Property Owners Hear C.N.R. Men Explain Metro By-pass Plans

The largest attendance at a public meeting in Pickering township, jammed Dunbarton public school last week to get information about the C.N.R.'s proposed Metro by-pass.

Before the evening was over, protest meetings were being organized and one was held this week at Rouge Hill school (reported in this issue).

Reeve Sherman Scott chaired the meeting and introduced the speakers from the C.N.R.

Mr. W. C. Bowra, Gen. Mgr., told the meeting he would repeat some of the policy statements made by Donald Gordon at the time of the official announcement, March 11th. He said that today, industry employs nearly two-fifths of Toronto's working force. Rail transportation is essential to these enterprises and production is reflected in their freight traffic pattern. The bulk of the traffic handled by the Toronto terminals now travels over the Oshawa main line to and through Toronto. Facilities are already strained and a wide industrial and commercial zone is expanding, at an accelerated pace around the perimeter of the city.

In the next 25 years, another million people are looked for in the Metro area. The existing rail network is unsuited for the expeditious handling of freight traffic developing in this region.

The CNR board of directors have approved acquisition of land which would make possible the establishment of a modern freight terminal on 1185 acres between Keele and Jane St. north of Steele's Ave. and approximately 33 miles of right-of-way for the construction of 2 access rail lines east and west of the yard connecting with the main lines.

The address read, stated, that the new facilities would enhance industrial land values in Pickering, Scarborough, Markham, etc., and open up vast potential for industrial expansion.

Commuter service was touched on by the following remarks: "If we are successful in getting on with this plan, as we hope to be, then as a by-product of this plan, we will relieve congestion now existing in the terminal, to the point that we can make it physically possible to improve passenger service providing we can find accommodation between ourselves and other planning authorities to make it financially possible."

"Any serious delays resulting from organized opposition could defeat the whole plan because of the explosive development of the Metro area."

J. A. Cann, project director, said that some have argued that every planning board should have been consulted. If everyone in the several townships had been consulted, he claimed, unnecessary land speculation would occur and a line that would suit everybody could not have been arrived at. He said consultations were held with Metro Planning Board to get their views and they concurred unanimously in the general route. He said that in planning, they endeavored to get the shortest possible economical route for both construction and operation. Another factor, he said was to locate a line with a maximum gradient consistent with the grades on adjacent territories over which the same train will travel. Calculation showed this should not be over 8 per cent between Dunbarton and the Hump Yard. He said they were trying to locate the line with a minimum of interference to permanent property already constructed. He told the meeting, it is not easy to get out of the lower ground in the south to the higher in the north and the area in the vicinity of Dunbarton is the only practical point from which to commence the new line.

He said there will be at least 15 months of planning before any construction is started and it will not be less than 5 years from now before any trains, other than work trains are moving over this line.

G. G. Baird, the railway's property co-ordinator, said they usually deal with land purchase in the following ways:

1. In the case where all, or the major part of the owner's property is taken, the CNR will purchase the entire property and the compensation will be the highest amount in terms of dollars which the owner could have obtained from a buyer.

2. Where only part of the property is taken, the CNR will purchase the portion expropriated or if the owner wishes, they will buy him out, at a fair market value.

3. In case where property is adjacent to the expropriated area but, where no part of the property is taken, there may be cases where after careful investigation, the Railway may decide to buy out the owner, if that is the owner's wish. He said there was no legal obligation for the Railway to do this. He added that many who are adjacent but not having land expropriated but, feel they have been damaged would have to prove damages to get compensation.

Wm. Newman asked why the line did not go north of the present plan. The answer was that it was a matter of economics.

Reeve Sherman Scott when asked how he felt about proposed line, said the CNR has expropriated powers but, that he could see no benefit to Pickering Township.

A CNR spokesman told the meeting, there would be no level crossings on the line, but overpasses and road diversions.

One resident asked a CNR official after the meeting, if the Railway would buy them out, as the line went through the rear of the property and

P.U.C. Gets Nice Hydro Rebate

Pickering Village P.U.C. has a credit of over $1,200 from the Ontario Hydro Commission as an adjustment in the cost of power for 1958.

The P.U.C. has received a credit note for $1,261.64, being the difference between actual cost of hydro power and the power used by the P.U.C.

The money is used as revenue and will assist greatly, if a subdivision goes ahead here this year.

J. A. Bushby Sells Hardware

Negotiations are expected to be completed this week in the sale of the J. A. Bushby Hardware business here. Mr. Bushby is retiring from the business, owing to ill health. He has operated a hardware store on the main street here for the past 34 years.

