PICKERING -- Melissa Sutaroski, Matthew Gregory and Kysa Bashir of Dunbarton High School are growing tomato plants to be sold to raise money for a Waswanipi exchange trip. They hope to raise between $1,500 to $2,000 for the trip. The plants will go on sale April 26.

CREE STUDENTS COMING TO CITY FOR A WEEK IN MAY

BY KRISTEN CALIS
 kcalis@durhamregion.com

PICKERING -- While many high school students head to far-off places such as France or England for their student exchange programs, a group of 22 from Dunbarton High School is sticking to Canada.

However, while the students are staying on Canadian ground, it won't exactly be on familiar territory.

Grade 10 to 12 Dunbarton students are going to Waswanipi, in central Quebec, which has a population of 1,473. There they'll be staying with Cree families for the week of May 23 to May 30 and experiencing life as the people of Waswanipi know it.

But before the Dunbarton students head off, 22 students from the Waswanipi Youth Band Council will come to Pickering on May 9 for a week to experience life in Durham.

"It'll be different from what we're used to," said

Dunbarton student Melissa Sutaroski.

Her family will be hosting a student before she heads to Waswanipi herself, as will the others taking part in the exchange.

She acknowledged it'll probably be the same for the students who will come to Pickering.

The exchange is being done through the YMCA Youth Exchanges Canada Program. The low-cost program aims to give youth opportunities

Two more men charged in Pickering double murder

One man arrested, Canada-wide warrant issued for second man

PICKERING -- Two more people have been charged in connection with a Pickering double murder, including the father of a man already facing first-degree murder charges.

On May 5, 2009, the bodies of Harjinder Singh Sandhu, 28, of Brampton, and Puneet Singh Chhina, 26, of Nepean, were found in the trunk of a car in rural Pickering near Rosebank Road and 4th Concession.

On April 21, police arrested Ganesh Singh, 56, of Markham, and charged him with accessory after the fact to murder. He is the father of 29-year-old Vijay Singh, a resident of Toronto and Burnaby, British Columbia, who was charged in February with two counts each of first-degree murder, kidnapping, forcible confinement and use of a firearm in commission of an offence.

A Canada-wide arrest warrant has also been issued for Zaki Goffur, 34, of Richmond Hill, who has been charged with accessory after the fact to murder. Police believe he is currently out of the country.

John Le, 38, of Markham, was arrested in January, charged with two counts each of first-degree murder, kidnapping and using a firearm in commission of an offence.

Media reports following discovery of the bodies indicated Mr. Sandhu had been scheduled to appear in court in Windsor June 1, 2009 to face charges of importing cocaine.

In late December, Durham police said they'd recovered DNA linked to a potential suspect. In an appeal for more information issued Dec. 22, investigators said they'd tracked the movements of the dead men in the hours prior to the fatal shootings and travel of the suspects afterward. Police concluded the men were murdered in the area of Kennedy Road and Sheppard Avenue in Toronto, after which their bodies were moved to Pickering. Durham cops conducted a canvass of that area, seeking potential witnesses.

According to information released by Durham police in December, the victims travelled from Brampton to Toronto May 4, 2009, and were murdered there. The bodies were placed in the trunk of their own Nissan and driven to Pickering, where the car was abandoned. A second car was also driven east to the area in which the bodies were left, cops said.

Police said a cellphone belonging to one of the dead men remained in the second car used by the killers; that vehicle was driven north to Whitchurch-Stouffville, then back south to the Kennedy Road and Sheppard Avenue area.

Officer injured as kids, cops clash at Ajax plaza

AJAX -- A police officer was swarmed by youths when he came to the rescue of a security guard under attack at an Ajax plaza Tuesday.

The officer suffered minor injuries in the melee, one of two incidents in which kids clashed with cops at the location this week. In a second incident Wednesday, an officer was threatened as he attempted to make an arrest at the plaza.

Durham police said in Tuesday's incident, a security guard had asked youths loitering at the plaza, at Rossland Road and Harwood Avenue, to move along after one of the boys interfered with a woman and child entering a store. The guard was "having difficulty" with the youths, police said.

A police officer patrolling the area saw the situation and intervened, calling for backup as he was assaulted during a struggle. Additional cops arrived and arrested three suspects, also dispersing a crowd of about 150 teenagers who had assembled.

The first officer on the scene was treated for minor injuries. Two youths, aged 16 and 17, were charged with assaulting police, escaping custody and causing a disturbance while a third was cautioned and issued a provincial offence ticket for trespassing.

On Wednesday, a police officer was in the act of arresting a youth who had refused to leave the same plaza when a group of youths began to approach. The cop released the suspect, who quickly fled the scene, police said.

The officer wasn't injured.

Killers of Ajax man sang after murder: witness

Trial disrupted as Crown witness clams up

BY JEFF MITCHELL
jmitchell@durhamregion.com

AJAX -- Karl O'Reggio's killers were pumped up and singing along to the radio as they were driven away from the Ajax murder scene, a jury heard Thursday.

And it was Aimee Margaret McIntyre, Mr. O'Reggio's former girlfriend, who drove the men to and from the scene, a Crown witness testified.

Nathan "Bigs" Kelly and Jonathan "Banks" Ebanks were blood-spattered and agitated after going to Mr. O'Reggio's home to confront him about messages he'd sent to Ms. McIntyre, Crown witness Natasha Visscher said.

Mr. Ebanks, who'd gone to the Treshner Court house armed with a large knife, fretted the attack had been lethal, she said.

"Banks says, 'S---, I think I killed him,'" Ms. Visscher recalled.

Ms. McIntyre, 28, of Bobcaygeon, has pleaded not guilty to first-degree murder in the killing of Mr. O'Reggio. The Crown contends Ms. McIntyre, who had an acrimonious break-up with the 33-year-old Mr. O'Reggio, convinced Mr.

Kelly and Mr. Ebanks to kill the man.

Ms. Visscher, who now lives in Tasmania, appeared by video link to give her testimony.

She said she was a 15-year-old living with Ms. McIntyre when she went along for the ride from Bobcaygeon to Ajax the day Mr. O'Reggio died.

Along the way the two men talked about "poking" Mr. O'Reggio and discussed how an injured shoulder might make him vulnerable, she said. When the car, driven by Ms. McIntyre, arrived in Ajax, it was parked in a schoolyard and Ms. McIntyre directed the men to the victim's house, she testified.

Ms. Visscher said Ms. McIntyre advised her to make sure the doors of the Ford Focus were not locked "because the boys would be in a hurry".

A short time later, the men jogged up with bloodied clothes and jumped in the car, she said.

Ms. McIntyre was worried a car in the area might belong to a friend of Mr. O'Reggio's but relaxed when the vehicle was out of sight, Ms. Visscher said. She said that while the two men at first seemed agitated about the violent confrontation, they too returned to normal.

"They were pumped," she said. "They started singing along to songs on the radio and things like that."

