New veterans honoured by Legion

The event, at Legion branch 606 at 1555 Bayly St., included speeches, the placing of crosses, releasing of doves, singing and playing of the pipes.

"I know what you've been through -- both you and your family -- has not been easy," said Gord Moore, first vice-president of the Legion's Dominion Command.

It's been almost 10 years since we started going to Afghanistan, he added.

He thanked the veterans for their service, commitment, and fortitude.

"We all know and are grateful of the contribution they made to improve the lives of others," said Sharon McKeown, vice-president of the Legion's provincial command.

Other speakers also conveyed their message of thanks, including Tamin Sadiquin, founding member and past president of the Canadian Afghan Council.

"Afghan people were deprived from their basic rights: go to school, listen to music, or even go on the Internet," Mr. Sadiquin said.

He thanked the new veterans for helping to liberate the country.

Now that the soldiers are home, we have to respect them and treat them as veterans and not make the same mistake of exclusion that was made with those who served in Korea, said Myrna Picotte, the Pickering Legion branch 606's past president and special events chairwoman.

"It feels good to be thanked for a job done," Mr. VanderBruggen said.

The Whitby native, who currently lives in Bowmanville, spent eight months in Afghanistan.

"It's nice to be recognized," he added.

"It's a good feeling to know they appreciate what we did," said Kyle Harding, 21, of Pickering.

He spent seven months in Afghanistan.

Mr. VanderBruggen added that you never really think of people saying thank you until it happens, like it did with the little girl who stepped out hold-

For longtime veteran and Pickering resident Eric Lightowler, the service brought back memories.

"It's nice to see them," he said while sitting at a table in the legion hall, medals pinned across the chest of his uniform. Mr. Lightowler is a past sergeant of arms and parade marshal who served in Germany, Italy, and Austria in the Second World War, and in Greece during its civil war, he said.

"It takes my memory back to the time when I was 18 years of age and was a young soldier," Mr. Lightowler said.

"I think it's very important (to recognize the young veterans) as our motto is lest we forget," he added.

"We are very lucky in Canada to be in a part of the world that is free," he continued. "And God bless those who have served."

Pickering scrap metal drive to raise funds for cancer

Ajax man continues Coast to Coast Against Cancer quest

MOYA DILLON
mdillon@durhamregion.com

PICKERING -- Old pots and pans can now be turned into ammunition in the battle against kids' cancers with a fundraising scrap metal drive in Pickering.

Ajax resident Bob Turner is hosting the scrap metal drive in partnership with Scrap Cares, a recycling company based in Burlington, to raise funds for the upcoming Sears National Kids Cancer Ride, which the 57 year old will be participating in.

"The ride gives me a unique opportunity to help children and their families fight this disease," Mr. Turner said, noting he was inspired by the experiences of his young nephew and a young neighbour, who recently battled cancer.

"I've witnessed the disease's effect on my family and friends, and I'm drawing my inspiration from them. Thanks to generous donations to causes like this, my nephew is now cancer-free. I am thrilled that 100 per cent of all funds raised will go directly to the cause."

The ride raises funds for the Coast to Coast Against Cancer Foundation, which focuses on improving the quality of life of children living with cancer.

Mr. Turner has been getting up daily at 6 a.m. and cycling anywhere from 80 to 100 kilometres a day in training for the ride, which kicks off in Vancouver on Wednesday, Sept. 7 and concludes in Halifax on Thursday, Sept. 22. His goal is to raise $25,000 for the cause through his participation in the race.

In order to meet that goal Mr. Turner will be hosting a scrap metal drive on Saturday, Aug. 20 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parking lot of the Pickering Town Centre, in conjunction with Scrap Cares. Residents are invited to drop off any scrap metal they may want to get rid of in aid of a good cause.

"Every little bit of scrap metal and e-waste can be turned into cash for this great cause," said Terry Griffiths, education and institutional co-ordinator for Scrap Cares.

"Pots, pans, refrigerators, stoves, microwaves, barbecues, computers and peripherals will all go a long way to help Bob reach his goal of raising $25,000 before he leaves for Vancouver. If everyone brings just one piece of scrap metal lying around their garages and basements, Bob will easily reach his goal."

Police find guns, pot, opium and cash in Pickering home

DURHAM -- Police have arrested three people and seized guns, drugs and cash after searching a Pickering home.

On Aug. 10 police executed a search warrant after a man was arrested while leaving his home and found to be in possession of 162 grams of marijuana.

Two other residents were arrested outside the home after police found numerous marijuana plants growing in plain view on the large rural property.

A subsequent search yielded a stolen handgun, a .22 calibre rifle, a harpoon gun and a crossbow.

Police also found several additional pounds of marijuana, bags of opium plants, various types of ammunition and about $15,000 in cash.

Keith Pierson, 18, Nancy Ruppert, 50, and Alan Pierson, 62, of Pine Heights Trail are facing numerous charges including production of a controlled substance, possession for the purpose of trafficking and possession of the proceeds of crime.

All three were held for a bail hearing.

Suspicious gift card purchase in Pickering leads police to suspects

DURHAM -- A joint investigation between Durham Regional Police and the OPP has resulted in charges of identity theft and fraud.

Three Brampton residents are facing charges in connection with an incident that happened in Pickering earlier this summer.

Police say two women went to a Sears store in July and bought large amounts of gift cards using credit cards. Store employees were suspicious and called police, who discovered the real credit card holders live in British Columbia and have never been to Ontario.

Further investigation revealed the two suspects had multiple Ontario driver's licences under fake names and were connected to a Brampton home that had been purchased under a fake name.

Gbemisloa Akinrinade, 32, Victoria Fafowora, 34, and Olushola Kehinde, 39 are facing charges.

Honouring the legacy of Terry and Betty Fox in Durham

Preparations are underway in communities across Durham Region this month in anticipation of the annual Terry Fox Run in September.

And this year's events should hold special meaning and inspiration for all of us: Betty Fox, Terry's mother, his most energetic champion and fiercest protector who became the voice and face of the annual international fundraising event, died in June after a brief illness.

Local events organized in communities across Durham are still a month away, but at least one organizing committee, in Whitby, is raising awareness early, recruiting volunteers and actively working to ensure this year's event is a smashing success.

Other communities in Durham are encouraged to work diligently once again, with renewed focus and energy, to honour the legacy not only of Terry Fox, but his mother, a tireless advocate whose journey never faltered as she presided over the international growth of the Terry Fox Run for nearly 30 years.

Every penny raised in the community counts and helps others. Considering that the Terry Fox Run has raised nearly a half-billion dollars in runs across the globe, it's vitally important that communities here at home do their part to raise awareness and research funds.

As community run organizing committees are busy preparing for their events, schools across Durham Region are also encouraged to continue or, if necessary, resurrect a fundraising run this year to honour the legacy the late Mrs. Fox built in memory of her son, and reinforce the support that exists far and wide across Canada.

