladies' Guild

The Anglican Ladies' Guild held their Annual Bazaar on Saturday, November 6th, in the St. Andrew's Church. Our Minister, Mr. Crouch, opened the bazaar at 3:00 p. m.

The hall was gayly decorated with spruce boughs, covered with Christmas ornaments. The booths all were attractively decorated with Christmas decorations, and also beautiful Christmas gifts. The tea tables were attractively arranged with bronze and white chrysanthemums and the food was delectable.

The bazaar was quite a success, and the ladies would like to thank all who helped make it such a successful affair.

The next meeting of the Guild will be held on Thursday, December 2nd, at the Rectory. Hostesses for that meeting will be Mrs. Greener and Mrs. Johns.

A "Thank You"

The Pickering Women's Institute wishes to thank the many persons who loaned Canadian paintings for the recent Exhibition.

Pickering Village Council

Messrs. Lawrie and Dwinell waited on Council re the street lights on Lola and Cameron streets and asked that something be done about the entrance to Lola-street from No. 2 Highway. Council will have the Highway Dept. engineer look at this road entrance and street lights are to be installed.

Mr. Irving White asked about the corner at Henderson Street. Council are discussing this problem.

Mr. Towes of the Rideout Realty waited on council re the Ruddy subdivision. He said they planned to erect houses and sell them at a lower cost than they know they could realize for them. A motion was passed that the clerk and an authorized representative of the sub-dividers of the Ruddy plan proceed with preparation of a draft agreement to cover: 1. Compliance with land-use by-law; 2. Detailing of dedication of land; 3. Compliance with roads by-law; 4. Supplying of water system; 5. That sub-divider be requested to meet with village planning board at its next meeting.

Councillor W. G. Messer informed council that 31 single plates would be needed for street signs in the village and 20 standards. Cost of alternative materials will be investigated.

It was moved that certified copies of Ruddy and Karanduk petitions go to Ajax trustee board and all petitions to be put before planning board at their November 17th meeting.

Council member W. G. Messer announced that the following new street lights would be installed: 2 on Nora Street; 2 on Cameron Street; 2 on Jones Avenue and 1 on North Lola Street.

Finance Chairman G. H. Bray passed the following accounts: General, $1,276.34, and Water, $4,603.88.

Ain't The Law Grand

On Saturday afternoon, October 23rd, your Editor, with his wife and son, went for a drive up to see the flooded Holland Marsh. On our way home we went around through Newmarket, Sutton, Keswick and Virginia to No 12 Highway and home. Monday morning of this week we receive a "speeding ticket"—37 miles an hour on a 30-mile zone at Pine Beach (wherever that is). Even Editors and J. P.'s get checked up for speeding. I think we were actually travelling faster than 37—nothing to say, but—pay it—$10.00 please!

Baby Band Entertained

The Baby Band of the United Church held their annual party on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. G. Found and Mrs. C. Hutchings assisted by Mrs. Elmo Disney. Mrs. John Stork told the children a story about "The First Christmas Gift", and the mothers, a story on "How to be happy". Little Miss Marlene Mitchell, of Dunbarton, sang several numbers, after which W. M. S. members served lunch to the mothers and children; then, games brought a happy afternoon to a close. — Corr.

Kiwanis Entertain Rotarians

The Dunbarton Kiwanians on Monday night entertained the local Rotarians at dinner at the High School Cafeteria.

The speaker was Dr. Kenneth Roberts, who as is well-known devotes much of his time to mining operations. The Doctor tells an extremely interesting story on same, and particularly on his interests—gold and uranium. To the most of his listeners (who never got any closer to mining than buying stocks) this bit of the practical side of the industry was fascinating. Commencing, the speaker reminded his audience that while industry and labor in this country had just about "priced" them selves out of business as regards export, Canada still had her wealth of natural resources, for which there will be a market for a long time to come. A lot of "new to us" facts were told, including the millions of tons of iron ore brought out from the tremendous development in Labrador over the new railway constructed in July of this year; the terrific possibilities of the copper mining in the Gaspé Peninsula. Dr. Roberts also showed a fifteen-minute coloured film of his own taken in the Blind River field.

Pickering District High School Basketball Season Approaches

With the football season just completed, boys of the local school are thinking of the coming basketball season.