Earlier in the trial Mr. Ebanks, who has

“They were pumped. They started singing along to songs on the radio and things like that. Crown witness Natasha Visscher

He was being cross-examined on inconsistencies in his testimony by prosecutor Indy Kandola when he suddenly announced he wouldn't cooperate any further.

"I'm not saying no more," he announced Wednesday afternoon.

Recalled Thursday morning, he maintained his refusal.

Earlier, Mr. Kandola had asked Mr. Ebanks if he was tailoring his testimony so that Ms. McIntyre wouldn't be implicated in Mr. O'Reggio's killing.

"You're worried that it might get back to the penitentiary that you're a rat, right?" Mr. Kandola asked.

"Yeah," Mr. Ebanks responded. "Correct."

The trial, before Superior Court Justice David Salmers and a jury, continues.

The exhibit of students' artwork will include paintings, drawings, sculptures, mixed media, photography and design. Their talents will be on display Wednesday, May 26 and Thursday, May 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. each evening at the school, 2155 Liverpool Rd. N., Pickering.

Admission is free.

Pickering teens can get fit at recreation complex for free

PICKERING -- Pickering teens now have an opportunity to get in shape, as the Pickering Recreation Complex offers up a free week-long membership in recognition of Youth Week.

With the offer, secondary students and faculty are able to take fitness classes, swim, play squash/racquetball, and use the health club for free.

Health club participants must be 18 years of age or have taken the City's FIT Club class.

The complex has assigned each secondary school its own week to use the amenities. The schedule is:

- Pine Ridge Secondary School, May 1 to 7,
- St. Mary Catholic Secondary School, May 8 to 14,
- Dunbarton High School, May 15 to 21,
- Pickering High School, May 22 to 28.

Teens who want to participate in the offer should become a fan of Pickering FIT on Facebook, and print off fan status e-mail. They should then visit the Pickering Recreation Complex with their Facebook fan status e-mail and school ID card to pick up their free pass.

Ajax, Pickering residents can donate bikes to Africa

DURHAM -- Durham Sustain Ability and Africycle are partnering together this Saturday to provide quality, affordable and sustainable transportation for Africa, while taking bikes out of garages and keeping them from landfills.

DSA and Africycle will collect the bikes, then send them to Malawi, where 85 per cent of residents live in rural areas, making transportation difficult. They'll be refurbished by Malawian employees, and will be sold to pay for their salaries. Any additional profits will be used to improve the quality of life in the community.

It's recommended that each donor make a minimum donation of $5 to help minimize the shipping costs. Each donation will receive a $10 coupon toward a new bike. Donations of more than $20 are eligible for a tax receipt. The best bikes for the program are the mountain-bike style or solidly built cruisers, but Africycle accepts any type in reasonable condition, even children's bikes.

Drop-offs can be made on Saturday, April 24 from 9 to 11 a.m. at Bay Cycle, 980 Brock Rd., Pickering.

Ready for the knowledge economy in Durham Region

The expansion of post-secondary education options in Durham will be a key component in transforming the region and will help cultivate the fundamentals that are the basis of success in a knowledge-based economy.

So says Don Drummond, the highly visible and respected chief economist for TD Bank, in a recent visit to business leaders in Oshawa.

The location of a permanent Trent University campus in Oshawa, growth of the University of Ontario Institute of Technology and the established presence of Durham College all combine to create more opportunities for Durham Region youth to earn their academic credentials right here at home. Mr. Drummond lauded the strategy to focus on the growth of academia in Oshawa and, by extension, Durham Region while helping to diversify its economy and rely less on manufacturing. The proximity of post-secondary opportunities, too, should serve to improve the statistics related to high school education. Oshawa, for example, has lower than average rates of secondary school achievement, Mr. Drummond noted.

In a future economy that will almost certainly require some form of post-secondary education, it becomes vitally important for Durham Region's young adults to acknowledge and avail themselves of the educational opportunities that exist at the post-secondary level.

Whether learning a trade at the Durham College Skills Training Centre, working towards a degree at UOIT or Trent, or obtaining a diploma in one of the wide range of courses offered at Durham College, young people can literally choose their educational path and build important new-economy skills.

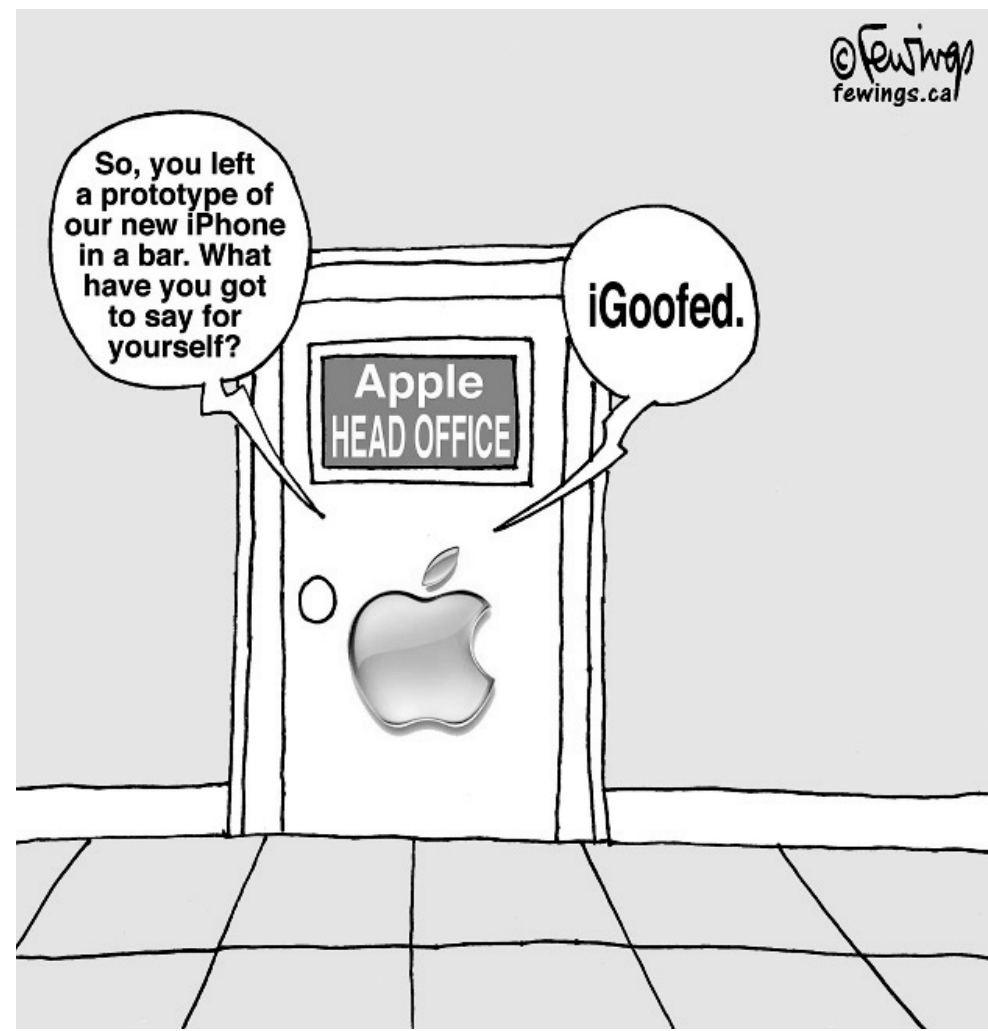

Those skills can then be transferred to workplaces here at home as Durham Region's communities lure new industries and businesses to their municipalities.