Terry Fox is a unique Canadian hero who embodied all of the characteristics Canadians hope are reflected in themselves. He confronted his cancer diagnosis with bravery and action and in the process, inspired first a nation and then others around the globe through his courage and commitment.

His untimely death in the midst of his Marathon of Hope spurred us to take action, to emulate his selflessness, to contribute to something meaningful.

His mother personified those characteristics long after his death, right up until she too succumbed to her illness.

Let us all do our part this year and every year to keep the tradition alive, to honour the memory of Terry and Betty Fox, and continue the decades-long quest to find a cure for cancer. It's been a long run for the Fox family. The Marathon of Hope continues.

GOLF BALLS

The price of such picturesque landscapes?

To the editor:

Re: Flying golf balls.

The key point made in the article stated that the real estate agent noted that balls "occasionally" enter the property. That is a subjective statement.

You accepted this before purchasing your house and it rings true today. Did you ever ask for the real numbers that would indicate ball intrusion frequencies? It's safe to say that from December through March, that rate is zero. While par on the average 18-hole golf course is 72, less than 20 per cent of all recreational golfers regularly break 100.

Those 28+ extra strokes per round are gained by errant shots. Every golfer on every shot wants to hit either the fairway or green, yet even the best players in the world hit spectators, find trees and splash down.

It's a reality.

You deliberately paid a premium to live alongside some of the most picturesque properties known to man.

If, after making the commitment to live there, circumstances aren't to your liking, it is your concern; not that of society.

To all families who live by a golf course; I sympathize with your fears but you have eagerly positioned yourselves in harm's way.

Jim Leckey
Ajax

To the editor:

Re: Flying golf balls.

I am tired of hearing complaints from homeowners on properties that abut golf courses, parks, schoolyards, ball diamonds, soccer fields, etc.

Homeowners seem surprised that they have golf balls bouncing off their house, noise on a Saturday morning, parking problems, lights in the evening in their windows. Just what did they expect?

It's not like the golf course, ball diamond, or soccer pitch was built behind existing homes.

The field of play is usually there first and the homes were built around them or were included in the original plans of the subdivision.

Residents know these venues are there and handpicked the property, paid extra for it in some cases. Don't blame the venue for the issues you are having; you chose to live next to it.

Here's a suggestion: move. Go to the local store and stock up on empty boxes and start packing your stuff and move somewhere safer.

That way you, your kids and grandkids won't have to wear bicycle helmets, deal with the noise or lights or any other issues that arise from living next to a sports venue.

Maybe I will move next to the airport and then complain about the noise and have them stop the planes.

By the way, can I have my Pro V1 balls back?

ROAD SAFETY

Take extra care on two wheels

To the editor:

Re: 'Motorcycles and vehicles make for sad news in Durham', editorial opinion, durhamregion.com, Aug. 10, 2011.

In a nutshell, motorcycles are dangerous. They are even more dangerous when driven carelessly.

I'm sure anyone who has driven in a car has seen the way some motorcycles weave in and out of traffic, or the way they speed on open roads.

I refuse to drive motorcycles, simply because I have gotten into accidents in the cars I've owned, and if I had gotten in the same accident on a bike I may not be here.

I have even sky-dived, since there are few accidents sky-diving, but there have been eight accidents with bikes in a little over a month in Durham.

Having sky-dived, I can understand the attraction to riding motorcycles.

If you do ride a motorcycle, be vigilant, don't speed, don't tailgate and take care.

PICKERING -- Family and friends of Allesio Caccavella, 11, held a candlelight celebration in front of the Caccavella home Aug. 11. Allesio has been diagnosed with

Singing songs of hope for sick child

Family and friends gather in Pickering in support of Allesio Caccavella

MOYA DILLON
mdillon@durhamregion.com

PICKERING -- Residents of Pickering's Southcott Road subdivision may have been surprised to hear Taio Cruz's club hit Dynamite being sung by a chorus of voices both young and old outside their homes.

More than 150 people gathered around the home of 11-year-old Allesio Caccavella on Aug. 11 to support him in his battle against brain stem cancer with a group sing-along of his favourite songs. The event, which coincided with Allesio's birthday, kicked off at 8:11 p.m. and lasted 11 minutes -- one minute to mark each year of Allesio's life.

"I think my children don't understand the magnitude of people surrounding them who are supporting them and praying for them," said Anna Caccavella, Allesio's mother, who originally floated the idea of a vigil or celebratory event to a group of her neighbours a few months ago.

"This event has gone way beyond what I imagined. It's very humbling to know people will come together for this cause. For Allesio it shows him we are here, we're fighting with you and we will be here every step of the way. I want him to see that he's so loved."

Allesio's battle against cancer began at the age of 14 months, when he was diagnosed with ependimoma, a cancerous brain tumour six centimetres in diameter. After surgery, chemo and radiation, Allesio beat the odds and survived the ordeal, going on to enjoy eight cancer-free years. But at the age of 10, Ms. Caccavella got a bad feeling after Allesio woke up vomiting on two separate days. After several doctor visits and numerous tests, the family received the bad news that the cancer was back.

"It's so hard not to be able to understand your child; as a parent you're supposed to know what he needs and give him that," Ms. Caccavella said of Allesio, who has lost the use of his left leg, much of his speech and is now losing the ability to swallow.

"It could be something as simple as a request for water and you can't understand it, or you can't give him that because he might choke."

Andrea Caccavella, Allesio's dad, said that he has noticed Allesio becoming more withdrawn in recent weeks, and hoped the show of support would remind him how important he is to so many.

"Allesio is becoming depressed because he wants to be normal, he wants to be able to run around and play like his brothers and sisters, like a normal kid. It's almost like he blames himself, but we keep telling him this isn't your fault. He's constantly told that he's not alone and people are always thinking about him. Tonight he's going to see that everyone he knows is there for him, everyone loves him."

Allesio, who was brought outside in a wheelchair shortly after 8 p.m., was greeted by a loud cheer from the crowd that had assembled outside his house, gathered in a semi-circle around a group of lit candles that spelled out Allesio's name above a heart on the driveway.

"It was scary at first because it makes it seem so final in that vigils are usually associated with final days," said Emanuela Lazzaro, who helped to organize the event along with fellow neighbours and friends Sharren Phillips and Helen Mintsopoulos.

"But the fact that we were going to turn it into something positive is what I liked about the idea. This is to encourage Allesio, to support him and tell him we love him."

Ms. Lazzaro's son Gianpaolo, 11, attends St. Wilfred Catholic School with Allesio and describes him as a "best friend."

"I think this is a good way to get everyone here to see what he's going through and also to show Allesio we are on his side. It was really shocking when he got sick, we would always go to each other's houses and play Nintendo D.S. and stuff, he's a really good friend."