Purchaser of the business is John Graham of West Hill. Mr. Graham is a member of a very well known Pickering Township family, having been born and raised at Rouge Hill. Mr. Graham is planning to renovate and expand the present business.

Mr. Bushby operated a tin-smith and furance business along with the store for many years. In later years he has just operated the store.

"We would like to thank our many friends and customers for their patronage over the years, and hope they will extend the same good will and business to the new owner, who comes highly recommended to this area," Mr. Bushby said.

The Bushbys have two daughters and a son and have been active in community life here down through the years.

Their many friends here hope they can now enjoy many years of pleasant retirement and that they will be able to find a home to their liking here and remain among us.

Well Known Stan Mann Passes

It was a shock to residents of this district to learn of the sudden passing of Stan Mann of Pickering Bch. at Claremont, Florida, last Friday.

Mr. Mann has been a resident of Pickering Beach for many years, and had been active a real estate, and church work here.

He is survived by his wife, a son, his mother and a brother.

Services will be held this Friday at 10:30 a.m. at Mt. Lawn Cemetery, Oshawa.

To Lodge Formal Protest Against CNR Bypass

A petition, letter writing campaign and possibly representation to Ottawa will be part of a formal protest of property owners, against the CNR's proposed Metro by-pass.

A protest meeting of 200 ratepayers at Rouge Hills school this week formed a South Pickering Ratepayers Association. It will comprise two sections: Dunbarton and North-west Pickering. John Campbell was elected chairman with two sub-chairmen, Rex Merritt and Arthur Fortier. Stanley Trantor was elected secretary-treasurer.

Another meeting will be held, on April 7th, in the same school when a definite program of protest will be outlined.

Mr. John Campbell chaired the meeting this week at which time, officials and residents spoke and asked questions.

Donald Theall said, "a group of us have met with residents of Thornhill to get their views. We are not against progress but are of the opinion this line could be routed elsewhere. We are opposed to thoughtless planning and the effects it can have on us in different ways. Some persons do not want to be expropriated but, if they are, may not get enough to locate elsewhere. No matter what the CNR says about the effects on property value, no one wants to live next to a railway. The C.N.R. should consider their 4 million dollar extra to route the line, against the upheaval they are causing here and it should be measured over the whole country not against the few residents in the area. We are puzzled why the Railway says the line can't be re-routed, they can cut through mountains. The cost analysis was not brought out for obvious reasons."

Reeve Sherman Scott said, "the first I heard of this proposed line was on March 11, when Donald Gordon, C.N.R. president, presented the plan to township officials. The C.N.R. said they would come out and explain their plans, and I arranged the meeting held last week in Dunbarton. You know as much about the by-pass as we do."

Reeve Scott said that Fairport Road, north, White's sideroad and Woodview would be closed and relocated. Other roads such as 401, No. 2, and others would have overpasses. Because much of the line in this area would run through cuts, Reeve Scott told the meeting he could not see the line as beneficial to industry here.

Deputy-reeve Jean McPherson said, "I think the people who will be affected knew about the line before council did. If there is another route the line can take, I would like to see it. The people living on the fringe area of this line have my sympathy."

Councillor Edgar James, Ward 2, said, "I haven't given the matter too much thought yet. I would have thought the C.N.R. would have given it considerable thought. If an alternate route is used, there will be more protest meetings."

Councillor Harry Ashton, Ward 3, said, "Only when the people are aroused at the C.N.R. officials and their apparent disregard of people's rights do they take notice. And by-pass should be east of here, even if it costs more money."

Councillor Ross Hawthorne, Ward 4, "I think there are many questions still to be answered such as, what were the alternate routes, what do they mean by damage claims, what courses of protest action are open to us and other groups, what action should be taken through our representative, Mike Starr, if we retain legal counsel how much will it cost and who will bear the cost?"

Councillor Violet Swan, Ward 5, said, "The map shows that this line will go through what will soon be the most densely populated area of Metro. What will happen if we have more hostilities, rail yards are the first targets they head for. I want to see everyone treated fairly if this line goes through. If you try to fight alone you have no chance, there is strength in numbers."

Harold Mitchell, high school chairman told the meeting, they had purchased the site for their new school before they knew about the rail line (near the 1st con. and White's sideroad). "We don't know what we will do until we know more about this," he said.