In that regard, the long view is one of optimism. As Trent establishes itself more completely in Durham, as UOIT continues to grow in stature and draw new students, and as Durham College grows its roots ever deeper, young people here at home will be able to learn professions and trades on a par with other regions, but at a fraction of the traditional cost for out-of-region post-secondary education.

A brighter future for a vast majority of young adults in Durham Region does indeed lie ahead. The possibilities are literally endless. And it's a made-in-Durham solution that acknowledges the future with keen motivation, a strong educational foundation and a commitment to knowledge, innovation and success.

Be sure to see the spring flowers before they're gone

Bloodroot, trout lilies, Dutchman's breeches, trilliums. Whole carpets of tiny, delicate blossoms are pushing up through the leaf litter in the woods these days, each more exquisite than the next. They last such a brief time, bursting into bloom before the tree canopy leafs out overhead and grabs all the sunshine.

My favourite is spring beauty. Not even ankle high, clusters of tiny white flowers veined with pink appear on a thread-like stem above twin, pointed leaves, opening in the morning sun and closing again at dusk. And I'm always thrilled to find hepaticas, small lavender flowers with shamrock-shaped leaves.

Who doesn't love violets? The earliest ones out have tiny white blossoms, the next ones yellow. Only later do the common purple and blue hues appear, cultivars of which many gardeners plant in shady places for ground cover. Wild leeks make use of spring sunshine by thrusting up clumps of bright green leaves as soon as the snow melts, spears that melt away in turn before the small white flowers appear. Trout lilies, too, push up their lance-shaped leaves, speckled like a trout, before their nodding yellow blossoms uncurl.

There's a good reason the trillium is Ontario's provincial flower. They're the tallest and showiest and, where they haven't all been dug up by rapacious gardeners wanting to plant them in their yards, they make a brave display just as the woods leaf out. Scattered among the snowy white ones you might find less common red trilliums. And in damp woods shaded by hemlocks, a rare painted trillium.

Like so many plants across the planet, our "spring ephemerals" have evolved curious shapes to ensure their own pollination. Sit for a while on a fallen log and watch queen bumblebees, just awakened from their winter sleep, visit a patch of squirrel corn, drawn by the perfumed scent. Serious life business for the bee and for the flower, and that both give pleasure to humans is an added bonus.

Most of our precious spring flowers are highly selective about where they grow -- basically, in undisturbed deciduous woods. Two centuries ago, before European settlers started hacking and hewing, cutting and clearing, wildflowers surely spread like a blanket throughout Upper Canada's magnificent old-growth forests. Now you're lucky to find them in the few remnant woodlots saved from destruction -- Altona Forest, Heber Down, Claremont Conservation Area, Wilmot Creek, Soper Creek, Purple Woods. Lynde Shores Conservation Area in south Whitby always has an impressive display.

So this is it -- a brief window of time to rush out to the woods to witness the very best beauties of spring. Be sure to stick to the path when you're out there. You never know what tender, exquisite sprout might be pushing up, easily crushed by human feet.

Send your nature queries to Marg at 905-725-2116 or mcarney@interlinks.net.

Durham Catholic board redistributes trustees

Pickering and Ajax switch number of representatives

BY CRYSTAL CRIMI
ccrimi@durhamregion.com

DURHAM -- Pickering is losing a Catholic school board trustee and Ajax is gaining one, following a slight shift in the board's electoral population.

The change in Catholic board representation is effective for the 2010 election, and for any by-election which immediately follows, according to a report presented at a March 29 special meeting held specifically to deal with the reassignment.

JIM MCCAFFERTY

"It's not a thing where there's any choice," said Paul

Pulla, the board's director of education, in an interview.

The option was the only one trustees could choose after designating north Durham as a low population area and allocating one trustee to represent it as a whole, Mr. Pulla said.

Without the designation, its electoral population there is not enough to give it even one trustee. The area has received the designation since 1997.

"It sort of tied our hands," said Pickering Trustee Jim McCafferty in an interview after the board meeting, regarding the choice to designate the north as a low population area.

The only way around the loss of a Pickering trustee would have been to eliminate the single representative for Uxbridge, Scugog, and Brock, and split them up to be grouped with the southern municipalities, Trustee McCafferty said.

The number of trustees is based on the board's electoral population, which is around 94,000. About 100,000 is needed to be eligible for a ninth member.

Although Pickering and Ajax have always been close in their electoral population, this year there was enough of a change to tilt the scale.

CATHOLIC BOARD VOTERS

Below is the Durham Catholic District School Board's electoral population by municipality, which was presented during its special board meeting recently.

- Pickering: 19,627
- Ajax: 20,907
- Whitby: 24,299
- Oshawa: 24,866
- Scugog: 1,831
- Uxbridge: 2,032
- Brock: 607

"I hate to lose a trustee in Pickering but that's the way the electoral is split. Pickering Trustee Jim McCafferty

"The trend over the last previous two elections was in that direction," Mr. Pulla said.

The difference in their voters is about 600 people. Student population does not impact the trustee allocation.

"Whoever gets elected is going to be busy," Trustee McCafferty said. "But it's in the same situation as Janice Oldman is in Ajax (right now).

"I hate to lose a trustee in Pickering but that's the way the electoral is split," he added.

Both Pickering trustees and Oshawa Trustee Fred Jones voted against the new distribution motion, Trustee McCafferty said. The five other trustees were in favour.

Why limit a celebration of your mother to just one day?

Duffin Meadows Cemetery invites you to take part in a unique Mother's Day Celebration on Sunday, May 2nd – one week before Mother's Day. This one-of-a-kind event features a white dove release – a spectacular celebration of peace, love, and life – taking place at the entrance of the Cemetery Office at 2 p.m. Bring your loved ones and celebrate the special roles that mothers play in our lives. Flowers will be given to the first 100 families and light refreshments will be provided. All are welcome to take part in this truly beautiful celebration of mothers.

Ajax-Pickering hospital gets another gift

Portable bladder scanner for complex continuing care unit

BY KRISTEN CALIS
kcalis@durhamregion.com

PICKERING -- The Ajax-Pickering hospital spent the final bit of money from the first Mayor's Gala Monday, and a number of people came out to celebrate.