Visibly weakened, Allesio drifted in and out of sleep as family and friends gathered at a microphone to kick things off with a prayer for the family, followed by a sing-along to Waving Flag by Canadian artist K'naan.

Afterwards, Allesio showed his approval with a weak thumbs-up. The move seemed to rally the crowd, who gave their all for a rousing rendition of the popular anthem Dynamite. The performance even elicited some toe-tapping from Allesio, who counts the song among his favourites.

"I remember seeing him during a picnic at daycare and this song came on and I've never seen anyone sing like that," Ms. Phillips said of her choice to include the song in the event's program.

"I always remember that, and I wanted to honour that tonight and remind him of that feeling. He was singing the most out of everyone and tonight is a celebration, so I wanted to sing that song."

The third and final song in the celebration was the popular standard Lean on Me by Bill Withers, which was dedicated to the family from all the neighbours and friends present.

"We love you guys and we will always be with you," Ms. Lazzaro said to the family.

"We want you to be strong and we want you to know you are always in our hearts. And like the song says, 'call us,' we are here for you."

Ms. Caccavella, visibly emotional, leaned in to her son to sing him the lyrics.

"Lean on me, when you're not strong, and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on. For, it won't be long, 'til I'm gonna need, somebody to lean on."

Pickering boy, 6, pulls best friend from deep water

Caleb Wurzer called a hero by friends and family

jfollert@durhamregion.com

PICKERING -- Caleb Wurzer is proof that you're never too young to help a friend in need.

Last week the six-year-old Pickering boy and his best friend Aiden, also six, were swimming in a backyard pool, under the watchful eyes of their parents.

Aiden -- who doesn't know how to swim -- had been wearing a life jacket most of the day, but was allowed to take it off briefly to try out some swimming techniques.

What happened next is the kind of cautionary tale about which parents warn each other.

The adults turned their backs for "about 10 seconds" as far as Caleb's dad Chuck Wurzer remembers.

In that short time Aiden managed to slip into the deep end of the pool where he started swallowing water and went under.

The adults missed what was happening, but Caleb saw and sprang into action, swimming over to his friend and pulling him to the shallow end.

"I saw him go past the white line into the deep end so I thought it was helpful to take him to the shallow end," Caleb says.

Aiden coughed up some water but was otherwise OK.

"He saved his life," Mr. Wurzer says, beaming with pride.

He says his son was a bit shaken by the experience, because he thought his buddy was trying to pull him under the water, when in fact Aiden was clinging to him in panic.

“I'm so proud of my son. Chuck Wurzer”

A few days later, Caleb -- who will be starting Grade 1 at Sir John A. Macdonald Public School this fall -- is enjoying the attention from friends and family as the story of his heroics makes the rounds.

"I'm so proud of my son," Mr. Wurzer says. "I'm amazed, I never thought he would have the foresight to even think something like that, let alone do it."

PICKERING -- Six-year-old Caleb Wurzer, right, recently rushed to the aid of his best friend, Aiden Jenno, who can't swim and went into the deep end of a backyard pool. Caleb grabbed him and pulled him into the shallow end.

Be Prepared for a Power Outage

Pickering Fire Services reminds you the importance of being prepared in the event of a power outage. It has been more than eight years since the 2003 power outage that caused millions of people to be without electricity in their homes. To reduce fire risk, use flashlights or battery-operated lanterns instead of candles during power outages and ensure they are readily available. Ensure electric stove elements and small appliances are off or unplugged to prevent fires from starting when the electricity is restored. Electrically-connected smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms will not work when the power is out unless they have battery back-ups. Make sure you have spare battery operated smoke alarms to install outside sleeping areas in the event of a power outage.

Contact the Pickering Fire Services at 905.839.9968 or email fire@cityofpickering.com for more information.

Celebrate India's heritage in Pickering

Indo-Canadian Cultural Association of Durham hosts cultural celebration

MOYA DILLON
mdillon@durhamregion.com

PICKERING -- Residents can get a taste of India in Pickering at the Indo-Canadian Cultural Association of Durham's Festival of India's Heritage.

This is the sixth annual festival to celebrate Indian culture and Indo-Canadian residents' ties to the country while simultaneously marking India's independence day.

"We'd like to encourage everyone to show their pride and be a part of this very important event," said Shashi Bhatia, chairwoman of the association.

"We want to celebrate together for better understanding and bring the community together in a spirit of brotherhood."

The event will kick off at noon on Saturday, Aug. 20 with a flag raising in Esplanade Park behind City Hall. Following the ceremony, participants will march to the Pickering Recreation Complex for a performance featuring Bollywood dancing, sitar performances and music from Ramzat Indian Music Group. The event will also feature vendors selling traditional food plus clothes, jewelry and crafts.

"We wanted to represent the Indian diaspora of Durham," Ms. Bhatia said of the event.

"We all share a love for our roots and a deep respect for our adopted country. With this celebration we recognize the important connection between our two countries. It celebrates our differences, but we celebrate them together, and I think that shows the whole community can come together as one."

The popular festival has drawn so much attention from Indo-Canadian residents that a film crew from Mumbai will be attending to record the festivities for an upcoming documentary on the integration of immigrants into Canadian society.

"We're very proud of the fact we're getting these overseas visitors," Ms. Bhatia said. "I think people will see that our cultural program is really world-class."

The free event will run from noon to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 20 at the Pickering Recreation Complex.

WE HAVE MOVED! 530 Westney Rd. Unit 12.
With over 8,000 sq ft to inspire!

Dance Inc. Started as a dream and has grown into Durham's Top Dance Studio! We've earned this name not for winning the most medals or having the most dancers. We have earned this title from putting smiles on all of our dancers faces! Beginning at our recreational level, from twinkle toes to adult, Dance Inc. has created a multi-faceted program to inspire and instill a passion for dance that is lasting! "To Dance Is To Live Out Loud!" and that is exactly what we do here at Dance Inc. Dance Inc. directors and faculty work hand in hand to make sure that your experience with Dance Inc. is a positive one. We are firmly committed to Inspire one child at a time!

meet the demands of their growing family of dancers!