First practices have already been held for Bantam age boys under the direction of Mr. Rapsey. Many small boys have turned out, but there is a noticeable lack of the tall stringy type so necessary for strong teams.

Mr. Ron Hill, head of the Boys' P. E. Dept. will carry two teams this year. He will coach both Junior and Senior Clubs. First practice scheduled is next Tuesday.

In the Junior division, there could well be a third group championship in a row for Pickering. Mr. Hill has measured several prospects and has found (providing of course, the boys pass the present set of examinations) he could field a team including five six-footers. Terry Bennock a first-year player is 6 ft 2". David Fintham and Jim Kennedy both cover 6 ft 3" of space. Tony Alloway towers at 6 ft 5"; John Newell is the small-ball type at 6 ft 1". Combined with such ball handles as Roland Bullock, Brian Rapsey, Carl Giovannella, Bill Boyd, Terry Skelcher, Joe Rennieck and others a good team is in view.

The Senior ranks are as usual very thin, as the local school does not have a large senior body of students. However, Coach Hill has high hopes for a better year than last when the team compiled a 7 and 5 won-lost record.

Bill Tyas and Ed. Bibeau will rank "highest" both towering between 6 ft. 3 and 6 ft 5. Bill Max, the heady centre is 6 ft 2, and always a wonderful player. Ed. Tovey, the ball-handling T-quarterback, will be teaming with buddy Clayton Cary with their ball-handling gyrations. Bill McKee, senior shot-maker is expected to be ready to play in league games. His back, injured last year, is coming along well and we all are hoping to see him flying 'round the basketball court this year.

Jack Jarrett, a new-comer, and Jim Neill, a football team end, are also expected to show.

The Board of Education has purchased two additional goals this year and these are presently installed in the gym-auditorium. The court will be twice as large as last year, 84 x 50, a regulation high school court. All these sports are financed by gate receipts, so turn out and enjoy yourself and give your school a boost.

PICKERING VILLAGE

Messrs Harry Purvis and Will. Hunt will be two locals who are up north hunting—they shot one man this week already.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Huyck and Donna of Cannington, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Butt.

Pickering friends will be sorry to hear that the little grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Purvis is in the Hospital for Sick Children, a victim of osteomyelitis.

Locals At The Royal Winter Fair

Pickering District will be well represented in the Junior Square Dance Competitions, one of the many features of the 1954 Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, to be held in the Coliseum, Toronto, from November 12 to 20th.

Miss B. Carroll of Pickering has entered the "Pickering District High School Group". These youngsters have made many friends in the town and surrounding communities. David Pegg is caller for the set and the dancers who will compete for the $100 in cash prizes are James Kimura, Paul Munro, and Craig Peters, of Pickering; Carole Wright, Marlene MacDonald, Ronald Davis, Peter Laycock, all of Ajax, and Susan Ritchie, of Whitby.

Sorry Pickering did not have some civic recognition of Remembrance Day

Thomas Philip, Brougham

Funeral services were held last Saturday for the late Thomas Philip of Brougham, widely known in the Brougham and Claremont area. Mr. Philip passed away on Wednesday in his 87th year, after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Philip farmed east of Brougham for many years. His wife, the former Sarah Russell, predeceased him several years ago. He had lived in the area all his life. He was a member of St. John's United Church, Brougham.

He is survived by four sons: Russell, of California; Boyer, of Brooklin; Thomas, of Brougham, and Gordon, of Highland Creek; and three daughters: Marion (Mrs. Arthur Farthing), Stouffville; Pearl (Mrs. E. Gostick), of Claremont, and Maude (Mrs. Gormley Crawford), of Hampton.

Service was held from the rectory since his son Thomas Rev. Lacey officiated. Interment took place in the Claremont Union Cemetery, with pallbearers: Messrs James Farley, Carl Devitt, Levi Hopkins, Cecil Phillips, Walter Bayles and G. H. Hokby.

ANNE HIRST

Your Family Counselor

"Dear Anne Hirst: I have been happily married for nearly 29 years to the only man I ever loved. We never prospered until lately, but we have always been in love and have always gone everywhere together. Neither of us got past high school, but he is kind to me, and has high ideals. He is over 50, I am 42.