Nex Merritt said, "I live within a 100 feet of the proposed line and have been told that if plaster is cracked in my home through vibrations, I have no claim, definitely not was the answer I got."

Fred Miller asked who pays for the overpasses and road work.

Agr. Federation Holds Meeting

The Federation of Agriculture met on Tuesday evening, March 17, at Hallway house, Myrtle. Mr. Larry Doble, President, called the meeting to order and expressed his appreciation of the splendid turnout. The minutes were read and adopted.

The coming poultry meeting Apr. 2, was the subject of much discussion and brought some interesting comments and information. A letter from the Federal Minister of Agriculture was read concerning the rabies resolution sent by this county. This second letter sounded a little more promising. A letter of thanks had been received from Dr. Dymond for the sketch of the historic old stone church at Beaverton where he delivered a fine address to Ontario County Federation members last summer. A rural safe driving campaign is to be conducted and the insurance committee and executive is to plan a program in connection with this. The Folk School held at Cherry Hill Farm, Unionville, commences on March 19. This is a remarkable venture and directors were urged to attend. Partial expenses to be paid. Top flight speakers have been engaged to this. Committee members were named and the heads of each are as follows: OFA member Larry Doble; Women's Representative, Mrs. Shier; Publicity Officer, Mrs. Clean Hill; Poultry Committee: Jno. Gill; Wheat Committee: Russell Redd; Insurance Comm., Anson Gerow; Land Acquisition, Bill Nesbitt, Grant Windatt. Once Werry Tom Harrison, Geo. Todd, Allan Crozier. This is the full committee: Beer: Gordon Hunter, Clarence Hewitt, Morrison Colville, Acal Windatt; Education Committee: Donald Kennedy.

The Treasurer's report was read and adopted. It was suggested that a committee again approach the various northern townships which are not making their contribution to the Federation, as the south-end townships are. The Finance Comm. was requested to look into the costs of procuring a part-time fieldman for the County, possibly an up and coming Junior Farmer such as they have in Peterboro County. York County has offered to train a fieldman for us. Mr. Wallace McLean reported on the Medical Co-Op Insurance. He outlined the new policy of $1000 at $9.00 a year up to the age of sixty-five. It seemed like an insurance worth looking into. Anson Gerow, Lloyd Wilson and Alex Johns reported on the Hog Producers' meeting which they had in Toronto. Mr. Gerow explained why the present system had been made null and void. This was done in order to put another plan into effect. Another vote will be necessary. It was reported that most hog producers in this part of the province were quite satisfied with hog producers' plans.

Norman Hogg reported that Dist. 4 of the Milk Producers had voted $10 to each contestant in the dairy prices contest, with a maximum of $50. He was thanked for this generous gesture. We are still looking for dairy queens in Ontario County. It's a wonderful opportunity for a young Miss between the ages of 17 and 26 years. East entrant will be coached and trained.

The Directors expressed their pleasure in hearing that Miss Jeanne Pearson, of Uxbridge had won a trip to Europe. Well done, Jean, and Bon Voyage. We also extend our congratulations to Walter Clarke of Peterboro, who will be Europe bound. A dairy vote to finance the building of a Co-Op Surplus Plant is to be taken. A majority vote of 75 percent is required. Fieldman Jack Arnott, who we are always pleased to see at our meetings suggested that we invite Robert Smallfield, Director of Information to a future meeting for a discussion on Publicity. As Ontario County is 93 miles in length it does present some special problems in making contacts with distant points. We were pleased to have members of the Beaverton Co-Operative with us and a past Reeve of Thoron Twp. There were a number of ladies present, which is always particularly welcome.

The next meeting will be held in Beaverton, on April 21.

PUBLIC NOTICE

of vital importance to you

Again in the Spring of 1959 Consumers' Gas Company asks your assistance

The severe winter weather experienced this past year has created a deeper frost level than normal. When the frost "comes out", as milder temperatures prevail, ground movement will be greater than in other years.

The Works Departments of many municipalities have warned of the damage that has already occurred to streets and paving, and that more damage will take place. Repairs to broken roads, water mains, etc., cost thousands of dollars each year and the estimates this year are greater than ever.

The many miles of gas mains buried in the ground, as well as sewer networks, hydro conduits and telephone cables have been installed and maintained for years in accordance with the best known engineering and operating practices. All of these facilities will be subjected to pressures and movement as the ground begins to thaw.

Where our new gas mains and services have been installed, refilled trenches will likely settle. Any resulting damage to lawns, walks, roads and driveways will be adjusted as quickly as weather permits.