The culmination of their hard work and ever increasing popularity is DANCE INC's new studio: 530 Westney Rd South, Unit 12, conveniently located just south of the 401 and Bayly Rd in Ajax. The new home boasts over 8,000 sq. Ft, four spacious sprung floor studios, a homework and lunch room for busy dancers and Dance-Cam views of all studios from the spacious lobby. The innovation doesn't stop there, as Bre and Jeff bring additional programs to their studio which the couple hope will assist them to share their love of dance with an even wider audience. In addition to their resoundingly successful recreational dance programs and an already at full capacity competitive program, DANCE INC. will offer even more this year! On the top of the list; "B.A.D. Boys of DANCE INC." (BOYS ATHLETIC DANCE PROGRAM) necessitated by their expanding male dance following of more than 30 young male dancers, "TUTU CUTE" toddler ballet program, "MINI MOVERS" an introduction to jazz and tap for 5 & 6 yr olds and "FUNKY MONKEYS" a toddlers intro to hip hop. Adult programs are also scheduled to include jazz, Zumba and hip hop, along side "MINI ME" & "BABY BOUNCE" 2 programs for moms/dads and their tots under 2yrs. DANCE INC. will also continue to provide their students with access to the best dance professionals of the world through ongoing in-house workshops. DANCE INC's guest faculty includes Sonya Tayeh, Missy Ridgeway, Kim McSwain, Allison Holker and Mark Kenamora to name a few, who provide ongoing workshops and choreography to the studio ensuring DANCE INC. is on the cutting edge of dance, creativity and innovation.

If you ask Bre and Jeff to look at DANCE INC's first 5 years and share some of their proudest moments, both agree that watching their studio evolve and produce ever increasing numbers of happy, confident, and talented dancers; their positive word of mouth in the community; and countless referrals from happy customers top their list. Also seeing grads succeed in their professional dance lives and return to the studio to just feel like home, make this duo certain that they are doing it right!

As they look to the future, DANCE INC's goal remains to inspire one child at a time while providing not just dance lessons but also life lessons. If DANCE INC. can help children to gain confidence, poise, and athleticism through dance, then their ultimate goal will be realized. From the look of this expanding facility and the growing league of faithful followers and talented dancers...there's no place like home at the new DANCE INC.

For full descriptions of all programs visit www.dance@danceinc.ca, contact them via email at dance@danceinc.ca, call them at 905-683-1269; visit the booth to see what all the buzz is about and see why YOU TOO should call DANCE INC home! Join them for their OPEN HOUSE to take a whole night of free classes! Tuesday Aug 30th and Wednesday Aug 31st 5:00-9:00pm.

Durham Taekwondo promotes unshakeable confidence, respect and perseverance in your child

As the school season starts back up, some parents will be looking for daycare or activities their child can participate in. Most children like to take part in sporting activities, such as hockey or baseball. Although, it is great to have your child gain some physical activity in their life, wouldn't it be even more productive to also get a mental workout too? A great way for your child to become more mentally and physically active would be to enrol them in Taekwondo classes.

Taekwondo teaches the students many different mental attributes; these attributes include introspective reflection, self-discipline, self-control, and a stress free mind. Some of the physical traits your child will develop are speed, balance, agility and strength.

The facility itself offers an aesthetically pleasing and safe environment. Parents are encouraged to watch classes in the spacious glass viewing area without interrupting students. Durham Taekwondo/Karate Martial Arts Inc. guarantees a safe, fun and exciting environment while their students develop the self confidence they need to succeed. Many parents say after their child has been taking classes with Durham Taekwondo that the child has increased their self confidence, motivation and desire to excel.

Durham Taekwondo is a member of the Ontario Taekwondo Association. Their classes differ from other Taekwondo classes as they are taught by renowned instructors who are internationally recognized for their contributions to the sport of Taekwondo. Instructor Sofia Hovnanian is a Third Degree Black Belt and has received the highest recognition from the World Taekwondo Federation for promoting education in the sport. All programming is overseen by 8th Dan Black Belt, Grand Master Felix Ayensu.

There is a transported after school program offered for children aged 4 -12 years old at Durham Taekwondo. Your child is picked up at their school and taken to Durham Taekwondo for one low price, making it easy to eliminate babysitting costs. The program has been created to enhance the overall development of your child, and to provide a productive alternative to babysitting at a lesser cost. This is accomplished through the combination of certified teachers and martial artists. The after school program provides assistance with schoolwork and is structured so that the students develop the habit of completing homework daily as well as participating in regular exercise through their martial arts curriculum. Students receive additional training using Dr. Webster Doyle's Bully Proof System on how to handle the schoolyard bully. The After School Transported Martial Arts Program is very flexible when it comes to the convenience of picking up your child. You can pick them up after work any time between 5:15 and 6:15 pm.

Regular classes are offered for anyone over the age of 4. The curriculum is designed to cater specifically to age groups: Little Dragons, four to six years old, Kids Club, 7-12 years old, Teens & Adults, and Competitive teams. For people interested in taking any class or program, Durham Taekwondo encourages them to first take a free introductory class before signing up.

Durham Taekwondo is a fantastic way to strengthen your child's body, mind and spirit by helping them to create healthy habits that they will carry on in life. Conveniently located to serve both Ajax and Pickering at 1550 Bayly St., Unit 32, in Pickering, Durham Taekwondo/ Karate Martial Arts inc. will give your child the drive they need to become successful in life. For more information you can go to their website at www.durhantaekwondo.ca or call them directly at (905) 492-3698.

I've been dancing at Taylor for 7 years and I've learned so much. Not only about dance and techniques, but a lot about myself. They really helped me to understand my strengths and weaknesses and how I can improve. This is not just a dance lesson but a lesson for life. Taylor Dance Centre is one of my homes. When I'm there I feel like I can express so much and just let go of all my burdens. I've had so many great times and fun experiences... from Dis-ney, New York to Paris this August. They have allowed me to have so many great opportunities. I LOVE TDC!! When-ever I'm there I can't help but SMILE :)

Experience the Joy of Dance at The Dance Experience!

Almost from birth, human beings show joy and happiness with movement. Picture a baby waving their arms in the air and giggling, or a toddler wiggling and bouncing to music. We dance when we are happy and we are happy when we are dancing. As soon as dance becomes about "winning" – everyone loses. Being a dancer on a competitive team can be a wonderful and rewarding experience. Competitive dancers are confident, organized, energetic people, but as with most things – the process is the important part. Friendships made, lessons learned, bonds created between teacher and student, having a role model, being a role model, these are the true winning moments— this is the definition of success!

The TDE competitive team had a fabulous 2011 season, winning many overall high scores, scholarships, and choreography awards, but the thing that stands out most was when their senior dancers actually cried watching the young novice group perform at their first competition ever. The beauty of that moment outshines any trophy. The "big girls" look back on their years of dance with incredible fondness. The Dance Experience has helped to shape them into the wonderful people they are today and they cherish their early memories of Dance.

Many students begin as young as three or four years old, with our Creative Dance classes. This is a 45-minute class taught by studio owner Terri Robitaille, who has specialized in pre-school dance for almost 25 years. Dance Beginners, also taught by "Teacher Terri" is a fast moving hour-long combination class for five year olds. By the age of six, dancers may take classes in Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Hip Hop, Musical Theatre, and Acro. Some students choose the competitive stream – which involves more hours and dedication, others stay at a recreational level. No matter the stream, ALL of our teachers are experienced and fully qualified experts in their fields – and they all love teaching dance to children! FUN is an important ingredient in all of our classes.