"For over a year my husband has been closely associated in business with a highly educated woman. I am very sure she is in love with him, and I'm afraid he is beginning to yield. He is not nearly so affectionate, and he is hard to get along with, and doesn't take me out often. I am not in too good health just now, and I am uneasy. I know that men of middle age sometimes imagine themselves in love with younger women. To be truthful, this is driving me so that I am actually afraid I will lose my mind.

"I don't want to stand by and lose him now. I have thought of selling out and moving, letting him take whatever work he can get. I am careful of my appearance, but you know it is easier for a woman with no home responsibilities to look her best at all times. We have an adopted child of four, and we love her as our own. Sometimes I believe it is only she that is holding him to us now.

If you can advise me, I'll try to do as you say.

LONELY

CALM YOUR FEARS

From unprinted parts of your letter, I believe it is the present state of your nerves that has aroused these doubts. It is not unusual for a husband to be restrained at times; if he is worried for any reason he is no mood to go places. — And what real reason have you for thinking this woman loves him?

I urge you to try to overcome your fears. If they have any foundation at all, you will learn it soon enough. Worrying as you are worrying now can only unfit you to meet whatever crisis may arise.

When we are not well, our imagination plays havoc with our reason: more than that, we are in no mental condition to make any vital decision. So I suggest you think no more of pulling up stakes and moving. Your husband is earning more now than he ever has, and he would undoubtedly resent such an idea.

Your job is to take it for granted that everything is all right; that perhaps he is overworking, or concerned about new business problems. Give him the benefit of the doubt. If you do not control your anxiety, he is bound to sense it; and no matter how things stand, that can only make them harder for both of you.

A wife's best protection against her husband's infidelity is believing in his integrity. If she finds she was wrong at least she has played her part as she promised; and if she finds she was wrong at least she has played her part as she promised; and if she is right, she is doubly thankful she held on. Try to see this now, and relax. Write me again if you like. I understand.

APPRECIATION

"Dear Anne Hirst: In my recent extremity, I turned to you, and today I write to tell you how much I appreciate your aid. You told me to hold on, and I did. You said my husband would realize how much he loves me, and he has. Everything is fine.

"Here is a bit of advice I'd like to give other married couples who don't get along: Go to church, and trust in God. I notice you often advise this, and I applaud you every time. That is what saved my marriage; I kept praying, and waiting for a change. Through my patience, my husband started going to church — and God made the change.

"Keep up your good work. Your column is straightforward and honest. I am a daily reader, and my husband also believes in you now; I doubt that he will ever miss anything you write.

PHYLLIS

You cannot know how warmly I appreciate your letting me know of your new happiness; I am grateful that I had a part in bringing it about. Many readers are so relieved when their problems are solved that they do not realize how anxious I continue to be about them. Thank you for relieving my mind.

When you are tempted to doubt the one you love, don't. Hold on to your faith; it has often kept a husband loyal through real temptation. Perhaps Anne Hirst can help. Write her at Box 1, 123 Eighteenth Street, New Toronto.

"ARRESTED" BY BACK SEAT DRIVER

Police in Pierre (S. Dakota) received a one-dollar note and a letter which read:

"You should put my wife in the police force. She arrested me last night for jumping the red traffic light. She made me feel so cheap that I am enclosing one dollar to be added to your charity fund."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

Quandary & Clark

About the middle of last week I thought the main topic of my column today would be the International Ploughing Match. Could anything be further from the truth? "Hurricane Hazel" washed out the ploughing match — literally, and certainly as a news item. At least temporarily. But after the story of destruction north and west of Toronto has been told and retold, the loss of life and human suffering assessed — if it can ever be assessed — then the time will come when someone will remember the ploughing match and the disappointment and loss it brought to so many people.

Partner and I went to Breslau on the only good day there was last week. We were only there a few hours but enjoyed it. And we thought how well everything had been organized. The police had perfect control of the traffic and parking and the Bailey Bridge contributed immensely to the safety of the public. We drove home through autumn scenery and all seemed right with the world.