Under these abnormal conditions the possibility of natural gas leakage is increased. The Gas Company therefore requests the assistance of all citizens in the community in guarding against gas leaks that might otherwise go unnoticed.

Gas leak detecting crews constantly patrol the area, checking streets, utility manholes, sewers and buildings. In addition to this safeguard we ask your co-operation by reporting ANY UNFAMILIAR ODOUR to us promptly. In addition any of the following circumstances should be reported without delay:

1. Any noticeable bubbling in pools of water on the ground and streets.
2. Any odour which has no readily apparent cause, either in buildings or out of doors.
3. Any indication that your furnace, regardless of fuel, does not appear to be operating as it should.

Basement floor drains should be checked to ensure that they contain water. Sewer gases, natural gas and other combustible fumes can enter homes through basement drains if they are dry. Pour a pail of water into dry cellar floor drains to fill the water traps and prevent the entry of gases.

Your participation in this safety program is appreciated. Please assist us to render the best possible service by reporting ANY STRANGE ODOUR to us quickly at any time of the day or night.

The Good Friday Service was a service of commemoration. Mr. Wilkinson said that the crucifixion was a revelation of God's Will. God shares the cost of sin on the Cross. Jesus showed how man must do God's will by giving all the way—even to death. At the Cross were three groups of people: the soldiers who played with dice as they did their job; the Scribes and Pharisees who were responsible for putting Jesus there, and Jesus' followers who cared for Him and believed in Him.

The Easter Service on Sunday morning was enjoyed by a capacity crowd. The choir selections were: "They have taken away My Lord!" and "Awake Thou That Sleepest", with Mrs. Vera Freeman and Victor Rudk taking the solo parts.

"PROTEST MEETING" - Con'td.

Reeve Scott said it was assumed the Railway would bear this cost.

Arthur Fortier said if homes were removed and values on others were lowered, would the rest of the area carry the tax load.

Reeve Scott said that assessment of the area would be lowered if homes were removed.

W. G. Messer, eastern representative for Pickering Township and Village on the Metro Planning Board said they were notified on the day the announcement of the line was made. He said the technical staff had been working with the Railway's consultants for about 2 years on a proposed line.

Councillor Harry Ashton said he did not like the secrecy that had been involved.

Mr. Messer said there was nothing in the Railway Act that says they must divulge their plans to anyone. "The fact they worked as close as they did with the Metro technical staff is a credit to them," he added. He said that in the whole 33 miles of line, Thornhill and Dunbarton were the only really difficult spots to get through.

"What I have said here does not mean I think this is the only route," Mr. Messer said. There is still area open for discussion.

Tom Newman suggested that if Metro Planning had not endorsed the By-pass, it would not have made any difference.

Dr. Edmonds asked if this was the only route.

Mr. Messer said this was an engineering feat, but he doubted that engineers would say this is the only route.

Purpose of the temporary executive set up by the ratepayers is to have them invite C.N.R. officials back for discussion, if it is felt it is necessary and, to meet with council to discuss the railway problem.

"To be effective we must be organized," said chairman John Campbell.

Mr. Wm. Newman said, "I heard tonight that the C.N.R.'s consulting engineers have not handed in their final plan to the Railway, so it is not a closed issue yet." He suggested the group send representation to meet Donald Gordon at Ottawa.

A collection to defray expenses of a protest campaign, taken at the close of the meeting netted $53.00.

P. C.'s. To Meet April 17.

THE C.N.R. EXPLAINS

Last week, residents affected directly and indirectly by the C.N.R.'s proposed Metro By-pass jammed the Dunbarton school to hear officials of the C.N.R. explain their proposal.

It was stated that several routes were investigated and that it was found that the one presently being discussed, that will run along the First Concession, was found to be the best suited for the purpose of a rail-line.

However, in explaining the matter of compensation, a C.N.R. official told the audience that if the line runs through a portion of the property, the Railway would purchase that portion or, if the owner desired, they would buy him out.

Also it was stated, that those persons living adjacent to the Railway, but not directly affected by expropriation, could claim damages, if they could prove damages.

What disturbs us in regard to the two comments made by the officials, is, that he is alleged by two residents to have contradicted both statements in private conversation after the meeting was over.

It has been said publicly by one resident, that when he asked, if the Railway would buy all his property, as the line was going through a portion of the property, he was told by the official that the C.N.R. did not want any White Elephants on its hands. Another resident says he lives within a 100 feet of the line but is not being expropriated. He asked the official if in the course of their work, the plaster in his house was cracked by vibrations, would he be able to collect any damages. He says he was told by the C.N.R. man, "definitely not."