Their recital in June features every dancer at the studio shining on stage. Their moves, music and costuming are always age-appropriate and reasonably priced. Families benefit from multi-class discounts, and the studio itself features top-quality flooring and equipment.

Please visit www.danceexperience.ca for more information about classes, prices, scheduling, and registration. You can also call Terri at 905-686-8335 with any questions or drop by the studio for a tour. They look forward to providing you with a Happy Dance Experience... you will jump for JOY!

you can have the opportunity to work with top choreographers and learn cutting-edge choreography.

Classes starting in September are suitable for the recreational dancer or the serious competitive dancer, age three through to adult, beginner to advanced. There is no registration fee to sign up and you pay only for your first eight weeks of classes. The season runs through to June and ends with two, completely different, spectacular recitals. Both recitals are conducted with the utmost of organization by the faculty so the parents can sit, watch and enjoy the most wonderful dance recital to be seen. You will be thrilled watching your child perform the work that they have worked so hard to learn. DLDA has not lost sight of today's economy or the added expense of the HST by keeping recital costumes to a reasonable price and the price of classes have, for the fifth year, not increased.

The competitive team boasts of wonderfully successful competitive seasons year after year. The past season was no exception with our dancers returning home with many overall awards of excellence and the highest mark of the competition being won by Megan Wood and the senior troupe, the choreographers award was won by the DLDA teachers 6 times. The competitive team proudly supported the community by performing for Art Fest and two senior citizen homes during the year. Many of our competitive dancers have gone onto very successful careers in dance, like Jenna-Lyn Higgins who was chosen to dance on the popular TV series "So You Think You Can Dance" as well as Sara Wood and Christina Matos who are enjoying their summer dancing at "Canada's Wonderland". The studio is always looking for talented, ambitious dancers to join the team and be part of the new exciting year — which is about to start. This year DLDA is expanding their Pre-Competitive Team. Perfect for those dancers who would like to compete but with slightly less of a commitment than what is needed for the mainstream competitive team.

DLDA offers exams in Ballet, Jazz, Tap and Acro. Serious students can graduate from the studio with a teacher's qualification in all four branches – a prerequisite for teaching at city dance programs, at other dance studios or to open studios of their own (which many DLDA alumni have done). It is also a qualification highly recognized on University entrance applications.

You can visit the web site at www.deniselesterdance.com to read about the alumni who are performing anywhere from Broadway to Stratford, on "So You Think You Can Dance" and on cruise ships, teaching for the world famous Rockettes. Our own Suzie Cunliffe-Brown choreographs for movies and Wonderland. Don't miss her dance show at Wonderland this summer and "Halloween Haunt" in the fall.

Whether dancing for you is just once a week for fun or something that you would like to take seriously, you and your child can have the opportunity to be taught by this wonderfully successful faculty of teachers who accomplish so much with their students.

Call Denise at 905-839-3041, come to the booth at Pickering Town Center August 25th to 27st. or visit the Bayley Street studio August 30th, Sept 1st and 7th 5:00 - 7:30. She would love to help you find the perfect class for your child or for yourself.

A Heartwarming Moment at Jacqueline's

Every Wednesday evening throughout the summer Jacqueline's School of Dance (JSOD) is open for registration and drop-in dance classes. Two young girls aged 8 and 10 came in to try the Junior Acro class. The girls were nervous to walk into the studio never-mind participate. As excited and anxious as they were to finally take a dance class, it was difficult for them to leave their mom's side. Jacqueline introduced the girls and asked the class: "Do the girls need to worry?" There was resounding, "No". Then, she asked, "Will you make them feel welcome?" And of course an even louder "Yes" was bellowed and one little voice added: "Because we are a family." As Jacqueline knelt on the floor with the new girls she couldn't help but feel proud of the JSOD family. I was secretly confident my two new friends would run out to mom after class and express delight at their new-found passion and family.

The school accomplishes many goals each year from top choreography, overall trophies and scholarships, title-winning soloists, 100 per cent passing rate in examinations, Readers' Choice Awards and is proud to produce four beautiful and completely different Spring Showcases. "Our mantra and most important accomplishment is reaching each student and meeting their individual needs," says founder Jacqueline Wills.

Dance, like most activities promotes teamwork, builds self esteem, encourages a strong work ethic and keeps the mind and body fit. "We teach these life skills along with pliés, jetés and pirouettes." Dance also gives the participant the opportunity to express without words. "How each dancer gets to a place where they just "let go" is individual. Some walk through our doors with this ability, some find it easy to pick up technique and others work at it. Just as in math class students learn differently. A good teacher recognizes this and plans her lessons around those needs." In some countries, children at an early age are selected to train in activities like ballet, figure skating, hockey, piano, gymnastics based upon their natural physical make up. This allows the coach to push harder as the bodies are basically built for that particular sport or activity. In Canada, these activities are chosen by the child. "We accept participants without prejudice, and today's dancer comes in different sizes and shapes. Our students represent every body shape and size, however, the one thing they all have in common is the passion for the art and the desire to learn. For the instructor this means individualizing the program for each child. This not only prevents injuries, it also promotes the highest development for the individual."

JSOD is an accredited studio with instructors qualified under the BATD, York University, Ryerson University and the Randolph Academy of the Performing Arts. Additionally, Jacqueline has trained with and is one of the first certified in the Paula Morgan Technique, www.paulamorgandance.com. "Our goal with PMT and at JSOD is to build a strong dancer safely and providing them with an environment to feel they can "let go" and live in the moment.

"One of our six year olds told mom on the way home in June, "Dancing keeps me alive...it makes me feel happy!" "At the end of our Acro class my two little friends did run out to mom and say, "I loved it". I do want to join." One fun class, a little encouragement and a hug at the end and we have two new members in our JSOD family. More are welcome."

Please visit our website www.jacquelines-schoolofdance.com or the studio Tuesday and Wednesday evenings 5 p.m. - 8 p.m. during the summer. We would love to meet you and your dancer! 905-420-7399.

The place you start, the place you stay...

Durham Dance Centre celebrates 20 Years

As a young child Tammy Roberts dreamed of owning and operating her own dance studio. With years of dancing herself, training with the best in the industry and finally graduating from the Fine Arts program at Ryerson University, that dream became a reality some 20 years ago.

When she purchased Durham Dance Centre, it was a tiny studio with a small student base. She says: "I decided then that my challenge was to grow the business year by year by offering an environment where children would come to learn and grow with me in the art of dance. I am very proud to say that Durham Dance Centre has enjoyed steady growth over the years and our return rate has been a rewarding experience for me and my teaching staff.