But that night it rained again. Our concern at the time was only for those organizing and attending the ploughing match. Then storm warnings by radio became more serious and insistent. It rained and it rained. At first a drizzle that looked as if it could either clear up or get worse. As you know, it got worse, much worse. At Ginger Farm the wind blew and drove the rain under the shingles and down the chimneys. The kitchen roof leaked badly, raindrops dripping monotonously into pails and pans. We thought that was all the damage in the house until I went into the living room and there around the fireplace was a deepening pool of creosote water coming down from the chimney. The same, to a lesser extent, in the dining room. I went upstairs — watery creosotes working its way in from the chimneys in two bedrooms.

Partner came in from the barn... the ditch was full and the creek was away over the bridge in the back lane. Weather reports were getting more serious all the time. Partner decided the cows would be safer if left in the barn. At least he would know where they were. If the bridge went out during the night he would have trouble in getting them home. We spent the rest of the time up to midnight mopping up water and creosote and listening to the radio. To our immense relief both the hydro and telephone continued to function, although soon after midnight the hydro went off for about an hour and a half. But we went to bed, so tired we actually went to sleep.

The next morning... water in the cellar, fences either side of the back lane carried away. The top of the bridge almost intact but the approach to it on either side just a deep gully. We were certainly glad the cows were in the stable. The barnyard, of course, was flooded. Bob and Art phoned to inquire how we had fared and asked what they could do to help. We needed help, all right, but what had to be done had to be attended to right away. A temporary fence of post and barbed wire had to be put up in a hurry as the cows were getting restive and needed a drink. That was, and is, all that can be done until the weather clears and some of the mud dries up. Fixing the bridge will be quite a job.

But what were our troubles compared with the poor souls in Etobicoke, Thistletown and Whitby? It just seems impossible that such a tragedy could occur in Ontario. And that, I believe, was half the trouble — no one believed it could happen despite the storm warnings. But of course storm warnings could not avert the disaster.

People have reached the stage when they pay so little attention to the weather. I know there were many people around here, anyway, who had arranged an evening out last Friday, and they set out regardless.

Hot-Water GINGERBREAD

Grease an 8-inch square cake pan and line bottom with greased paper. Preheat oven to 325° (rather slow). Mix and sift three times 2 c. once-sifted pastry flour (or 1 1/4 c. once-sifted all-purpose flour), 2 tps. Magic Baking Powder, 1/2 tsp. baking soda, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. ground ginger, 1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon and 1/4 tsp. grated nutmeg. Cream 5 tbsps. shortening; gradually blend in 3/4 c. lightly-packed brown sugar and 1/4 c. molasses; add 2 well-beaten eggs part at a time, beating well after each addition; stir in 1/4 tsp. grated lemon rind and 1/2 tsp. vanilla. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture about a third at a time, combining lightly after each addition; gently stir in 3/4 c. boiling water. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in preheated oven about 45 minutes.

Always Dependable

Some may not even have heard the storm warnings. I have noticed young people in particular who have the radio going hour after hour but at any time a station finishes a variety programme and announces a newscast the dial is tuned in to another station — and more variety!

Well, that is about all I can tell you about the effect of the storm around here — flooded basements and mired fields are about the worst damage. At Ginger Farm, except for the damages already mentioned, we have fared not too badly — except that Partner has an ugly barbed-wire cut on his hand and I have developed quite a nasty attack of lumbago. This column is being written under difficulties, I believe me. Lumbago is often the subject for jesting but anyone who has had it knows it is no joke. And recovery is one thing you can't hurry. Patience is the main requisite — and patience is one thing I don't possess in any great quantity — not for things like lumbago, anyway.

Worth Thinking Of In Canada Too!

Three years ago Leonard Hankins, now of Dawson Springs, Ky., was released from the Minnesota state prison after serving 19 years for a murder in which he had no part.

His release and full pardon followed 19 years of investigations and legal action at heavy cost by Hankin's sister and the public defender who had defended him at his trial. They finally were able to get together sufficient evidence of his innocence.

The Minnesota State Claims Commission now has recommended that the state pay Hankins $300 a month for the remainder of his life and that $10,000 and $5,000 be paid by the state to the sister and attorney, respectively. For 19 years wrongfully behind bars, it seems only the fair thing for the state to do. — Houston (Texas) Post.