The last $12,000 from the 2005 gala purchased a portable bladder scanner for Rouge Valley Ajax and Pickering hospital, specifically for the complex continuing care unit, which recently moved to a newly-opened floor above the emergency department.

The annual gala, hosted by Pickering Mayor Dave Ryan, has been going strong ever since the 2005 inaugural event. The theme in 2005 was the Canadian Year of the Veteran.

Tracy Paterson, vice president of development for the Rouge Valley Foundation, explained the hospital chose to carefully spend the funds from the first event on much-needed smaller equipment.

"Bit by bit, the department has been spending the money on the things they need," she said.

The Mayor's Gala has raised more than $500,000 since 2005. The gala continuously supports the hospital, as well as different local causes chosen each year.

Ms. Paterson said the donation going to the CCU is quite fitting, since many of the patients are veterans.

"I've certainly seen a lot of our friends from the Legion here over the years," she said.

Dr. Romas Stas, associate chief of staff, explained the portable bladder scanner, an ultrasound machine used to calculate the bladder volume in a patient, is a non-invasive technology.

In the past, he said, bladder volume was measured by catheterization, which was painful and could lead to infection. They were also time consuming for the attending nurse.

AJAX -- Nurse Amanda Whyte showed Mayor Dave Ryan how the new portable bladder scanner works on Dr. Romas Stas's hand at Rouge Valley Ajax and Pickering hospital on April 19. The bladder scanner will reduce the number of catheterizations performed in the hospital.

"It's great for us and it's great for the patients that we all look after," he said.

He thanked the mayor and the corporate sponsors for their continuous generosity.

Mayor Ryan said in reality "I'm a conduit. I'm very proud, pleased and happy I am able to attract great corporate sponsors."

He reminded those in attendance that the 2010 Mayor's Gala will have an Arabian Nights theme.

“It's great for us and it's great for the patients that we all look after. Dr. Romas Stas, Rouge Valley assistant chief of staff”

"We're going to have another great gala this year," he said.

Ms. Paterson took the time to recognize volunteers in the spirit of National Volunteer Week. She thanked the auxiliary volunteers who have always been a big help to the hospital, as well as Mayor Ryan, and the corporate sponsors who were in attendance, including representatives from the Ontario Power Generation, Scotiabank and Tribute Communities.

"All of these people support us in a volunteer sense," she said.

Pickering students to experience exchange with Cree counterparts

to learn more about other communities across Canada, and to learn new skills, develop a stronger sense of community and to experience Canada's diversity first-hand.

Kysa Bashir is also excited for the opportunity, a chance to see the way of life in a different part of the country. "I thought it'd be a good experience to see how other communities live and how the students live their lives," she said.

She added her mother, who's originally from Iran, is happy that her daughter will experience life outside of her day-to-day life, and is often concerned with the bubble that youth often find themselves in.

James Blair, the teacher organizing the trip, explained a large part of the exchange will be a focus on recycling. Since Durham has an elaborate recycling program, the students plan to share their knowledge on the subject, and perhaps show the Waswanipi students how to expand their own.

Mr. Blair is confident Dunbarton students will glean important information from the Waswanipi kids.

They'll also focus on growing and eating local foods, he said, and he hopes the two groups can open up a farmer's market, an initiative the Dunbarton students started last year. "The goal to this is to enhance youth experiences," he said. "They are to plan, organize, advertise and make their community open for the folks coming to visit."

Dunbarton student Matthew Gregory, who is not going on the exchange himself, but has been heavily involved in the planning process, has made contacts with local politicians, such as Pickering-Scarborough East MP Dan McTeague, to let them know the students will be in Pickering.

Matthew said although the students will get to see Toronto attractions such as the CN Tower, and other parts of downtown, the goal is to show them simply how students live their lives in Durham.

"We're trying to keep the activities local in Pickering and show them what we actually do every day," he said.

Even when they go downtown, Mr. Blair said, they'll take the GO train to see how transit works in Durham.

The students will also come to Dunbarton for a day, will hopefully catch a Toronto Blue Jays game, see Kensington Market, see the Pickering waterfront, visit Ontario Power Generation, catch a rugby game and do the simple stuff kids do, including bowling.

Principal Carol Maher-Hawken called the program unique and said the students have been planning it since the fall.

"It's such a great opportunity for the students that are taking part," she said.

BUILDING A SOLID FOUNDATION FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH

The Lakeridge Health Whitby Foundation is a registered charitable organization created to raise funds to meet the financial needs of the Lakeridge Health Corporation's programs and services for the care of patients/families at the Whitby site and across the Region.

The Foundation is seeking a dynamic leader with extensive business acumen who can inspire donors, develop partnerships and forge new and innovative fundraising opportunities in a diverse and growing community. This energetic, independent and highly motivated individual will thrive on change and will be eager to meet ambitious financial targets and performance metrics in order to drive our healthcare fundraising strategy to new heights as Executive Director.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the ideal candidate will be an experienced executive and persuasive communicator who has a strong affinity for and demonstrated success in philanthropic leadership. He/she will possess a post-secondary degree in Business, Marketing or a related discipline coupled with 5-10 years of progressively responsible fundraising portfolios. Additional fundraising certification and health care experience would be considered an asset.

The Lakeridge Health Whitby Foundation is pleased to offer the successful candidate a competitive salary commensurate with skills and experience, a comprehensive employee benefit package, flexible work hour arrangements and offers a unique opportunity to grow and develop this role into the future.

Interested candidates are invited to submit in confidence, a current resume and covering letter outlining their interest in the position no later than April 30, 2010 to:

Regional employee 'sunshine list' grows by leaps and bounds

DURHAM — Just more than 600 Durham Region employees made the provincial "sunshine list", including 405 police officers and personnel.

The list includes anyone who works in the public sector and makes more than $100,000 a year.

The top Durham earner was the Region's chief administrative officer Garry Cubitt, who was paid $292,249.51 in 2009. That's up from the $271,106.53 Mr. Cubitt earned in 2008.

The number of $100,000 earners jumped significantly in 2009 over the previous year, when there were 276 employees above the mark, including 158 with the police. There were 614 last year.

Garth Johns, the Region's human resources commissioner, defends the number of people on the list. "I don't think there's anything particularly remarkable about it. Last year, a number were hovering around the mark," Mr. Johns says.

With $100,000 the cutoff, "Now, there's a whole whack on the list."

He noted $100,000 is "still a lot of money. The line was set 15 years ago. It becomes less meaningful as time goes on. But, it's still a lot of money."

If the mark had risen with inflation over the past 15 years, it would now be about $130,000, he says.

"I'm pretty sure you wouldn't see 600 people over that mark," Mr. Johns states. "From our side, nothing unusual has happened."

Another top earner was Dr. Robert Kyle, the Region's medical officer of health, who made $284,117.95, up from the $216,793.72 he earned in 2008.