A C.N.R. employee (who would not give his name), told a public meeting that the Railway has concrete rules until they start dealing with people.

If the above statements are true, that these residents have made, we feel that C.N.R. officials are not being fair. It is not right to tell people one thing in a meeting just to appease them, and then in private contradict the statements.

The general manager of the Railway told the meeting that only through co-operation on the part of everyone, could the project be carried out. The C.N.R. should be prepared to co-operate by laying the cards on the table so that property owners will know where they stand, while they still have a chance to start. The C.N.R. seems to be primarily interested in economics, well so are the property owners. Everything they have is tied up in their homes and property.

The C.N.R. has the mighty force of "power of expropriation" behind them, so the least they can do is explain in full detail, just what recourse the property owner has, or what he can expect in the way of reparation, if he suffers from this rail line going through his property or near it.

CNR PROTEST - CON'TD.

was told by the official that the Railway did not want any White Elephants on their hands. This contradicts the official's earlier statement.

One resident, Prof. Donald Theall charged that the CNR was only looking at the economic side and not the aesthetic. He urged that residents from a motor cavalcade and march on Queen's Park in protest.

It was claimed by the CNR there would be no stopping or shunting in the vicinity of Dunbarton and that it would be a single line on Centralized Traffic Control.

Road Break-up Gradual This Year

With the snow and frost of the past winter, it has been expected that back roads would be in the worst condition they have been in years.

However, road men now say they feel the spring break up will not be so bad, as the frost is coming out gradually.

Township Road Supt. J. S. Chapman told the News this week, "if we get several days of warm rain, it would bring the frost out quickly and we could be in trouble. At the moment the frost is coming out gradually and we are trying to keep up with it by grading."

Mr. Chapman said he did not feel back roads would be near as bad as anticipated several weeks ago.

One Way Of Doing Your Shopping
A Low-down Way

A lady living to the west of us here, phoned in one day this week to tell us that her clothes line had been tripped during the night, and all of the usual garments found hanging on a clothes line stolen. It is not the first time, and other people have had the same experience. It's a mean kind of trick, and usually means quite a loss to the housewife who has been victimized.

MORAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR TRAFFIC SAFETY

During April, religious leaders of all faiths throughout Ontario will stress the moral aspects of the traffic accident problem. They will be asking you, as a motorist or pedestrian, to accept individual responsibility for obeying the traffic laws and the rules of the road.

This personal appeal to the users of our streets and highways is the basis of the Moral Responsibility Campaign sponsored by the Ontario Department of Transport. It is receiving enthusiastic endorsement and active support from the Ontario Federation of Agriculture and from local safety councils, police departments, service clubs, women's groups and other community organizations.

You can help the Moral Responsibility Campaign achieve success by practising the Golden Rule of traffic safety—drive and walk as you would have others drive and walk.

BROUGHAM

Brougham, celebrated their 25th birthday on Monday evening, March 23rd, in the form of a program which followed the regular meeting. By all reports, the evening proved to be a great success. With the very able pianist in the person of Mrs. Thos. Wheeler and Mrs. Kerr leading a sing-song, not too much could go wrong. Many thanks to these two great performers. Following this, Miss Betty-Jean Knox favored, with a piano solo: Miss Diane Carter, danced in kilts, the Sword Dance; a hula-hoop contest included several overgrown children (lodge members) in short skirts, but the top performance was little three-year-old Betty Todd, of Goodwood, who won the prize by her brilliant performance with the hula-hoop. Mrs. Jack Mitchell favoured with a monologue. Mrs. Gertrude Willson and Dorothy (mother and daughter) displayed their talents with a piano duet. Mrs. Thos. Norton, of Markham, gave one of her favorite readings; then some little tots from two years to one hundred and two little Kevin Bear, Holly Todd, Danny and Janet Ellicott, Donna-Lea Pascoe, Sheila Anne, Brenda Wannop, Betty-Jean Knox and Dianna Carter led off the procession after our Easter-attired Barbara Pascoe (Mrs. K. Pascoe) had modeled. What followed so one could describe you would have to see it to believe it; but it closed plenty of laughter and conversation. Tickets were sold on a quilt, made and donated by Sister Amy Burrows and won by Mrs. M. Ellicott. Guests were present from Brooklin, Ajax, Pickering, Markham and Goodwood.