One Minute Views of JOHNS-MANVILLE

The $9,995 Vacuum Cleaner

IT'S not the Model your wife would choose, but one of our Johns-Manville plants considers this vacuum cleaner a bargain—even at the $9,995 which it cost.

Since nothing of its kind was on the market, our Lompoc, Calif. personnel designed this machine themselves. Standing nearly 12 feet high, it has the power of 100 home vacuum cleaners. It sucks up dirt from the floor joints, removes dust blown into its path, can hold a cubic yard of dirt in its collection chamber, and doesn't leave the operator with an aching back at the end of a day's cleaning.

This equipment is only one example of how Johns-Manville constantly works to improve the industrial health of its employees. Actually, many millions of dollars have been spent to improve working conditions in J-M plants. These improvements have resulted in more production, increased payrolls, and more jobs for more people.

Such expenditures are possible when the men and women of a company—Johns-Manville or any other—team up to turn out a good product which they can sell against competition at a fair price and reasonable profit. This is the only formula for business success.

The proof of the formula is found in the thousands of successful companies throughout America which provide growing opportunities for us to improve our way of working and living.

CENTENNIAL

Once again we were scurrying and looking for extra chairs to take care of all the children in the senior Sunday School and it is a fine sight to see so many out each Sunday. We are having a meeting this week to plan

Opportunity FOR A CAREER IN "FREEDOM" INSURANCE

In the trained skill and courage of Canada's soldiers lies a wealth of insurance... "Freedom" insurance... for peace... against aggression.

The opportunities for young men with the right temperament and intelligence to make a career in the Army are excellent. As a modern, progressive organization, the Army is equipped to offer top rate schooling and training to career soldiers. There is a place in the Canadian Army for young men who can meet the challenge.

The Army has a continuing need for good men... men like you, who want to make a career of protecting Canada's freedom, and your own, in the Army.

Serve Canada and Yourself in the Army

To be eligible you must be 17 to 40 years of age, skilled tradesmen to 45. When applying bring birth certificate or other proof of age.

for the Christmas Entertainment and it looks as though we may have to plan also for some additional teachers as classes are getting too large to handle.

The Committee of Stewards are agreed a special effort should be put forward at this time to clear up an outstanding note against the Manse. In order to do this each family is asked to take one or more coin banks and plan to put something in it each day - a cent a meal; a dime a day; anyway you like to do it but try to fill the bank by the end of the year when it will be turned in to the Treasurer and the money counted up. The committee has every confidence the sum total will be the $300.00 required to clear the bank note. We know we can count on you.

The committees in charge of the Guild Christmas Fair met last week at the home of Mrs. Dempsey and laid plans for what we hope will be a bigger and better sale of work than any we have had to date. The day of this big event is Saturday, November 20th, from 2.30 to 5.00 p.m. There will be a wide variety of items on sale and all proceeds will go into our fund for Sunday School expansion.

Definite plans have now been completed for the Mission Band and it has been decided to have two different age groups. Boys and girls aged 5 to 7 will meet at the church on Thursday, November 18th at 4 p.m., while those aged 8 to 12 will meet also at the church on Tuesday, November 16th at 4 p.m. Kindly note this and come on the day for your age group.

Any young people interested are reminded of a Three Presbytery Rally in Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, East Assembly Hall on Wednesday November 17th at 8 p.m. Speaker is Rev. J. M. Boyd of Earlscourt United Church and his theme "Lord Increase Our Faith". Judging from past experience in rallies of this sort we recommend it highly to any young people in the community whether you belong to an organized group or not. Maybe it will be the means of rousing sufficient enthusiasm to get a Y.P.U. going here at Centennial again. Two of our young folk, Sue Jolliffe and Terry Bannock, attended the Conference Convention at Owen Sound a few weeks ago and enjoyed it immensely - let's get some more young folk interested.

The Nominating Committee for the W.A. is working now on a slate of officers for 1955 as our elections take place on Thursday the 25th, following a Pot Luck Luncheon. We hope you will be more than co-operative when approached to hold office.

We were glad to have Gloria back with us in Sunday School today and we hope she will continue to regain her strength after her recent illness. We have two more folk hospitalized - Mrs. Fred Scott in Grace Hospital to undergo surgery and Mr. John Baker in Ajax Hospital. We hope they will both soon be out and around again.