“I don't think there's anything remarkable about it. Garth Johns

Mr. Johns said the provincial government and the Ontario Medical Association "negotiated a revised salary schedule for medical officers of health because they were running so short of them."

The Province is paying for the increase in Dr. Kyle's salary, but the increase "is recorded by us."

Making Backyard Dreams a Reality

Spring is finally here! Now is the perfect time to rejuvenate your lawn, spruce up your garden with nutrient-rich soil, and make your dreams of expanding your living space into the outdoors a reality. Arnts Topsoil, The Landscape Supplier has been the source for landscaping supplies in the Durham Region and GTA for over 40 years.

Using a high quality Topdressing soil is the key to a green, healthy lawn you can enjoy through the summer and fall. Topdressing and seeding your lawn will keep your turf thick which helps it resist insects and weeds. Arnts Topsoil's Topdressing is a fine blend of Sandy Loam, Peatloam for moisture retention, Composted Manure for nutrient value, and Composted Pine Mulch Fines to lower the pH to an optimum growing range. Begin by raking the lawn to remove thatch. Spread a 1/4 to 1/2 inch of Arnts' premium Topdressing soil on your existing lawn. Spread grass seed (several choices are available depending on the application site), rake lightly, and follow with a deep and infrequent watering schedule. Early morning is the best time to water the lawn.

Adding fresh Triple Mix soil to your gardens each spring gives your plants a good boost to start the growing season. But not all Triple Mixes are created equal. Arnts Topsoil understands the importance of having a good soil foundation for a garden. Arnts' Triple Mix Garden Soil is composed of just the right blend of quality ingredients to form the basis for a flourishing garden.

In addition to a wide variety of soils and aggregates, Arnts Topsoil also provides the best selection of natural flagstone and rockery, decorative gravels, interlocking paving stones and garden walls, slabs, curbs, steps, pond supplies, and much more. This extensive product selection, combined with an abundance of visual displays, inspires creative ideas for distinctive landscape designs. Helpful staff, brochures and videos, Do-It-Yourself Seminars, and services such as delivery, equipment rental, and free estimates on products are available to help you through every step of your project.

Arnts will be hosting a free Do-It-Yourself Unilock seminar demonstrating the installation of interlocking pavers and garden walls. Join us on Saturday, April 24th at 10:00 a.m. at the Pickering location - 2490 Brock Road North, South of Taunton.

For more information visit Arnts Topsoil in Pickering at 2490 Brock Rd. N. or in Whitby at 4400 Halls Rd. N. Call 905-683-0887 or visit their website at www.arntstopsoil.com.

Stay Safe When Spring Cleaning Gutters

For homeowners, few things symbolize the arrival of spring more than the annual trek up the ladder to clean out the gutters. Though few look forward to cleaning the gutters, it's even less fun for those who get hurt doing so. To avoid turning an afternoon cleaning the gutters into an afternoon at the emergency room, consider the following safety tips.

* Inspect the ladder. Make sure the ladder is stable, all steps are still intact and not wobbly, and enlist a helper to hold the ladder if possible.

* Don't become Stretch Armstrong. Avoid an unnecessary safety risk by reaching too far when cleaning out the gutters. While getting down off the ladder and moving it might seem redundant and tiresome, it's also safe and can help homeowners avoid a fall.

* Don't just use hands. Many times hands can do an adequate job of cleaning out the gutters all on their own. However, sometimes leaves and other debris in gutters can be very stubborn, requiring a tool such as a screwdriver to remove. Wear a tool belt when cleaning gutters to avoid having to go down the ladder and find a tool. Also, if no tool is readily available, chances are you will attempt to remove stubborn leaves and debris by hand, increasing the chances you will lose your balance and fall in the process.

* Don't do it alone. Whenever possible, it's best to have a helper on hand when cleaning gutters. If no one can be outside helping, someone should at least be inside and checking on you at regular intervals to ensure you're safe. Falling while cleaning the gutters is bad enough, but doing so with no one around could prove disastrous.

Old Habits Die Hard

Consumers Remain Complacent About Rising Car Insurance Rates

What Does Your Renewal Notice Say?

If you're like many consumers, your renewal notice is coming up again, a day you always dread. How much will your rate increase this year? With rates increasing by an average of almost 10% over the last 12 months across Ontario insurers, chances are your rate is going up again, even if your driving record has not changed. You might figure there is no point shopping around for a better rate since everyone's rates seem to be increasing. Better to at least save your time by signing back the renewal, just like you do every year, right? Wrong. You can save time and money on your car insurance...if you know where to look.

How Do I Break The Cycle?

First, you need to realize that you have control over your car insurance costs – you just need to exercise it. And the simplest way to do that is to shop around. Why? Because despite what you've heard about rising car insurance rates, the size of the increase can vary significantly from one company to the next and from one driver to another.

The truth is that rates charged by different insurance companies to insure the same driver, with the same car, for the same coverage, can vary by hundreds and even thousands of dollars. Take a look at the table below.

Don't Be A Slave To Time

Have you tried shopping for a better rate in the past and found yourself spending hours on the phone, calling around to various insurance companies to get quotes, only to find you still can't get a better deal? Do not despair, InsuranceHotline.com can help by instantly providing quotes from over 30 insurance companies to find you the lowest rate available. Best of all, the service is absolutely FREE.

Don't Be Fooled By Others Offering To "Compare Quotes"

Unlike most of its competitors, InsuranceHotline.com does not sell insurance, is not a licensed broker or agent, and is not owned in whole or in part by an insurance company. This allows InsuranceHotline.com to be completely unbiased when providing insurance quotes and keeps its focus solely on finding the lowest insurance rates for consumers.

By contrast, most websites offering to "compare insurance quotes" are owned by or affiliated with insurance brokers or agents and are therefore only capable of quoting rates from the limited number of insurance companies they represent, typically no more than 4 or 5.

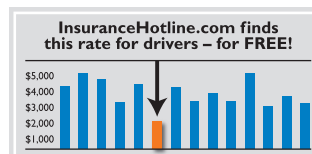

Start Saving Your Money Now

There is no better time to break the habit. Before you sign back your renewal, take 10 minutes and let InsuranceHotline.com help you shop around for a lower rate. With quotes from over 30 top insurance companies, InsuranceHotline.com is the simplest and easiest way to make sure you aren't overpaying for your car insurance. So don't wait another minute. Go online to InsuranceHotline.com and start saving your money now.

| Rate Comparison | | | |

Revitalize Your Lawn After a Long Winter

Every spring, homeowners head outside to take stock of how the winter treated their lawn. Homeowners in areas that experience heavy snow or rainfall each winter likely do not look forward to this inventory, fearful of what another harsh winter did to their property. Fallen tree branches, frozen ground and winter wind storms can do a number on even the most well-manicured lawns, turning a summertime labor of love into a nightmare.