Students at Durham Dance Centre achieve outstanding results in R.A.D. ballet exams, are accepted at the National Ballet of Canada, "Were it all begins" accepted at the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, and at the American Ballet Theatre Summer Intensive Training Program. Durham Dance Centre students have overall titles in Canada and the United States. Roberts says: "I have been very fortunate to win choreography awards with Durham Dance Centre students performing at prestigious competitions throughout North America. This past spring I was very proud of my students who auditioned for the Canadian Tap Team that will travel to Germany this November to compete in the World Championships." Students from Durham Dance Centre have danced professionally all over the world on various cruise ships, at Disney in Tokyo, in music videos, the Argos, the Raptors, in Broadway shows, and also performed with musicians.

When she looks back over the number of years she has owned Durham Dance Centre she is extremely proud of our accomplishments. "One thing that I am particularly proud of and stands out in my mind was the opportunity to teach a physically challenged young lady who never thought she would be able to dance."

Students have been given an opportunity to learn and grow from the best in the industry by participating in annual workshops held on site at Durham Dance Centre. For instance, this year's summer intensive workshop is being taught by Twitch from "So You Think You Can Dance". The dancers are having an amazing time at the workshop.

At Durham Dance Centre all competitive and recreational classes are taught in large spacious studios with viewing windows. Its teaching staff is highly qualified and classes are offered in Kinderdance, Ballet, Pointe, Jazz, Hip Hop, Lyrical, Acro, Tap and Musical Theatre. They offer a part-time competitive program that offers dancers the opportunity to compete without having to commit to the long hours at the studio and is less expensive. As the studio owner, Tammy is proud to say that, "I teach the youngest dancers in the studio who can begin as young as 2 1/2 years old."

For more information she invites you to visit Durham Dance Centre at the Pickering Town Centre registration booth from August 25 to 27. Registration at the studio takes place from August 22 to 24. Also, feel free to call 905-837-2528 or visit their website at www.durhamdancecentre.com. Come join the team and be a part of their 20th year celebrations!

Durham West Girls... Play Hard... Play Fair... Have Fun!

Entering their 18th season of operation the Durham West Girls Hockey Association (DWGHA) will, once again, provide a wide range of hockey programs for the young women and girls of Pickering/Ajax. The Durham West Executive Council and the membership can look forward to another season of fun, excitement and learning, through the many programs we offer.

From Novice House League beginner, to Junior AA Competitive elite and, all points in between, there is place for all here at Durham West. With a focus on skills training for all levels, the Durham West girls are given the tools they need to succeed in the fast-paced game of female hockey. Skating development is important at all levels of the game and to that end DWGHA has implemented and made this training available to all.

The House League continues to flourish; (this is the recreational side of our Association) with the success of our entry level fee of $150.00 for first time players (applicable to Ajax/Pickering residents only). "We recognized that the start-up cost for new players was high enough for parents whose kids just want to give it a try", says President Muto, "so we felt it was our responsibility to keep things affordable for these new players to the game." With the player numbers constantly on the rise, it seems many girls and parents agree, once they have had a fun-filled season, it seems there is no turning back ... they become hockey players!

If you feel the need ... "the need for speed", then the fast paced world of, "LIGHTNING HOCKEY" could be calling you! Offering competitive levels from Novice Teddy Bear to Junior AA, the Durham West Lightning are regarded to be a force in the evolution of female hockey players. Jennifer Wakefield, a "Lightning" program graduate, has risen through the ranks of Canada's highly successful women's hockey team and onto the world stage. The "Lightning" girls are the class of the Lower Lakes Female Hockey Association; respected for their reputation for a gritty yet, clean style of play. In DWGHA, we also stress skills training for all our players. Goaltending development has been a key to our success. Over the years, we have used the "Saves" program and, last season Puck Hogs, featuring Scott "Hotty Scotty" Della Vedova, Matt Bourgeois and, former DWGHA Elite net minder, Jessica Rankin.

The future is looking bright here at Durham West, so why not come out and have some fun and kick some ice!

See you at the rinks!

PROTÉGÉ: (definition) One under the care and protection of another. One who is protected or trained or whose career is furthered by a person of experience, prominence, or influence.

Congratulations to all the dancers, parents and teachers for being a part of Protégé Dance Company's inaugural year! What an incredible year it has been! "We have been privileged to create new friendships while making a mark in the community and dance industry. Celebrating the wonderful efforts and achievements of both our recreational and competitive students, has been an honour. We thank all the parents for entrusting us with your children and all the students for working so hard. Our success is your success- thank you," says Christine Tavares, artistic director.

As educators, Protégé Dance Company does its utmost to challenge, inspire and help each child reach their personal best. "Whether we are shaping your child's technique, style, or individual artistry, more importantly, we believe in guiding children into confident young adults, who will conduct themselves with integrity outside the studio walls, and for years to come."

Protégé Dance Company is proud to provide high quality dance training to all students. "Whether your child is enrolled in the recreational program or competitive, he/she is guaranteed to have a certified and qualified adult instructor, who not only knows the material at hand, but also understands how to break it down to teach it patiently and thoroughly."

Protégé Dance Company emphasizes proper education; where sound technical training prepares students for both career and post-secondary opportunities.

In its first year, they were thrilled to make their mark! "Our senior dancers were asked to perform at the Canadian Cystic Fibrosis Gala in Markham, and the Children's Foundation Gala in Toronto. Our young Aeyla Webster, was cast in the CBC TV series "What's Your News". Meanwhile, two of our graduates have both been accepted into George Brown College's Dance Performance program this coming Fall, continuing their education in dance. Congratulations dancers!"

In addition, their competitive team attended four prestigious competitions in Ontario and came away with many, many overalls and adjudicator choice awards. Some of the highlights include: Winning Miss Teen Title at Candance, Three Choreographer's Award from Terpsichore and Bedazzled, receiving the Highest Marks in Jazz, Acro and Hip Hop at Dancefest, along with many more solo, duet, trio and group overalls shared by all their dancers!

"These are just a few of the winnings but as a studio, we were acknowledged time and time again at how polite and professional our students were by both the competition directors and judges themselves, and that at the end of the day, means more than any winning. Thank you for making us so proud dancers, and exemplifying the real meaning behind competition."

Lastly, their year-end show "VIVA PROTEGE" featuring both the recreational and competitive dancers was a hit! "With age appropriate costumes and choreography, parents and friends witnessed the wonderful growth behind their child in this seamless and organized show that took place at a local high school, one afternoon, in under three hours."

"With all that being said, we look back on our first year with many joyous memories, where the kids bonded, the parents laughed, and the teachers cheered! Needless to say, we are anxious to kick off our second season."

If you would like to be a part of Protégé Dance Company, please come by for a visit! They are more than happy to meet with you and help answer any of your questions.