The service of worship this Sunday followed the Remembrance Day Theme and Mr. Tolson did a fine piece of singing in the solo part of our anthem "Lest We Forget". The subject for the sermon was "The Christian in the Atomic Age". The Every-Person Visitation still goes on and we notice an increase in the Sunday morning congregation and expect we should give the credit to the men who are stirring up additional interest among the folk in our district.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

• Jimmy Peters of England didn't win the marathon race at the British Empire Games. But by sheer, unbelievable courage, he won something more durable. He set a standard, a new badge of courage, that will live throughout the years when the names of winners are forgotten.

Who remembers the name of the winner of the 1908 Olympic marathon at London? Very few, we think. But everybody remembers the immortal story of Dorando, the little Italian pastry chef who, dazed and spent, started around the track in the wrong direction in the final lap of the marathon, staggered at every step and was kept from falling, only by the assistance of officials. Dorando was disqualified, and Johnny Hayes of the United States declared the winner.

The Dorando story pales beside that of Jim Peters. Bill Schroeder of that great American sports institution, Helms Hall, termed it "the greatest show of courage I have seen in any sport." "The Helms Foundation will recognize Peters by giving him an award for the greatest display of courage in track and field history," he said.

Peters came into view on the ramp leading into the Vancouver Stadium, staggering like a drunken man. He weaved from one side of the 30-foot-wide downhill asphalt track to the other. As he reached the level track he fell flat on his face. He got up and then fell on his back, hitting his head on the ground.

The man, who had obviously had suffered a sunstroke and could not see, crawled along on his hands and knees. Again he got up, only to fall again. Nine times he fell to the track. Finally he managed to crawl to a shady spot just past the post marking the regular finish of the race like the mile and 100-yard dash. Apparently he thought he had passed the finish line.

Finally he got up again and was facing the wrong way. Instinct turned him around but he staggered again and the team manager ran out and caught him in his arms.

This was about 200 yards short of the finish and Peters was disqualified. J. McKee of Scotland, who hadn't yet entered the stadium, was eventually declared the winner. But the heroism of Jimmy Peters will live in memory as long as sport endures.

Your comments and suggestions for this column will be welcomed by Elmer Ferguson, c/o Calvert House, 431 Yonge St., Toronto.

Black Pyjamas Saved Their Lives

Read any account of P.O.W. life and events leading up to it, and it's pretty certain that the ex-P.O.W.—he or she—will exploit the humorous side of any sticky situation and play down the grim reality of it all.

And Betty Jeffrey, who was serving with the Australian Army as a Nursing Sister when she was captured by the Japanese in 1942, is no exception. In her dramatic and touching book, "White Coolies", she recalls the momentous day in 1942 when her party of nurses, plus civilians, sailed away from Singapore in the Vyner Brooke.

They were bombed, shelled, and bombed again. It was nerve-racking. The little ship shuddered and rattled. Then came a terrific bang that eclipsed all others; the ship was still no more elusive zig-zagging. A bomb had hit the bridge, another had smashed its way straight down the funnel.

Standstill—for Glasses
During the scramble to get on deck to the lifeboat stations, a woman's high-pitched voice screamed out into the confusion and din: "Everybody stand still!"

The effect was miraculous.

People stopped almost in their tracks. Then, from the owner of the penetrating voice: "My husband has dropped his glasses."

Of the sixty-five nursing sisters who swam or floated ashore when the ship went down, twenty-one were murdered by the Japanese, the remainder taken prisoner.

Starvation diet became part and parcel of prison camp life. The only alternative to starvation was black market deals: personal possessions being sold to get money in order to buy food to supplement the meagre doled-out ration. These deals were carried out by sneaking past the sentry at night and trading with natives. One girl, a dusky go-between with black hair, used to dress herself in black pyjamas for the job; she was almost invisible.

On one occasion, however, the alarm clock she was taking out of camp to sell started its ringing just as she was stealthily slipping past a sentry. The guard jumped and stamped all round the place trying to find the cause of the noise; but was unsuccessful. The clock was sold and the girl back in her quarters before the sentry settled down at his post again.