While homeowners might not be able to do anything about the weather, there are ways to revitalize a lawn each spring. And you don't have to be an accomplished landscaper to handle the task. The following tips can help bring your luscious lawn back to life, helping make winter a distant memory.

* Remove all debris from your yard. Debris includes any trash in the yard, wood, large roots, fallen branches, and even stones. The presence of trash such as broken glass or even faded paper products such as cups or bags is not only unsafe for the environment, but it can prove harmful to anyone who might be out in the yard once your grass grows, especially if you have children. Oftentimes, winter winds can blow trash from nearby garbage cans across the yard, no matter how neatly homeowners put out their trash.

* Smooth the soil. Once all debris been removed, examine the soil for any abnormalities that might need to be smoothed out. Use a spade or rake to smooth any areas that aren't up to par. Next you'll want to loosen the soil as well, something that can be done with a garden rake. Any unsightly areas, such as humps or ditches, should either be smoothed out or filled in, depending on which is appropriate. This can be done with some soil and should not prove too costly.

* Consider seeding the lawn if need be. For lawns that took a particularly harsh beating over the winter, consider seeding the lawn to help revitalize it. When seeding a lawn, be sure you choose the right seeds. Different regions respond better to different types of grass. But don't be intimidated if you don't know the correct grass to choose. Simply ask a landscaper or consult a lawn care specialist at a nearby home improvement center as to which type of grass is the best fit your region and your yard.

When you're ready to seed, the seed can be scattered by hand for smaller yards, or with a drop spreader for larger lawns. When spreading with a drop spreader, use the suggested amount of seed on the bag (even a little less seed should do the trick) and make sure you spread out the rows evenly in the same direction. Once you've sowed the first part of your lawn in one direction, you can crisscross back over that part at a 90-degree angle, making sure you keep equal distance and calibrate your spreader at the same speed.

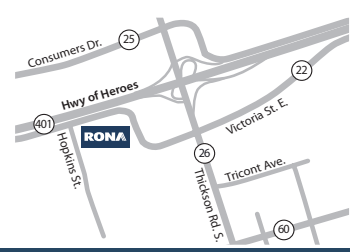

* Add mulch for aesthetic and practical appeal. Mulch helps the soil by allowing it to retain moisture, making it more conducive to growing healthy grass. It can also add aesthetic appeal to a lawn. When laying mulch down, keep the mulch at roughly a quarter-inch to ensure your lawn will grow in nicely.

Wilderness survival challenge 'amazing' experience for adventurous youth

BY MANDI HARGRAVE
mhargrave@durhamregion.com

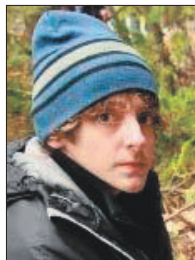

AJAX -- An Ajax teenager is one of this year's challengers trying to become the ultimate survivor on season two of Survive This.

The show, with Survivorman Les Stroud, follows teens aged 13 to 17 as they are tested physically, emotionally and intellectually through a series of half-hour episodes.

"One of the main reasons I wanted to be on the show is because I really like animals and nature. The episode from the first season that really motivated me to try to get on the show was the swamp episode," said 14-year-old Ian McBain. "Most people would think 'Oh gross, a swamp, there's leaches and stuff.' That was the turning point for me, I was like 'I have to get on this show, that looks so fun, so many different experiences.'"

Before heading out into the wilderness to fend for themselves,

IAN MCBAIN

“The main things I learned were to trust other people even if you have doubts and that I have to believe in myself. Ian McBain the group of teens took a three-day survival program with David Arama, a survival expert.

"At survival school, they taught us everything like shelter building, how to start a fire, wild edibles, compass using -- things you'd learn at Scouts -- just in case you haven't done it before."

Ian enjoys being outdoors and spends quite a bit of time at the Greenwood Conservation Area in Ajax. With aspirations of being a biologist, he loves collecting various specimens on his outdoor excursions. His room is full of all sorts of dead insects, bugs, skulls and snakeskins.

After describing the experience as "amazing," Ian said he'd gladly go on the show again.

"When I was there, the main things I learned were to trust other people even if you have doubts and that I have to believe in myself. Before I was kind of like a wimp. I never wanted to try anything adventurous, but after

ART EXHIBITION

Twelve artists showing work here

The Patrick Hickman and Friends show features the work of 12 artists, many of them local residents, to April 30.

Hickman's works have been shown at several venues in Durham, including the Robert McLaughlin Gallery in Oshawa, Whitby's Station Gallery and at the Pickering and Ajax libraries. He is also a teacher who has worked with students through programs offered to children, youth and adults at the City of Pickering, Town of Ajax and Durham College.

Also showing work are: Alo Rakhit, Gilbert Rahem, Alma Kelly, Sylvia Barker, Jack Gardner, Usharani Nameirakpam, Richard Jules, Gord McKay, Alicia Littleford, Joseph Mendez and Sally Cudlip.

The Civic Complex is at One The Esplanade.

The show is a part of Pickering's Experience Art program.

that, I'm trying everything new and trying rock climbing and stuff like that."

Unable to reveal too much about what took place during the filming of the show, he said one of the tougher aspects of surviving was getting through the nights.

"You had to get over the fact that you were with a group of strangers essentially and just out in the wilderness and in wolf and bear and all these other animal territories and you only have, if you have one, a fire to protect you. It's kind of difficult at first, but you get used to it later on."

The 13-part series began this week on YTV.

Piggotts showing work this weekend

Ajax Creative Arts show
April 23-25

AJAX -- Husband-and-wife artists Don and Isobel Piggott share the same home, but she works upstairs and he toils downstairs.

That's probably a good thing, since when it comes to criticizing each other's work, Isobel Piggott says it's pretty one-sided.

"I don't criticize his (work) but he criticizes mine," she says in an interview at their Ajax home.

"There's nothing to criticize in mine," Don Piggott retorts. "I try to help her but she won't listen."

His interest in art stretches back to his boyhood, when he drew sketches that appeared in his local newspaper in England. But discovering art was a happy accident for Isobel Piggott. She went to a sewing class at Ajax High School but it was cancelled, so she attended an Ajax Creative Arts' meeting there instead. Later, when her husband was going to Oshawa for art lessons, Isobel Piggott came along, saying, 'If I don't like it, I won't bother'.

She did like it and they have been ACA members since 1989. Don Piggott is currently serving a stint as president of the club.

"They were all just very nice," Isobel Piggott says of the first time she went and why she returned. "If you didn't want to do anything, you just sat and talked. If you did, they left you alone."

As for media, she says she "tried them all to see what I liked and I still do them all.

"I like landscapes but they don't like me," she quips.

When travelling, she looks for interesting scenes to photograph and subsequently paint but Isobel Piggott is more likely to create the scene from her imagination.