Classes are offered from three years to advanced, boys and girls, recreational and competitive, in Pre-Dance, Combo, Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Acro, Lyrical and Hip Hop.

"Come dance with us and become one of our protégés!"

Happy Dancing Everyone!

Creativity

Bring to the fore using Abacus

U C MAS is a mental math program which develops the ability of a child to calculate quickly and accurately without the help of gadgets like calculators. It is based on the ancient Chinese art of Abacus and Mental math using the "Zhusuan" methodology. The program is designed to stimulate both hemispheres of the brain. Thus, learners are trained to utilize their mental faculties fully.

Benefits of the UCMAS system for the child:

The UCMAS course structure:

- Development and utilization of full brain
- Improves math skills: calculation speed and accuracy
- Promotes creativity and self reliance
- Improves confidence
- Builds concentration, alertness and focus
- Enhances memory and reduces learning time

- Comprises 10 levels, each of 3 months duration
- One session per week of 2 hours duration
- 15 minutes of homework required daily as practice
- Parents get trained as well to help their child
- Parent's support and commitment is most essential for best results.

Contributing to the growth of music

Durham Music is quietly nestled, almost hidden amongst the professional doctors, lawyers and dental offices in historic Pickering Village. On first impression, it looks like an old home in the middle of the Village. When you enter the building, however, you immediately realize what Durham Music has to offer.

With over 1,000 students and 40 musical instructors, Durham Music has been producing wonderful sounds in the Ajax area since 1987 and has 18 teaching studios.

Teaching has made Durham Music the largest private music school in the area and also in Ontario. There are a wide variety of musical lessons that are offered including guitar, piano, drums, violins, all woodwind instruments and singing. Guitar instructors Ray Hickey Jr., Tim Chase, and Aaron Bales are pleased to teach with only the finest equipment such as Fender, Yamaha, Roland and Gibson.

Durham Music is the recipient of several other awards including the Board of Trade Business Award, many News Advertiser and Durham Parent Readers' Choice Awards and the International Year of the Volunteer Award.

The future of Durham Music will always be a constant growth of supplying quality and caring instruction to the Durham community. For more information, call (905) 428.6266. or visit them online at www.durhammusic.ca

MAJOR SERIES LACROSSE

MacIntosh named top rookie

Rock sniper finished among top scorers

HERB GARBUTT
newsroom@durhamregion.com

AJAX -- At the start of the season, the Ajax Rock had some high expectations for Jordan MacIntosh, the third overall pick in the Major Series Lacrosse draft.

It took him all of 30 seconds into his first game to exceed them.

"He took the first draw, drew it back, took (the ball) down the floor and set up a scoring chance on the transition," said Rock coach and general manager Paul St. John. "We just looked at each other and said, 'Are you kidding me?'"

MacIntosh would finish his first Major Series game with two goals, including the tying goal in a 10-9 win over Kitchener-Waterloo. He went on to finish the season with 60 points and a team-leading 32 goals in 17 games.

His outstanding season was recognized when he was named the league's top rookie. In winning the award, MacIntosh beat former Burlington Chiefs teammate Kiel Matisz. The first overall pick in the MSL draft, Matisz had 15 goals and 36 points in 14 games for the Brooklin Redmen.

"The rookie of the year is a special one because you only get one shot at it," the Oakville native said. "I knew when I got drafted that I was going to a new team and they were younger so I could step in and make an impact, but I couldn't really imagine putting up those kind of numbers. You look at that list (of top scorers) and it's guys I looked up to when I was a young lacrosse player -- Shawn Williams, John Grant, John Tavares."

AJAX -- Ajax Rock sniper Jordan MacIntosh, left, wound up for a shot against the Brooklin Redmen during Major Series Lacrosse action at the Ajax Community Centre this summer. MacIntosh was recognized for his outstanding season, named the league's Rookie of the Year.

And there was MacIntosh right there with them, sixth in the league in goals and 12th in points despite missing the first four games of the year while finishing school at RIT.

Although he knew he was getting a talented player, St. John didn't expect the kind of production MacIntosh delivered. But what surprised him even more was his skill on faceoffs.

"Some nights he dominated against some of the best in the business," the Rock coach said. "And he's only going to get better."

MacIntosh's well-rounded play did not go unnoticed. IL Indoor.com named him the league's best transition player noting "his speed and finishing ability make him the most dangerous transition player in MSL."

With his National Lacrosse League draft year approaching, MacIntosh certainly proved capable of holding his own with many of the same players he will face in the pro ranks. He hopes his play this summer will boost his draft status but it has already provided him with the confidence that he can compete at the highest level.

"You want to prove you can pay at the next level," the 21 year old said. "The NLL is a cut above, you're playing the best of the best every single night. Cracking the roster is not expected but this summer gives me confidence going into camp."

There was one aspect of his rookie season MacIntosh would have liked to improve upon -- helping the team earn more wins. Ajax, in just its second MSL season, finished the year in last place with a 3-20 record.

MacIntosh has had success at each of his previous stops -- a national championship with the Oakville Buzz in Jr. B, helping the Burlington Chiefs achieve a team record for wins in Jr. A and back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances at RIT.

But in MacIntosh, St. John believes the Rock have a key building block to improve the team's fortunes.

"His skill level is excellent and he's determined. You can see it in practice and warm-ups. He's always working at getting better. You can't teach that," he said. "We don't want him to get too far ahead but he could be one of the best in the game. His future is bright and he's got the passion to want it."

Herb Garbutt is a sports reporter with the Burlington Post

the 8 p.m. start at Village Arena have been bought up.

"That's crazy, right?" asks Melissa Vince, an Oshawa resident who skates under the name Beat Boxx McRocks. "We're so excited."

The game, dubbed the Gibson's Cup, is the first-ever hosted by the local organization, and will feature the Atom Smashers against the Motor City Madames.

"People want to see us play derby," adds Vince of the popularity of the sold-out event. "People want to watch. It's a great sport. It's entertaining. It's the best thing I've ever done."

The organization is about 50 members strong currently, with another training camp planned for September, where it's hoped another 25 to 50 members will be added, says Vince.

Before even getting to Friday's game, members have completed an 8-10 week training camp to learn the basic skills, and then must pass a standard test from the Women's Flat Track Derby Association. Once that is completed, players are put on a farm team, and from this, teams are able to draft players to their roster once their skills and endurance meet the standards.

In addition to the league in Durham Region, there are three leagues in Toronto, two in each of Kingston, Ottawa and Montreal, as well as others in Innisfil and Peterborough. The Durham league puts together an all-star team that travels to the various other centres for games.

Next year, the league is planning a full season from May to October, with interleague games as well as all-star showcases, welcoming teams in from other leagues.

For this year, the idea was to start small and manageable.

"We just want to make sure all goes well and that we have a good understanding before we have too many games," adds Vince.