Inmates of the camp were denied most things that would have made life a little more tolerable. The Japs were always full of excuses. At one period Red Cross food parcels were allowed to accumulate in the guard-house without being distributed. This, despite that fact that the prisoners—women and children—were merely skin and bone and living chiefly on carrot tops, fern leaves, lily stalks and the like.

The reason the parcels were withheld was "because the Americans sank the ship that was carrying the receipt for them!"

For a tool holder for the wall of tool shed or garage, nail a long board along one wall, then nail on a strip of leather in loops. Slip tools in the loops. Easy to see if a tool is missing.

STARLING!!!

Since the introduction of Starlings, at New York, in the year 1890, this bird has spread rapidly westward and northward.

It has not become a migratory bird; but the fact that a banded Starling has been found as far north as Churchill, and another found south near the Mexican border, indicates that it may be learning to migrate. In the meantime, however, during the Fall and Winter months, it congregates in very large flocks, invading our towns and cities. Here, its insistent squeaking and squawking disturbs the local residents, and the flocks below their roosting areas. These, regrettably are often in the choice residential sections of the community.

In the Spring, the Starling begins its nesting activities in March before many of our desirable native species have returned, so that the returning birds find, on their arrival later in April, that their expected nesting places are occupied. This situation has seriously affected the Yellow Shafted Flicker, Red Headed Woodpecker, Bluebird, and other of the "Tree Cavity Nesters."

Fruit growers, in the Niagara Peninsula, suffer continually from this bird. In the Spring they rob the cherry trees, and, in the Fall they attack the ripening grapes.

So far, no worthwhile economic value exists for the Starling; but it is quite edible. A mess of Starling breasts is a dainty dish. Years ago, Jack Miner used to capture and kill these birds in quantity near his Sanctuary, and ship the breasts to Windsor for feeding the poor.

Many of our New Canadians, particularly those from Italy, are accustomed to making palatable dishes from small birds.

The Starling seems to have few predators, and its numbers continue to increase. Maybe its use as a source of food would help to serve as a check to its over population. This is something our conservation minded sportsmen might consider.

How Can I?

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. How can I remove oil stains on a carpet?

A. Rub with a clean cloth dipped in cleaning fluid. Begin at the edge of the stain and gradually work towards the center, changing to a clean section of the cloth when one part is soiled.

Q. How can I keep custard from soaking through the crust of the pie?

A. Beat the white of an egg lightly, brush over the crust before baking, and place in the oven for a few seconds. The egg white will harden the crust.

Q. How can I prevent skins from forming on starch?

A. This skin will not form on the freshly made starch if it is covered with a pan.

Q. How can I have a smooth top when making fruit cake?

A. Save a little of the plain batter to spread on the bottom of the pan and on top of the fruit batter. The surface of the cake will then be smooth and there will be no fruit sticking to the pan and burning on top.

Q. How can I soften brown sugar?

A. Brown sugar requires moisture or it will cake. To soften it put into a bag and wrap a damp cloth about it. Roll on a board with the rolling pin, and if necessary, sift also.

Q. How can I bring relief to a burn?

A. By applying a cloth wet with equal part of sweet oil and lime water.

Q. How can I prevent scratches on the hardwood floor, from the casters on heavy pieces of furniture?

A. Remove the casters and roll pieces of adhesive tape around the outside of each one. It will act as a rubber casting and will not mark the floor.

Q. How can I make a good vegetable salad?

A. Use cooked or canned peas, grated raw carrots, and shredded cabbage. Or use cooked green lima beans, diced tomato, diced cucumber, chopped onion. Serve on lettuce leaves.

PICKERING

This week we have paused for a few moments to remember those gallant men and women who gave their lives for us during the great wars, and to pray for peace. Many years ago, Baha'ullah said, 'How long will humanity persist in its waywardness? How long will injustice continue? How long is chaos and confusion to reign amongst men? How long will discord agitate the face of society? The winds of despair are, alas, blowing from every direction and the strife that divideth and afflicteth the human race is daily increasing. The signs of impending convulsions and chaos can now be discerned, inasmuch as the prevailing order appeareth to be lamentably defective. I beseech God, exalted be His glory, that He may graciously awaken the peoples of the earth, may grant that the end of their conduct may be profitable unto them, and aid them to accomplish that which becometh their station.'