Ajax Creative Arts has around 100 members, started in 1966, and it remains one of the only places around where an artist can sit down with his or her peers and chat, work and receive criticism. Club times are Wednesday and Thursday from noon to 4 p.m. and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m.

"They work all day and it's the only chance they get to paint," Don Piggott notes of the evening hours.

The Piggotts will be showing work in the ACA 2010 Spring Art Show and Sale. It's April 23 (10 a.m. to 9 p.m.), April 24 (10 a.m. to 6 p.m.) and April 25 (10 a.m. to 4 p.m.) at the Village Community Centre, 22 Sherwood Rd. W. (at Linton Avenue), in Ajax.

Admission is free and more than 50 local artists will be displaying their art. As well, there's a tea room and a free draw for an original painting.

RYAN PFEIFFER / METROLAND

AJAX -- Donald Piggott and his wife Isobel are members of the Ajax Creative Arts Club. Both are showing work at the 2010 Spring Art Show and Sale at the Village Community Centre this weekend.

Meet Pickering author Doug Hall at workshop

PICKERING – Doug Hall's new book has certainly caught the attention of some local residents.

The Pickering writer's 17th book, The Chiliad Murder(s), is set in a swanky condo overlooking Lake Ontario. Hall himself lives in a condo and, understandably, "interest swirling around the book from (Pickering's) The Millennium residence centres around, 'am I in it?'" he says in an e-mail. "A few have caught on that chiliad is a synonym for millennium."

In The Chiliad Murder(s), a skeleton is discovered in the condo's roof-top storage room and the residents are told the murderer is among them, making everybody a suspect. You can get the book through Chapters in Ajax. Or get an autographed copy from Hall himself on April 29, when he leads an Aspiring Writers' Workshop at the Petti-coat Branch of the Pickering Public Library at 7 p.m. Hall will speak on how to create a novel, get published and also share some of his experience. The workshop is free but registration is required. Call 905-420-2254.

The library is at 470 Kingston Rd. (just west of Rosebank Road).

LET THE GAMES BEGIN

Durham Region Senior Games set to kick off on Monday

Winners have chance to attend Ontario Senior Games in Oshawa

BY BRENT BURRY
bburry@durhamregion.com

DURHAM -- If you are 55 and over, you've got a chance to participate in the Durham Region Senior Games.

There are 15 events and winners from these summer games, which start April 26, qualify to participate in Actifest 2010, the provincial championships. And this year they are being held in Oshawa starting Aug. 10.

The Durham games run throughout the eight municipalities in Durham.

Last year, there were approximately 500 participants in the games, but this year games organizers are hoping for an increase.

"We've found that there's a very low percentage of seniors in Durham who have ever really heard of it. So our goal this year is to make more seniors aware of what we have to offer and hopefully by doing that we can increase participation," said Bob Taylor, chairman of the games.

Taylor says the card games are the most popular events.

"Pretty dedicated card players for cribbage, euchre and bid euchre. But we do have some pretty good numbers for slo-pitch, mainly because you have more people on the team. Also the bowling events, five-pin bowling is a summer event, we had a pretty good turnout last year," said Taylor.

Games such as shuffleboard and lawn bowling are not as popular, so organizers are trying to build them up.

Additionally, there will be a new event this year: pickleball.

"It's a racketball game, played on a badminton court with a lower net, played with an oversized paddle and whiffleball," said Taylor.

The Durham games experienced some financial difficulty during the recession, but Taylor says he thinks they are over the hump.

"Last year, our main concern was financial stability and we've managed to pick up a couple of corporate sponsors. That helped us out immensely," he said.

Registration forms are available at seniors' centres and Legions in Durham. For more information, visit www.durhamseniorgames.com.

TRAMPOLINE

Robinson impressive at Ontario championships

AJAX -- Brandon Robinson continues to enjoy a high level of success on the trampoline.

The 17-year-old Ajax resident competed at the Ontario championships, held at the Campus Recreation and Wellness Centre in Oshawa and returned home with three gold medals and bronze to show for his efforts.

Robinson picked up golds in the synchronized national senior open with Greg Tomczak, the synchronized national mixed with Mariah Madigan and one individually in double mini national novice 15+ event.

His bronze came in the individual senior open.

GYMNASTICS

Bartholomeusz first at gymnastics qualifier in Ottawa

OTTAWA -- Two Pickering athletes with Markham Gymnastics are training in the provincial program, and recently competed at a qualifier in Ottawa.

Jeremy Bartholomeusz, competing in Level 5, 13+ years old, won the all-around championship for his group after registering first-place finishes in floor, pommel, rings, vault, horizontal bar and a third in parallel bars.

Tazio Bigioni was 10th overall in Level 2, 13+ years category. He posted the following results: floor 10th, pommel 4th, rings 2nd, vault 7th, parallel bars 9th, horizontal bar 9th.

The men's artistic Ontario championships will take place on April 30 to May 2 at Burlington BGs Gymnastics Club in Burlington.

FOOTBALL

Herbert to play in East West Bowl

DURHAM -- The Canadian Interuniversity Sport announced the names of 89 football players who will participate in the eighth annual East West Bowl on Saturday, May 8 at TD Waterhouse Stadium in London.

An Ajax player is among them.

For the West, Ajax's Shane Herbert, a six-foot-two cornerback from Laurier, made the grade.

Bishop's running back Kyle Exume, of Brooklin, made the East roster. He will share reps in the backfield with two other running backs.

Curling is over for another season at Annandale club

Champions crowned in men's league finals

BY JIM EASSON

Players in the Annandale competitive men's league finals were piped onto the ice April 13. Eight sheets saw six division and two consolation events competed.

'A' division club champions were Tim March, Chris VanHuyse, Pat Janssen and Tyler Anderson who won the event over the Warren Leslie foursome. In B, Gerry Pinkney won over David Gaudette, in C, Doug Peterson over Dan Deschenes, in D, Wil MacFadyen over Joe Mundy, in E, Mike Atkin over Brian Hawke, and in F, Tim LaRoche over Mike Potter.

The annual Annandale Last Chance Bonspiel started on April 17, and 28 teams were guaranteed three games. Sixteen teams advanced to the Sunday breakfast and final games. Winning the first event and $600 was the Annandale Mark Kean team over Annandale's Arnold Retz. The second event saw Whitby's Ray Balachoreck over the Oshawa Golf's Tom Clancy, third had Gerry Pinkney over Bill Goodchild of Tam, and the fourth event was tied between David Lloyd and the Jeff Clark's Dalewood team. At the bonspiel conclusion and youth closing banquet, the ice was turned over to the skaters.

Another Annandale junior has had success this season. Joan Moore competed in three provincial championships this winter, winning the bantam mixed on the Tyler Sagan team out of the City View Curling Club in Ottawa. Their team stole the extra end in an exciting final. Joan also plays in the girls' competitions with the Carly Howard team, daughter of Glenn Howard, and they were at both the bantam and junior provincial championships. Another highlight of the season for the girls was a bonspiel win in Sweden during the March break.