Yakura wins pair of golds at Junior PanAms

KINGSTON, JAMAICA -- Nyl Yakura was part of a Canadian team that ended a 10-year drought at the Junior PanAm Badminton championships held in Jamaica.

The first three days were designated for the Team event which included nine countries: Brazil, Guatemala, Peru, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, U.S.A., Trinidad and Tobago, Barbados and Canada. The other four days were for individual events, with players representing 16 countries.

For the past decade, Canada was not able to capture the gold in the team event, but not this year. Team Canada consisted of Nyl Yakura (Pickering), Andrew Lau (Markham), Andrew Wilkinson, Bethany So, Jody Chan all from Toronto, Clinton Wong (BC), Adriana Giuffre and Kacey Tung (AB), and coach Ram Nayyar.

The road to the finals included Team Canada defeating Brazil (3-2) and Puerto Rico (5-0) in their pool. Canada then defeated Jamaica (3-0) and Guatemala (3-0) to reach the finals. Meanwhile, Brazil defeated Peru (3-1) and USA (3-2) to reach the finals, but Canada prevailed to capture the gold medal.

In individual play, Yakura was the top seed in all events, including singles, doubles and mixed doubles, due to last year's results.

In singles, it was an easy run to the quarterfinals, but when he faced Heynard Humblers of Guatemala, the Pickering resident faced some challenges. Yakura lost the match 21-23, 21-19 and 19-21.

In doubles, partnered with Clinton Wong, (who he had never played with before), the pair seemed to work together on court quite well and managed to reach the finals against a well established pair, Andrew Lau/Andrew Wilkinson of Toronto, who won silver at the Jr. National Championships. Yakura and Wong lost their first game 16-21, but continued with their consistent play, managed to win the second game 21-17 and final game 21-8 to capture the gold.

In mixed doubles, the whole podium was owned by the Canadian athletes. Canada entered four pairs in the draw, and three out of four took the podium.

Yakura partnered with Adrianna Giuffre, defeating Andrew Lau/Bethany So (2011 Ontario Provincial U19 Champions) in the semifinals 21-11 and 21-10. In the finals Yakura and Giuffre faced another established pair from Toronto in Andrew Wilkinson/Jody Chan. With extra hard work, Yakura/Giuffre took the rubber match 21-18, 17-21 and 21-16, giving Yakura his second gold.

Yakura is now moving back home and training in Markham, preparing for the 2011 Commonwealth Youth Games in Isle of Man, UK, Sept. 5-12, then off to the Belgian Open Sept. 15-17. The 2011 World Junior Championships in Taiwan are also on the docket.

You can follow Yakura on his website www.nylyakura.com.

Warriors win Game 7 and book trip to Minto Cup

SHAWN CAYLEY
scayley@durhamregion.com

WHITBY -- The Whitby Warriors saved their best for last and because of that are heading to the Minto Cup.

The Warriors came out on the right side of a 7-6 decision in Game 7 of the Ontario Junior A Lacrosse Association final against the three-time defending champion Orangeville Northmen at the Tony Rose Memorial Arena Sunday night.

"We only gave up 34 shots on goal I think and that was our best defensive performance," said coach Derek Keenan a day later. "I also thought we had a lot of good offensive chances throughout the game really and we ran the floor better than we had all series.

"Probably for the first time in the series we out loose balled them. We won the large majority of faceoffs ... it was just a great effort."

An effort that was spearheaded by Keenan's veteran players, a group that stepped up and showed they had one more chapter to write before closing the book on their respective junior careers.

It was John LaFontaine, though, who made the biggest save of the game, series and season for the Warriors.

With 17 seconds to go and in possession of the ball, Keenan yanked Higgins from the Whitby net in favour of an extra runner to even things up as Orangeville had their goalie out for a six-on-five advantage to press for a turnover that would save their season.

A shocking call to make in the minds of many with so much on the line in Game 7, it should be noted that Whitby pulled the same move in Game 3 in Orangeville and proceeded to move the ball up the floor and put down the empty netter.

Not this time. Mark Cockerton killed some time off running the ball out before slipping on the floor. A battle for the loose ball then ensued, which on most occasions would allow for the player returning to the bench for the goalie plenty of time to do so.

Problem is, whoever was given that responsibility forgot and when Orangeville came out with the ball and fired a shot on goal, LaFontaine -- who was named MVP of the playoffs -- was left to do his best Higgins impression, getting his leg in the way of the shot to preserve the victory.

Whitby will be making its first appearance at the Minto Cup since winning it all as hosts in 1999. The four-team tournament runs Aug. 20-28 in Okotoks, Alberta.

Outside Advertising Sales Representatives Wag Jag Express

Metroland Durham Region Media Group, a wholly owned subsidiary of Torstar Corporation, is looking to expand its Media Sales Division.

We are currently searching for full-time OUTSIDE ADVERTISING SALES REPRESENTATIVES to uncover new clients in our regions by providing online marketing solutions for small to medium sized businesses who wish to reach local wallet-ready consumers.

Description:

Wag Jag is a new, fast-moving start up. We are looking for Advertising Sales Representatives to sell the company's newest product - Wag Jag. This innovative program promotes local businesses to local consumers through a special "daily deal." You'll use your knowledge of what's great about your city to develop and grow the local market by securing commitments from the most desirable local households, businesses, and services including restaurants, spas, night-clubs, retailers, theaters, tourism venues, and more. This position offers salary (commensurate with experience) and generous commissions based on revenue, sales targets and company goals.

Responsibilities Include:

- Developing and cultivating leads using multiple sources including cold calling and door-to-door prospecting.
- Setting up face-to-face and phone meetings with qualified prospects.
- Assessing potential business deals, negotiating favorable terms, and acquiring prospect commitment.
- Constructing proposals/contracts within selling guidelines.
- Providing documentation on new client acquisitions to the Operations team.
- Meeting individual quarterly and annual sales goals.

What We Offer:

- Development and opportunities for advancement
- Base rate plus commission structure
- Car allowance

Join a winning team!!! Metroland has been aptly described as a giant selling machine with unprecedented success! If working with a highly-energized, competitive team and market is your ideal environment, please apply in writing or by fax to the Human Resources Department by Monday, August 22nd, 2011 or online at careers@durhamregion.com.

HOW TO WRITE AN EFFECTIVE CLASSIFIED AD

Start your ad with the item for sale, service you are offering, or job title of the person you seek to hire.

- Be descriptive. The more information you provide to the reader, the better the responses will be to your ad.
- Always include the price of an item for sale.
- Avoid abbreviations. They make your ad harder to read and less effective.
- Use larger type, white space, or decorative characters, such as stars, to bring attention to your ad.
- Run your ad for an ample length of time. Remember, as soon as you get results, you can cancel at any time during regular business hours. Call us today! We'll be glad to help you.