DUNBARTON

Dunbarton United Church
Last Sunday evening and under our On-We-Go ladies, we started our evening services for this winter. Mr. Jimmy Payton gave an excellent address on "God's call to Samuel", and Samuel's growing consciousness of God's guidance. It was inspiring and a good congregation was out, as evening congregations go. Next Sunday November 14, the Veterans will march to our church for Divine worship. In the evening the service will be in charge of our W. A. We give Moses' invitation to his father-in-law "Come Thou with us and we will do thee good." A cordial invitation to everyone to attend church-morning or evening.

Our ladies of the W. M. S. are holding a luncheon on Thursday, November 18, at 12.30. Mrs. Wood, of Stouffville, is guest speaker, and Mrs. George Will, soloist. A cordial invitation to every lady to come. A silver collection to be taken.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon May on the birth of a daughter.

Several of the local men left this week for the far north-hunting. A speedy recovery to Rev. E. M. Burgess who has been ill during the past week.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. W. Smith had the misfortune to break her leg recently.

Phillip McCabe has been confined to his bed for some days through illness. We hope you are feeling better, Phillip.

A number of the On-We-Go members were guests of the Pickering Evening Auxiliary last Thursday evening. The Pickering Auxiliary took the Devotional Service and the On-We-Go members provided the entertainment for the evening. Delicious refreshments were served by Pickering.

Riverside Ratepayers Association

The regular monthly meeting of the R. R. A. was recently held at the home of Captain and Mrs. E. L. Pyette, Riverside Drive, with a record attendance of thirty-five members and several visitors. Many items of importance came up for discussion.

ion, such as—where and how, and who to contact in regards to police protection, in case of emergency. However, we were enlightened by one of our members that in this area we contact the Pickering Township Police, and not Provincial Police.

The most important and urgent item with which the organization is concerned at present, and will be in the future, is the flooding of Duffin's Creek in this area, which several times lately endangered the homes and lives of some of the residents. We feel that now is the time to get busy on this and not wait until it is too late. The President, Mrs. E. L. Pyette, then introduced Mr. W. H. Westney, representing the Township Conservation Committee, who had taken time from his busy schedule, to give us a talk on the reasons for flooding, and what is being done by this Committee. Mr. Westney said that a survey had been made of the local watershed, and till the report from the engineers and surveyors was received, he could not give us a detailed account of what was to be done in this area. However, he did enlighten us on several things we were interested in, such as - cost per capita, it seemed such a small amount that would be assessed when one takes into consideration the thousands of dollars it would save in conserving property, topsoil, and land value, to not only ratepayers, but to the country. We assured Mr. Westney that we are behind the programme one hundred percent but that we are not going to let things just go on, without something being at least started toward the prevention of flooding in this area. A vote of thanks was extended Mr. Westney.

Riverside Ratepayers Assoc. was originally just a social club which was organized several years ago, when residents were just summer cottagers. However, due to housing shortage, many of these cottagers were sold winterized and remodelled as permanent homes. Some lovely new homes were built, that we felt it was time to form a stronger organization. Thus, in March 1954, we were re-organized as a Ratepayers' Assoc. We now have twenty-four families registered and paid-up members, and are a very happy and busy group. Mr. Harold Bruce was the first president, but moved to Toronto shortly after the spring flood. We have a very busy Social and Entertainment Convener and Commitee, this committee have been responsible for two very successful dances, our annual field day and picnic, where all the children in this area had free supper, free gifts etc. the children raised most of the money themselves, with a draw, penny and ring toss, and a white elephant table; a parade was also held, and many lovely costumes were worn by the children. A committee is now busy planning a Community Christmas Tree. We have made several charitable donations; made a donation of $25 to the Hurricane Relief Fund, so we have a real old-fashioned community spirit down here or, should we say - up here---at least we know our neighbors. Officers for 1954-55 are: Past Pres., H. Bruce; Pres., Mrs. Pyette; Vice-Pres., F. Throckley; Sec., G. Crichton; Treas., T. Ashton; Social Conv., R. Brown; Welfare Conv., J. Demaine and Mrs. S. Briggs; Township Council Contact, J. Hambleton; Conservation, all Executive and Members. - Corr.