If you order tickets to the Capital One Canadian Open, tell them 'Annandale' and $10 will go to the club for every ticket sold. The event is to be held at the General Motors Centre in Oshawa from Jan. 26-30, 2011. Tickets are on sale at the GM Centre box office, or by phone 1-877-436-1811. Also, tickets for the 2011 Ontario men's championship in Grimsby Feb. 7-13 are now on sale. Click the 'event passes' at www.grimsbytankard2011.com for details. With their weekly badge/lanyard concept, you can share tickets with friends.

Pickering resident Richard Hart is vice on the Ontario men's curling championship team with Glenn Howard, Brent Laing and Craig Savill. The team was in Dawson Creek, B.C. April 13-18 competing in the final 2009-10 Capital One Grand Slam of Curling event, the Grey Power Players' championship. Team Howard made it to the final eight qualifiers, but lost to world champion Kevin Koe, and collected $7,000. Koe lost to the 2006 Olympic gold medal winner Brad Gushue rink who lost the final to 2010 Olympic gold medal winner Kevin Martin. However, Howard placed third in the season performance ranking with 26 points, and earned a bonus of $10,000.

Panthers complete marvelous season on the ice

PICKERING -- The best way to describe the Pickering Panthers tyke Black team for the 2009-10 season is dominant. The Panthers won the York

Simcoe championship following a 23-0-1 regular season record.

In the final round of the playoffs, the Panthers swept away the Richmond Hill Stars in three games. However, despite the sweep, not all games were blowouts. In Game 1, the Panthers earned an overtime win with a spectacular goal, 3-2. Game 2 saw the Panthers win 6-4 despite the Stars tying it up 4-4 in the third period. In the final game, the Panthers secured the championship with a 5-1 victory.

As the topper to an already great season, the Panthers hosted a tournament and won. They beat the Barrie BMWs 5-2 in the finals and were undefeated in five games.

Players are Josh Arsenault, Michael Watson, Owen

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Durham Windows and Doors Brings Mobile Showroom To Your Door

Wayne Hutchison brings to the replacement window and door business a new and long overdue feature. It's a Mobile Showroom which just may be the only one in Canada.

"The day is gone when you carried some brochures and a sample window to a customer's home," explains Wayne. "So I obtained a retired North York Mobile Library truck and installed interior window samples."

When you call Durham Windows and Doors for a free estimate, Wayne will show up at your door with his Mobile Showroom which you'll enter by way of a sliding patio door.

Inside, displayed on the walls, are the Vinyl Window Designs series of vinyl windows which you're free to operate and you'll discover the many special features including how they can be cleaned without going outside.

"After being in this business for 26 years, I can honestly say these are the finest windows on the market," says Wayne. "They're triple sealed to reduce air leakage and come with heavy duty hardware."

All Vinyl Window Designs windows come with Low E Glass which filters out the ultraviolet rays keeping your home cooler in the summer and eliminate fading of your curtains, drapes and furniture.

All of the windows come with a lifetime warranty on the frame, hardware and glass.

Wayne would also like his customers to know that he does all of the estimates personally, eliminating the cost of a salesperson.

Durham Windows and Doors also does all of its own installations, which ensures that every customer gets a high quality job done at the best possible price.

Durham Windows and Doors is located at 696 King St. W. in Oshawa. For more information call (905) 579-2222 or 1-888-576-8575.

Durham Attack return with provincial titles

WATERLOO -- The Durham Attack came home with two championships from the volleyball provincials in Waterloo after both the boys' and girls' 14-and-under teams were victorious at RIM Park.

The Durham Attack Black 14U boys' volleyball team lead was led by Attack alumni Michael May and Ryan Macintosh, and they beat out the Prime Minister's son's team, the Ottawa Fusion, along the way. Stephen Harper was at the event to watch his son play.

The Durham Attack Arif 14U girls' volleyball team won the championship in a division that had 67 teams. The girls now have four gold, three silver and one bronze this season.

Up next for the Attack is the nationals in Sherbrooke May 6-8. The Attack have won 11 national championships in the last four years.

Attack boys are Brian Franco-Carter, Sam Kloke, Tristan Swinden, Lowell Hannam, Connor Forest, Ryan Skelly, Alec Brandwood, Nick Pye, Dan McNeil, Jared Harris, Tyler Woodburne and Luke Amos.

Coaches are Ryan Macintosh, Michael May and Brian Woodburne.

DURHAM -- Prime Minister Stephen Harper posed with the Durham Attack 14U boys when they won the 2010 provincial championship. The prime minister attended the tournament to watch his son's team play. Members of the Attack are: front row, Brian Franco-Carter, Sam Kloke, Tristan Swinden, Lowell Hannam, Connor Forest, middle row, Ryan Skelly, Alec Brandwood, Nick Pye, Dan McNeil, Jared Harris, and back row, coach Ryan Macintosh, Tyler Woodburne, Luke Amos, coach Michael May, Coach Brian Woodburne, OVA president Kristine Drakich.

Yakura bouncing back from injury

PICKERING -- Ten days prior to his departure for Lima, Peru for the qualification of the 2010 Youth Olympic Games, Nyl Yakura suffered an injury during one of his training nights, leaving his left ankle with a second degree sprain. As he was unable to train, run or practise for three weeks, Yakura's dream to play badminton at the YOG, being held in Singapore this August, was shattered.

But not all was lost. Despite slightly wobbly legs, Yakura returned to the court and played at the senior provincial championships, managing to reach semifinals in men's doubles and mixed doubles.

However, after that his plan to compete at the Dutch Junior Open in Holland was cancelled as well.

Yet another comeback followed, though. Recovery from the injury continued to progress and he was able to play at the junior U19 provincial championships at Georgian College in Barrie. Though this is only his first year U19, Yakura still managed to make the finals in singles before losing to Sergij Shatenko of Ottawa 21-17 and 21-16.

In the semis, Yakura defeated Nathan Lee in three long games.

In the boys' doubles, the Pickering resident played with Andrew Lau for the first time and they managed to win gold after defeating the defending 2009 champion Nathan Lee and Timothy Lam.

They lost the first game 13-21 only to rebound and win the next two 21-9 and 21-15.

And, this week, Yakura is competing at the world junior badminton championships in Guadalajara, Mexico. The event started April 16 and runs through Sunday.

He was selected by Badminton Canada to represent the country for the team and individual events.

RYAN PFEIFFER / METROLAND

Off to provincials

Classified Advertising does work!!!

The following e-mail was recently sent to our newspaper from one of our advertisers:

"We recently put an ad in the News Advertiser for a bookkeeper. I was also going to put it in the Star since I thought I would not get many replies just from the News Advertiser. I couldn't believe the number of replies I got from just running the ad for 3 days. We got 37 resumes. This action has made a believer out of me and you know how difficult that can be."
